All Masons Day in Frankfort

Grand Master Todd Eastham and Kentucky Governor Steve Beshear in the Capital Rotunda.

On Thursday, February 25, 2010, Freemasons were recognized in Frankfort for their charitable contributions and efforts to support their local communities throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The day began with a breakfast prepared by Hiram Lodge No. 4 in Frankfort, Kentucky. On behalf of the brothers who attended the breakfast, thanks to all of those who helped in preparing the meal. Most Worshipful Grand Master L. Todd Eastham along with several past and present Grand Lodge officers, were recognized on the floor of the Senate and House of Representatives. Several members of the House and Senate gave testimonies of how Masons have helped in their local communities.

It was a proud day to be Mason, and our thanks and gratitude go out to everyone who had a hand in making this day a success. Special thanks go to the Governmental Affairs Committee; Brothers Michael Yount, Chairman, Andy Dixon, and Bill Cannon, for the dedication and planning to make this a very successful day.

While waiting in the hall to be introduced on the floor of the Senate, I observed a young teenage lady, who had asked our Grand Master if she could take his picture. As she walked off, her friend asked her who it was that she had taken a picture. The young lady replied to her friend, "It was a Mason". You could tell by her expression a Mason at sometime had left an impression on her.

Let us all continue to proudly support our local communities, and Freemasonry throughout the Commonwealth.

Grand Master's Message

L. TODD EASTHAM
Grand Master

The further backward you look the further forward you can see.

The quote by Brother Winston Churchill is as true now, as when it was first used by the historic Mason and Statesman. Great excitement and debate has arisen around our Jurisdiction regarding the history of Entered Apprentice and Fellowcraft Masons and what their places in Kentucky Lodges were at one time in recent generations. This month, I will attempt to share a little Kentucky and American Masonic History and some key data that has been found through research which will hopefully give some Masonic Light to this great Craft of Kentucky.

The minutes from Greenup #89, Landmark #41, and Jerusalem #9 all agree that up until about 1853, each of these three Lodges opened their regular meetings in the 1st degree of Masonry agreeable to "ancient form and usage." This could show us that our Jurisdiction had Master Masons, Fellow Crafts, and Entered Apprentice Masons sitting together in fellowship within the same Lodge room opened on a Stated or Regular Communication. What this means will differ to each Mason who this article reaches, but the fact that business was conducted, ballots cast, and all were entitled to voice opinion remains a pointed piece of our Masonic history. The burning question for me personally as a Mason is simple, could it be possible that an innovation was made in and to the body of Masonry without our knowledge, and without our consent. The 1824 and 1850 edition of our laws state that "Apprentices and Fellow Crafts have no right to vote on any subject, except the admission and advancement of candidates." To the discerning reader, these statements from our own laws open many endless possibilities.

To reinforce this just a little, I had a Brother send me a quote from Mackey's unrevised 25th Landmark which states: The last and crowning Landmark of all is this, that these Landmarks can never be changed. Nothing can be subtracted from them-nothing can be added to them-not the slightest modification can be made in them. As they were received from our predecessors, we are bound by the most solemn obligations of duty to transmit them to our successors.

Given Mackey's oratory, could it not be inferred that our Great Grand Fathers did not hand Kentucky Masonry to us as it was given to them. Masonic history also teaches that the Morgan Affair and the Washington and Baltimore Conventions of 1842-1843 played a large part in why this may have happened. It was at that time a committee called the "Committee on General Regulations Involving the Interests and Security of The Craft" was formed and concluded the following: "The Committee considered it an "impropriety" to transact "business in Lodges below the Degree of Master Mason, except as such that appertains to the conferring of the inferior Degrees and the instruction therein." It credited the Grand Lodge of Missouri for bringing this to the attention of Freemasons everywhere. The Committee went on to say "Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts are not members of Lodges, nor are they entitled to the franchises of members." I find it very curious that our Brothers in Missouri led this charge, but in September of 1994 reversed their policy and now require lodges opened on the 1st degree before proceeding to the higher degrees. It was also during the Washington and Baltimore Conventions that one committee wanted to form a General Grand Lodge of the United States, which we all know has been attempted to the disdain of many jurisdictions. It is written in the historical documents of Freemasonry that Kentucky was one of the Grand Jurisdictions that vehemently opposed this notion. We all cherish our own sovereignty and frankly do not appreciate someone else attempting to regulate our actions. That suggestion did not take root, and therefore faded away into Masonic lore.

