Fields Lodge 832 100th Anniversary

Fields Lodge No. 832 celebrated its 100th Anniversary during its Christmas, Past Masters, and Widows Dinner.

During dinner all Past Masters were named from 1910 to 2010 celebrating its landmark in the history of the Tri-Cities of Harlan County.

Fields Lodge is the oldest Masonic organization in the Tri-Cities and will continue its "Letting your Light Shine" campaign to "Making Good Men Better".

During the dinner the members, families and widows were entertained by Santa Claus. Gifts and treat bags were distributed for the kids, family and widows.

In the picture above, members took time to take a picture in front of the road sign which will be displayed in front of the lodge over the state highway.

The children loved sitting on Santa's lap and telling them what they wanted for Christmas.

Grand Master's Message

DONALD H. YANKEY
Grand Master

There have been many events going on across the State the last couple of months. This has seemed to make the months go by very fast.

Now that they are starting to slow down, the new Masters are settled into their new Offices. Before we get into the District meetings and Spring arrives, it would be a good time to update some things in our Lodges.

First, I must ask, when was the last time your Lodge went over its By-Laws? When was the last time your By-Laws were updated? The Grand Lodge Officers have had to deal with some issues this year which could have been avoided had the Lodges just read their own By-Laws, and followed their own laws they set forth for their Lodge. I am going to ask all Masons to be honest with yourself when was the last time you have seen the By-Laws within your Lodge? Could you enter your Lodge today and find an updated copy of the By-Laws? Could you enter your Lodge and find an updated version of the Constitution? These are things that we as members need to ask ourselves. Are we doing all we can, to see that our Lodges are following the guidelines set forth by the Craft.

Second, for all the incoming Officers of our Blue Lodge, as you took your oath at installation, did you really hear what your responsibilities were? Do you really understand what your Brothers have elected you to uphold in your Lodge? We need to continue our Masonic education, we need to follow our Constitution but first we must read our Constitution. A united Masonic Fraternity across the state all on the same page will prove a stronger Brotherhood for all men.

As we approach the month of February, First Lady Janice and I wish for you a "Happy Valentines Wish" and keep love in your family and with your friends.

York Rite One-Day Degree

Brothers, there is still time to take advantage of the opportunity to join the entire York Rite in one day. On Saturday, February 26, the York Rite at Louisville and at Somerset will offer all of the degrees and orders at 8 a.m. If you desire membership in the bodies that meet at 1410 Gardiner Lane in Louisville, the members can vote on your petition at 7 A.M. that morning. The petition fee and dues for 2011 total $215. For Somerset, contact Michael Grigsby at E-mail Address(es): mjgrigsby@windstream.net He is their Secretary/Recorder. They also have the option to vote on your membership that morning at 7 a.m. if you desire membership in Somerset. Again, if you wish to have your membership in another area, you must turn your request in to the Chapter in that area.

Any Brother who is confused about availability of Chapters to join is welcome to call or write me for more information, or to have your petition expedited. Please contact J. B. Hitt, 1007 Chesterton Place, 40299 or jbhitt@att.net for more information or for a petition. It is necessary in all cases to have the fees accompany the petition. I can direct your completed petition to the correct Secretary.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

additional insurance to protect your membership. Should that be the case, you should contact a local insurance agency to determine the plan to suit the needs of your lodge.

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Monday, February 21, 2011 in observation of President's Day

At this writing (early January, another Holiday Season has passed and left us with its "down side" – credit card payments, returning of undersized/oversized gifts, bathroom scales indicating an overindulgence of holiday repasts and, probably, some already broken New Years Resolutions. But, after those emotions begins to ebb, we start to relish all the pleasant memories that we shared with our families and friends during this annual Season of caring, sharing and giving. Also, this would be an appropriate time to pause and give thanks to our Creator for all his goodness and loving kindness to all his creatures.

At this time of the year it's all too easy to feel gloomy because of the short days, sparse sunshine, bone-chilling weather, bare trees, and the lack of green grass, and lovely flowers; and the prospect of another month or so ahead before we begin to see the situation improve. But improve it will, and Spring will come with all its freshness, and promise of beauty. As we enjoy the beauties of Spring, when it does arrive, it would be thoughtful to give a measure of "thanks" to the gloomy Season just past for giving us thankful hearts and a stronger appreciation for the welcome change of the Season.

Lodge Officers Reporting Form The Book of Constitutions requires each subordinate lodge Secretary

(Section 92 (7)) to report to the office of the Grand Secretary the names of the officers selected and/or appointed, along with the other information requested, prior to January 10th. The other information requested is the addresses and phone numbers of the principal officers of the lodge, location and directions to the lodge hall, and the financial information required by the IRS.

This report must be received timely in order for the office staff to prepare the report which must be submitted to the IRS in March of each year. If your lodge is not included in the report submitted from the Grand Lodge Office, you may be contacted by the IRS to submit an individual report for the Lodge.

