GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GREGORY C. POWELL
Grand Master

Circumambulation, the name given by students of sacred archaeology to that religious rite in the ancient initiations which consisted in the formal procession around the altar or other holy and consecrated object or as in our Order it alludes to the apparent course of the sun in the firmament, which is from East to West by way of the South. The ancient Greek, in their rites of sacrifice, walked three times around the altar chanting a sacred hymn or ode and the priest always performed circumambulation by turning towards the right hand as he went around the altar. In performing this act, it was absolutely necessary that the right side should always be next to the altar thus providing a procession that would move from the East to the South, then to the West, next to the North, and afterwards to the East again.

The previous comments come from Mackey's Symbolism of Freemasonry and are similar to our ritual, TH KY RTL, which was exemplified at our Leadership Educational Conferences. This presentation brought about much debate and in essence it teaches us that the Senior Deacon in particular should always move about the altar with his right side closest to the altar. That would mean that he would cross between the East and the altar when opening and closing the Great Lights as well as when conducting candidates. Can he do that? You decide. We have no standardized ritual in Kentucky, so if your lodge wishes to practice this form of circumambulation, you are certainly authorized to do so by one of the approved rituals of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M.

I would like to take a moment and thank all who attended one of our 10 Leadership Educational Conferences throughout the Commonwealth and also those that made it a priority to attend their District Meeting over the past several months. I respect your Pride in showing your dedication to our Great and Gentle Fraternity. Now is the time to begin planning on who will represent your lodge at our Grand Lodge Session and participate in the greatest act we have been performing for the past 206 years as a Grand Lodge. We are rich in history as a Grand Lodge, but much more enriched with the Pride of being a Kentucky Freemason.

When the Cornerstone Laying was complete the group traveled to Carrollton Middle School for their District meeting, where a good fried chicken dinner, mashed potatoes, green beans, rolls and apple crisp pie was had by all. All 15 Lodges were represented and The Masonic Homes of Ky handed out prizes to lucky participants.

POND FORK LODGE NO. 601 FRIEND/COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS

Pond Fork Lodge #601 held a Friend to Friend/Community Service Awards program on April 14, 2007. Attendance for the event was excellent, with approximately 55 people present, the bulk of which were non-Masons.

Grilled foods and desserts were enjoyed by all present prior to the beginning of the program.

The awards presentation was ably conducted by acting Master of Ceremonies John Edward "Eddie" Morgan, Jr., P.M. The following were presented with certificates for outstanding community service: Glenna Carpenter, Paul Hays (also a member of #601), Horace Sexton, and Dorothy Smith.

Following the awards presentation, Most Worshipful Bob Davenport, PGM, graciously conducted the Friend to Friend portion of the program, in which he gave a highly informative and entertaining talk, coupled with a video presentation.

The day's events seemed well received by everyone in attendance.

2007 FLAG DAY MASSING OF COLORS CELEBRATION

The Military Order of World Wars and the Masonic Homes of Kentucky will partner again this year to present the 2007 Flag Day Massing of Colors Program.

This year's event will be celebrated on Saturday, June 16th at 2:30 PM. on the campus of the Masonic Homes, 3701 Frankfort Avenue.

The Flag Day Massing of Colors is co-sponsored by the Louisville Scottish Rite. We encourage all Masonic Organizations and Masonic Lodges to participate and to invite civic groups in their communities to bring their Color Guards as well. Color guards may be made up with as few as two persons. Please join us in this tribute to our flag.

Color guards wishing to participate may contact Phyllis O'Daniel at the Masonic Homes (897-4933 or podaniel@mhky.com). Participating color guards should arrive at 1:30 pm on June 16th for registration and position assignment.

The program lasts approximately one hour and should conclude by 3:30 pm. Parking is conveniently located to both viewing and staging areas.

NOTES

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

Joseph R. Conway, P.G.M.
Grand Secretary

Just recently I attended a luncheon and had the good fortune to hear an inspirational message by a motivational speaker. During his presentation he recommended ten areas on which each person should concentrate each and every day, in order to enjoy life and improve in character. As the speaker gave an explanation of each of the ten points, it occurred to me that a daily review of these points could not only be beneficial to each of us as a personal discipline—but would also be a very useful discipline to assist the officers elected to lead our lodges in the performance of their duties.