Albert Pike spoke for the Grand Lodge in Arkansas, in 1854: "We greatly doubt the antiquity of the usage that requires all ballots to be had in a master's lodge. It certainly was not known when all the lodges were composed of fellow crafts, and entered apprentices spoke and voted in general assembly. It seems to us, on reason, and in justice also, that the rule should be otherwise. Let the other work be done in a master's lodge."

As late as 1856, a Masonic authority in Georgia said: "Entered apprentices are masons, and by ancient usage were members of lodges. It was only in this country, and not here generally, if we are correctly informed, until after the Baltimore Convention, in 1843, that they were ousted of the latter right, by a resolution, that the business of the lodge should be conducted in the third degree only. This, we think, is wrong."

So in actuality, before 1853 Kentucky Lodges were opened on the 1st degree so that all could participate in the fellowship, education, and enlightenment that a Masonic Lodge had to offer. If any work was to be done in the higher degrees, the Lodge was then opened for such purpose and the inferior degrees knew to leave and await their Brothers after the meeting for more discussion and fraternal relations. It is quite the opposite in our system today, meaning that we open on the highest degree, and then call down to the lower degrees. Our more ancient Brethren conducted business the way it had been taught them, the same way we conduct our business in the ways it has been given us by our fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers. The most curious oddity of all is that the practice of opening our Lodges on the 3rd degree is almost purely American, as our English Brethren and others around the world continue to open on the 1st degree. Some American Grand Lodges do not consider Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts members of the Lodges nor entitled to any franchise or right. In our Jurisdiction, we do recognize them in many regards such as the right of Masonic burial, but they are also charged dues. With this said however, they have no right of vote as to how their Lodge is governed or their money spent. It is curious that the Founding Fathers, Mason or not, believed that taxation without representation was, or should be, against the moral and social law. Had it not been for their vision, their patriotism, as well as Masonic teachings and practice, we may well have not had the opportunities and freedoms we enjoy today.

I have no agenda, only the history that has been uncovered to guide me, as it is to the benefit of the Craft to point out what the facts are and let all Brothers decide for themselves. Greenup #89 as you all know is my home Lodge, but after several years of legislative attempts, the Craft has spoken, and we will not be bringing anything to the floor of Grand Lodge this year regarding the often coined "EA Legislation". My only goal is to offer some historical facts to enlighten the reader. I hope that we all have gained some Masonic Light, had a veil partially lifted, and the knowledge of our history heightened a little. I continue to be proud to be your humble servant, and hope that my actions and deeds make you proud as well as relieved at your decision to allow me this opportunity. God Bless you all during your travels and I will hopefully see you all down the road.

Todd

Notes FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

There are three very necessary and important sentinels posted at the entrance of every Masonic Lodge. The first (at the South Gate) is in the form of the recommendation of two members of the lodge petitioned, testifying as to the character and qualifications of the petitioner that they are proposing. The second (at the West Gate) is the Investigating Committee assigned by the Master to thoroughly investigate the character, reputation and qualifications of the petitioner, and of his willingness to conform to the rules of the order. The third sentinel (at the East Gate) is the membership of the lodge expressed by ballot. If these three sentinels are duty conscience and efficient, there is no way an unqualified petitioner should ever reach the door of the preparation room of any lodge. While each, in its own right, is of equal importance, the first priority falls on the first sentinel, since it is two signers of the petition who initially vouch for the integrity, character and reputation of the prospective member, and recommend him for the degrees. The second priority, of course, belongs to the Investigation Committee who must conduct an in-depth and unbiased investigation of the petitioner and report accordingly to the lodge membership. The last priority, in due course, is the responsibility of the total lodge membership. The last priority is no less important than the other two simply because it is last in order. In fact, more responsibility should fall upon this sentinel because each member--should he have personal knowledge regarding the petitioner--would have his own assessment of the character and reputation of the petitioner, as well as the recommendations of the other two sentinels, in order to make his own personal judgment at the ballot box.

If these three sentinels are functioning properly, then it would seem to be impossible for any unworthy petitioner to ever enter the door of the preparation room of any of our lodges. It's only when one or more of these guards get lax in conscientiously investigating a petitioner that an unworthy candidate slips through, and, more often than not, brings dishonor and/or discredit to the Fraternity. To serve on the Investigating Committee is one of the most important assignments a member is called upon to perform. Should a petitioner's integrity, reputation and character not measure up to the standard for membership, it is much better for him to be rejected -- hopefully at the South Gate -- than he be admitted and bring dishonor to the Fraternity.

