Grand Master's Message

HERMAN M. FORRESTER
Grand Master

There is an old saying "if you don't like the Kentucky weather, wait until tomorrow and it will change". The weather for the month of February was some of the most devastating in recent history. Ice storms paralyzed a great portion of our Commonwealth with power outages for weeks. Downed trees and powerlines caused problems of all kinds, but out of everything bad comes something good. Many of our Brethren across the state not only helped one another during this difficult time but also helped many of the citizens in our various communities by opening their Lodges and hearts to those in need. Many Lodges were open to the public providing shelter to those without power, preparing three meals a day and providing assistance. This great example of the true nature of our gentle craft inspired many organizations not affiliated with Freemasonry to follow the example that these Lodges demonstrated in this hour of need.

As your Grand Master I am so very proud of all these Brethren who are being what they profess to be, men who care and love their fellow man.

The Grand Lodge Officers traveled to Anaheim, California for the North American Grand Masters Conference. Many of the Brethren present were still talking about the great time they had in Louisville, Kentucky the year before. Our great Southern Hospitality has not been forgotten. The Conference was very well attended with Grand Officers from all over the world in attendance. Your Grand Lodge Officers learned quite a bit during this conference.

At the end of March we will be starting our district meetings for this Masonic year (my how time flies).

The District Deputy Grand Masters, Lodge Officers and members of each respective district have worked so very hard preparing for these events, thank you. The Craft of Kentucky have events going on everywhere. Masonry is certainly alive and well in our Great Commonwealth, thank you Lord.

I would be remiss if I did not mention and thank the Masonic Education Committee that has worked very hard. I appreciate these hard working Brothers so very much, Brothers John Cawley, Shelton Sammons, C.J. Dewitt, John Quisenberry, Mike Lively and Keith Tabb. The Craft thanks you and through the efforts of Brothers such as yourself there will be "no endings only new beginnings" for Freemasonry.

Notes FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary will receive the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in early May for those eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge - or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is located must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time in as much as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 25, 2009.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

We must never despair; our situation has been compromising before; and it changed for the better; so I trust it will again;

If difficulties arise; we must put forth new exertion and proportion our efforts to the exigencies of the times.

- GEORGE WASHINGTON

Suburban Lodge No. 740 Travels to Tennessee

On Feb. 7th 2009, the members of Suburban 740 answered a call from Madison Lodge 762 (Nashville, Tennessee) to visit their lodge and confer the Master Mason Degree on a Kentucky Fellowcraft Brother for their edification and enjoyment. Suburban and Robinson Lodges caravanned to Madison, Tennessee, where they found a full house of 120 Master Masons representing 23 different Lodges from Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana. As Suburban was in between degrees and had no Fellowcrafts ready, Robinson Lodge graciously allowed Suburban to do courtesy work on Fellowcraft Brother Eugene Gibson. WM Mark H. Galloway and the Suburban line officers put on the first section. In attendance were the Deputy Grand Master of Tennessee, Rev. Dickie W. Johnson as were Darrell R. Vires, Grand Marshal, Grand Lodge of Kentucky and Joseph F. Mattingly Committee on Credentials, Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

After breaking for a delicious "southern style" BBQ dinner, the members of Suburban 740 with the help of Fairdale Lodge conferred the second section on Bro Gibson.

William Galloway stated that next year, Madison plans to travel to Louisville so the local Brothers here can see their Degree Work. This is an excellent way to show Masons everywhere the way Kentucky does the Degree Work and get a chance to fellowship with Brothers you might well have never met. If you have never ventured outside the Commonwealth of Kentucky and attended another Lodge it can be great fun.

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Therapy Services keeps residents in motion

Physical Therapist Assistant Mike Truax helped Louisville resident Charles Elston strengthen his lower extremity using a leg press.

The New Year brought management of therapy services in-house at the Louisville and Shelbyville homes, along with a team of professional therapists who have joined the staff.

“Since we began providing therapy services directly through the Homes, we have experienced overwhelming support from the staff, residents and the community,” said Senior VP of Therapy Services Natalie Tinsley.

Previously, the Homes provided therapy services to residents through a contractor. By bringing the therapy services in house, cost savings have resulted and the numbers of residents receiving therapies have increased.

The number of short-stay and outpatient therapy patients, recovering from surgeries or accidents, also has risen, according to Tinsley. “Adding a range of therapies and a staff of professionals to the Masonic Homes’ reputation for quality care has attracted people from the community looking for short-term rehab,” she said.

For more information about therapy services, contact Tinsley at 502.753.8851.

A billion here, a billion there ...

BY BRUCE LOTT, CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

You’d have to be a hermit not to know that our country is in difficult times: jobs lost, companies failing, retirement assets declining sharply—the list seems endless. Of course, it isn’t the first time we have experienced this.

Some vividly remember The Great Depression and the impact it had on you personally, your family and the rest of the country. During those hard times in the 1920s, the Homes’ Louisville campus was built. It was nothing short of a miracle accomplished with the hard work, dedication and gifts from Kentucky Masons, despite their own personal and financial struggles.

