F. Keith Dreier, Grand Master

F. KEITH DREIER
Grand Master

To the brothers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, this is my last article for the Masonic Home Journal for my term as your Grand Master. How does someone tell everyone across this state, "Thank You"? Serving these last 4 years and especially this past year as your Grand Master has been a wonderful experience for me. I have learned a lot from all of you and this time spent with all of you, I will cherish for the rest of my life. Please allow me to say to all of the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, "Thank You"!!!

It is obvious that we have grown as a Craft of Kentucky this past year. We faced several challenges throughout the year and I believe that we have grown because of it. We all had a chance to express our views and I believe that most of us did just that! But most of all I feel that we have grown from many of the experiences this past year because we all learned we are all on the same level! The open discussions that I had with all of you at the Educational Meetings and, of course, the District Meetings, were extremely enjoyable to me not to mention my visits to many of the lodges. It was in these meetings that I truly got to know many of you and what most of you really think about certain subjects. I am sure when someone reads that last statement they are going to think "No way had he enjoyed that meeting!" but you know what, I truly did. Isn't it amazing what can happen if we just get together and talk!!

I ask each of you to carry on the openness that we had these past years and continue to move this fraternity forward. I have seen first hand what you can do when you really want to make a change. We the Craft of Kentucky can make a difference because we are the light that shines in the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. We are what makes this fraternity great!!

Remember, there is a light that shines in each one of us about this fraternity. It is time to let the light out! Let's make ourselves known again by not just being masons during our meetings. We are masons 24 hours a day/7 days a week/ 365 days a year!!! Be proud of who we are!!!

Thank you so very much for you love and friendship that you have shown me this last year as your Grand Master. May god bless each and every one of the Craft of Kentucky!!!

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION PAMPHLET

The 209th Annual Communication pamphlet that contains instructions for the Lodge delegates who will attend the Annual Communication will be mailed to each Lodge Secretary on or soon after September 1. The pamphlet also lists all legislation that is to come before the assembly, along with the budget that is proposed for the next Grand Lodge fiscal year. Other budget information provided in the pamphlet is a projection of revenue that will be realized from the craft, based on the membership, and from other sources.

These pamphlets will also be available to each member that registers at the Annual Communication for as long as they last.

Each Lodge Secretary is instructed to read the pamphlet at the next communication of the Lodge following receipt of the same, and pass it on to the delegate that will represent the Lodge at the Annual Communication. This will insure that the delegates will come to Grand Lodge fully prepared to consider, discuss, and to act upon the issues at hand. However, should the delegate fail to receive one from the Secretary of his Lodge, one will be found in his registration packet when he registers at the annual session.

Every attempt is being made to ensure that each delegate is fully informed on the issues of legislation and budget prior to the Annual Communication. However, if some questions still remain, perhaps a call to the Grand Lodge Office or to one of the Grand Lodge Officers about your concerns might be helpful.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

A reminder to all Grand Lodge Committee Chairmen who wish to have their reports printed in the Advance Proceedings, that they must be received in the Grand Lodge Office prior to September 15th. This deadline allows only enough time to assemble the Reports and complete the printing of the Advance Proceedings.

However, if you have your report finished earlier than the 15th of September, please send it to the Grand Lodge Office at your earliest convenience. The office staff and I will certainly appreciate it.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Believe nothing against another but on good authority; and never report what may hurt another, unless it be a greater hurt to some other to conceal it.

- WILLIAM PENN

This memo was sent in September of 2007; however, we have received several calls recently regarding the same issue. Therefore we are reprinting the memo in the event that your lodge has received another mailing from the IRS.

MEMORANDUM

TO: LODGE SECRETARIES
FROM: JOSEPH R. CONWAY
SUBJECT: IRS LETTER

Your lodge MAY have recently received a letter from the IRS stating that you will have to electronically file your lodges return through them. This letter is a bit misleading. Under new law organizations with an income under $25,000 will have to file an electronic card through the IRS website. However there are a few exemptions. Your lodge falls under one of the exemptions.

The letter we received states that the "exceptions to the e-Postcard filing requirement include organizations that are included in a group return; private foundations required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as a Private Foundation; and section 509(a)(3) supporting organizations required to file Form 990 or Form 990-EZ as described (in their letter). In addition, this filing requirement does not apply to churches, their integrated auxiliaries, and conventions or associations of churches".

