GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

JAMES H. GIBSON
Grand Master 2021-2022

Greetings Brothers! As I write this article, there are many families and Brothers that have been devastated by the rain and floods in eastern Kentucky and are still struggling to put the pieces of their lives back together. I ask that we continue to keep them in our thoughts and prayers. Restoration will take a long time and we should continue to help where we can. Edward Everett Hale once said "I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can still do something; And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something I can do". If you wish to contribute to the Disaster Relief Fund, simply log on to the Grand Lodge webpage at grandlodgeofkentucky.org and scroll down to the Disaster Relief link. I am so humbled by the outpouring of donations and assistance that Kentucky Freemasons and Brothers abroad have been providing to the flood victims. This again is Masonry in Motion and we are Kentucky Strong!

As my year draws down to just a little over a month, I want to thank you for the gracious generosity and kindness you have expressed to Sam and me over the last several years. You have always made us feel welcome and loved as we visited across the state and enjoyed many hours of fellowship, meals and a variety of joyous occasions. I have one more article to write for October and will expound on this further at that time.

All year, I have continually encouraged the Craft of Kentucky to examine and take stock in how Freemasonry has changed them. This was not meant to cast dispersions on anyone's character, but rather to draw attention to what Freemasonry is and how blessed we are to belong to the greatest Fraternity in the world. This marks my 25th year as a Freemason, and I am so thankful for what it represents in my life and how it has changed me for the better.

I want to congratulate those who have received the first-place awards for the ritual competition last month. It was wonderful to have so many ritualists to showcase their talents! Thank you to the Ritual Competition Committee for performing an excellent job. I also want to thank everyone that attended the fourth installment of the Grand Master's Leadership Academy on August the 27th. This wrapped up the four-part series and I feel rest assured that we have nurtured and produced some promising leaders in our Fraternity. This month, we will be attending the Order of the Eastern Star and York Rite Grand Sessions and look forward to seeing many of you there.

Finally, as we continue to prepare for our Grand Lodge Session in October, I am so excited to be holding our Annual Communication in Bowling Green. I hope than many will attend and that it will be an enlightening and most enjoyable experience for everyone. Continue to be men of Character, Conduct and Commitment, and Freemasonry will continue to thrive and grow. God bless you and safe travels!

Fraternally Thine,
James H. Gibson

GRAND MASTER'S DECISION

It is my interpretation of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM, that no brother may object to the initiation/ advancement of a candidate/ brother that does not belong to the lodge of the objector. As such, if a lodge is performing courtesy work for another lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, only the members of the lodge the candidate/ brother belongs to may object to the advancement and must follow the Constitution as outlined in Article 15(B) Section 12.

LEGISLATION TO BE PRESENTED AT THE 223RD ANNUAL COMMUNICATION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

GRAND MASTER'S RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that the incoming Grand Master form an Ad-Hoc Committee of Past Masters from each area of the State to compile the best aspects of the four accepted publications and create a unified Ritual for the Grand Craft of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, along with a Lodge Operation guidebook comprised from the operational aspects of the current accepted Monitors and best practices adopted by the Lodges of Kentucky, with instructions on how to calculate and form a lodge budget, lodge etiquette, ceremonial procedures, and standard operational procedures to be presented for adoption. The use of any other ritual not approved by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M. should be considered an innovation to Kentucky Freemasonry and deemed un-masonic.

(B) This is a resolution that will go into effect immediately upon passage

TRIAL CODE & DISCIPLINE

(Currently Reads)

(B) TRIAL.

(1) The trial is not to be held in a tiled lodge. However, any Mason is permitted to attend the trial. The Grand Lodge Chairman on Trial Oversight in the area where the trial is to be held shall designate, from his Committee, a Prosecutor to prosecute the charges and a Judge to oversee the trial proceedings.

(2) The accused Mason has the right to have an attorney, who must be a Mason, represent him in any proceedings under this article.

