GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

JAMES H. GIBSON
Grand Master 2021-2022

Greetings Brothers,

As I write this article, I'm reminded of all the wonderful brothers that I have had the privilege of sitting with in lodges, at the District Meetings, and the various Grand Jurisdictions I've had the honor to visit. Freemasonry is an absolute joy to be a part of and I thank our Creator everyday for being able to spend so much valuable time with each of you.

As many of you know, we launched the Grand Master's Ark and Anchor in November of 2021 to generate and encourage traveling. Lodges have the opportunity to accumulate points toward winning one of the three $2000.00 scholarships to award to a high school graduate of your choice. This is an awesome chance to make a difference in a student's life. Also, to help fund these scholarships, we are selling chances to win a 4-day bow hunting trip for only $10.00 per ticket. To obtain a ticket, contact any member of the Scholarship Committee at the District meetings. Even if you don't hunt, this would be a great gift to give to someone you know who does.

By the time this letter is published, the Ark will have been received by, hosted at, or given to over 80 lodges across the Commonwealth in only 6 months of its initial launch. This is phenomenal and clearly shows how much Masons love to travel. The Ark and Anchor also represents a lot more to our Masonic brethren. Masonically, they represent the pursuit of a well-grounded hope and a well-spent life. We have a propensity to look upon life as a voyage, sometimes fraught with storms, and we rely on our faith as an anchor to keep us steadfast and stable, to provide us firmness and hope. The Ark we see symbolically as the source to keep us afloat in life's deluge of uncertainty when things feel overwhelming. It also represents the assurance that our Supreme Architect will carry us safely through the turmoil and tempests of life.

The acronym ARK also stands for an Act of Random Kindness. As Masons, I want to challenge you to perform an act of random kindness in your community. I am sure there are people in your neighborhoods or communities or anywhere you may be traveling, that are suffering with something in their lives. A simple gesture of love and kindness will give them hope to push through to another day. Sometimes something as simple as a handshake, a pat on the back, paying for a stranger's groceries or a meal, or maybe mowing a neighbor's yard, can show that as Masons, we are fulfilling our oath to make the world a better place, one act of random kindness at a time. Perhaps you know a brother who hasn't been to lodge in a while because he can't drive. Or a widow who may need someone to run a few errands every now and then.

You can make a profound difference in people's lives by these simple Acts of Random Kindness! Be safe in your travels and I hope to see you soon.

Fraternally Thine,
James H. Gibson

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Do you remember why you joined the Masonic Fraternity? Was it because of a Family member or maybe a professional in the community that stood out by being a good person?

Do you remember the brother who lectured you in your degree work? This brother took time with you that he could have been spending with his family. Are you honoring your lecturer by attending your Lodge and being active in the Fraternity or did he waste his time with you?

As time goes by, we sometimes forget the kindness of others that has been shown to us. Spring, I think, is a time of renewal, to rededicate our lives to those things that mean the most to us. As we learn in some of our Scottish Rite Degree's to rekindle the light of our spirit and passion. To work for that which is pure and honest.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

Spring is finally here...sometimes.

We all know how the weather changes in Kentucky; one day snow, the next day in the 70's. Sometimes this happens in the same day. I've noticed when watching national weather forecasting, they don't like to make predictions concerning Kentucky. The same can be said for our Fraternity.

If you follow politics, then you have heard how the world is going to end because of the weather. Likewise, I've heard brothers predict that our fraternity is about to go under. Well, I'm a numbers guy, and I know why the computer models for predicting the weather are less than accurate. It's because they don't have enough information, and lack the ability to calculate at a speed in which our world and universe changes.

Just as there are unseen forces within nature, likewise there are forces within our fraternity which are unseen that will not let us end. My proof is when you go to a meeting of brothers. You can sense it in your spirit man that there is something about brothers coming together. It's an invisible force. The world can Google Masonic rituals, and have whatever opinions of us that they will, but they cannot understand that invisible force by reading the words.

If we focus on the unseen force which holds us all together, we can overcome unease over inaccurate predictions, and remain strong in the bonds of brotherhood.

