Donald H. Yankey – Grand Master

DONALD H. YANKEY
Grand Master

Right Worshipful Grand Lodge Officers, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Worshipful Appointed Grand Lodge Officers, Worshipful District Deputy Grand Masters, Masters, Wardens, Family and Friends.

Shhh... I am having the best dream ever, so I don't want anyone to awaken me until it is over. I would like to thank you for the opportunity to serve you as Grand Master, it is very humbling to be elected to represent the Craft of Kentucky. It is an honor that I will not take lightly, and will strive for the best interest of Freemasonry. As we begin, my goals are very simple; they are values that we have all heard many times. We must Love one another, Take care of our Widows and Brothers, and let our light shine in our communities. We must strive to confer and improve our Ritual work across the state, and get back to Making Masons, not Members. You as Masons have the knowledge, and the experience to make a difference in someone's life. I am challenging you and your Lodges to step up and become the best Masons and mentors you can be. It is through the Ritual and the members of every Lodge, that Masonry will continue to be the proud Fraternity that it should be.

To our Past Grand Masters who accepted to be here for the installation of Grand Lodge Officers for 2010-2011, I thank you for sharing your dedication to the Craft of Kentucky, and for your personal friendship.

Jr. Past Grand Master Todd, I am proud to call you my Brother and my friend. I wish for you the best in the future. It doesn't seem like it has been five years since we met and stood side by side as brothers seeking the position of Grand Junior Warden. But we both set out and accomplished our goals.

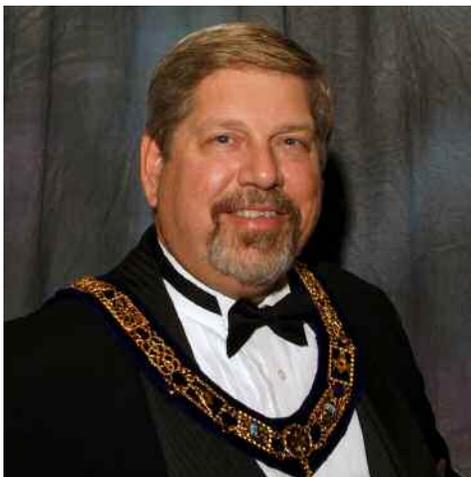

Aurora #633 some 29 years ago accepted me into there Lodge. About a year later I petitioned for a dual membership with McNeil #586. Brother Howard Cross, along with the Brethren from these Lodges, taught the lessons I needed to become a Mason. To these Brethren I will forever be eternally grateful.

Janice my wife, my best friend it is with your support that I was able to reach this point in my Masonic career. I love you. I will see you and the kids in about a year. Keep showing the grandkids my photo so they don't forget who I am. I know that you will also be on the go as the Grand Organist for the Order of the Eastern Star. Maybe we can meet in the middle somewhere.

Brethren I will need your help this year. Alone I can do very little; together we can accomplish great things.

Donald H. Yankey

Richard T. Nation Elected Grand Junior Warden

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Junior Warden

On Tuesday, October the 12th, 2010, Richard Thomas Nation was elected and installed as Grand Junior Warden, of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F.&A.M.

Brother Nation is a Past Master of Shelby Lodge No. 662, and is currently serving as Secretary. Brother Nation has served the Grand Lodge of Kentucky as District Deputy Grand Master in 2003-2004, Chairman of the Committee on By-Laws 2005-2006, and Grand Senior Deacon in 2007-2008.

Brother Nation is a member of the Shelbyville York Rite Bodies, Scottish Rite, Valley of Lexington, Oleika Shrine Temple, and a Life Member of the Past Masters Society of Central Kentucky. He and his wife of 33 years, the former Karen Weis, are members of the Rob Morris Chapter No. 144, Order of the Eastern Star.

Brother Nation and his wife Karen, have three sons, and a granddaughter, and are both members of Elk Creek Baptist Church.

Brother Nation is currently serving as Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

Congratulation, Brother Nation. May you have an enjoyable journey in serving the Craft of Freemasonry in Kentucky.

Notes

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

Each year, following the conclusion of the Annual Communication, and drawing on the illustrious history of Freemasonry in Kentucky for guidance, we should pause and reflect on the actions we have taken in an attempt to improve our Fraternity and move it into the future, hopefully, in as good or better shape than it was at the beginning of the Masonic year just past. How good has been the measure of our stewardship? What have we personally, or as part of a group, done to fulfill our responsibility as a Freemason?

These two questions are certainly worth taking the time for each of us to answer. Someone once said that our generation is "enjoying the shade of a tree we didn't plant". Consequently, good stewardship demands that our generation, and those that follow, must plant as many or more trees than the last, in order to provide the shade for Freemasons of future generations.

So it is with the tenets of Freemasonry which have been handed down to us through the efforts our Masonic Brethren of past generations. Collectively, we are responsible to maintain the integrity of the Fraternity during the term of our stewardship; however, each of us is individually charged to continually make a truthful assessment of our personal stewardship, thus assure that the philosophy, principles and tenets of the Craft are preserved and passed on to the next generation.