(3) Upon the date set for the trial, the accused Mason has the right to excuse two of the trial panel. If the accused Mason fails or refuses to exercise his challenge, then the trial committee of five shall be chosen by lot. Prior to exercising his challenge, the accused Mason shall have the right to inquire of the trial panel and to challenge any Mason for cause. Cause shall consist of showing that the Mason in question is not impartial. The Grand Master shall immediately make a decision and appoint a substitute impartial trial panel member, if necessary, for any Mason excused for cause.

(4) The Trial Committee selects one of its members as chairman. The chairman has charge of the conduct of the trial. The chairman administers the oath to all witnesses who are Masons upon their honor as Masons. All witnesses who are not Masons shall be sworn by any officers qualified to administer oaths.

(5) The Trial Committee, the complainant and the accused Mason shall have the right to summon witnesses, and disobedience of a summons subjects an offending Mason to discipline under this article. Request for the issuance of a summons to a witness shall be made of the Grand Secretary, who shall issue, sign and deliver the summons at least five days prior to the trial. (2001)

(6) All Trial proceedings, including the testimony of witnesses, shall be recorded by a competent stenographer, video and/or tape recorder so that it may be preserved. (2001)

(7) Either the Trial Committee or the accused Mason may take depositions of witnesses who cannot attend the trial, provided reasonable notice of the time and place of the taking thereof is given to the other. The accused Mason and the Grand Secretary shall provide each other with copies of all known documents that are to be used at the trial at least five days prior to the trial.

(8) The Trial Committee examines the witnesses and hears the evidence adduced. It shall conduct the trial in an informal manner and is not bound by technical rules of evidence except those relating to privileged communications. The Trial Committee hears the arguments, regarding punishment in the event guilt may be found, and then proceeds with its deliberations, and ascertains the guilt or innocence of the accused Mason.

(9) The deliberations of the Trial Committee upon the guilt or innocence and fixing the punishment are secret. All deliberations must be in person and in the presence of each member of the Trial Committee. If the Trial Committee finds the accused Mason guilty, it shall fix punishment, which may be either admonition, reprimand, definite suspension, indefinite suspension, or expulsion.

However, in the event the charge is that the brother was convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, and the Grand Master determines this to be true, then, in such event, an investigation committee is not appointed. Instead, the conviction is referred directly to the trial committee for a hearing on punishment, as hereinafter provided. Until the trial committee fixes punishment, the Grand Master may issue a suspension of the brother's Masonic rights and privileges, which will remain in effect until set aside by further action of the Grand Lodge. (2001)

(10) A majority vote of the Trial Committee upon the question of guilt and upon fixing the punishment shall be required. The report of the Trial Committee must be signed by those voting with the majority. The report is then read to the accused Mason, or, within a reasonable time thereafter, is mailed, or delivered to the accused Mason, and a copy of the report, along with a transcript of the proceedings (taped) forwarded to the office of the Grand Secretary. This reading, mailing, or delivery to the accused Mason is the pronouncement/notification of judgment. The judgment dates from the time of the pronouncement of judgment and from that date is final unless the same is reversed or modified on an appeal therefrom to the Grand Lodge. Any Mason revealing the contents of the report before the pronouncement of the judgment is subject to disciplinary action.

SECTION 4- JURISDICTION WAIVED. Section 98a

Waiver of Jurisdiction may be given by any lodge possessing jurisdiction over a candidate for degrees or affiliation, in favor of any other lodge. In such cases, the lodge in whose favor the waiver shall be made may entertain the petition of such candidate as if he had resided within the jurisdiction thereof the required period of time. In all cases where the fee of the lodge granting the waiver of jurisdiction is greater than the fee of the lodge requesting the waiver the candidate shall pay to the lodge which asks the waiver a fee equivalent to the fee he would have been required to pay had he petitioned the lodge which granted the waiver. Immediately after the candidate is elected and initiated, the Secretary of the lodge receiving the waiver shall send the difference in fees to the lodge granting the waiver.