May God bless you with peace and prosperity,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION

COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

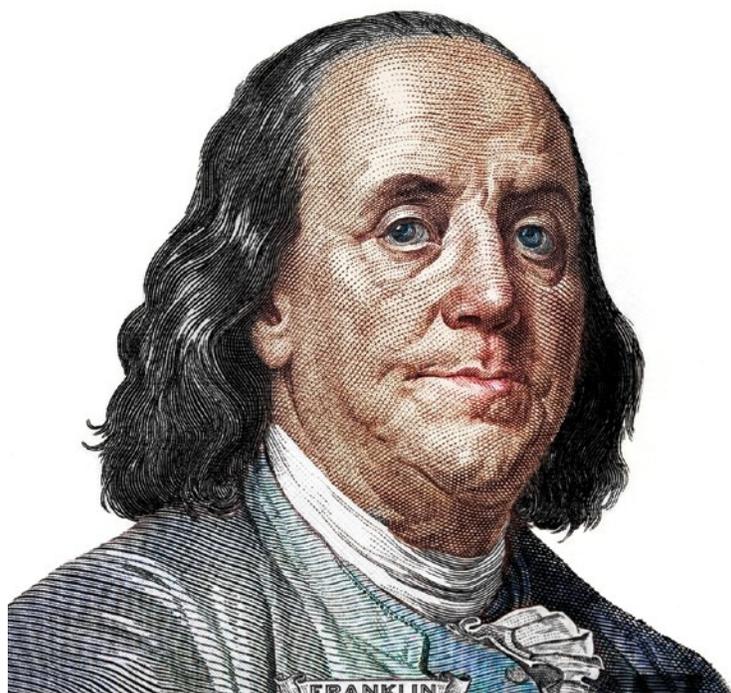

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

George Washington, the Father of our Country, is considered the most famous American Freemason, and rightly hailed. However for 20 years before the American Revolution, it was Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790) who was the world’s most famous American Freemason. Did you ever wonder how Boston born Brother Ben Franklin ever became interested in Freemasonry?

It seems that even in his early years while living in Philadelphia, Ben Franklin always had a penchant for self-improvement and he endeavored to improve the community in which he lived. In fact Franklin was just 21 years of age when he gathered a group of friends to form the “Junto” or “Leather Apron Club”. Most of the group were self-employed or held various labor occupations, but they had an interest helping the community and for mutual improvement. Franklin’s congeniality and being a printer by trade, allowed him to meet a large group of people, from whom he would select on their merit, a few to become a member of the group.

Franklin describes the formation and purpose of the Junto in his autobiography:

“I should have mentioned before, that, in the autumn of the preceding year, [1727] I had form’d most of my ingenious acquaintance into a club of mutual improvement, which we called the Junto; we met on Friday evenings. The rules that I drew up required that every member, in his turn, should produce one or more queries on any point of Morals, Politics, or Natural Philosophy, to be discuss’d by the company; and once in three months produce and read an essay of his own writing, on any subject he pleased.

Our debates were to be under the direction of a president, and to be conducted in the sincere spirit of inquiry after truth, without fondness for dispute or desire of victory; and to prevent warmth, all expressions of positiveness in opinions, or direct contradiction, were after some time made contraband, and prohibited under small pecuniary penalties.”

Any person to be qualified as a member was to stand up, lay his hand upon his chest, over his heart, and be asked the following questions, viz.

1. Have you any particular disrespect to any present members? Answer. I have not.
2. Do you sincerely declare that you love mankind in general, of what profession or religion soever? Answer. I do.
3. Do you think any person ought to be harmed in his body, name, or goods, for mere speculative opinions, or his external way of worship? Answer. No.
4. Do you love truth for truth’s sake, and will you endeavor impartially to find and receive it yourself, and communicate it to others? Answer. Yes.

Except for the ‘politics’ in the ‘purpose’, this should sound very familiar to Freemasons. Brother Ben further devised a list of 24 questions of helping the community, helping others in need, morals, self-improvement and networking to be considered at every Friday meeting. All the above indicates Benjamin Franklin was certainly predisposed to Freemasonry.

Four years later, Ben Franklin became a Freemason at the age of 24 years in 1727. Franklin re-printed “Anderson’s Constitutions” three years later. The principles contained in the 1723. Masonic constitutions would later be reflected in the Constitution of the United States of which Franklin was very instrumental. In fact, Franklin was the only person to sign the three major documents of the United States of America: The Declaration of Independence, the Treaty of Paris, and the United States Constitution.

It was also Benjamin Franklin who succeeded in persuading the French to support the American independence movement.. Without that support, many historians agree, the War for Independence would have been lost.

Ben Franklin served Pennsylvania as Grand Master and as Provincial Grand Master. He held many Grand Lodge offices as well as in his own lodge. Benjamin Franklin was later honored by his Pennsylvania brethren for his over 50 years of distinguished service to Freemasonry and his country. Benjamin Franklin’s service to his country as a politician, scientist, inventor, philosopher and diplomat is indisputable.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Greetings Brethren from the Valley of Covington:

I hope our message finds you in good health and spirits as we move forward toward normalcy after two years of the recent pandemic.

