F. KEITH DREIER, GRAND MASTER

F. KEITH DREIER
Grand Master

Right Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Worshipful Appointed Grand Lodge Officers, Worshipful District Deputies Present and Past, Worshipful Grand Lodge Committeeman, Other Distinguished Guests and Brethren all.

To stand before you today as the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky is truly a humbling experience. To represent the craft of Kentucky for the next 12 months, I assure you that I will do the absolute best that I can to represent each and every one of you!

The coming year is going to be a year that our Grand Lodge has never seen before. As we approach 2008, it is going to be the year that Kentucky will host the world and be able to show what Masons of Kentucky are all about. We will host in February 2008 the North American Grand Masters Conference here in Louisville. This conference convenes once each year. There will be Grand Masters from all over the world here in our Commonwealth. It is our responsibility to show them what Masons in Kentucky are and what they represent. Also, in August 2008, we will host the Southeastern Grand Masters Conference in Covington, Kentucky. This conference represents the 10 Southeastern States of Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and of course Kentucky. I am counting on each one of you to not only help but represent the craft of Kentucky!

As I started this journey some 4 short years ago, I had a goal that I wanted to reach. That goal was to show the brothers of our fraternity here in Kentucky that it is no longer an Us versus Them situation among our craft. Let us not forget, "as from the craft we came so to it we must all return". If I do nothing else when this year is over, I want each of you to know that I am always available to you to ask any question that you may have.

Let us this next year, join hand in hand to Reach Out to a Brother and really bring this craft together to show ourselves and our communities what Masonry is in Kentucky.

During the coming year your Grand Lodge Officers are committed to help our lodges return to the work at hand which is our ritual. Kentucky has always been noted for our ritual style. But somewhere along the way we have let that which binds us all together fall by the wayside. Let us all dedicate ourselves to challenge each and every lodge and lodge member to get back to the work at hand, the ritual of our great fraternity. This is the bond that each of us has with each other. We must place it above ourselves and put forth the effort to return our lodges to the great work that was once Kentucky Freemasonry. We must strive to work together as lodges and as brothers. Let's get out and work in our communities with each other.

If you look at the standards that I have chosen to receive the Grand Masters Award of Excellence for the next year, they are not easy. It is my belief that to earn a Grand Master Award of Excellence it is an honored award and it should have to be worked for not just given a rubber stamp.

Our charity, as you all know, is the Masonic Homes of Kentucky. During the next year my wife Debbie and I will be telling you about "Fruits of Our Labor" with the Masonic Homes. Our pin for the Homes will have different levels and for each person that contributes $100.00 dollars or more their name will be placed on a permanent plaque to be displayed at the Homes which will enshrine them as a "Fruits of Our Labor" contributor to be forever displayed at the Homes. Each pin can be purchased for the minimum of $20.00. All the money raised from this pin through your contributions will go 100% to the Masonic Care Patients at the Homes. We have approximately 44 brothers and sisters who are on Masonic Care at our Homes. Among those 44 are 10 that we take care of 100%. They have no other means to provide for them. That is why Debbie and I have chosen to have 100% of the Donations from this pin go only to those under Masonic Care. As most of you know I have been in the banana business for over 31 years. So when you see the pin, I think you will recognize the label.

I also would like to take just a moment to talk about the Calendar that each of you received around the end of September. I want to thank each of the lodges that took the time to submit a photo of their lodge. It was a great experience for me and I hope it was for each of you. To those lodges that were chosen to be placed in the calendar, congratulations! To those who were not, I thank you for taking the time to submit your selection. Now, I hope that each of you that did not make it on the calendar and along with those who did not submit a picture this year, along with more lodges, will participate next year. I also hope that each of you will make some contribution to the Preservation Fund that would reflect that we in Kentucky have some really beautiful lodges around our great Commonwealth.

At this time I would like to introduce my family, first my children, my oldest Brad Dreier who is a member of Henry Barnes #607 and who most of you heard me talk about over the last couple of years. Brad is serving our country in the United States Army stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. He served in Iraq and we are glad that he has returned safely. Second, my son Chris Dreier who is also a member of Henry Barnes #607. Chris and I also share another brotherly fraternity together. We are brothers in our college fraternity of Lambda Chi Alpha at Murray State University. My daughter, Traci Dreier is a member of Rosebud Chapter #39.

