Brother Bob Hornsby, Latonia Lodge Senior Warden visited Hebron Lodge No. 757 and met Past Master, Brother Cory McCarthy from Brant Lodge No. 45 in Ontario, Canada. Brother McCarthy is working here with his company in Hebron, Kentucky for a short period. He was interested in visiting other lodges in the area so Bob asked him to meet with us at Latonia

They have a tradition in their lodge that all officers would wear tuxedos in their meetings and whenever they traveled to other lodges. NOTES

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

Joseph R. Conway, P.G.M.
Grand Secretary

ANNUAL RETURNS

I want to express my appreciation, and that of the Office Staff, to most of the Secretaries and Treasurers of the constituent Lodges for their promptness in submitting their Annual Returns and assessments to the Grand Lodge Office. As of this date (September 11, 2006) we still have 33 Lodges who failed to submit their report by September 1, 2006.

DUES CARDS

The membership dues cards should be in the hands of each Lodge Secretary by the time this issue of the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. If your records indicate a member was initiated prior to the June 30, 2006, deadline, but they did not receive a computer printed dues card, you need to contact the Grand Lodge Office. If you have not received the cards for your Lodge for 2007 or you need extra blank cards let the Grand Lodge Office know. Just a reminder, each of your 50+ year members also should receive a dues card.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

It is almost too late to mention anything about this 207th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (October 30, 31, 2006) since it will soon be upon us by the time most of us receive the Masonic Home Journal. However, there is still time to rearrange your plans, if necessary, to attend the Communication to fellowship with your Brethren from all across this great Commonwealth and to tend to the important business of the Grand Lodge. I have again listed the hotel information below. Here's hoping to see many of you in attendance.

The Annual Communication this year will be held at the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky, October 30, 31, 2006. You may phone the hotel direct or contact the hotel by letter to make reservations.

Galt House

140 North Fourth St
Louisville, KY 40202

To make a reservation call toll free at 1-800-THE GALT
or 502-589-5200

You can also make your reservation on line at <http://www.galthouse.com>. The website contains a link for reservations as well as pictures and videos of the facility.

In either case, when you make your reservation, you need to make it known that you are with the Grand Lodge of Kentucky so that you will qualify for the special rate, offered the Grand Lodge by the hotel.

We have a number of rooms "blocked" which will be held for the Grand Lodge only until September 28, 2006. To guarantee your accommodations, be sure to make your reservation prior to that date.

2005-2006 GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

It has been another interesting year working with the Grand Lodge Offices-Elected and Appointed—as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committeemen. As other Grand Masters have done in the past, Grand Master, Patton R. Hart, has offered several new approaches and solutions to the problems that plague us.

Hopefully, we will find the right combination to the challenges that face us as we move further into the twenty-first century and strive to keep our Gentle Fraternity a viable force for the future.

QUOTE FOR THE MONTH

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome.

-- GEORGE WASHINGTON

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

PATTON HART
Grand Master

The year of 2005-06 for Kentucky Freemasonry is rapidly coming to a close, and this is my final message in the Masonic Home Journal to you as Grand Master. How time has a way of slipping by so quickly when we are having fun. Naturally, I want to extend my thanks to everyone who helped and contributed in any way during the past year to support my goals, programs, initiatives and projects in making a difference and in ensuring the future of our great Masonic fraternity.

In just a few short days, we will convene for our annual Grand Lodge Communication. I hope that you have made plans to be present for this special occasion. It promises to be eventful, entertaining and memorable with much fraternalism, fellowship, friendship and fun for you to experience and enjoy.

Even though the annual communication will provide the opportunity to celebrate the past, present and the future with our Masonic families, it also offers so much more for our Masonic lodges and members. We are blessed with the pleasure to form lasting friendships as well as renew old acquaintances while we are gathered. The annual communication also affords us the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process in deliberating and making progress for our lodges and our Grand Lodge. Please take the time to participate in the schedule of events, peruse the reports of our elective Grand Lodge Officers, review our various committee reports, study the proposed legislation, become familiar with the qualifications of the candidates to be elected and then vote wisely for the good of our fraternity. Thus, I urge you as a representative to your lodge to take this responsibility seriously and represent your Masonic lodge proudly.