Many organizations - Masonic and otherwise -- are, at the present time, very concerned about declining membership numbers; and that is a reasonable concern, considering that a growing membership is a positive sign of the relevancy and interest of the organizations in the communities in which they are located. However, our forefathers have set a very high standard for those admitted into the Masonic Fraternity, and we should be very careful not to compromise the integrity, honor and reputation of the Fraternity for the sake of numbers. By carefully following the procedures set out above, we have the best chance of not admitting an unworthy candidate, one whom will have to be dealt with by the Masonic Code at a later time. Let's take great care to keep these three sentinels effectively at their posts!

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary should receive the "Award Eligibility List" for those members eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards from the Grand Lodge Office in early May. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. (PLEASE NOTE: The awards are eligible for presentation as soon as they are received from the Grand Lodge Office). So, we encourage you to give this matter your prompt attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is locate--must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time inasmuch as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the respective Grand Lodge Offices.

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

First Lady's program helps kids and families

Pins for the First Lady's program may be purchased for $10 each at District meetings.

First Lady Angie Eastham established One Step Closer to support the Kosair Charities Pediatric Day Care Center on the Masonic Homes' Louisville campus.

As an obstetrics nurse, Angie understands the challenges faced by medically fragile children and their families. Access to medical day care services can help parents of medically fragile children keep their jobs or continue schooling, while their children benefit from professional healthcare and educational assistance.

The First Lady's program will support the day care center with each pin sold for $10 at the district meetings. If all of the limited edition pins are sold, the campaign will raise $10,000 and, when the goal is met, the First Lady has pledged a matching gift to the program.

"The First Lady is truly moving the Homes one step closer to providing services to children who need them," said Homes' VP/Fraternal Relations John Cauley. A limited number of One Step Closer pins are available 2010 District meetings.

Duvall Lodge leads the way Home

Duvall Lodge No. 6, like many Masonic lodges in Kentucky, has a long history with the Masonic Homes. Throughout the years, Duvall members have given of their time and treasure. Evidence of their generosity is visible on both the Louisville and Shelbyville campuses.

This year, Duvall's members have given $20,000 to the Homes' capital campaign in support of the new Care Center on the Louisville campus. It is the largest capital campaign gift to-date from a Masonic lodge.

"Duvall No. 6 has been with the Homes on every project to ensure our residents have the best possible care and live fulfilling lives," said VP of Mission Advancement Phyllis O'Daniel. "From volunteering at the Great Day of Service to supporting the Homes with monetary gifts, Duvall members are relied upon as trusted friends."

Boone to lead home-services program

Cindy Boone has joined Masonic Homes as program director for home and community-based services.

Cindy Boone

Boone brings a range of business management experience to the Homes. She previously was a director for Right at Home, providing in-home care and assistance to seniors and disabled persons in metro Louisville and southern Indiana. In her role at the Homes, Boone will take the lead in creating the home and community-based services pilot project in the FIVCO area around Ashland.

Thanks to the commitment and support of Grand Master L. Todd Eastham, the pilot program is expected to begin offering services in the FIVCO area later this year.

"More seniors seek services to help them continue living in their homes for as long as possible," said Homes' CEO Gary Marsh. "Cindy's experience will ensure that we are able to deliver quality services to people who need help."

Showcasing Masonic Home of Louisville's flair for the tasty and exotic were (from left) Executive Chef Keith Wayne, Morrison's Senior Dining representative Michael Grabner and Homes' Dining Services General Manager Gary McCurdy. More than 400 guests enjoyed the Home team's chocolate bacon truffle that represented a global study in chocolate.

Guests learned about the progress of Louisville Care Center construction and received updates on other initiatives. In addition to Ft. Myers, snowbirding Kentucky Masons in Clearwater and Sebring also enjoyed lunches with the Homes.

▲ Masonic Home Village residents and sisters Frances Athington and Gladys McDaniel posed with the bronze plaque that marks a tree they donated to the Homes. Frances, Gladys and their three sisters lived on the Louisville campus from 1944 through 1957, when the campus served as a widows and orphans home. The plaque memorializes their late parents whose "foresight paved the way for the Athington sisters to have a 'home.'"

Christmas Miracle in Western Kentucky

West Ky Masons Give the gift of Christmas to a National Guard Unit

The wind was cold, the Sky's cloudy, and a threat of rain was in the air, but the excitement in the air was electric. These were far to many children crying "I want Daddy", as Moms and Wives said "shhhhhh,, he will be home in a little bit".... The Soldiers were almost home, the buses were just leaving I-24, and only a few miles out. Our Soldiers were coming home for Christmas.

West Ky Masons, with help from all sectors of the Masonic and local business community, have been actively involved with several National Guard and Army Reserve Units over the past 7 years, providing Christmas Parties, kids presents, summer picnic's, and the like. When one of the units, the 2113th Transportation Unit found itself facing a crisis it could not manage, they called upon the only group they knew could be relied upon to make things happen, get results, and deliver on time and schedule, as promised. They called the Masons.