The Valley of Covington celebrates two Spring reunions; and our southeastern Kentucky reunion in March was a great success with ten new Scottish Rite members received in Pikeville. The class was in honor of Charles Thompson, 33rd; the degree work performed was excellent, and we enjoyed a great venue provided by the Thomas C. Cecil Lodge in beautiful downtown Pikeville.

The Scottish Rite Leadership Conference was held in St. Louis and the Valley of Covington had five attendees including our 2022 Fellow, Mark Evans. Highlights of the program focused on several areas, including: Scottish Rite's support to our Blue Lodges; membership retention through mentoring; and a special amnesty/reinstatement program for 2022; whereby all past due amounts would be forgiven with a $100 payment that would bring back "lost" members with current dues paid through 2022.

For our April stated meeting, we were granted dispensation by our Illustrious SGIG, and held the meeting in Ashland hosted at the Fred M. Gross Lodge. Our objective being to bring the Valley of Covington a little closer to our southeastern Kentucky membership (especially the ten new members inducted in Pikeville). The Rose Croix Chapter directed by Barry Eastham, 33rd, performed its Maundy Thursday Service, which was appropriate for that Good Friday, April 15.

Our second Spring Reunion will be held in Covington May 20 & 21. Upcoming details may be viewed on our website: www.covingtonscottishrite.org.

We are excited to announce that the Valley of Covington Library Board directed by William J. Lorenz, 33rd, is hosting a fundraiser dinner with our keynote speaker to be the Eminent and Illustrious S. Brent Morris, 33rd. To that end we again have been granted dispensation to move our stated meeting (which will just be a formality) date to Friday, June 24. Brent Morris served as the managing editor of the Scottish Rite Journal and is the only American master of England's Quatuor Coronati Lodge (the world's premier Masonic research lodge). With a PhD in mathematics from Duke University, his career was as a cryptologist with the National Security Agency at Fort Meade. He is a prolific author with many books on Freemasonry and is considered one of the foremost experts in the field. He has been referred to as "The Most Interesting Man In Masonry." Several of his books will also be available for purchase. Save the date, and call the Valley of Covington office for your reservations. This event is open to the public and all masons, whether you are involved with Scottish Rite or not. We look forward to seeing you there!

Fraternally Thine,

RETIREMENT

Just to let everyone know, I am retiring on Wednesday, April 13, 2022. I started to work on Wednesday, April 13, 1988, with Joe McClanahan, P.G.M., Grand Secretary. William M. "Bosh" Petry was the Grand Master.

Joe Conway, P.G.M., Grand Secretary took over. I did not know anything about the Masons until after I started to work here. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky is a good organization to work for. When I first started to work here, some of the things we had, an addressograph machine to address the envelopes, an invoice device with carbon copies, and we mailed all the activity forms to St. Louis for them to put on the computer. Blanche Bulla did all the out of state mail with copies of onion skin paper.

Times have really changed, computers! We got the IBM 3196 Display Station. Man, those green screens made us feel like we were with the times. Then we upgraded after a while to the AS 400. That was about the time Jamie started and it was fun trying to teach her how to use it. Then Keith Dreier, P.G.M., came along and moved us into the 21st Century with the current data base and it was Jamie had to teach me how to use it.

Don Yankey, P.G.M., Grand Secretary is in office. It was a blessing when we moved to our new office, it makes a big difference. Everyone has their own office, everything has its place, and it is on one floor. For everyone who worked at the Grand Lodge Office, it is a pleasure to know you and thanks for the memories. Thank you very much for the retirement party, and for the rocking chair, I already tried it out, and fell asleep. Thanks again to everyone.

Thirty-four years went by very fast, you know the saying, time flies when you are having fun. Happy trails!

Mary A. Justice

LODGE DUES

Brethren it is the time of the year where the Secretary of your Lodge is stressing over collecting the Lodge dues of its members. The Secretary has sent dues notices and is waiting for a response. He and other members of the Lodge do not wish to suspend anyone. At the meeting of the Lodge in June he will have to ask the craft of the Lodge to suspend their Brother.

He will call, leave messages, text, and email as many as possible. There will be some who do not answer, in some cases because the Secretary does not have a correct address or phone number or email.

If you have changed your address, or phone number you should contact the Secretary of your Lodge or go on the Grand Lodge website grandlodgeofkentucky.org under members only and change this information. Brethren the Secretary works very hard for your Lodge please do your part.

Fraternally Thine,
Donald H. Yankey PGM
Grand Secretary