SECTION 5- WAIVER OF JURISDICTION—HOW GRANTED. Section 98b

Waiver of Jurisdiction can only be granted by a lodge having jurisdiction, and upon request made by a lodge, over its seal, to which the petition for degrees or membership has been presented. The request may be sent by first class mail, electronic mail, or hand delivered. The answer or reply will be sent by similar manner. Before granting the waiver, the application will be referred to a committee of three members of the lodge for inquiry into the character and qualifications of the petitioner mentioned in such request. Such request can only be received at a stated communication and one lunar month must intervene between its reception and ballot thereon. The vote on the waiver shall be by ballot, and if as many as three votes be cast against the waiver the request shall be refused.

Within the state, jurisdiction will be waived automatically 90 days after a request for waiver is sent to the secretary of the lodge possessing jurisdiction unless the lodge possessing jurisdiction denies the waiver and notifies the requesting lodge in writing prior to the 90th day. For just cause the lodge possessing jurisdiction may impose one extension of not more than thirty days with written notification to the requesting lodge prior the 90th day. At the end of such extension the jurisdiction will be waived automatically unless the lodge possessing jurisdiction denies the waiver and notifies the requesting lodge in writing prior to the end of the extension. Automatic waiver of jurisdiction does not apply to requests for waivers to or from other Grand Jurisdictions. (2018)

If a waiver of jurisdiction is granted and the petitioner is subsequently rejected by the requesting Lodge, the jurisdiction shall return to the Lodge for the person as designated in Article 11, Section 1 (D) and a new waiver would be needed before the petitioner could join any other Lodge. (2019)

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Again, tragedy as alarmed our outer door. The horrifying images we see of the devastation that has occurred in Eastern Kentucky. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers go out to those that have lost loved ones and those that have basically lost everything they own.

As with the destruction in Western Kentucky, the reconstruction in Eastern Kentucky will not take weeks or months, but years. These fellow Kentuckians are going to need all the assistance that can be provided.

Our Grand Lodge website has a link to our Disaster Relief Fund. Brethren please, contribute what you can to this Fund and help out as best you can. I understand that the Grand Lodge is only accepting monetary donations. Again, our faith and moral duty is being challenged to do what is right.

May Our Heavenly Father continue to Bless those in need, you and your families, our country and our fraternity.

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

THE UNIVERSITY OF FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

Do you ever wonder why the Scottish Rite claims the title of “the University of Free and Accepted Masons?” In part, it is because of the opportunity to acquire more “light” in Masonry. Not all Masons have this desire. We sometimes see this in our Entered Apprentice and Fellow Craft brothers. They may have simply been misinformed about what membership offers, or because their expectations of our fraternity were not met, they do not have the hunger for more light.