Hopefully, a review of the past year, and the Annual Communication just concluded, will show that we, as a Fraternity and individually, have lived up to challenge.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS INSTALLED

Congratulations are in order for the newly elected and appointed Grand Lodge Officers. Brother Donald Yankey was impressively installed as Grand Master, assuming the office with an enthusiastic outlook for the coming year. Each of the other line officers was advanced and Brother Rick Nation was elected as Grand Junior Warden. These Officers were chosen to lead the Craft of Kentucky by the Delegates assembled. Let's give them all the support and encouragement necessary for them to accomplish their goals- which should be our goals also.

DUES CARDS 2011

The 2011 dues cards are being printed at the time of this writing and will soon be mailed to the Secretary of each constituent Lodge, along with extra blank cards for use during the year. If you fail to receive the cards for your Lodge this month please contact this office for duplicates.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Thursday, November 11, 2010, in observance of Veterans' Day, and Thursday and Friday, November 25-26, 2010, in observance of Thanksgiving Day and will reopen on Monday, November 29, 2010. The Grand Lodge Office Staff wish for each of you and your family an enjoyable and meaningful Thanksgiving!

LIST OF LODGE OFFICERS AND MASONIC DIRECTORY FOR 2011

The next task facing the Grand Secretary's Office is compiling the Masonic Directory. Some time in early December each Lodge will receive a form on which to list the officers elected for the year, the address and telephone number(s) of the three principal officers and the Secretary. As soon as the officers are elected, please complete this form and send it to the Grand Secretary's Office as quickly as possible, in order that we may process the information for the Directory.

For the Directory to be meaningful, we must have it available as early as possible after the beginning of the New Year. If the completed form from your lodge has not been received in the Grand Secretary's Office before January 10, 2011, there is a good chance the officers of your lodge will not be listed in the Directory. Please do not let this happen.

Also, on the same form, we ask that you furnish the exact address or location of your lodge so that it can be easily found from the information provided in the Directory. It has come to our attention a number of lodges have relocated or their address has been changed, with the old address still listed in the Directory. Hopefully, the new Directory can be brought up to date.

Sproutlings begins growing on Louisville campus

With a ceremonial groundbreaking, Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center began growing on Masonic Homes' Frankfort Avenue campus. Slated to open in fall 2011, Sproutlings will reside in the $4.5 million Kosair Charities Center now under construction.

Sproutlings
Pediatric Day Care Center

Sproutlings will offer care for 110 children ages six weeks through early teens, half of whom will be prescribed care by their physicians, along with 55 children without special needs. Masonic Homes was awarded a Certificate of Need from Kentucky's Cabinet for Families and Children to serve medically fragile children in the seven-county KIPDA area development district. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services estimates nearly 20 percent of Kentucky children are affected by medical conditions that require daily nursing support and additional therapies.

Sproutlings will be staffed by approximately 50 people working two shifts to operate the center Monday through Saturday from 6 a.m. to midnight. RNs, LPNs and CNAs, as well as childcare education, transportation and administrative professionals, will provide an array of appropriate services and programming. The center will provide 13,900 square feet of dedicated space plus an additional 6,000 square feet of space outdoors in a covered arcade area.

Situated south of existing Masonic Home Village apartments, Sproutlings Day Care Center will occupy the entire first floor of the Kosair Charities Center. Kosair Charities committed $1 million toward the $4.5 million construction cost of the project.

Masonic Homes and Kosair Charities officials ceremoniously began construction of the Kosair Charities Center on the Homes' Louisville campus.

Homes receive five KAHSA awards

Masonic Homes of Kentucky were recognized for innovative programs and professional achievements at the Kentucky Association of Homes and Services for the Aging's annual awards luncheon held September 24.

The Masonic Homes garnered five statewide awards in the categories of Outstanding Service, Outstanding Board Leadership and Innovation of the Year.

Two Outstanding Service Awards went to the Masonic Home of Shelbyville. Admissions Coordinator Jackie Waits was recognized for her ability to wear many, many hats while ensuring that the resident admission process runs smoothly. When an admission comes in past 5 p.m. or on the weekend, Jackie is there when the resident arrives and stays until they are tucked into bed.

MDS Coordinator Jeff Mackey, also from the Masonic Home of Shelbyville was honored for his abilities to motivate his entire team while challenging fellow employees to think outside of the box. In his three year tenure, Jeff has truly managed to improve numerous areas of his entire department.

Medical Records professional Lisa Buschkoetter of the Masonic Home of Louisville was recognized for her innovations and charitable efforts. A dedicated employee, Lisa is always looking out for resident's welfare and privacy while also enhancing resident life by bringing in her own pets for residents to enjoy.

The Innovation of the Year Award went to the Wings of Doves Palliative Program at the Masonic Home of Louisville. This is a multi-disciplined program designed to offer residents and their families comfort, support, and one-on-one attention at the end of life. While constantly changing and improving, Wings of Doves will always ensure that no resident dies alone.