I want to pledge my support and cooperation to the new Grand Lodge Officers who will serve for the ensuing year and wish them the best always for happiness and success. May you have safe travels and receive special blessings that will enrich your life of service from our Almighty God as you pursue your aspirations and goals for the year 2006-07.

It would be impossible to acknowledge all of the Masonic brothers who graciously supported and helped with the programs and activities this year. You certainly know who you are. I hope a simple thank you will suffice for now and I will be able to express my personal thanks to you as well. I will always be eternally grateful for each of you going the extra mile in making this a special year for me to enjoy. Allow me to acknowledge my sincere appreciation to some very deserving and special people. I am very proud of the entire 2005-06 Grand Lodge Leadership Team especially our Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputy Grand Masters, Committeemen, the Grand Lodge Office Staff and the staff of the Masonic Homes of Kentucky for their loyal service and the leaders of our subordinate lodges in making a difference for our great Fraternity.

It has been rewarding to visit the lodges and the districts throughout the Commonwealth and to observe the extraordinary efforts that have been made to promote our great Masonic fraternity this year. I certainly appreciate the leadership and commitment that our Masonic brothers have made to be involved, to be good neighbors in their communities and to practice the principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. Thanks so much in displaying your pride and enthusiasm for our beloved fraternity as well as sharing the good works of Freemasonry to move this fraternity forward.

We, the Grand Lodge Officers, have striven to generate fun, excitement and enthusiasm into our year of service to you, the Grand Lodge. A number of special programs, resource tools, projects and activities have been introduced that hopefully have been beneficial in strengthening your lodge, building fraternal relations and projecting a positive image with our Masonic families and the community. I hope the officers and members of our subordinate lodges have had fun and pleasure in participating in these programs and projects as we as Grand Lodge Officers have had the privilege of formulating these plans into action for our Grand Lodge.

As Grand Master, it has been like a whirlwind of service and a great ride in serving Kentucky Freemasonry. The year has offered many challenges with opportunities to better serve the Masonic brothers and lodges in Kentucky. I hope the leadership team for this Masonic year has measured up to your expectations and has given you and the Craft of Kentucky Freemasonry a profitable and successful year. I want you to know that you have honored me with many pleasant and cherished memories that will remain with me throughout my life. On a closing note of writing the final chapter of the 2005-06 Masonic year, I feel that a number of positive and rewarding initiatives have been achieved by us working together and we can celebrate our successes in ensuring a better future.

My Brethren, I firmly believe that we are at the crossroads where we must steer our future course and chart our destination to always be the best we can be. We are fortunate that we have a Masonic fraternity that is united with a mission and a vision to practice the great principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. Our forefathers have left us a legacy for us to continue and to advance for future generations. As Grand Master, I selected the theme this Masonic year "Soar New Horizons" and I am pleased that you have accepted the challenge to lead beyond our expectations and to steer our Masonic families toward "New Horizons" with vision, faith and action. I offer ten important words that we can always reflect upon to make an impact for our great Masonic fraternity – "If it is to be, it is up to me." Let's always do something that will accentuate the positive in working together as we Soar New Horizons in our efforts to "Learn from our glorious Past, Live in the Present and Build for a better and brighter Future."

Thank you for all that you do and may God bless each of you!

Fraternally Thine,
Patton R. Hart

WAYNESBURG LODGE NO. 328

Brother Earl Benton was honored as "Mason of the Year" on September 2 by the members of Waynesburg Lodge No. 328. Although the honor had been bestowed several months earlier, the plaque noting the distinction had never been presented to Bro. Benton.

As it turned out the presentation could not have come at a better time. On August 27 Bro. Benton's son and daughter-in-law Jesse Clark Benton and Bobbie Demrow Benton were killed in the crash of Comair Flight 5191. The couple were headed to Aruba to celebrate Bobbie's 50th birthday. Funeral services for the Bentons were held in Stanford on September 1. Bobbie's brother, Bill Demrow is also a member of Waynesburg Lodge. Brother Demrow is coroner of Lincoln County and was a member of the team that retrieved the bodies from the wreckage of the ill-fated flight.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality and compassionate services, health care and housing for adults

Gene Crady elected to Board

The Masonic Homes of Kentucky Board of Directors has elected Gene Crady to fill the unexpired term of Mason Butler, who resigned.

"We welcome and look forward to working with Gene," said Board Chairman Joe Conway. "Gene will provide valuable service to both our Board and our Homes."