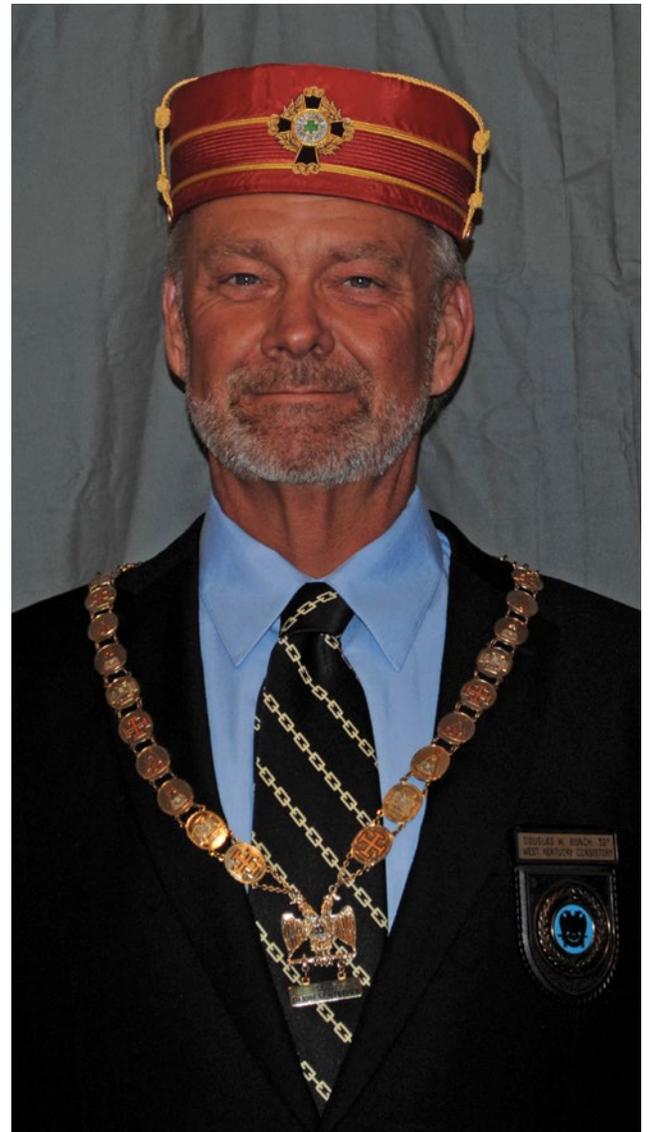

The desire to “seek more light” in Freemasonry can easily be compared to school students achieving different levels of education. Not everyone who graduates from high school will advance to college. Some students will drop out of high school altogether. However, some will go on to earn Master’s or Doctorate degrees. While a man’s level of education is not an indicator of his quality or character, there are benefits to higher education. Likewise, all master masons are equal, yet there is merit in seeking more light.

On July 9th 2022, West Kentucky Consistory held the summer reunion, honoring Illustrious Brother Douglas F. Long, 33°. Brother Doug is a Past Master and has shown his dedication throughout the York Rite and Scottish Rite. He is a 62 year member of our masonic fraternity. Brother Doug currently resides in Dawson Springs, KY and will be 89 in October. His many decades of service and leadership have earned him the recognition of having this class named in his honor.

On Saturday, September 17th, West Kentucky Consistory will have the fall Reunion honoring Illustrious Brother James F. Molt. For those of you who have the desire, this will be another opportunity to “seek more light.” I am looking forward to seeing you there.

May GOD bless you with health and prosperity,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH Personal Representative

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

"I Didn't Know That....."

The Masonic Library Expansion Dinner program held in late June, at the Covington Scottish Rite Dining Hall, proved a huge success. A large crowd was present to enjoy a wonderful prime rib dinner and a very entertaining evening in a beautiful setting, provided by the Board of Directors of the Masonic Library and Museum Association of Covington Scottish Rite. The tasty dinner was prepared by Larry York Catering. The dinner along with contributions raised approximately $7000.00, one-third of the needed funds to complete the $20,000 expansion project.

Among the Head Table were Grand Master and First Lady James and Sam Gibson; Guest Speaker S. Brent Morris; Keith Dreier PGM, Grand Treasurer, Valley Secretary/Registrar and Lady Debbie; and Personal Representative Rob Smith and Lady Vicki. Library Board Director, Illustrious Brother Edwin L. Vardiman 33° Grand Cross, offered the blessing before dinner. He was accompanied by his son and Brother Edwin. Other board members present included Brothers Ron Allari, Ryan Engle, Dan Kemble, Ray Murphy and Edwin Taylor and their ladies. Director James Rose was unable to be present. Many Blue Lodge, York Rite, Scottish Rite and Shrine dignitaries were also in the audience.

Sam Gibson, First Lady of Kentucky Freemasonry, kindly offered remarks on the PATH Coalition, and its effort to bring awareness to the realities of human trafficking. PATH is an acronym for "People Against Trafficking Humans". The First Lady adopted this important project to bring consciousness to the Masonic families in Kentucky to "Be the Key" in this valuable and worthwhile program.

