Home and Community Based Services

This month, I wanted to take a break from Masonic Light and speak very briefly about the Kentucky Frontiersman program. All proceeds from the Kentucky Frontiersmen Program will benefit the Home and Community Based Services initiatives currently under development at the Masonic Homes.

What this program is designed to accomplish is to keep Masons in their homes longer, provide assistance, counseling, and high tech innovations that will assist Kentucky Masons and Widows in their own homes and towns. This type of program has also been coined as "aging in place" which allows elderly or incapacitated Masons and their Widows the opportunity to live independently for as long as possible.

One of the biggest complaints I had when I was a candidate for Grand Junior Warden was that "the Homes does not do anything for me". I did what I promised and asked the Homes to take a look at some type of program to assist Masons, and in return they, along with the Board of Directors, approved moving forward on this project. I put myself on the line for the Craft and told the Homes that if they gave me this program to assist the Masons of Kentucky directly as they age, that I would give them the support from the Masons that it would benefit. I have even went as far as donating a handmade Kentucky Long Rifle to commemorate this program that someone will have above their fireplace or on the wall in their home. When you buy a ticket and pin, you are giving back not only to other Masons, but possibly to yourself, for this money will be used solely for this program and this program only. I challenge each and every Mason in the Commonwealth to help me, by helping yourself and this program, for it is not only the Craft of Kentucky who will benefit, but the Widows of Brothers as well. The tickets for the Kentucky Long Rifle are limited and going fast, so please see your District Deputy or Masonic Homes Ambassador to purchase one.

My Brothers, believe me when I say that this is not about me, it is a labor of love and a promise I made to the Craft that I am keeping. Only through your help can I make this dream a reality, so please give as liberally as you can, and hopefully we will all benefit, maybe not now, but in our later days when we need it the most.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Masonic Light Seminars. I love each and every one of you, and may God bless you, your families, and your home Lodges.

Notes FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

If one wants to read about the Masonic Fraternity there are a multitude of books available in book stores nationwide; from those written by authors who make a conscientious attempt to thoroughly investigate the history of the Fraternity and report honestly on their findings, separating their assumptions from facts as they find them, to those whose only intent and purpose is to discredit and smear the Fraternity as much as possible. Truth and facts mean nothing to the latter group. A case in point is the notorious Frenchman, Leo Taxil (Gabriel Antoine Jogand-Pages), who, after a brief association with the Fraternity in the late 1800s, began to write a series of "exposés" purporting to reveal the dark side of Freemasonry. It mattered not that his writings were filled with distortions and outright lies; they were taken as fact by those who wanted to believe the worst about Freemasonry. And, even though he later admitted that he had distorted the truth, and outright fabricated much of the material relating to the Fraternity in his writings, there are those today who refer to his books as reliable source material whenever they wish to discredit Freemasonry.

Assuming that most Masons are like me when selecting a Masonic book to read, we most always try to pick one that is informative and, hopefully, favorable to the Fraternity, in order to prepare us to answer the questions we are sometimes asked by non-masons—and sometimes by Masons as well. However, it is often just as beneficial to select a book that gives a distorted and untrue description of Freemasonry and our Rituals, as well as one which is favorable. To do so helps one to be able to answer undeserved negative criticism and false impressions of the Fraternity with an informed response to those who may have been exposed only to the anti-Masonic view of the Order.

Last week I picked up one such book I received, unsolicited, through the mail from one of the anti-Masonic religious groups that we are all familiar with, and, out of curiosity, decided to see what it had to say. Well, it wasn't much different than the publications of all the other anti-Masonic groups in handling the truth and facts as they relate to the Masonic Fraternity. However, this one particular publication went much further than others I am acquainted with in that it identifies the Fraternity as part of worldwide conspiracy, in conjunction with others, that is over two-hundred years old, and states "An enemy has been stalking America for over 200 years. She is about to apply the death grip from which America will never recover". The author claims this conspiracy involves the Masonic Fraternity, the Illuminati, the Jesuit Order, the House of Rothschild's, the Council on Foreign Relations and many other religious and governmental bodies as participants. Also named either directly or indirectly in the "conspiracy" were a plethora of historical individuals, from Pope Clement XIII to Bill Clinton and George W. Bush, including J. P. Morgan., the Rockefellers, Woodrow Wilson, George Marshall, Harry Truman, and on and on.

The most outrageous statement was the assertion the World War I and World War II were planned to further this conspiracy for worldwide domination some two-hundred years before they occurred; some planning, huh? Since most such groups have enough trouble preparing next year's budget.

The book did provide for some interesting reading, something akin to reading a comic book. There doesn't appear to be any depth to which these anti-Masonic groups will sink in their outrageous attempts to undermine and/or bring discredit to the Fraternity. Consequently, I feel that it is beneficial and worthwhile to read some of these anti-Masonic publications from time to time in order to keep abreast of the misinformation they attempt to pass on to an unsuspecting public as fact.

So, on a night when you have trouble sleeping, pick up one of these fictional publications and amuse yourself; Facts are scarce—but fiction abounds!

MASONIC DIRECTORY

Lodge Secretaries, you should soon receive a Masonic Directory for your use. Additional Directories may be purchased from the Grand Lodge Office at cost plus mailing charges.

Again this year several Lodges that failed to submit the list of Officers elected and appointed will not be listed in the Directory, and several others were late in submitting the list. This oversight on the part of those Lodges makes the Directory late in completion and less useful to those who may wish to visit or contact those Lodges not listed than it would be otherwise.