The Outstanding Board Leadership Award went to Joe Conway who has served on the Masonic Homes of Kentucky Board of Directors for the past 28 years. In 2004 Joe accepted the office of Chairman knowing that many challenges lay ahead. Under his leadership, The Masonic Homes of Kentucky have become thriving, vibrant communities that are still growing today. With new developments such as a patio home neighborhood, the Sam Swope Care Center, Select Home Care Options and Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center, Joe remains an outstanding leader.

Worth a thousand words

▲ Kosair Charities Board Chair Jerry Ward (center) presented the final installment of a $1 million grant to the Homes' Judy (left) and Bruce Lott at Kosair Charities' annual grants presentation event. The grant has enabled the Homes complete plans for the Kosair Charities Center on the Louisville campus. The center will be home to Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center.

▲ Judges from the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities arrived at Masonic Home of Shelbyville for their final site visit in the Facility of the Year competition. Shelbyville Administrator Debra Finneran and Director of Nursing Sally Jo Magness greeted judges as they began their visit with staff, residents and community leaders. The statewide Facility of the Year winner will be announced at KAHCF's annual meeting and trade show in November.

Grand York Rite Sessions Held In Lexington

Kentucky's Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Grand Council Royal & Select Masters, and Grand Commandery, Knights Templar completed the annual sessions in Lexington, KY on September 18. Most of the leaders of Freemasonry in Kentucky and several of the national and international leaders were present during all or part of the meetings, together with leaders from other states and our own delegates from throughout Kentucky.

Grand High Priest James G. Hogue of Harrodsburg opened the Grand Chapter on Thursday morning for introduction of distinguished guests and routine business. Present were Most Worshipful Grand Master, Free and Accepted Masons, Todd Eastham, as well as several Grand Lodge Officers, past and present. Past Grand Master Roger D. Barnett, Deputy for Kentucky for the Scottish Rite was also present as well. In addition J. William Riggs, Regional Deputy of the General Grand Chapter, East Central Region, and Emory J. Ferguson of Alabama, General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons International were in attendance. Many dignitaries from surrounding states attended as well. Business was all of a routine nature. Gary K. Hunt of Campbellsville was elected Grand High Priest for the coming year, while James H. King of Danville was advanced to Grand King and Past Grand Master Gregory C. Powell of Villa Hills was advanced to Grand Scribe. Wendell Curtis of Cynthiana was elected Grand Captain of the Host, Past Grand Commander Leslie E. Black of Louisville was reelected Grand Treasurer of all three bodies as was Past Grand Master William G. Hinton of Shelbyville Grand Secretary. Robert Peel-man, High Priest of Temple Chapter in Covington was awarded the General Grand Chapter Bronze Medal for Meritorious Service. J. William Riggs was presented with the very prestigious Ritual Proficiency Medal. Rebecca Warth, Secretary to Grand Secretary Hinton, and Judy Hogue, wife of the outgoing Grand High Priest, were both honored with the Sweetheart of the Grand Chapter Award from General Grand Chapter.

Illustrious Grand Master Robert Stanford of Franklin presided over the Grand Council on Friday, after demonstrating a full form opening for the benefit of the Companions present. All business was routine in the Council as well. The Grand Lodge was represented by Donald Yankey, Deputy Grand Master. Several other past and present Grand Lodge officers were also present including our Grand Junior Warden, Chris Stout. Among the visiting dignitaries, in addition to several visiting Illustrious Grand Masters from other jurisdictions, was Warren Caruss, from Michigan, Regional Deputy for the East Central Region, as well as George Sellars, also from Michigan, who is Deputy Most Puissant General Grand Master of the General Grand Council. Douglas W. Bunch of Alvaton was elected Illustrious Grand Master for the coming year, while Tim Owens of Corbin was advanced to Deputy Grand Master and James V. Jones of Scottsville was elected Principal Conductor of the Work. PGHP and PGC Raleigh C. Foster of Louisville was elected Grand Captain of the Guard. James H. Adkins from Pikeville received the award as Cryptic Mason of the Year, while Tim Berry from Scottsville received the Youth Award.

Grand Commander Arius Holbrook of Whitesburg presided over the conclave of the Grand Commandery on Saturday, overseeing routine business as well as the passage of an updated constitution. Archie R. Smallwood of Louisville was elected Grand Commander for the coming year while George F. Brooks of Frankfort was elevated to Deputy Grand Commander and Bobby E. Crittenden of Dayton was elected Grand Generalissimo. William F. Lile of Louisville was elected Grand Captain General. The Knight Templar Cross of Honor was awarded to Sir Knight James D. Reeder of Morehead by the Grand Encampment. Ray Swanson, Commander of Louisville DeMolay Commandery # 12 was presented The Knight Commander of the Temple Award. The Encampment was represented by Robert K. Cronk from Illinois, Department Commander of our region, and Duane Vaught, Grand Captain General of the Grand Encampment, from Indiana.

The sessions were all conducted in obvious harmony and the delegates returned home looking forward to next year's sessions, which will likely return to Louisville on September 18, 2011. The site will be the Holiday Inn Hurstbourne. In 2011, the Grand Commandery will begin the sessions with the Divine service on Sunday night, as was done in previous years. The annual banquet and award presentation will take place on Tuesday night, September 20.