We receive, from the IRS each year, a form to "group file" for the lodges who report their gross receipts for the year are under $25,000; therefore the lodges of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (who are under $25,000) are exempt from any individual filing measures required by the Internal Revenue Service.

If you have any questions feel free to contact this office at (502) 893-0192, Monday-Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM and speak with me or Christy Ward.

Additionally, no Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft is eligible to any right or benefit exclusive to Master Masons. Lodges of research are exempt from this section.

RATIONALE

The purpose of this amendment is to permit Entered Apprentice Masons and Fellow Craft Masons to be involved in the routine affairs of the lodge.

This legislation will encourage Entered Apprentice Masons to begin attending Lodge regularly and begin the learning process at a faster pace than usual.

Entered Apprentice Masons anciently speaking, were permitted to attend Lodge so they may learn from their better informed Fellows, and Masters.

It is unjust to charge a good man dues in an organization to which he has no say, nor place. It could be deemed as taxation without representation Our founding Fathers knew too well about this issue.

District No. 17 – Raise Funds for the Masonic Homes of Kentucky

In an effort to raise funds for the Masonic Homes of Kentucky, Grand Chaplain, Gene Crady sat in the dunking booth at Carroll County Fairgrounds. It didn't take long for him to hit the water. In fact the first pitch got him. He pretty much stayed wet until everyone in line had their turn. We want to thank the Carrollton Masonic Lodge No. 134 for hosting this event and the many Lodges that supplied food, music, tractors and cars. A lot of effort was put into planning the event.

Nolen Lodge No. 806 – 100th Anniversary

Grand Master Keith Dreier, with past Grand Master's Robert Davenport, Percy Brown, Joe Conway, and David Carter with Nolen Lodge No. 806 members gathered for a 100th Anniversary celebration of Masonry at Nolen Masonic Lodge.

Pewee Valley No. 829 Entertains Bath Lodge Visitors

Pewee Valley Lodge No.829 was proud to have two visitors from Eastern Kentucky. Brother Bill Moore, Master presented both with a centennial pin, celebrating Pewee Valley's 100th Birthday. Thanks for making the long journey. Pictured left to right: Master Bill Moore; Assistant Grand Tiler, Bob Hunt; and James Fraley, Chairman of the Committee on Lodges Under Dispensation, both Brothers are from Bath Lodge No. 55.

On July 28, 2008 Jerusalem Lodge No. 9 raised two Brothers to Master Masons. They are Brothers James E. DeArmond of Jerusalem Lodge No. 9 and Steven W. Grudzinski of Ft. Campbell Lodge No. 946. Pictured above are some of the brothers in attendance, along with the two newly raised Master Masons. Jerusalem Lodge Degree team conferred the work.

Henry Barnes Lodge raised nine new Master Masons in the F. Keith Dreier Grand Master Class held June 14 at Dayton, Kentucky, in front of a large crowd. Lodge opened at 3:00 pm, with supper at 5:30 pm. Following supper, the Barnesstormers Degree Team (under the direction of Tom Buschle, Paul Sheldon, and Dale House) portrayed 'The Legend of the Temple'. The Lecture was given by Billy Scolf, and the "Charge" by the Master. The "Class" included father and son Jeff and Dan Moermond, and two courtesy candidates.

Many remarks and presentations were made, as Henry Barnes Lodge welcomed their Past Master and Grand Master 'home'.

Krypton Lodge No. 905 – Traveling Men

On August 2, 2008 Brothers from Krypton Lodge No. 905 traveled to Seivers Lodge No. 491 to put on the Master Masons Degree on three Brothers. The Brothers were raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason and an absolutely splendid time was had by all. The Brothers in attendance raised and donated more than $500.00 to Krypton Lodge for their Lodge rebuild. A truly wonderful night of Freemasonry in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Magic show to benefit Kosair Charities and the Homes

A high-energy evening of magic is coming to the Kosair Shrine Temple on Friday, September 19th when Patrick and Janice Miller headline Illusions, a fast-paced show of magic that has wowed audiences across the country.