As a matter of fact all three of our children are members of Rosebud Chapter #39 where Debbie and I were pleased to initiate them into a few years ago. I don't think this next person needs much of an introduction. She is not only my wife but my best friend. My wife Debbie. Debbie served as Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky Order of the Eastern Star in 2003-2004 and is currently Secretary of our Chapter Rosebud #39 and also, which some of you brethren know is the real brains at the Covington Scottish Rite where she works as the Office Manager. She has helped to keep me grounded over these last few years as I serve this Grand Lodge. She has supported me and given me some great counsel when I had times of great stress with some of the things going on not only in this fraternity but throughout life. She means the world to me. Debbie, I love you and thank you for sharing your life with me.

Brothers, thank you again for allowing me to serve you this coming year as your Grand Master.

Notes

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

Each year, following the conclusion of the Annual Communication, and drawing on the illustrious history of Freemasonry in Kentucky for guidance, we should pause and reflect on the actions we have taken in an attempt to improve our Fraternity and move it into the future, hopefully, in as good or better shape than it was at the beginning of the Masonic year just past. How good has been the measure of our stewardship? What have we personally, or as part of a group, done to fulfill our responsibility as a Freemason?

These two questions are certainly worth taking the time for each of us to answer. Someone once said that our generation is "enjoying the shade of a tree we didn't plant". Consequently, good stewardship demands that our generation, and those that follow, must plant as many or more trees than the last, in order to provide the shade for Freemasons of future generations.

So it is with the tenets of Freemasonry which have been handed down to us through the efforts of our Masonic Brethren of past generations. Collectively, we are responsible to maintain the integrity of the Fraternity during the term of our stewardship; however, each of us is individually charged to continually make a truthful assessment of our personal stewardship, thus assure that the philosophy, principles and tenets of the Craft are preserved and passed on to the next generation.

Hopefully, a review of the past year, and the Annual Communication just concluded, will show that we, as a Fraternity and individually, have lived up to challenge.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS INSTALLED

Congratulations are in order for the newly elected and appointed Grand Lodge Officers. Brother Keith Dreier was impressively installed as Grand Master, assuming the office with an enthusiastic outlook for the coming year. Each of the other line officers was advanced and Brother Don Yankey was elected as Grand Junior Warden. These Officers were chosen to lead the Craft of Kentucky by the Delegates assembled. Let's give them all the support and encouragement necessary for them to accomplish their goals- which should be our goals also.

DUES CARDS 2008

The 2008 dues cards have been printed and mailed to the Secretary of each constituent Lodge, along with extra blank cards for use during the year. If you have failed to receive the cards for your Lodge, please contact this office for duplicates.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Monday, November 12, 2007, in observance of Veterans' Day, and Thursday and Friday, November 22-23, 2007, in observance of Thanksgiving Day and will reopen on Monday, November 26, 2007. The Grand Lodge Office Staff wish for each of you and your family an enjoyable and meaningful Thanksgiving!

LIST OF LODGE OFFICERS AND MASONIC DIRECTORY FOR 2008

The next task facing the Grand Secretary's Office is compiling the Masonic Directory. Some time in early December each Lodge will receive a form on which to list the officers elected for the year, the address and telephone number(s) of the three principal officers and the Secretary. As soon as the officers are elected, please complete this form and send it to the Grand Secretary's Office as quickly as possible, in order that we may process the information for the Directory.

For the Directory to be meaningful, we must have it available as early as possible after the beginning of the New Year. If the completed form from your lodge has not been received in the Grand Secretary's Office before January 10, 2008, there is a good chance the officers of your lodge will not be listed in the Directory. Please do not let this happen.

Also, on the same form, we ask that you furnish the exact address or location of your lodge so that it can be easily found from the information provided in the Directory. It has come to our attention a number of lodges have relocated or their address has been changed, with the old address still listed in the Directory. Hopefully, the new Directory can be brought up to date.

IRS REPORTING FORM

Also, on the bottom of the Lodge Officers form mentioned above is a space to list the information required by the Internal Revenue Service from each Subordinate Lodge. The information received from the Subordinate Lodges is compiled in this office and a summary transmitted to the IRS. Failure on the part of a Lodge Secretary to respond may result in a visit from an IRS Representative and there are penalties involved that could be imposed for failure to report.

Be sure the form is signed by the Lodge Secretary and the seal of the Lodge is placed thereon.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

*One ship sails east, one ship sails west
It's the same self wind that blows
It's not the gale, but the cut of the sail
That determines which way each one goes*

2008 LEADERSHIP TRAINING CONFERENCES

Your committee on Masonic Education is hard at work preparing for the upcoming Leadership Training Conferences across the Commonwealth. This year's conferences will be different from years past with more choices and different topics.

The 2008 conferences will focus on Ritual, Community Awareness and Administration. Ritual is that which makes us Masons and we will explore why and how we do what we do.