His order of suggestions is as follows:

- Accept Responsibility (be accountable); Accept responsibility for your actions. There surely will be times when we make errors, or fail to exercise the best of judgment; however, we should not try to make excuses, or pass blame, but accept responsibility, and be accountable for, our actions. Look upon an error in judgment as the opportunity to make the right choice in the future.

- Always have hope; Hope for a brighter day tomorrow; for a brighter future for ourselves and our fellow man. Hope is the driving force to challenge us to strive for better things for us, our families, and our country. Hope is a gift we received from The Grand Architect of the Universe. We should make abundant use of it.

- Accept our limitations; know when to say no. There are limits to how much responsibility one can assume and still remain faithful to those to which he is already committed. If one is spread too thin, he cannot do justice to all. The prudent thing to do is commit only to things one feels he can reasonably do.

- Take a vacation; not just once a year—but every day. We all know how refreshed we feel when we return from a yearly vacation. We need to have that feeling each day. So take a few minutes each day, a kind of mini vacation, and take a break to refresh ones self.

- Learn to deal with the things that bug you; don't let those things that bother you cause you distress. Learn to deal with them and set them aside in order to concentrate on the other important issues of life you have to deal with.

- Stay focused on your blessings; we experience many blessings each and every day. If we spend too much time dwelling on the set backs and problems that come our way from time to time, then we may not fully appreciate the blessings that are provided us.

- Live the full length, breath, depth, and height of life. Life is the combination of all the experiences that we endure each and every day. We need to live it out fully, balancing the negative aspects with the positive, and, hopefully, coming out favorably on the positive side of the equation.

- Laugh ever day: Someone once said that a laugh is an expression of the soul. I think all of us, at one time or another, has, at a tense moment in our lives, had that tension abated by having a good laugh. And there is no doubt, laughter is contagious.

- Keep learning; It's very important that we keep learning. The rapid pace of technology and our living standards only increasing. What's new today may be obsolete in five years or less. Learning is the transport that brought us to where we are, and will take our sons and daughters to the next generation.

- Be charitable; as members of the human race, and especially as Freemasons, we are all dependant on one another, and should be charitable to our fellowman. The old saying is that God loves a cheerful giver. The message one receives from Him when he extends charity to another, is most probably the warm feeling he gets by doing so.

There is really nothing new in any of the items noted above. All these things we have been introduced to in the Fraternity. What is important is to keep reminding ourselves of them on a daily basis.

ANNUAL RETURNS

Before the end of May you should have received a packet from the Grand Lodge Office containing:

1. A form asking for information on members you may have in the Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

2. A form certifying the representative of your lodge at our Grand Communication in October (in case the Master or one of the line Officers can not attend).

3. A post card for you to complete and return to this office.

4. Instruction sheet for checking Annual Returns.

I urge you to take care of this quickly, to assure adequate time to review and record the results before Grand Lodge.

Also, sometime in the latter part of July, you will receive a computer printout of your membership and the lodge's Annual Return. Please check this information very carefully for accuracy and return the Annual Return to the Grand Lodge as quickly as possible. It is not necessary to send the Annual Return and payment for the assessments to Grand Lodge at the same time. As soon as the Annual Return is received (after you have checked and corrected it, if necessary) we can then assemble the information in ample time to have it available to the membership at Grand Lodge. You may forward your check for assessments prior to September 1, deadline. It is very important the June Monthly Activity Report be received in the Grand Lodge Office as soon as practical after the end of the month—before the tenth of July deadline, if possible.

The Office Staff hopes to have the yearly statistical information of each lodge entered into the computer and the Annual Returns completed by the last week in July. I know I can depend on the continued cooperation of the dedicated lodge secretaries of this Grand Jurisdiction to do their best to preserve and maintain a complete and accurate record of their lodge activities.

NOTICE OF REJECTION

Just a reminder to each lodge secretary to report to the Grand Lodge Office, on the proper form, any petitioner for the degrees who has been rejected by your lodge. I am not sure all lodge secretaries are aware they should report this activity. However, this information could be valuable to another lodge, should the one rejected attempt to petition another lodge at a later date.