Patrick and Janice have appeared with headliner Mac King from Harrah's in Las Vegas and were featured at the Kentucky Derby Festival's They're Off! luncheon.

A construction design and management company owner, Patrick began experimenting with magic as a hobby. He and Janice have created a series of illusions that leave audiences wondering how the tricks are performed.

"It's a truly entertaining and magical performance," said Homes CEO Gary Marsh. The Millers performed at the 2007 Master Masons Banquet, donating their time and collecting more than $1,700 in audience donations. Janice and Patrick divided the money between Kosair Charities and the Masonic Homes.

The Illusions show on September 19th costs $10 per person and includes dinner at 6:30 p.m. with the show beginning at 8 p.m. The Kosair Shrine Temple is located at 812 S. Second Street in Louisville. The Millers are generously donating all proceeds from the show to Kosair Charities and the Masonic Homes.

For reservations, phone 502/585-5412—before the tickets disappear.

Ambassador reaches beyond the Atlantic

Masonic Homes District 21 Ambassador Johnny Yates (Lancaster No. 104) may be based in Kentucky's central Bluegrass area, but he's not one to be limited by geographic boundaries.

In June, Yates visited lodges in Glasgow, Scotland and London, England, sharing the Grand Lodge of Kentucky's legacy of caring through the Masonic Homes.

"I was able to share some of our Homes' history with Scottish Brothers of Lodge Langside 955 in Glasgow as well as with the Brothers of Quatuor Coronati Lodge No. 2076 in London," Yates said. "We started by establishing the first Masonic Home of its kind in the world, and our Masonic Homes are still in the forefront of care and service today."

Masonic Homes' Sr. VP of Mission Advancement Bruce Lott said Yates' experience sets a record. "Without a doubt, Johnny has taken his commitment to the Masonic Homes farther than we imagined," Lott said. "We're thrilled that he was able to take this incredible journey, and that he shared the Masonic Homes story along the way."

RIGHT: District 21 Ambassador Johnny Yates presented a Fruits of Our Labor pin to Lodge Langside No. 955 Master Bill Daly, on the Roll of The Grand Lodge of Scotland.

J Scott Judy

Judy named Homes' COO

J Scott Judy (PM, Louisville 400) has been named Sr. VP of Operations and Chief Operating Officer of the Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

The COO position had been vacant since Gary Marsh was promoted to President and CEO in 2007. "To continuously improve and expand our services and our organization, the Board felt that we also needed to expand our leadership," Marsh said. "The Masonic Homes is fortunate to have someone with J Scott's perspective, experience and passion already on the team."

Judy joined the Homes in 2005 as Director of Development and a member of the Senior Management Team. Under his guidance, the number of donors grew and new relationships were established, resulting in broader awareness of the Homes' charitable mission. In 2008, as part of a corporate restructuring, Judy was named Sr. VP of Mission Advancement and Chief Development Officer.

Judy previously was Director of Development for Kosair Charities and Executive Vice President of Health Kentucky, Inc., a non-profit providing free health care. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky, a Certificate in Fundraising Management and is designated a Certified Fund Raising Executive.

VP of Fraternal Relations Bruce Lott (Willis Stewart No. 224) has been promoted to Sr. VP of Mission Advancement and Chief Development Officer.

Lott joined the Homes as Assistant Director of Development in 2005 and was named VP of Fraternal Relations in 2007. Lott established the District Ambassador program and helped the Masonic Home Alumni Association's fundraising campaign for the sculpture, A Place Called Home. He previously directed development and planned giving for 19 years at Christian Care Communities.

John Cauley (PM, Lewisburg No. 324) will join the Masonic Homes as Vice President of Fraternal Relations, working from his current home base in Lewisburg.

Cauley currently chairs the Grand Lodge Masonic Education Committee and Assistant Rabban of Rizpah Shrine.

Previously, Cauley was an assistant unit operator for Tennessee Valley Authority and District Executive for the Shawnee Trails and Lincoln Heritage councils of the Boy Scouts of America.

Worth a thousand words

For the third year, area sculptors and potters held a Summer Seconds Pottery Sale on the Louisville campus, and donated $300 from sale proceeds to Sally's Garden.

Members of Fortitude No. 47 and Pewee Valley No. 829 kept Sally's Garden growing by working in the courtyard garden.