Much to the pleasure of both ladies and brothers present, world class Masonic speaker and author S. Brent Morris 33° Grand Cross, divulged "The Curious Incident of the Exposure that Wasn't", a delightful and somewhat humorous rendition of an early eighteenth century "exposure" of so-called masonic secrets that was actually written by the Masons themselves. It seems the Masons wanted to purposely misinform the public. Needless to say, Brother Morris's talk was well received. Brother Brent would later graciously sign copies of his book, "Why Thirty-Three? – Searching for Masonic Origins". Every Mason present received a copy of this book.

Highlighting an already perfect evening, M.W. Grand Master James Gibson presented Rob Smith 33°, Personal Representative Valley of Covington, with his original artwork used for the cover of the December 2020 "Happy Holidays" issue of the Masonic Home Journal. Grand Master Gibson created the cover while serving as Grand Sr. Warden. The beautiful piece of art will be preserved in the Valley's museum, set to open sometime in the later part 2023 or early 2024.

After closing remarks by Personal Representative Rob Smith, everyone left happy and with a smile on their face. It was my honor to host this event and we on the Library Board are most appreciative of the support the Masonic community has given us. It was a very enjoyable evening!

.....What do you think?

A very nice selection of Brent Morris's books is available at the Masonic Library and Museum Association of Covington Scottish Rite. The Library is open evenings on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday (5:30 to 7:30 pm) or any Wednesday (6:00 pm to 8:00 pm). Stop by for a free library card. Need an appointment? Just email Bill Lorenz, Librarian: library.covsr@outlook.com

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Greetings from the Valley of Covington:

The approaching fall season has always felt like the beginning of a new year for me. Perhaps because of some nostalgic carryover from my earliest days as a lad - those first cool, crisp days of autumn and the optimism (or dread) of a new school year.

In the Scottish Rite, Freemasons have adopted the Hebrew months, and the year, therefore, begins with them in the middle of September with Tishri, the 7th month of the Jewish ecclesiastical, and the first month of the Hebrew/Jewish civil year. Accordingly, every fall the Valley of Covington celebrates the Feast of Tishri at our September stated meeting.

To say that the Valley of Covington is “geographically challenged” would quite frankly be an understatement. With a length of well over two hundred miles and a breadth averaging sixty to seventy miles, we aren’t exactly compact. But we continue to flourish and prosper with the promise of new candidates. And although we immensely enjoy the camaraderie of our reunions, we are exploring the feasibility of giving our reunions a makeover of sorts; in a way that will be more user friendly for our candidates and a little less hectic for the rest of us!

Our business meetings however don’t generally carry the same proportion of members from our southern half (Ashland, Paintsville, Pikeville) as those who live north (Covington, Carrollton, Maysville). Not to mention everywhere in between and quite a few very loyal outliers!

Recognizing that, and out of respect for those members who often make the monthly trek to Covington, I have received dispensation from our illustrious SGIG, Terry Bowman to change the venue of our stated business meeting on Friday, September 16, 2022.

Accordingly, we will be meeting at Morehead Lodge No. 654, located at 746 West Main Street, Morehead, KY. The 1200 Club will meet at 6:00 pm, dinner and the program will be at 6:30 pm, and our tyled (private) business meeting will follow at 7:30 pm. The program will be the “Feast of Tishri,” and will also include The Seven Obligatory Toasts.

If you are a member of the Valley of Covington (or even if you are not) and reside in our southern half this would be a fine opportunity to reconnect with your Brethren and also it will affirm to the rest of us that we didn’t travel to your neck of the woods in vain.

Of course, we would also welcome anyone else intrigued by the Scottish Rite (or even Freemasonry in general) to join us for dinner, our openly public program, and our camaraderie.

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Fraternally Thine,
Robert H. Smith
Personal Representative
Valley of Covington
