Bullitt Lodge 155 Christmas Party

On Sunday, December 13th, Bullitt Lodge No. 155 had its annual Christmas Party with "Santa". The house was full of members, their families, guests and children. A wonderful day of fellowship and a meal, prepared by the Order of Eastern Star Chapter #183 of turkey, ham, dressing and covered dishes was had by all. Santa listened to the long requests of the children and gave candy canes to each. Each child will receive a picture of them sitting on Santa's lap. The Masonic Widows were called to come forth and have a picture taken with Santa and were given a small gift of appreciation. Thirteen widows were present at this party.

Each year at the annual Bullitt Lodge # 155 Christmas Party, a monetary donation to IRSF (International Rett Syndrome Foundation) for research is presented. This year's donation as in part years, of $742.00 was made in "The Memory of Michaela Lee Walls". Michaela passed away on May 3rd, 2009, the daughter of Past Master Frank Walls and his wife Lori.

Cassia Lodge 272 Delivers Christmas Spirit

Brothers John W. Embry and Harold Ray West of Cassia Lodge No. 272 delivered Christmas baskets to the Brothers and Widows residing at Lakeview Care and Rehab Center in Morgantown, Kentucky.

L. TODD EASTHAM
Grand Master

Leadership in the East

As we head into the Masonic Light Seminars over the next few months, I wanted to address the Brethren with a topic that we can never get enough of, that being quality leadership in the East. The reason should be quite apparent to most, but for some, the rationale will be entirely foreign. It has been said that a leader is someone who influences and directs people in a way that wins their obedience, confidence, respect, and loyal cooperation in achieving a common objective. That being said, my view on leadership aside from a purely academic standpoint is someone who is first willing to lead, secondly knows how to lead, and finally has the ability to make the decisions that no one else can make and live with those consequences.

I had the occasion to read a short talk about a teacher who cherished a long standing desire to become a Master Mason. His petition to the Lodge in the town where he resided was accepted and he passed investigation as well as the ballot. He presented himself and took the Entered Apprentice degree, but never returned. The Brethren of the Lodge concluded, the short talk author lamented, that they had made a mistake in electing that particular Entered Apprentice because of his apparent lack of interest. It was actually not a lack of interest that caused him to go out of the door, never to return. It was the disappointment and disillusionment over the performance of the Master of that Lodge who caused the initiate an insult to his intelligence. This was because the Leadership of the Masonic Fraternity in that community was careless, sloppy, and crude. The Master was attempting to do something for which he was not prepared, and because he was trying to give good and wholesome instruction on subjects he knew nothing about, a good man was lost forever to Freemasonry. I wonder how many prospective Masons in our own jurisdiction may go the same way, and never return to us because of our shortcomings and our refusal to perform the various degrees in the completeness and spirit they were intended.

Contrary to popular belief, the Secretary of the Lodge is not the Master, but rather a valuable resource of knowledge and wisdom. So often, a new Master looks to the Secretary for aid and assistance on issues pertaining to the Book of Constitutions, Lodge Governance, Rules of Order, General Etiquette, or other matters that may be of benefit at any given time during a meeting. This is because the Secretary has usually been in his station for a number of years and quite honestly seems to "know what is going on". I believe more than one person in a Lodge should have the sufficient knowledge and leadership abilities to govern the Lodge, namely the Master. In him rests all the power vested him by his own peers, and he should step up to the challenge and not be part of a puppet regime in which he is guided by the "good old boys" who have always ran the Lodge. Everyone has their own style of leadership, and mine will differ from others, as it should. Leaders are sometimes born, but more often education is the key to developing the type of leadership needed in the East, both at the Subordinate and Grand Lodge levels. Consider this fact, at some point a Master currently serving in this Grand Jurisdiction may eventually become our Grand Master. I would hope this Brother is leading, guiding, and superintending his Lodge, not following. We should all hope that he is not dictatorial in nature, but has taken to heart the Ancient Charges and Regulations of our order and is applying them as we speak.

The Book of Constitutions speaks volumes as it relates to a Master and his duties and prerogatives, they are included but not limited to the following:

To preside and have general supervision over his lodge and decide questions of law and order, but any member of the lodge may appeal from the decision of the Master to the Grand Master and from his decision to the Grand Lodge.

To see that the by-laws and resolutions of his lodge are observed, and that the constitution, rules, and edicts of this Grand Lodge are duly obeyed.

To see that monthly reports are promptly made to this Grand Lodge.

To attain such proficiency in the work as will enable him to conduct the ceremonies of his lodge in a creditable manner.

To call communications of his lodge as provided in Section 107.

To attend the communications of the Grand Lodge, or if unable to attend, to see that his lodge is represented thereat.

