GRAND MASTER’S DECISION CALLED COMMUNICATIONS

April 5, 2011

It has come to my attention there is some confusion among the Craft regarding an interpretation of Sections 107 and 108 of the Book of Constitutions as they apply to giving notice to members of Called Communications. First, I want to emphasize the importance of giving due notice to the membership of any and all Lodge Communications since the business of the Lodge is every members business and they should be afforded every opportunity to attend and take part if they choose. Dates and times of Stated Communications are set in the Lodge By-Laws, and should be known to every member of the Lodge. Called Communications, however, require a special effort in order to assure every member of the Lodge is afforded that opportunity to be present and take part in the business of the Lodge. This is very important in order to maintain the peace and harmony in the Lodge. However, there are, apparently, some who feel a spontaneous Communication may be called without any notice to the membership. Being aware of this, and after carefully reviewing the aforementioned Sections, consulting the Committee on Jurisprudence and the elected Grand Lodge Officers, I feel it necessary to make this decision.

Therefore, it is my determination that due notice of all Called Communications must be given to the membership of the Lodge either “(1) In writing, addressed to the Lodge membership or member affected with postage thereon prepaid, (2) Published in the Masonic Home Journal, (3) Announced to the Craft by the Master or someone lawfully acting in his place during a stated communication of the lodge”. The only exception is the calling of a communication for conducting a funeral service for a Brother because of the time constraint; however, even in this case, every effort should be made to notify as many Brethren as possible. The elected Grand Lodge Officers unanimously concurred with me in reaching this decision.

Fraternally thine,

Donald H. Yankey
Grand Master

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary should have received the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in early April for those eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence with a Lodge - or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is located must be transmitted through both Grand Lodge Offices.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time in as much as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office.

MASONIC DIRECTORY

The Masonic Directories for 2011 are available from the Grand Lodge Office. The price is $11.00 plus 6% KY sales tax each plus shipping and handling. If you call the office (502-893-0192) and pay via credit/debit card we will waive the shipping charges on your order. You can order online at our webstore (go to www.grandlodgeofkentucky.org and click the link on the left side panel to the Grand Lodge Store or type: <http://shop.grandlodgeofkentucky.org/> into your browser). You can also order via e-mail at:

Mary@grandlodgeofkentucky.org or Jamie@grandlodgeofkentucky.org. OR you can send a letter requesting the number of directories you wish to order to: Grand Lodge of Kentucky, 300 Masonic Home Dr, Masonic Home, KY 40041. Supplies are limited.

GRAND LODGE BLANKET INSURANCE

By this time, each lodge Secretary should have received a Memorandum of Insurance statement from the Grand Lodge Office, showing the type, amount and a general description of the coverage each of the items in the agreement provides. You should file the same and use it as proof of coverage if, as you are most probably aware, insurance is a complicated business to most of us; consequently, it is well nigh impossible to prepare a general statement that would answer all the questions that may come to mind. However, if you find that you have specific questions concerning what is included in the coverage, and to what extent, you may call, either, this office, or contact;

Jack Matthews

Well Fargo Insurance Services
950 Breckenridge Lane Ste 50
Louisville, Kentucky 40257-0809
Phone 502 425-9444

The one insurance question we get most often in the Grand lodge Office concerns insurance on the lodge building. The blanket insurance carried by the Grand Lodge does not in any way include coverage on a lodge building, either liability or property. If your lodge owns a building, you must carry additional insurance to protect your membership.

Should that be the case, you should contact a local insurance agency to determine the plan to suit the needs of your lodge.

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed for Memorial Day, Monday, May 30, 2011.

Both dignitaries were welcomed into the Lodge and given the proper recognition. He encouraged the Paris Lodge as well as the other Lodges represented to promote the use of the Kentucky Ritual and our "Masons Helping Masons" program. MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Shelbyville Home ranked among America's best

Masonic Home of Shelbyville has received a five-star overall ranking in U.S. News & World Report's Best Nursing Homes for the second consecutive year.

Of more than 15,000 nursing homes surveyed, only one home in seven earned this designation, based on data and quality ratings from the federal government. The rankings highlight facilities across the nation providing high-quality care, serving as a worthwhile tool for millions of elderly Americans and their families in search of a nursing home.

The rankings are updated quarterly and rely on information from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the federal agency that sets and enforces quality standards for all homes enrolled in Medicare or Medicaid. Homes receive an overall rating of one to five stars from the government based on the number of stars earned in each of three categories: health inspections, nurse staffing and quality of care.

"Achieving this designation is a team effort, and the fact that it comes so soon after being named the 2010-11 Facility of the Year by our state association is a double affirmation of the exceptional care we provide," said Shelbyville Administrator Debra Finneran.

"Homes at the top of our rankings have repeatedly shown high quality and deserve consideration," said Avery Comarow, Health Rankings Editor at U.S. News & World Report.