Community Awareness will focus on putting our lodges in the public eye through publicity and community involvement. Administration, the part most of us normally abhor will discuss proper budgeting, Grand Lodge reports and the keys to being a successful officer in your lodge.

We are still in the process of refining our presentations and covet your suggestions. The members of this year's committee are: John Cauley, Keith Tabb, Barry Eastham, Mitchell Phillips, Robert Nugent, Sheldon Sammons, and Mike Lively. If you have suggestions or questions do not hesitate to contact one of the committee members.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Four employees honored by state association Finneran, Grenier, Baxter and Crafton take top awards

The Kentucky Association of Homes and Services for the Aging, Inc. recognized four Masonic Homes of Kentucky employees as the best in their fields at the association's 2007 annual awards ceremony.

KAHSA's Bob Long (right) congratulated Administrator of the Year Debra Finneran, administrator at Masonic Home of Shelbyville.

Louisville Director of Nursing Bill Grenier was named KAHSA Director of Nursing of the Year.

Left: Bonnie Crafton was named Outstanding Administrative Assistant of the Year by KAHSA.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville Administrator Debra Finneran received the Nursing Home Administrator Award and Masonic Home of Louisville Director of Nursing Bill Grenier received the Director of Nursing Award. The Association also recognized Shelbyville Chaplain Jesse Baxter and Administrative Assistant Bonnie Crafton for outstanding service.

"Every day our staff makes a difference in the lives of our residents," said Masonic Homes of Kentucky CEO Gary Marsh. "We are proud that KAHSA has recognized their professional commitment with these awards."

Finneran was recognized for outstanding service as the Shelbyville Administrator. "When Debra arrived at the Masonic Home of Shelbyville she was faced with failing business, regulatory non-compliance issues and a directive to prepare to close the facility," Marsh said. Within a year, she spearheaded the purchase of additional nursing home beds and led a four-year revitalization that more than doubled nursing home beds and included extensive renovations. With The Pillars assisted living community completed and nearing full occupancy, Finneran is leading plans to expand services and facilities over the next five years.

Since joining Masonic Home of Louisville as Director of Nursing three years ago, Grenier has implemented creative and successful programs that have improved staff training and triggered a culture change throughout the entire facility. "Bill's desire and willingness to train and educate sets him apart from the crowd," said Louisville Administrator Israel Ray. Grenier spearheaded development of a Guardian Angel program for CNAs and outreach programs for facilities to share and learn from others' experiences. Grenier also is president of the National Association of Directors of Nursing Administration.

For 10 years, Rev. Baxter has ministered to residents, their families and Masonic Home of Shelbyville staff. His concern for the spiritual well-being of others is a blessing to share, Baxter said. "Through God's love, I am able to give of myself to others and to be there for them during difficult circumstances."

Crafton received the Outstanding Administrative Assistant Award. A 12-year Masonic Home of Shelbyville veteran, Crafton coordinates vacations, time-off requests and payroll for the nursing department. She goes out of her way to help others, performing central supply duties and volunteering for community, staff and resident activities. According to Finneran, "Bonnie exemplifies the Masonic Home family spirit."

New Masonic car tags to benefit Masonic Homes

What do volunteer firefighters, historic vehicles, the Louisville Zoo and Kentucky Masons have in common?

New Masonic auto tags arrive December 2007.

All are featured on special issue motor vehicle license plates from the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet. In December, a new tag will allow Kentucky Masons to show their pride in Masonry and support the Masonic Homes.

The plate's art depicts darkness yielding to light, borrowing from the symbolism of Masonic teachings. Adrian Judy, a member of Louisville 400 and Past Master of Covington 109, created the design.

The plate will cost $42, including a $10 donation to the Masonic Homes and licensing fees.

To purchase the new plate, take proof of Masonic membership to your county clerk's office with information to license the vehicle. Personalized Masonic plates will be available in Spring 2008 for $25 more.

According to CEO Gary Marsh, Masonic Home vehicles will bear the new tags. "It's a great way to display Masonic pride and support the Homes."

Worth a thousand words

Board Chair Joe Conway (right) accepts $15,000 from Joe Walters and the Derby City Mustang Club. The money was raised during Mustangs Unbridled, a national show held Memorial Day weekend on the Louisville campus.

Activities Director Jackie Waits (right) poses with Masonic Home of Shelbyville resident Wilma Prosser, who was Worthy Grand Matron of the Ohio OES.

This miniature golfer was among the many who showed their forms on the putt-putt course at the Masonic Home of Louisville employee picnic.