The Master of a Masonic lodge is the custodian of its charter and cannot delegate that authority to another. Upon him is laid the responsibility of its care, and to him the Grand Lodge looks for its preservation. As a lodge cannot be opened in the absence of its charter, it is the duty of its Master to always have that instrument in the lodge or ante-room at all communications of the lodge.

No lodge should elect any brother, either as Master or Warden, unless he manifests such care and zeal for Masonry as to induce the belief that he can and will qualify himself to preside according to the laws and usages of Masonry.

When installed, the Master's authority to preside over the lodge is complete, and his acts, within the scope of that authority, are binding.

My Brothers, the station of Master is a high honor, but with it comes a high price to be paid. To live up to the expectations of others, as well as his conscience sometimes is a fine line to walk. I guess it can be summed up in these simple words: lead, follow, or stand aside for it is the future of the Lodge, and the future of the Grand Lodge as a whole that hangs in the balance with each decision of a Master, be it good, or be it poor.

Look well my Brothers to the Ancient Usages and Customs we follow, and accept nothing but the best you have within you. I along with the Grand Line Officers know that continuous improvement is something that we must always strive for. We look forward to seeing you all at the Masonic Light Seminars, and hope your travels find you safe, healthy, and happy.

Notes FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

By this time all lodge installations are over and the new (and recycled) officers have been charged with their duties, and have settled into the responsibilities of their respective offices. Each of you is to be commended for assuming those duties and responsibilities for a time. Hopefully, the Secretary of each lodge has taken his duty seriously and has forwarded the information regarding the new lodge officers to the Grand Lodge Office in order to prepare the Masonic Directory for 2010. Each year a few of the Secretaries fail to get the information to the Grand Lodge Office in time to be included in the Directory. Consequently, that makes the Directory less useful than it would be if all lodges are listed in the same. The Directory is quite helpful to the Grand Lodge Officers and those Masons who wish to visit lodges throughout the Commonwealth. So, if you care to attract visitors to your lodge, make sure your lodge is listed in the Directory.

Lodge and Taxes

Contrary to what many believe, the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and its constituent Lodges do not classify under Federal, State, County, or City Codes as charitable organizations and are, therefore, liable for various taxes that apply according to many tax laws. The IRS classification for the Grand Lodge and Subordinate Lodges is 501 (C) (10) Fraternal Non Profit and as such, does not relieve them from paying certain taxes such as property taxes, sales taxes, unemployment taxes, income taxes (in certain cases), and probably others that do not readily come in mind.

Each year I report to the IRS the Gross Receipts of each Lodge, as it is reported to me on the Lodge Officers form, as a blanket report for all the Lodges within this Grand Jurisdiction. As long as the receipts of the Lodges are less than $25,000.00 yearly- unless you receive notification from the IRS otherwise- I can make the report for you, provided I have the information requested on the Officers Form, signed by the Secretary and under the Seal of the Lodge. If gross receipts of your Lodge are $25,000.00, or more, yearly then you must submit a completed Form 990 to the IRS on your own.

Since the tax codes are so complex, I am somewhat reluctant to advise Lodges on their tax situations and/or liabilities. Therefore, if I have created any doubts in your mind about individual Lodge tax responsibilities, I suggest that you contact either the IRS or a reliable tax consultant to clear up any questions that may come to mind.

Lodge Liability Insurance Coverage

Sometime ago I asked our local insurance carrier, the Wells Fargo Company, to furnish this office with a general summary of the two types of insurance coverage, provided by the Grand Lodge Blanket Insurance Coverage, that is the most common concern of most Lodges. Since the information is still current, I think it would be beneficial to print it again, as follows:

- RE: 1. Liability Insurance
2. Workers Compensation Insurance

As you know, your Lodge is provided Liability Insurance Coverage by a master policy through Grand Lodge. That policy covers your normal Lodge activities, whether they occur in your building or elsewhere (Examples: Parade, Picnic, etc).

The policy, however, is not meant to cover operations not usual for a Lodge. If, for example, you hold a regular Fish Fry, your Lodge should have a separate Liability Policy to cover the operation. Additionally, if you let other groups use your Lodge, you need separate Liability Coverage.

The Grand Lodge also provides a workers compensation policy to cover the employees usual to a Lodge. Typically your Lodge may have a person doing clerical work or general maintenance of the Lodge facility. The policy is not designed to cover people who are hired to do other work not closely affiliated with the operation of the Lodge. If, for example, the Lodge owns farm property, and hires individuals to work on the farm, your Lodge should purchase its own workers compensation policy to cover those employees. Remember, the Master Workers Compensation Policy is provided to cover the employees that are usual to the operation of your Lodge.