Kim Boden has been named executive director of Sproutlings.

will offer comprehensive care and development programs for children of all abilities. Registration forms are now available at sproutlingsdaycare.com or by phoning 502-753-8222.

Construction of the Kosair Charities Center, which will be Sproutlings' home, is scheduled to be completed in July. Sproutlings is tentatively scheduled to open by mid-August.

Kim Boden, a former resource teacher with Jefferson County Public Schools, has been selected as director of Sproutlings. Boden holds a master's degree in speech and language pathology and most recently was on faculty at Churchill Park School.

The center will be open 6 a.m. – midnight, Monday-Saturday, in order to support families and their unique scheduling needs. Approximately 50 nursing professionals, early childhood specialists and transportation assistants will work two shifts. Nutrition services, therapies and other support will be provided by existing campus staff.

New streets honor Conway and Larimore

Homes' CEO Gary Marsh (center) presented Tom and Pat Larimore with a street sign that bears their name.

Joe and Peg Conway proudly displayed the sign for Conway Circle.

Masonic Homes' tradition of recognizing Masons for outstanding service continued by naming two new streets on the Louisville campus Conway Circle and Larimore Lane.

"As our campus grows to provide more services, we took this opportunity to offer lasting recognition to the Conways and Larimores for their support and service to Kentucky Masonry and the Masonic Homes," said CEO Gary Marsh.

Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary Joseph Conway has chaired the Homes Board of Directors for seven years. During his leadership, the Homes has undergone unprecedented growth, adding new services to its existing campuses and successfully piloting a home and community-based services program in the Ashland area. Joe and Peg have participated in countless special events to honor employees and visit with residents. In 2010, Joe was recognized for outstanding board leadership by Kentucky Association of Homes and Services for the Aging.

Grand Treasurer Virgil T. Larimore, Jr. has served on the Homes' Board for more than 30 years. Although Tom retired as a vice president with National City Bank, he has served Masonic Homes' Board as treasurer and a counselor to Homes' management on key financial issues. As chair of the Board's endowment and finance/budget committees, Tom keeps the focus on the best interests of the Homes and our residents. Tom and his wife Pat rarely miss a special event at the Homes and are familiar faces to residents and staff.

"Masonic Homes of Kentucky is living our mission and achieving our vision with the support and dedicated service of Joe and Peg Conway, and Tom and Pat Larimore," Marsh said. "We are honored to recognize them with this enduring reminder of their service."

What Is the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky?

The Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky was started to assist the Masonic Lodges of Kentucky with extra assistance of True and Worthy Brothers their Widows and Orphans applying as such.

The Masonic Board Of Relief Of Kentucky was incorporated in 1944 and is still in existence today. The only change has been to the name it began with was the Masonic Board of Relief of Louisville, but this led to a lot of confusion over the years that the organization was for Lodge members in Louisville only. The name was then changed to Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. We have helped numerous Brothers and their families over the years. The money used has come from Lodges in Kentucky that have paid dues to the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. Each member of the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky is a representative of the Lodges that have joined the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. Each representative has a vote for their Lodge on the business that is presented before the board.

Having given you an idea of just a little insight of what we do the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky is in danger of closing. This is due to the Lodges not renewing their membership, nor the Brothers attending. A lot of the Lodges thought that we were closed already. Some did not know that we even existed. This is the reason for this publication in the Journal. We are wanting to tell all the Lodges and members that we exist and we are still here. Also we would want ask that you and your Lodge consider joining the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. The dues are only 20¢ a member.

District 25 – Meeting Highlights

On Saturday, March 12, 2011. Brother Earl Coffey happened to be the longest serving member present at the meeting at 67 years and is a Past Master of both Pond Fork No. 601 and Indian Creek No. 614. Brothers Flannery and Hoskins were raised to the Master Mason Degree just two weeks previously. This was a rare occasion to see the very oldest and the very youngest Masons present at one meeting.

Following an inspiring speech given by Brother Dennis G. Mills, DDGM, everyone was very moved by Bro. Jason Newby, (617), who gave his touching story of his recent successful battle over leukemia with the help of many members in the district as well as the surrounding community. He sincerely thanked everyone for their undivided assistance during this ordeal and expressed gratitude for this example of Masonic charity in action. He is currently the youngest serving Past Master of his Lodge. The District #25 meeting turned out to be a historical occasion for the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

Kentucky DeMolay Spring Conclave

Kentucky DeMolay's Spring Conclave was held on March 25-27, 2011, in Jamestown, KY with seven chapters participating and the best attendance at a Spring Conclave in years. Jimmy Bowling, State Master Councilor, conducted a congress session and elections were held for Kentucky DeMolay's 2011 State Officers. The C. Frye Haley Memorial Priory also met and elected their new officers. The State officers and Priory officers will be installed at our Summer Conclave scheduled for July 14-17, 2011, in Jabez, Kentucky.