Another reason to submit the information timely is to allow sufficient time to prepare the Masonic Directory as early as possible in the new year, in order to make it as useful as possible. If, for some reason, your lodge does not have all the stations filled, don't hold up reporting what officers you do have by January 10th; you may report any lodge officers, not filled at the time, at a later date.

Just remember, a Directory that does not have every lodge listed--and with all the information requested listed therein, renders the publication less efficient than it would be otherwise, and denies information to those who use the Directory to plan visits, and who wish to correspond with other lodges.

GRAND LODGE BLANKET INSURANCE

By this time, each lodge Secretary should have received a Memorandum of Insurance statement from the Grand Lodge Office, showing the type, amount and a general description of the coverage each of the items in the agreement provides. You should file the same and use it as proof of coverage. As you are most aware, insurance is a complicated business to most of us. Consequently, it is well nigh impossible to prepare a general statement for this column which would answer all the questions that may come to mind. However, if you find that you have specific questions concerning what is included in the coverage, and to what extent, you may call, either, this office, or contact;

Wells Fargo Insurance Services
950 Breckenridge Lane Ste 50
Louisville, Kentucky 40207-4675
502 425-9444

The one insurance question we most often get in the Grand lodge Office concerns insurance on the lodge building. The blanket insurance carried by the Grand Lodge does not in any way include coverage on a lodge building, either liability or property. If your lodge owns a building, you must carry Kentucky Mason's from across the state stand with them, by them, and will be a foundation stone at home they and their families can count on for support while here, and while deployed.

Grand Junior Warden Rick Nation, in bringing greetings and warm salutations from Grand Master Don Yankee, and all of Kentucky Masons, as an event speaker, gave the unit reassurance to the soldiers and families stating "there is a long and undeniable connection between our military and Masonry. We understand and appreciate your sacrifices, and we will be here for your families when you are gone, and for you when you return."

Various other Grand Lodge Officers, past and present, came from across the State to ensure this unit was well aware of our support as Kentucky Masons, and that the 54,000 Masons of Kentucky have not forgotten their sacrifices.

Major Mark Dunavan, commander of the 936th, stated "the Masons have been helping for a long time, when I talk with other CO's at training events, none of them have this kind of support and help from the community."

Dean Owen, Chairman of the Committee on Veterans Affairs gave the keynote presentation. Dean stated, "there is a significant need, and opportunity, to promote our Lodges by simply doing positive works. While there are many good and worthwhile causes to help, this avenue is definitely among the best."

Make your mark in history with a gift to the Legacy Garden

By JOHN CAULEY, PM
VICE PRESIDENT / FRATERNAL RELATIONS

I can remember touring the Masonic Homes as a young Mason and marveling at the plaques that adorned our facilities' doors and walls, immortalizing caring individuals that had left their mark on history. Still today, I am impressed by the individuals and organizations that have cared enough to donate a portion of their treasure to our cause and by doing so have immortalized themselves for generations to admire.

I want you to have the same opportunity to support the Masonic Homes of Kentucky and more importantly our residents as we move into a new era of caring. Please consider purchasing a brick, paver or limestone to be placed in the Legacy Garden of the new Sam Swope Care Center. Each stone, regardless of size, will be engraved with a special message of your choosing for future generations to see.

All the stones purchased until the end of October 2011 will be set in pillars in the garden. It is a magnificent, lasting way to honor yourself, a family member, your lodge or a deserving Mason.

If you have questions about the Legacy Garden, please contact me (phone: 502.753.8848 or 866.764.6631; e-mail: legacy@mhky.com).

Bronze plaques from the old St. John's Day League Infirmary have been mounted in the Legacy Garden at Sam Swope Care Center.

Introducing The Olmsted Society

In tribute to Frederick Law Olmsted's timeless work and ageless vision, Masonic Homes of Kentucky proudly introduces The Olmsted Society to recognize those who have made planned gifts to the Homes. Olmsted's landscape architecture firm designed the Homes' Louisville Campus, as well as New York's Central Park. It is a prime example of Olmsted's vision to provide a lush landscape for the present, and the ability to accommodate the needs of future generations.

Thanks to the generosity and commitment of many since our founding in 1867, Masonic Homes maintains financial ability to care for and serve those in need, even if they are unable to fully pay.

Planned gifts take many forms. Some designate the Homes as a beneficiary of a will, trust, life insurance policy, retirement plan or other deferred giving instrument such as a charitable gift annuity. Such gifts enable the Homes to continue providing the highest quality of care possible.

Olmsted Society members will be recognized with these benefits:

- Olmsted Society membership gift
- Recognition on the Wall of Honor (optional)
- Unique lapel pin
- Invitations to special events

To join The Olmsted Society, simply advise the Homes in writing of your decision and the plans you have made.

If you are considering providing for the Masonic Homes in this way but would like more information, contact us toll-free at 866.764.6631 or by e-mail at giving@mhky.com.