Wells Fargo Company address:
P.O. Box 24008, Louisville KY 40224-0008
(502) 425-9444

Each January a "Memorandum of Insurance" certificate, summarizing the coverage each Lodge has, is mailed to each Secretary. Note that this insurance covers only Lodge activities- it does not extend coverage to the building. If the Lodge owns the building, additional Liability coverage is a must in order to protect the Lodge and it membership against liability claims.

If you have specific questions regarding the Insurance coverage, you may direct them to either the Wells Fargo Agency (Jack Matthews) at the number listed above, or this office- whichever best suits you.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE CLOSED
The Grand Lodge Office will be closed
Monday, February 15, 2010 in observance of Presidents Day.

As the birthday of the Father of our Country and our Masonic Brother George Washington is celebrated on February 22nd, many lodges are preparing to host a lodge program commemorating the event. Also during the month of February, a day is set aside to remember and honor all past Presidents of the United States for their service to our Country. And while we generally remember Brother George Washington as the "first" President, there were fourteen others who served as President, either of the Continental Congress, or the "United States" under the Articles of Confederation, before Brother Washington was elected to office on April 6, 1789, under the Constitution of the United States of America.

An interesting article, written by John R. Nocas, MPS (P.M., S.C.R.L), appeared in the February, 2005 issue of the Southern California Research Lodge, F&AM Newsletter about the fourteen Presidents who served our nation in the Continental Congress, and later under the Articles of Confederation, four of whom were Freemasons, before George Washington was elected President of the United States. Brother Nocas termed these fourteen "OUR FORGOTTEN PRESIDENTS." I would dare say that he picked an appropriate heading for his article and brought an interesting fact to our attention, of which I feel comfortable in saying, that not many of us, if indeed any of us, were aware.

The 14 Presidents listed in the article are:

Brother Peyton Randolph (1774) Virginia

Henry Middleton (1774—1775) South Carolina

Brother John Hancock (1775—1777) Boston

Brother Henry Laurens (1777—1778)

South Carolina

John Jay (1778—1779) New York

Samuel Huntington (1779—1781) Connecticut

Thomas McKean (1781) Delaware,

May have been a Freemason, but no proof.

John Hanson (1781) Maryland,

First President under Articles of Confederation

Elias Boudinot (1782—1783) New Jersey

Thomas Mifflin (1783—1784) Pennsylvania

Richard Henry Lee (1784—1785) Virginia

Brother John Hancock (1785-1786) Reelected, but resigned in May, 1786, because of ill health.

Nathaniel Gorham (1786—1787) Massachusetts

Brother Arthur St. Clair (1787) Governor of

Northwest Territory

Cyrus Griffin (1788—1789) Virginia

You will note that Brother John Hancock is listed twice, having served as both President of the Continental Congress and, later, as President of the "United States" under the Article of Confederation*

The first seven listed served as Presidents of the Continental Congress; the last eight listed served as Presidents of the "United States" under the Articles of Confederation.

The complete article appeared in the February, 1983 issue of the Philalethes Magazine.

The Coats for Kids Foundation supplied over 100 New Coats for Kids in the Tri-Cities during 2009. "The Coats for Kids Foundation is one of my favorite charities to help." "I wish that more organizations and people would get behind this cause to help these kids stay warm in these cold winter months.", said Whitehead. Fields Lodge enjoys helping this foundation and has done so for many years and will continue helping it and other charities in its area for many more years to come.

Pewee Valley Lodge 829 Helping Less Fortunate

Saturday, December 19, proved to be a busy day in the life of the members of Pewee Valley Lodge 829 F. & A.M. First they were involved in helping deliver food boxes to over 300 families. Then when finished they began delivering poinsettias to the Widows of former members of their lodge. There were plenty of members involved and not all were able to end up in the same location for the picture. Right to left: Lawrence Thompson, PM, back for more poinsettias along with John Shaughnessy; Kevin Reardon (owner and supplier) and Andrew Gritton.

Jerusalem Lodge 9 – Presents Scholarship

James T. Roll, PM, Secretary of Jerusalem Lodge No. 9 presents nursing student, Jessica J. Brown, with the second installment of $500 to complete her $1000 Scholarship awarded to her by Jerusalem Masonic Lodge No. 9 for her first year in the nursing program. Jerusalem is fortunate to have had members leave some money to the Lodge upon their passing and their expressed wish was that the money be put into an interest bearing account with the interest used to provide scholarships to the local community college nursing program. Over the years they have been able to help several students financially achieve their dreams of obtaining their nursing degree. With sound leadership and watch care over the fund, Jerusalem Lodge hopes to carry on the wishes of their deceased Brothers for years to come.

Mt. Gilead Lodge 255 Delivers Fruit Baskets

Members of Mt. Gilead Lodge No. 255 recently distributed over 90 fruit baskets to Lodge Widows and local nursing home residents of Science Hill. Preparing the baskets were Les Singleton, Master; Dan Hamlin; Ron Hellard; Garry Patrick; and Claude Spaw.