In case you do not have any of the Notice of Rejection Forms, you may order them from the Office of the Grand Secretary.

OFFICIAL OUT-OF-STATE CORRESPONDENCE

Just a reminder, all official correspondence between Grand Jurisdictions must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office. This includes all request for demits, reinstatements, transfers, affiliation, waivers etc. Consequently, if you correspond directly with a Lodge in another jurisdiction on any of the above mentioned transactions, they will be delayed until such time as the proper Masonic protocol is established.

However, a member of a Lodge of a sister jurisdiction, even though he may now reside within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, is at liberty to correspond directly with his Lodge.

So, please remember to observe proper Masonic protocol in dealing with all official out-of-state transactions and/or correspondence.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Grand Lodge office will be closed Wednesday, July 4, 2007 to observe Independence Day.

Thought for the Month

Every day you may make progress. Every step may be fruitful. Yet there will stretch out before you an ever-lengthening, ever-ascending, ever-improving path. You know you will never get to the end of the journey. But this, so far from discouraging, only adds to the joy and glory of the climb.

— Sir Winston Churchill

Brain fitness system combats dementia impact

Sally's Garden is first in Kentucky to offer [m]Power
A brain fitness system will help residents maintain brain health as well as combat the effects of dementia and Alzheimer's disease.

An automated brain fitness system in Sally's Garden helps residents fight memory loss.

The [m]Power system is fully automated, supplying a changing menu of activities scientifically designed to help fight memory loss and related ailments. The Masonic Home of Louisville is the first facility in Kentucky to offer the system.

"Mental stimulation helps keep the brain agile," said Administrator Israel Ray. "The [m]Power system combines decades of brain health research aimed at preventing or delaying memory loss with enjoyable activities that we believe will make a difference in helping residents become mentally fit."

[m]Power presents thousands of games, puzzles and other brain-building activities on a user-friendly touch screen. Exercises range from anagrams and name-that-tune challenges to TV-style scenes and narrated literary passages complete with special effects that include follow-up questions requiring use of short-term memory and deductive reasoning. "It feels like a game, but it's really a rigorous workout for your brain," Ray said.

Initially one [m]Power system will be available in Sally's Garden, according to Ray. "Research shows that successful aging requires ongoing mental stimulation," he said. "[m]Power is a unique system that keeps seniors coming back for more."

West Kentucky Masons send Co-Pilot to new heights

Since Grand Master Gregory C. Powell and First Lady Nancy began the Co-Pilot in Caring program, thousands of Masons have contributed to benefit Sally's Garden, the memory care neighborhood at Masonic Home of Louisville.

In western Kentucky, Masons have exhibited what the Grand Master and First Lady call exemplary airmanship in generosity. Masons in District 2 contributed $850 to help those with Alzheimer's disease or other progressive dementia get the highest quality care from the Masonic Homes. District Deputy Grand Master Mitch Phillips secured additional gifts, making the district's total gift to-date $1,500.

Programs like Co-Pilot in Caring help the Masonic Homes provide a mentally stimulating and nurturing home for residents with progressive dementia. With your support, the array of services in Sally's Garden continues to grow (see Brain fitness system story on this page) enabling our residents to enjoy life more each day.

Thanks to your support of Co-Pilot in Caring, the Masonic Homes makes a difference in the daily lives of seniors with Alzheimer's disease and dementia.

Earn your wings as a Co-Pilot in Caring

Yes! I'll join the Grand Master and First Lady in supporting Sally's Garden, the Memory Care Neighborhood at the Masonic Home of Louisville.

PEWEE VALLEY NO. 829 FORTITUDE LODGE NO. 47

On Monday evening, April 23, 2007, The Oldhan County Degree Team, consisting of members of Pewee Valley #829 and Fortitude #47, did a wonderful job of raising seven Master Masons. Three were from PV #829 and four from Fortitude #47.

There were about 50 brothers on hand for the meal and ceremony. A couple of Masonic Rings were presented by mentors, from
