GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GREGORY C. POWELL
Grand Master

To all my Kentucky Brethren, as we enter into the heart of the District Meeting Season, it is with great Kentucky Pride that I inform you about some of the musings this past February at the Conference of Grand Masters in Portland, Oregon. I would first like to share a quote from the President's Report of the National Masonic Foundation for Children to the Conference of Grand Masters. "Last year we reported that we anticipated an increase in trainings in 2006. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky made that dream come true. In June of 2006, they held their first Masonic Model Training at their beautiful Masonic Home in Louisville. They already have two training sessions scheduled for 2007." Yes my brethren, we are now not only on the National scene, but also on the map for the World! In regards to our 2007 programs the dates and locations are as follows: June 19-21 in Louisville and June 26-28 in Lexington. These are our Grand Lodge charitable programs that you had the vision to fund at our last Grand Lodge Session.

Also at the Conference of Grand Masters, our own Deputy Grand Master, Right Worshipful Brother Keith Dreier, had the honor of making our presentation of the 2008 Conference of Grand Masters to be held in our own backyard - Louisville, Kentucky. Interest was so strong that we ran out of copies of his presentation and had to have more made just to meet demand. Brother Dreier and his committees for this great occasion have excited the World with their dedication and vision. February 2008 promises to be one of the biggest events ever to grace the Commonwealth and especially the Grand Lodge of Kentucky!

I would also like to inform you of a great document being provided by the Masonic Renewal Committee of North America. A couple of years ago at a district meeting in London, Kentucky as well as a few lodges along the way, I gave a presentation on a Break-Out session I had witnessed by PGM Robert Conley of Michigan on the subject of Who Are We? This publication is now available through www.masonic-renewal.org and is a great educational tool to discover the different generations our Fraternity represents.

One final note, in March of this year I finally completed a goal I set nearly 14 years ago when I became a Kentucky Freemason. That was to visit every lodge in my district, then region, and then the entire Commonwealth. On March 3, 2007 I visited the 438th different lodge in our Grand Lodge Jurisdiction with the final visit of Chandlersville #858 in District 28. I would like to personally thank all my Kentucky Brothers that made me feel so welcome. Looking back now, who would have thought that crazy young kid from Northern Kentucky would aspire to be the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.& A.M.!

MASONIC HOME JOURNAL MAILING ADDRESS

Dear Brothers:

Just a reminder regarding all copy for publication in the Masonic Home Journal.

Please mail all copy to my attention at: 9410 Stonelanding Place, Louisville Kentucky, 40272.

By mailing your copy to the above address, you will make the process more convenient. The Grand Lodge office receives so much paper work. This will help keep copy for the Masonic Home Journal separate from the other correspondence that the Grand Lodge office receives.

Secretaries, I know that it is easier to include certain items such as directory changes in with your monthly reports. This is ok to save on postage.

Remember that you can also e-mail articles and information for publication in the Masonic Home Journal to the Masonic Home Journal e-mail address, masonichomejournal@hotmail.com.

Any Secretary, especially new Secretaries, and Lodge reporters who have any questions regarding publication in the Masonic Home Journal, can reach me at 502-599-1713. I would be glad to answer any questions or concerns that you may have.

I want to thank all of the brothers for continuing to support the Masonic Home Journal, the oldest Masonic Publication.

I encourage each Lodge to submit articles involving Community Outreach. I have included a section this year called "Masonic Community Outreach." This is a good way to share with others our Masonic commitment to our local communities.

I look forward to seeing your articles in future issues of the Masonic Home Journal.

NOTES

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

Joseph R. Conway, P.G.M.
Grand Secretary

As we were taught by our Instructors in the lectures of three Degrees of Freemasonry, we became acquainted with many "blanket" or "buzz" words that covers a broad area of a philosophy or description of a lifestyle and/or personal traits that define us as Masons; for instance, the three great Masonic Tenets of a Mason, Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. They are short words – but mean so much when applied to the fullness of the life of a Freemason. The same can be said for the Four Cardinal Virtues, which are Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice. Other such words that are freely used in our lectures which come to mind are Honor, Rectitude, Morality, Propriety, Integrity, etc...

Though, the words noted above refer to the positive side of Freemasonry, there are other words that suggest a negative connotation, words like Ignorance, Envy, and Superstition; words that describe the unholy conduct of the three misfits who brought shame to the Operative Masons at the building of the Temple. There are many other "blanket" or "buzz" words that can quickly paint a mental image in our minds, and remind us of our duties and obligations as a Mason, the same way the symbols of our Order do, and guide our conduct as a Freemason.