That’s the way Americans are. When times are tough, we shine. Nationwide last year, we gave more than $306 billion to charitable causes, and your Masonic Homes is one of many grateful recipients.

One of our Alumni, who spent most of her childhood on the Louisville campus, shared her story about the circumstances that brought her here. During those years she had little idea of how hard it was for those “on the outside” and she remains grateful to this day for what Kentucky’s Masons did. They literally saved her life.

For those among you who have given in the past, contribute now, and for those who will bless us with part of your bounty in the future, thank you. In good times and bad, you have risen to the occasion.

Meet Triva Daughtrey

Since joining the Louisville staff last fall, Daughtrey has focused on outreach.

Triva Daughtrey joined the Masonic Home of Louisville as community liaison.

Daughtrey coordinates with hospitals and other senior living companies to move residents to the Louisville Home. Previously director of social services for Wedgewood Healthcare, Daughtrey also held positions at Westminster Healthcare, Life Care and Wedgewood Healthcare center as the Director of Admissions and Marketing.

Daughtrey holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Indiana University Southeast and a master's degree in social work from University of Louisville.

Meet Samantha Rucker

Rucker has added more off-campus outings and special in-Home events to the Shelbyville calendar.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville named Samantha Rucker activities director.

She previously served as the social services assistant for the Home.

Rucker brings six years of long-term care experience through previous positions with Homestead, Bradford Square Rehabilitation Center and Jewish Hospital Shelbyville.

Rucker holds certifications as an activity director, nurse aide and phlebotomist. She is a graduate of Trimble County High School, has completed courses at Jefferson Community College and is pursuing a degree in health care.

Worth a thousand words

Village residents Virginia Runge (left) and Vida Tomes were in full costume for the Mardi Gras party.

Louisville Memory Care Director Kathy Wiederhold (right) accepted a Volunteer of the Year award from Community Health Charities Board Chair Darryl Durham. Wiederhold was nominated for the honor by the Louisville and Southern Indiana Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.

Director Debra Finneran accepted a check for $1,342 from Senior VP of Mission Advancement Bruce Lott. The check represented Shelbyville employee contributions to the Homes during 2008.

The Ladies Oriental Club raised $377 for Homes' residents. Led by Past President Linda Roberts (center), club members presented the check to the Homes' Bruce Lott.

Barker Lodge No. 129 Shines During Blackout

On January 28, I received a call from Bobby Roder, member and resident of West Point to use the Lodge Hall as a designated Disaster Relief Center.

Originally the hall was offered as a relief center for flood conditions. I wondered how we could be of assistance since the city was completely without power.

Hardin County hooked up a generator to power the downstairs electrical systems at 8:30 p.m. West Point Police and Fire Department personnel went door to door to check on and notify the residents that Barker Lodge was set up as a relief center.

Being the only light in town, people could come in and get warm, have a cup of coffee, and a hot meal. The only thing they had to do was look for the lighted F&AM sign on Main Street.

That first night 13 residents stayed all night long. Breakfast was prepared the next morning with what we had on hand. I wondered where the additional food was to come from. However, behind the scenes, the City Employees were contacting stores, the Red Cross, churches, and individuals for donations.

From that trickle of residents the first night, came a flood of people to warm up and stay. Every resident that entered the Lodge Hall received a hot meal, refreshment of their choice hot or cold, and a hug. I was completely overwhelmed by the generosity of these residents, most of which I had never met. From a few dollars in their pockets to hundreds of dollars in groceries which were donated, but the most valuable was their gift of time. Our Lodge Hall had residents from all surrounding counties stopping in.

The Lodge Hall was kept open until 7:30 p.m., February 1, 2009. Some of the people here worked the entire time, only taking cat naps and washing up in the sink. I was never so proud to be a Mason and the Master of Barker Lodge until and during our shining moment for the community of West Point.

MASONIC MEMBERSHIP LECTURE

I hold in my hand a little scrap of paper 2 1/2 x 3 1/2 inches in size. It is of no intrinsic worth, not a bond, not a check or receipt for valuables, yet it is my most priceless possession. It is my membership card in a Masonic Lodge.

It tells me that I have entered into a spiritual kinship, with my fellow Masons to practice charity in word and deed; to forgive and forget the faults of my brethren; to hush the tongues of scandal and innuendo; to care for the crippled, hungry and the sick, and to be fair and just to all mankind.

It tells me that no matter where I may travel in the world, I am welcome to visit a place where good fellowship prevails among Brothers and friends.

It tells me that my loved ones, my home, and my household are under the protection of every member of this great Fraternity, who has sworn to defend and protect mine, as I have sworn to defend and protect theirs.

It tells me that should I ever be overtaken by adversity or misfortune, through no fault of my own, the hands of every Mason on the face of the earth will be stretched forth to assist me in my necessities.

And finally, it tells me that when my final exit from the stage of life has been made, there will be gathered around my lifeless body, friends and Brothers who will recall to mind my virtues, though they be but few, and will forget my faults, though they may be many.

It tells me that, and a great deal more, this little card, it makes me proud, yet humble, that I can possess this passport, into a Society of Friends and Brothers, that are numbered in the millions.