Brothers of Kentucky Grand Lodge Masons:
It seems like we no sooner get our Appeal Letter out, and it's already time for another. It appears that very few of our Brothers read our Appeal last year, as it was the lowest return we have ever had in all the years we have been sending the appeal out.

We understand that everyone has been so used to getting the decal in the mail with the Appeal Letter and now feel like they are not getting anything for their money.

Brothers, we hope that you can understand that when our appeal monies drop down like it has in the past several years, we, like all organizations must cut costs. By putting our Appeal Letter in the Masonic Home Journal, we cut about $18,000 to $20,000 from our operating cost. This can be changed back to the old way, but only if the Masons of Kentucky help me.

Brothers, last year's donations were $78,000, but that was because we were remembered in 2 of our Members wills. We can't count on that every year, but we do want to count on you and your love for our Masonic Homes to be able to continue to be the largest contributor to Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

Brothers, we would also like to inform you that our Masonic Homes are the only real charity that we have left and are able to claim our donations off of our taxes. We ask you to please think of all of our Masonic Brothers and Widows that live here and depend on us for their care.

Brothers, give as best as you can and you will be blessed beyond words. Thanking you in advance because we know you will answer this need wholeheartedly.

Fraternally Thine,

First Lady focuses on kids

Along with being the lifelong partner of Most Worshipful Grand Master L. Todd Eastham, Angie Eastham is an obstetrics nurse and the mother of two children.

She knows the challenges of raising a family and has seen the problems faced by families of medically fragile children. When the Masonic Homes began planning a day care center for both typical kids and those with special challenges, Angie wanted to help.

Angie created One Step Closer, a special program to support the Kosair Charities Day Care Center. Through the sale of limited edition pins, One Step Closer hopes to raise $10,000. If all the pins are sold, Angie has pledged to make a matching gift.

"We are thrilled by the First Lady's initiative and support," said Homes' VP/Fraternal Relations John Cauley. "As we prepare to begin construction on the day care center in 2010, the First Lady is truly putting us one step closer to providing services to children who need them."

A limited number of One Step Closer pins will be available every 2010 District meetings and will sell for $10 each.

First Lady Angie Eastham and Grand Master L. Todd Eastham are strong supporters of the Kosair Charities Pediatric Day Care Center to be built on the Homes' Louisville campus. LEFT: Pins for the First Lady's program are $10 each and will be available at District meetings.

Giving Tree sprouts new leaves

Gifts to the Giving Tree totaling $3,750 were celebrated on December 10 with a banquet and ceremony at Masonic Home of Shelbyville.

Donors included Solomon Lodge No. 5, W.G. Simpson No. 472 and Masonic lodges in District 17. Gifts to the Giving Tree fund special programs and initiatives for Masonic Home of Shelbyville residents.

Gifts of $300, $500 and $750 are commemorated with bronze, silver and gold leaves on the Giving Tree. Small stones commemorate gifts of $1,000 and large stones mark gifts of $2,500.

To learn more about the Giving Tree or to make a gift contact Phyllis O'Daniel (phone: 502.259-9627; e-mail: podaniel@mhky.com).

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home of Louisville residents received an early visit from Santa Claus and his helper. Mel Borich, PM (Santa) and Cecil Hardin from Lyndon Lodge No. 960 visited with resident Kit Thompson. Lodge members met Kit at the Home's Gi-Normous Yard Sale last summer. When they learned she needed a Christmas tree for her room, the Lodge members happily provided one and spread holiday cheer.

Ladies Oriental Club President Brenda Reiss (left) presented a check for $360 to Louisville Life Enrichment Director Dama Maynard and the Homes' Bruce Lott. The club's gift helped purchase Christmas gifts for Masonic Home of Louisville residents and has become an annual holiday tradition for the club.

Today's Woman magazine kicked off the New Year with a "Tuesday's with Today's Woman" event at The Bistro in Club Olmsted. More than 100 women attended and enjoyed live music, make up and fitness demonstrations and heart-healthy hors d'oeuvres created by The Bistro's Chef Jamod Guthrie and staff. Celebrating the successful event were (from left) VP/Independent Living Anne McAfee, Sr.VP/Communications CJ Parrish, event organizer Wendy Anguiano, Today's Woman Publisher Cathy Zion, Editor Anita Oldham and Assistant Editor Tiffany White.

LEFT: Social Services Director Vanessa Pierani led a conga line during the annual New Year's Eve bash at The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville. Along with live music and an hors d'oeuvre buffet, residents greeted 2010 with a balloon drop and champagne toast.

Officers of St. Matthews Lodge No. 906 presented the Homes' Bruce Lott with $5,000 at their November meeting. The Lodge members gift will furnish a resident's accommodation in the new Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville.