However, I think there is another such word that is not usually mentioned and is often overlooked in the lectures of Freemasonry, though maybe not always ignored, which describes a protocol that is most important to Freemasons, and, also, necessary to make all those words noted above meaningful. That word is Discipline! For all that Freemasonry is, it certainly sets guidelines for its members to follow, and a discipline to practice self-control, and to exemplify orderly conduct; a discipline that should be the ultimate goal of every Freemason. So, let's make Discipline as much a part of the vocabulary of Freemasonry as all the other "blanket words" with which we are familiar. And let's remember that it's our personal discipline in striving to live by the Tenets of our Fraternity that keeps us that "point within a circle". (Reprinted from September 2004 of the Masonic Home Journal)

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary should have received the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in early April for those eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will find instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention

MASONIC DIRECTORY

The Masonic Directories for 2007 are still available from the Grand Lodge Office. The price is $7.00 each which is the cost of printing (plus shipping and handling if by mail). A form is printed below for your convenience should you wish to place an order for one or more.

GRAND LODGE BLANKET INSURANCE

By this time, each lodge Secretary should also have received a Memorandum of Insurance statement from the Grand Lodge Office, showing the type, amount and a general description of the coverage each of the items in the agreement provides. You should file the same and use it as proof of coverage if, as you are most probably aware, insurance is a complicated business to most of us; consequently, it is well nigh impossible to prepare a general statement that would answer all the questions that may come to mind. However, if you find that you have specific questions concerning what is included in the coverage, and to what extent, you may call, either, this office, or contact;

James Solley
Acordia of Ky-Louisville
950 Breckenridge Lane Ste 50
Louisville, Kentucky 40257-0809
Phone 502 425-9444

The one insurance question we get most often in the Grand lodge Office concerns insurance on the lodge building. The blanket insurance carried by the Grand Lodge does not in any way include coverage on a lodge building, either liability or property. If your lodge owns a building, you must carry additional insurance to protect your membership. Should that be the case, you should contact a local insurance agency to determine the plan to suit the needs of your lodge.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footsteps on the sands of time.

(HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW,
"A PSALM OF LIFE")

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality and compassionate services, health care and housing for adults

Gifts send Co-Pilot in Caring to new heights

Nearly 200 individuals, families and Lodges have gotten their wings through Co-Pilot in Caring, the program initiated by Grand Master Gregory C. Powell and First Lady Nancy Powell.

MASONIC HOME

Sally's Garden

Gifts to Co-Pilot in Caring help the Masonic Home of Louisville provide first-rate memory care in Sally's Garden, the neighborhood especially for those with moderate Alzheimer's disease or other progressive dementia.

"We are thrilled by the response Kentucky Masons have had to Co-Pilot in Caring," said Director of Development J Scott Judy. "The enthusiasm shows no sign of letting up as the program enters its final six months."

Many of those who have given to Co-Pilot in Caring also have friends or relatives who have suffered from Alzheimer's or dementia. "Like the Grand Master and First Lady, these donors were moved to help others receive the best possible memory care at the Masonic Homes," Judy said.

Exceptional care, exemplary generosity

Thanks to the exemplary airmanship in generosity demonstrated by these donors, the Co-Pilot in Caring program is flying high and those with Alzheimer's disease receive exceptional care at the Masonic Homes:

Spring brings new look to Louisville

From left, Mary Reid, Hester Holthouser and Frank Korfhage knocked off the chill around the fireplace in the refurbished Personal Care lobby.

As warmer weather has the campus in full bloom, the inside of the Masonic Home of Louisville also has a new look.

"We took advantage of the winter and refurbished the interior of our Personal Care facility," said CEO Gary Marsh.

Public gathering areas, including the dining room and lounge areas, were upgraded with new wallpaper and furnishings. A fireplace was added in the Personal Care entrance lobby, along with new furniture. An enclosed all-weather sun porch and new television lounge provide additional areas for residents to enjoy socializing or quiet time.

Hallways also underwent improvements including new wallpaper, carpeting, handrails and artwork, and updated signage. Individual resident rooms were painted, wallpapered and carpeted.

The refurbishments are designed to make the facility more like home with added comforts, Marsh said. Changes in the dining services program also are being phased in, offering more choices and greater variety. "By continuously improving, we hope to be the Home of choice for seniors."

Worth a thousand words

The Easter Bunny greeted Wilda Wright in the Masonic Home of Louisville dining room.

High-rolling residents were all winners at the Masonic Home of Shelbyville's Casino Night.