A past master of Pewee Valley # 829, Crady holds a plural membership in Fortitude #47, a life membership in William O. Ware Lodge of Research #999 and an honorary membership in Eminence #282. Crady currently chairs the Grand Lodge Committee on Arrangements. He is a member of the Central Kentucky Society of Past Masters, Scottish Rite and Kosair Shrine Temple.

Gene Crady will fill an unexpired term on the Masonic Homes Board.

Crady is retired from Crady Enterprises and his work as an over-the-road truck driver. He still drives part time for Grammy Award-winning entertainer Kenny Rogers.

Crady and his wife, Janet, live in Crestwood and are proud grandparents of four, including twins born in September.

"I'm interested in learning as much as I can to help my brother Masons," Crady said. "When they ask me about the Masonic Homes of Kentucky, I will be able to give them an answer."

Crady will serve the remainder of Butler's term, which expires in 2007.

Phase III plans underway at Spring Hill Village

With Phases I and II nearly completed, plans for Phase III are moving forward. Infrastructure and engineering plans are expected to be submitted for approval in late 2006.

Meanwhile, construction has continued on Phases I and II, and is expected to be fully completed in Spring 2007. As part of the initial two phases, Spring Hill Village's Feltman Community Center is nearly finished and is expected to open late this fall.

Spring Hill Village garden-style homes, like these duplexes, have varying two-bedroom floor plans and garages.

To learn more about living in Spring Hill Village or to arrange a tour, contact Susan Friedman or Kathleen Steffan at SibcyCline Realty, 859/581.0542.

The new garden homes planned for Phase III will have the same features that made Phase I and II homes so popular, according to Spring Hill Village leasing agent Susan Friedman with SibcyCline Realty in Florence. "More seniors are seeking a secure, low-maintenance community environment that's conveniently located," Friedman said. "Spring Hill Village offers that and so much more."

When Phase III is complete, Spring Hill Village will have approximately 84 garden-style homes with varying two-bedroom floor plans.

"Seniors today want to live independently for as long as they can," said Masonic Homes of Kentucky Chief Executive Officer Gary Marsh. "Providing communities like Spring Hill Village enables the Masonic Homes of Kentucky to meet a broader spectrum of senior living needs."

Following the success of the Masonic Home Village Apartments on the Louisville campus and the positive reception of Spring Hill Village in northern Kentucky, part of the Masonic Home of Shelbyville is under construction to create assisted living apartments. "We're positioning the Masonic Homes of Kentucky to play a key role in the marketplace, both now and in the future," Marsh said.

New twist on giving: the charitable IRA

By BRUCE LOTT
Assistant Director of Development

On August 17, President Bush signed the Pension Protection Act of 2006, the most sweeping reform of America's pension laws in the last 30 years.

The act has a number of charitable reforms, including a new, tax-advantaged way to give to your Masonic Homes and other organizations you support.

Under the new law, individuals may transfer assets from their traditional or Roth IRA directly to charitable organizations like the Masonic Homes. While the gift is not taxed, the donor cannot claim a charitable income tax deduction when making the gift.

Assets from 401(k), 403(b) and non-IRA plans are not eligible; however, donors may be able to "roll over" those assets into an eligible IRA, and then make the gift. Consult with your advisor before taking any action.

Among the Act's key provisions:

- As much as $100,000 per person per year may be given.
- You must be at least 70 1/2 when the gift is made.
- Gifts will count toward mandatory withdrawals.
- IRA charitable rollovers will be allowed in 2006 and 2007; the law will expire at the end of 2007.
- Gifts may be made only from traditional or Roth IRAs; gifts from 401(k), 403(b) and non-IRA retirement plans do not qualify.
- Do not take the distribution yourself, and subsequently write a check to the charity

If you are at least 70 1/2, currently taking a required withdrawal from an IRA and contributing to charity, consider taking advantage of the new law by making tax-free gifts from your IRAs in 2006 and 2007.

If you are over age 59 1/2 and won't turn 70 1/2 by the end of 2007, funds may not be distributed directly to a charity, but can be withdrawn from IRAs and other retirement accounts. The funds then can be donated without a penalty for early withdrawal.

If you have any questions, please consult with your advisor, or contact the any of us on the Masonic Homes of Kentucky Development staff (please see our listing on this page).