Each year it is my hope that we can have all Lodges report the newly elected and appointed Officers prior to January 10 and have 100% of the Lodges included in the Directory. Again, this year we didn't make it—Maybe next year!!!

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

MASONIC NEWS

A Great Day for Shrine Masonry

January 9, 2010 will go down as a great day for Kosair and Shrine Masonry. For the first time at Kosair, a Lodge of Master Masons was opened in Kosair for the purpose of conducting the re-obligation of the three degrees of Masonry. Potentate Kirk Carter requested that his Lodge, Swigert-Middletown #218 open Lodge and conduct the re-obligation for the benefit of Kosair.

Present were Grand Lodge Officers: Deputy Grand Master Don Yankey, Grand Senior Warden Terry Bowman, Grand Treasurer Tom Larimore. Also attending were DDGM #14 Al Clark, Swigert-Middletown #218 Worshipful Master David Howser and Officers and Members, and Kosair Potentate Kirk Carter and Divan. Over 150 Kosair Nobles also attended.

Swigert-Middletown did an excellent job of going through the obligations. It was a wonderful and meaningful way to begin the year at Kosair. The motto for the year will be "Remembering Our Obligations, Freemasonry First". Special thanks go out to all who participated.

Bewleyville Lodge 228 – Inspects the Paper Work

If you have visited Bewleyville Lodge No. 228, you are aware that they are without running water. They depend on outside facilities, (outhouse) to take care of business. On a recent visit the Lodge members were selling shares to acquire two port a pots. This became known as the "Potty Fund." Barker Lodge became aware of their need and collected funds to purchase the pots. On December 19, 2009, Master Richard Myldy (pictured) reads the donation amount off the presented roll of toilet paper. Just another example of one Mason offering another a helping hand.

Barker Lodge 129 – Family of Masters

On December 19, 2009 with the installation of the Master Patrick Jolley, Barker Lodge #129 had for the first time in its 167 year history a father and two sons serve as Master.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

What Masonry is all about

One man shares his Great Day of Service experience

By JAMES G. HOGUE—GRAND HIGH PRIEST, ROYAL ARCH MASONS OF KENTUCKY

During the spring of 2009, a group of friends and I, from several different Lodges in District 21, went to the Shelbyville Campus to be a part of the One Great Day of Service. This was a very meaningful experience for all of us.

The Masonic Home welcomed us warmly when we arrived. In no time we had been selected for duties that needed to be completed and were at work. For many, who had never before participated, what Masonry was all about, was quickly apparent. Having that feeling of taking care of our brothers and sisters or at least making their world a little more beautiful was heart-warming.

I observed a large number of Masons, some with wives and family members, toiling on projects that they were physically able to complete. With that number of people working and with the assistance of the Home staff, improvements became quickly noticeable. Landscaping, painting, building of shelters, and much conversation and teasing were accomplished with ease.

I am sure that our Homes' Ambassador for District 21 Johnny Yates will again this year suggest that we come to help out. I don't believe he will have to suggest as hard this time as I for one am looking forward to that day.

Meet Amy Lyons

Amy Lyons has been promoted to Director of Nursing for Masonic Home of Louisville. A registered nurse with nine years of experience, Lyons joined the Home in September 2009 as nurse supervisor.

Previously, she served as director of nursing for Regency Care and Rehabilitation Center; where she was honored by Sunbridge Healthcare as Regional Nursing Director of the Year. She also served as assistant director of nursing and staffing development coordinator for Hillcrest Centre for Health and Rehabilitation.

Lyons holds a bachelor's degree in nursing and is pursuing a master's degree at McKendree College. She serves on the steering committee at the Home for culture change and will help lead the transition for staff and residents to the new Louisville Care Center; on schedule to open in December 2010.

Grand Master's program helps fund new Homes' service

Masonic Homes of Kentucky is preparing to pilot a home and community based services program to help seniors and others continue living in their homes, instead of moving to a facility.

The project will begin with a pilot in the FIVCO Area Development District which includes Boyd, Carter, Elliott, Greenup and Lawrence counties. The area was selected because of the commitment of Grand Master L. Todd Eastham, whose Kentucky Frontiersmen Program is raising money to fund the project. The area also boasts a large population of Masons, who will be able to access the services for little or no cost.

"More seniors seek services delivered in their homes," said Homes' CEO Gary Marsh. "From medical assistance to homemaker tasks to transportation, seniors today are looking for help that will enable them to live independently—and remain in their homes—for as long as possible."

Homes' staff will begin assessing services available in the FIVCO area this spring. Marsh hopes to begin offering services by late summer 2010.

Once the program's business model is refined in the FIVCO area, plans call for extending the services into a broader area. "Our long-term goal is to offer home and community based services throughout the Commonwealth," Marsh said.

Sights set on helping the Home

Grand Master L. Todd Eastham has his sight set on helping the Homes provide leading-edge services through Kentucky Frontiersmen. Funds from Kentucky Frontiersmen will help provide better lifestyles for seniors through a home and community based services pilot project (see corresponding article on previous page).

The Grand Master has donated a Kentucky long rifle, pair of custom powder horns and leather long hunter's bag, valued at $10,000, for the Kentucky Frontiersmen program. Raffle tickets to win the entire ensemble may be obtained by mailing the envelope in this issue of Masonic Home Journal, with your check.

Purchase a $20 ticket and you will receive a commemorative pin. Purchase more raffle tickets and you will receive a pin plus a special Kentucky Frontiersmen keepsake. Help the Homes stay on target and help seniors live independently in their homes for as long as possible. Simply complete and mail the envelope in this issue of Masonic Home Journal with your check today.
