Notes FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

Another Masonic year is about to come to a close, both in the Grand Lodge and (in December) all constituent lodges, and new officers will soon be installed. The next order of business is to evaluate the successes and disappointments of the past and to focus on the successes achieved, as well as how to avoid future failures and disappointments. It's an undeniable fact that any change produces opportunities for success as well as disappointments and failure. However, each situation provides the opportunity for improvement, and each new year should be better than the last. So, now is the time for the officers who will soon be installed to review the past year, develop a plan, and then set a course that will carry the Fraternity for the coming year, and, hopefully, well into the future. After all, that is the responsibility of stewardship entrusted to us by those honorable leaders of the Fraternity who have preceded us. There is no way we can let them down!!

ANNUAL RETURNS

I want to express my appreciation, and that of the Office Staff, to the Secretaries and Treasurers of the constituent Lodges for their promptness in submitting their Annual Returns and assessments to the Grand Lodge Office. The new computer system installed this past year is causing a few minor problems as the result of some glitches being encountered in the program. We, along with the computer consultant and lodge Secretaries are gradually working out the problems, and feel the new system will be a big improvement over the old one. Thanks for your patience!

DUES CARDS

The membership dues cards should be in the hands of each Lodge Secretary by the time this issue of the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. If your records indicate a member was initiated prior to June 30, 2009, but did not receive a computer printed dues card, you need to contact the Grand Lodge Office. If you have not received the cards for your Lodge for 2010, or you need extra blank cards please contact the Grand Lodge Office. Just a reminder, each of your 50+ year members also should receive a dues card.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

It is almost too late to mention anything about the 210th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (October 19, 20, 2009) since it will be almost upon us by the time the Masonic Home Journal is delivered. However, there is still time to rearrange your plans to attend the Communication and fellowship with your Brethren from all across this great Commonwealth, and to tend to the important business of the Grand Lodge. I have again listed the hotel information below. Here's hoping to see many of you in attendance.

The Annual Communication this year will be held at the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky, October 19, 20, 2009. You may phone the hotel direct or contact the hotel by letter to make reservations.

Galt House
140 North Fourth St., Louisville, KY 40202
To make a reservation call toll free at

You can also make your reservation on line at <http://www.galthouse.com>. The website contains a link for reservations as well as pictures and videos of the facility. The deadline for the block of rooms set aside for Grand Lodge expired on September 17, 2009, so reservations may be made only as rooms are available, and at the going room rate of the hotel.

2008-2009 GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

It has been another interesting year working with the Grand Lodge Offices-Elected and Appointed—as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committeemen. As all other Grand Masters have done in the past, Grand Herman M. Forrester has offered several new approaches and solutions to the problems each new Masonic year brings. We wish him the best in the future and the same for the officers to be installed at the 210th Annual Communication...

Hopefully, together we will find the right combination to the challenges that face us as we strive to keep our Gentle Fraternity a viable force for the future.

QUOTE FOR THE MONTH

In matters of style, swim with the current; in matters of principle, stand like a rock.

On Saturday, August 29, 2009, there was plenty of smoke in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. High above the town of Krypton, in Bailey Park, there was plenty of smoke from the grill and smoker that did a fantastic job on the food that was supplied for Krypton # 905 F.& A.M., as they held their Annual Outdoor MM Degree.

There were nearly 200 Master Masons assembled to watch and assist as three (3) Fellowcrafts were raised to the sublime degree of Master Masons. They were James Scott O'Renck, Krypton Lodge # 905; William Scott Sandlin, Krypton Lodge # 905; and Curtis Hardin, Breathitt Lodge # 649. The Grand Lodge was represented by Terry Bowman, Grand Junior Warden, along with several Committeemen, and DDGM's past and present and Members of the Masonic Homes Board of Directors. MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

A monumental event

Timeless cornerstone ceremony celebrates new Care Center

In a tradition as old as Masonry itself, Grand Lodge of Kentucky officers ceremoniously laid the cornerstone at the new Care Center on the Masonic Homes' Louisville campus.

"This historic ceremony has marked the dedication of buildings throughout the world, including our Masonic Homes," CEO Gary Marsh told nearly 300 attendees. "We celebrate the Masonic Homes 142-year tradition of service and the Masonic values that are the foundation of our organization."

