FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

Another Masonic year is about to come to a close, both in the Grand Lodge and (in December) all constituent lodges, and new officers will soon be installed. The next order of business is to evaluate the successes and disappointments of the past year and put a plan in place to build on the successful endeavors, and avoid the failures and disappointments encountered. It's an undeniable fact that any change produces opportunities for disappointments and some failures, as well as successes. However, both conditions provide opportunities for improvement, and each new year should be better than the last. So, now is the time for the officers who will soon be installed to review the past year, develop a plan, and then set a course that will carry the Fraternity for the coming year, and, hopefully, well into the future. After all, that is the responsibility of stewardship entrusted to us by those honorable leaders of the Fraternity who have preceded us. There is no way we can let them down!!

ANNUAL RETURNS

I want to express my appreciation, and that of the Office Staff, to most of the Secretaries and Treasurers of the constituent Lodges for their promptness in submitting their Annual Returns and assessments to the Grand Lodge Office. As of this date (September 10, 2008) we still have 32 Lodges who failed to submit their report by September 1, 2008. Last year we had 24 still out as of this date.

DUES CARDS

The membership dues cards should be in the hands of each Lodge Secretary by the time this issue of the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. If your records indicate a member was initiated prior to the June 30, 2008, deadline, but they did not receive a computer printed dues card, you need to contact the Grand Lodge Office. If you have not received the cards for your Lodge for 2009 or you need extra blank cards let the Grand Lodge Office know. Just a reminder, each of your 50+ year members also should receive a dues card.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

It is almost too late to mention anything about the 209th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (October 20, 21, 2008) since it will be almost upon us by the time the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. However, there is still time to rearrange your plans, if necessary, to attend the Communication and fellowship with your Brethren from all across this great Commonwealth, and to tend to the important business of the Grand Lodge. I have again listed the hotel information below. Here's hoping to see many of you in attendance.

The Annual Communication this year will be held at the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky, October 20, 21, 2008. You may phone the hotel direct or contact the hotel by letter to make reservations.

2007-2008 GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

It has been another interesting year working with the Grand Lodge Offices- Elected and Appointed- as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committeemen. As other Grand Masters have done in the past, Grand Master, F. Keith Dreier has offered several new approaches and solutions to the problems that plague us. We wish him the best in the future and the same for the officers to be installed at the 209th Annual Communication.

Hopefully, together we will find the right combination to the challenges that face us as we strive to keep our Gentle Fraternity a viable force for the future.

"Bonding"

I can still remember the man who taught me the three Masonic lectures. It's been more than forty years since I've seen him but his image is still clear. He was easy to talk to, friendly and very patient.

He taught from memory and stressed the importance of "mouth to ear". When he sensed the need for a break he changed gears and taught me the little things about Masonry. I had mentioned to him in one setting that one of our lodge members had done something really rude and he said, "Remember Ron just because you go into a Masonic lodge your human nature doesn't stay outside in the yard, it goes right in there with you." On another occasion I told him I thought I could do something better than someone else. This brought instant criticism. "Whatever you do, don't try to be better than someone else. Don't try to show up your brothers. Try to be better than yourself." "Masonry" he would say, "isn't about perfection. It's about the pursuit of perfection and there's a big difference." I discovered, with amusement, his pet peeve, by saying the word Masonary. He actually became animated when he said

Masonry, Masonry. I was a little surprised, but I've never forgotten the difference.

My initial impression of him hadn't been overwhelming. He was a normal guy, a blue collar worker and a Mason. But as we progressed through the E.A. and into the Fellowcraft I was beginning to see him in a different light. As he taught me the Fellowcraft lecture he also filled in some things that had been left out during the ritual. I was amazed that someone could be so philosophical and so smart and yet appear to be just an average guy. I turned in my Fellowcraft lecture and eagerly awaited my "Big Night"

I can't recall everything from my Master Mason Degree but I do remember his advice before it started. "Remember Ron, follow your guide and fear no danger." Today, like all of us, there are times when I need good counsel and I'll think of him. If I could only seek advice from one person I'd try to find him.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Tournament yields more than $20,000

The Grant County Foods team had its highs and lows at the Grand Master's Tournament.

Grand Master Keith Dreier and First Lady Debbie Dreier teed up the Grand Master's Tournament September 8 and added more than $20,000 to the Fruits of Our Labor program.

The Dreiers launched Fruits of Our Labor in October 2007 to benefit Masonicare residents at the Masonic Homes. The program appealed to Kentucky Masons and others who wanted to help make a difference in the lives of Masonic Homes' residents who rely on Masonicare to pay for their care and services.