In October, Robin Buts, the Family Readiness Coordinator called Dean Owen, WM of Antioch Lodge #332 in tears, after 10 minutes of calming her down he was able to understand the problem. Her husband's unit, the 2113th, was going to deploy to Iraq, and over Christmas would be at Camp Shelby MS for pre-deployment training. The military would give the unit leave for Christmas, but not transport them home. The unit is full of young families, most Soldiers would be unable to fund a trip home. The unit CO was concerned, he did not want his Soldiers, men and women who had been in heavy combat training and prepping for war, to scatter about the 4 winds. He knew that was the recipe for disaster. But the quote from Grey Hound Bus Service to get them, and bring them back, was $38,000. By law, the Family Readiness Group can only keep $500 in its checkbook. They saw no way to get the Soldiers home for Christmas.

After that lengthy phone call Dean told her "look, we are Masons, we will get this fixed, give me a few days to get details lined out and turn off the negative emotion for at least 96 hours, I am not good at dealing with a woman crying". Once off the phone Dean started thinking "who do we know in the fraternity who can leverage assets to get this done". Immediately he thought of Rod Pearce, Finance Director of Graves Co. Schools, and PM of Paducah Lodge #127. Rod had just purchased new school busses for the school, he wanted to know if they could leverage that to get transportation. So he made a call.

It took Rod about 2 hours to talk with the Graves Co School Board, several of whom are Brothers. But before the day was over, he had all the authority he needed to commit the schools resources. At the next meeting they would vote, and all would vote for the resolution. The school District would provide the busses, Dean's group, the local Widows Sons chapter, would provide the funds, and they could get this done. Over the following months, the school, who was connecting Soldiers deployed with no one home to talk to with 3th and 4th grade classes via e-mail and Facebook, got involved. Each class wanted to provide a unique gift or contribution to the cause. Even with the schools resources, it was a $12,000 expense, 150 Soldiers plus drivers and support personnel would be on the road for a total of 20 hours, it was a giant undertaking, and lots of opportunity for the schools to provide much needed assistance such as goodie bags, sodas, games to occupy the 10 hour ride each way, and the like. Dean Owen stated "you know, its a job finding tasks for so many classrooms full of motivated kids to do, it was kind of cool seeing so much outpouring of community support I got to be a challenge on how to utilize all of it".

Then Lone Oak Church of Christ donated a bus and drivers, more of the fraternity working in the background. Donations started flowing in, calls from the media, from the various military commands, it tuned into a part time job just managing all the details.

But all that was history, today they came home. It was crazy, the busses were supposed to be there at 09:00, at 05:00 they got a call they were ahead of schedule, so be on point by 08:00, all were there, when they got there we found one bus broke down 2 hours out... lots of drama, but they rolled in at 09:00. Lots of managing the media, running around making sure the story told, everyone wanting to stop "The Masons" to say thanks, but as usual, "The Masons" were busy with work....

- Christmas Miracle Continued from Page 8 -

But then the busses started rolling in... the Brothers all got together in a small huddle on the side lines and just watched the Soldiers unload... gear coming off the busses.... they just watched quietly, not a word being said... seeing the families huddled together, the 2 and 4 year olds who were screaming for the last hour and a half about how they wanted Daddy finally in his arms... the Mother who was crying on our arms seeing her Son, the old Vet who had a tear in his eye as he watched his Grandson exit that bus.... one Brother looked up and said "we did this". It was humbling.

Rod Pearce and Dean Owen were discussing the event. They stated "You know, we sit in Lodge, but going to Lodge did not make Masons great, DOING the work of our community did. Making a DIFFERENCE is what made Masonry great, Masonry is something you are, but it shows because if you are a Mason, being a Mason is something you DO. Our Soldiers need help, these units are horribly under funded, our fraternity did this, we leveraged our relationships, and when we are focused on doing the right thing, this fraternity can change the world".

The efforts of the Brothers in Western KY resulted in a recognition from numerous military commanders, front page and local prime time media coverage 3 times in one week, and special thanks from the LT Governor who presented an award at a pre-deployment celebration. But most of all, it gained the endearment of hundreds of families who know they can turn to "The Masons" when they need help. In the end, what matters is the Soldiers, the men and women who go to war to defend this great Masonic experiment we call America, got home for Christmas, and if The Grand Architect sees need to call them home while in combat, the Brothers know, those families were united at Christmas. In the end, that is all the reward anyone really wanted.