The event included recognition of Sam Swope (Morrison No. 76) who is honorary chair of the Home's capital campaign. "Mr. Swope is among our strongest supporters and recently honored the Homes by giving us the single largest gift in our history," said COO J Scott Judy. "Mr. Swope's generosity will enable the Homes to make a difference in the lives of seniors for years to come."

Speakers included Vice Chair of the Homes Board of Directors Martin Walters, Columbia No. 96 Secretary Joe Flowers, Grand Secretary and Homes Board Chair Joseph Conway (PGM), and Grand Master Herman Forrester.

"This is a great day for Free Masonry in the Commonwealth of Kentucky," Forrester told the crowd. "1925 was the last time an event like this happened, and I'm glad that our great brotherhood isn't finished yet with this great facility," he said. "It just goes to show that we can do anything we want to do if we want to do it."

LEFT: Honorary Chair of the Homes' capital campaign Sam Swope posed by his portrait, which will be displayed in the new Care Center's rehabilitation neighborhood.

Homes' Board Director Gene Crady and wife Janet enjoyed refreshments on The Bistro Terrace at Club Olmsted.

Village residents gave Club Olmsted a thumbs-up.

Club Olmsted opening is grand

Masonic Home Village opened the much-anticipated social center for independent living residents, Club Olmsted, in late August.

"I sat by my window for a year watching it being built... I knew it would be nice, but not over-the-top nice with all of the beautiful decorating and movie theater—a total surprise!"
Mary Torpey, Village resident

Club Olmsted is located in the lower level of Johnson Hall at the heart of the Louisville campus. The area had served as kitchen storage and an ice house when Johnson Hall was the dining room for orphans living on the campus. It's year-long transformation into Club Olmsted was worth the wait.

Along with a 30-seat cinema, art and craft studio, billiards room, card parlor and library, Club Olmsted features The Bistro, a casual dining venue for campus residents and the public alike. The diverse menu offers full meals, sandwiches, salads, soups and sweets. The Bistro serves breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Saturday, and brunch on Sunday.

A Sundry Shoppe is open daily offering personal items, household necessities and gifts. Club Olmsted also is the new home of the Masonic Home Village office, which moved from Gamett Hall.

Worth a Thousand Words

Grand Master Herman Forrester posed with mascot Buddy after throwing out the first pitch at a Louisville Bats game. Louisville No. 400 organized the special event. Along with lodge members and their families, Masonic Home Village and Homes' staff enjoyed a night at the ballpark.

Dr. Kay Mueggenburg, a judge for Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities annual facility of the year competition, greeted Masonic Home of Shelbyville resident John Clinton during the judges' visit in September. The Shelbyville home was named Central District Facility of the Year, one of five district winners in Kentucky. The statewide winner will be announced at KAHCF's conference in November.

W.G. Simpson No. 472 members Frosty Cardwell (left) and Butch Landers showed they are true fans of Masonic Home of Shelbyville. The frequently volunteering pair recently installed a new ceiling fan in the Rose Garden courtyard.

Masonic Home of Louisville's Memory Marchers participated in the Alzheimer's Association Memory Walk in September. More than 50 Louisville employees, residents and family members completed the Walk and raised more than $8,000 for Alzheimer's research.

 Established in 1867 as the first Masonic home of its kind.

Dear Kentucky Brothers: We miss you!

The May issue of The Masonic Home Journal included a letter and special envelope from Brother John Shelton, President of your St. John's Day League Board, requesting your support of the League's program to raise funds for your Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

You may have set your Journal aside to read later and not removed the envelope, or perhaps it was not available. Regardless of the reason, we respectfully ask again that you respond to our urgent request with a generous gift.

I know you have not forgotten the part of your Masonic obligation that calls on each of us to provide for widows and orphans. In Kentucky, your Homes, and those in their care, are the most visible example of that promise. Although no children currently reside there, the quality of care of literally hundreds of senior adults living at the Homes' campuses in Louisville, Shelbyville and Taylor Mill depends in part on your generosity.

I urge you to act now with a gift that is meaningful to you. I know it will be to those who are relying on us.

Your gift can be mailed to the League office at 3761 Johnson Hall Drive, Masonic Home, KY. 40041. Thank you for helping us continue this long-standing tradition.