The elected State officers are: Andrew Johnston of Blue Grass Chapter, State Master Councilor; Joshua Justice of River Cities Chapter, Deputy State Master Councilor; Harry Song of Blue Grass Chapter, State Senior Councilor and Josh Starnes of Blue Grass Chapter, State Junior Councilor. The elected officers for the C. Frye Haley Memorial Priory are: Cody Stevens of Cherokee Chapter, Illustrious Knight Commander; Tanner Stevens of River Cities Chapter, Squire Commander and Joshua Justice of River Cities Chapter, Page Commander and Brandon Crisp of Cherokee Chapter, Registrar. Two new members were initiated into the Priory, Brothers Austin Miniard and Joseph Perkins. The Priory will have a bake sale fundraiser at Suburban Masonic Lodge on Saturday May 14th followed by a lock-in.

We were delighted also to have as guests, the Honorable Dad Frank Haas of West Virginia DeMolay, Brother Michael Burge, PSMC, and Brothers Nate Gonzalez, Russell Gillespie, Sam Reese and Nick Baldwin from West Virginia DeMolay. Michael Burge was a great help by judging ritual.

The Kentucky DeMolay Sorority met and made plans for the Summer Conclave and decided on the center pieces for the grand banquet to be held at the Summer Conclave and also made accordion photo albums. They baked some delicious apple pies for the meal Saturday evening. The Sorority made plans for their dance on April 30th, which will be held at Buechel United Methodist Church off Hikes Lane and made plans for their bake sale on Saturday, June 4th, at Suburban Masonic Lodge.

A Parliamentary Procedure Placement test was given and from those scores, two classes were formed to provide further instruction and information via power point presentations. The results for the top three individuals of the test were: 1st Place, Josh Justice of River Cities Chapter; 2nd Place, Cody Stevens of Cherokee Chapter and 3rd Place (Tie), Joseph Perkins of River Cities Chapter and Austin Yates of Blue Grass Chapter. The top three chapters were: 1st Place, Blue Grass Chapter, 2nd Place (Tie) Cherokee Chapter and River Cities Chapter and 3rd Place, Northern Kentucky Chapter.

Brother Michael Burge led the Parliamentary Procedure class for the younger DeMolay and Brother Jimmy Bowling led an advanced Parliamentary Procedure class.

A Variety Show was held and several acts participated. Sam Reese played the banjo. Miranda Elbert and Faith Klingsmith, along with Justin Crisp, Spencer Warren and Marcum Brown performed a skit to the song "Baby" by Justin Bieber. Cherokee Chapter members performed a dance to the Jackson Five's hit "ABC". Cheryl Crum and Jerry Crum hula hooped with great style. Blue Grass Chapter performed the song "What do Tigers Dream Of". Everyone enjoyed the show.

Ritual and athletic competitions were held, with awards being presented on Sunday morning. The Preceptor Corp competition champion was Blue Grass Chapter, with a seven member Preceptor team as follows: First Preceptor, Alex Johnston; Second Preceptor, Austin Yates; Third Preceptor, Alex Sottile; Fourth Preceptor, Hansen Song; Fifth Preceptor Chandler Brennan; Sixth Preceptor, Josh Starnes and Seventh Preceptor, Harry Song. Alex Sottile joined DeMolay last month and this was his first ritual competition and he had a "word perfect" score. Way to go, Alex.

The Sports competition champions are as follows: Two-on-Two Basketball – Junior Division Champions were Derek Sutherland and Josh Hensley of Northern Kentucky Chapter and the Senior Division Champions were Brandon and Justin Crisp of Cherokee Chapter. The State Basketball Champion was Northern Kentucky Chapter and D'Andre Thompson of Northern Kentucky Chapter was named the MVP. Unfortunately, the Punt, Pass and Kick competition had to be cancelled due to heavy rain.

On Sunday, Brothers Tanner Stevens and Cody Geary were presented with their Representative DeMolay award. Twelve advisors and members of Blue Grass Chapter received their Lamp of Knowledge for completing all five leadership correspondence courses and they are: Dad Jubal Arledge, Mom Karen Arledge, Dad Jerry Johnston, Andrew Johnston, Alex Johnston, John Roark, Josh Starnes, Chandler Brennan, Hoi Cheng, Austin Yates, Hansen Song and Harry Song. Way to go Blue Grass Chapter! Two new members were initiated into the Order, and they are: Brothers Joel Drake Shinkle and D'Andre Thompson of Northern Kentucky Chapter. Dad Tim Anderson of Valley of the Cumberland Chapter was presented the Advisor Honor Key for having more members initiated this year than the previous year.

Many thanks to Dad Jeremy Puckett of Valley of the Cumberland Chapter provided a scrumptious meal on Saturday evening of Bar-B-Que, beans and chips, which we all enjoyed very much! Also, many thanks to the State Mothers Club for providing breakfast on Saturday and Sunday mornings. One thing is for sure, Kentucky DeMolay might be "Where the Fun is", but their Conclaves are where you can enjoy some great food and fellowship.