Instead of winding down the program as Grand Lodge approached, the Dreiers decided to host the benefit golf scramble. Vice President of Mission Advancement Phyllis O'Daniel said the response was overwhelming. "Donations and sponsorships literally poured in," O'Daniel said. "Thanks to Keith and Debbie's support, awareness of Masonicare has increased and people have stepped up to help those who need it most."

Colonels grant earmarked for rehab program

When the new rehabilitation neighborhood opens at the Masonic Home of Louisville Care Center, it will feature three treatment tables, courtesy of the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels.

Masonic Homes of Kentucky received a grant of nearly $10,000 to purchase powermat platforms. "Mat work is an important part of a balanced physical therapy program," said Louisville Administrator Israel Ray. "Power mat platforms are used to promote sitting balance and also create a gravity-eliminated position for arm and leg exercises."

Since its founding in 1931, the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels has focused on the betterment and advancement of all Kentuckians. The Order annually awards grants to organizations with demonstrated needs. In 2007, more than $1.4 million was awarded to 150 educational, service and charitable organizations.

Masonic Homes Board member Jim Judy (left) accepts the $10,000 grant from the Colonels' Jim Lindsey.

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home Memory Marchers were nearly 50 strong and raised $6,500 for the 2008 Alzheimer's Association Memory Walk. Sally's Garden is an event sponsor.

Masonic Home of Louisville CNA Cleathia Henderson (left), resident Laveria Kensly and CNA Joyce Case (right) will be featured on the cover of Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities' Care Link magazine. Readers can learn about the Home's Guardian Angel program, which promotes leadership among CNAs and improves resident care.

When lodges in District 17 have a picnic, they do more than grill and pitch horseshoes. They also raise money for the Masonic Homes. The district's August 3rd picnic yielded $1,000 for the Homes. Presenting the check was Homes Board member Gene Crady (829127) (center) and wife Janet (second from left). Accepting for the Homes were John Cauley (left), Bruce Lott (second from right) and Phyllis O'Daniel.

Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities judges Barbara Kitchen (left) and Betty Tackett (center) shared a moment with Forest Cardwell (472), a short-stay rehabilitation resident at Masonic Home of Shelbyville. The judges visited the Shelbyville campus in consideration of the Masonic Home's nomination as Central District Facility of the Year.

The Kentuckiana Cougar Club held a Cougar and Classic Ford auto show on the Louisville campus on August 16. More than 100 cars drew a steady stream of vehicle lovers throughout the day, and delighted Masonic Home residents and staff. The Club has already booked its 2009 show on the Louisville campus.

Crescent Hill Community Council Vice President Kathy Schmiat (left) presented Homes' Sr.VP of Communications CJ Parrish with the 2008 Spirit of Crescent Hill award. Masonic Homes of Kentucky was among four businesses in the Crescent Hill neighborhood recognized by the Council for ongoing commitment to the community.

Masonic Community Service

Buechel Lodge No. 896 Picnic for Firefighters

On Saturday, August 9th the members of Buechel Lodge provided a picnic of hamburgers, hot dogs, and all the fixin's to the City of Buechel Council Representatives and Buechel Firefighters. The weather was perfect for a picnic which was held on the grounds of the Buechel firehouse. Four of the six local Council Representatives were in attendance as well as Firefighters from two other districts, Okolona and McMahon and EMS units. Over 100 people were served and enjoyed lawn games and good fellowship. A slushee drink machine provided cool refreshment for all in attendance.

The Worshipful Master, Tom Middleton, presented a beautiful framed print, titled "Two Minutes of Silence" by artist Peter O'Neill, of a Firefighter, kneeling in prayer at the 9/11 New York site to the Buechel Fire Station. Captain Paul Sinclair received the framed print and was deeply touched and appreciative of the Lodge for the picnic for the Firefighters. All had a good time and the Lodge members had the opportunity to thank our public officials and fire service personnel for their dedication and service to our community.

Paducah Lodge No. 127 Inaugural "Masonic Bowl"

The inaugural "Masonic Bowl" sponsored by Paducah Lodge No. 127 between Mayfield Middle School and Paducah Middle School was played on Thursday, September 4 at War Memorial Stadium. This will become an annual event highlighting the much heated rivalry between the two school systems which represents the 2nd oldest rivalry in the state of Kentucky (Tilghman vs Mayfield).

Paducah Lodge No. 127 purchased a trophy for the winning team and individual MVP medals for each team. Paducah also paid for the games officials.
