Sproutlings take root

Ribbon cutting ceremony opens Pediatric Day Care & Preschool

Nearly 200 guests joined Masonic Homes of Kentucky on September 1 for a ribbon cutting ceremony to mark the opening of Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool.

"Sproutlings is a place for all children, regardless of their abilities," said Executive Director Kim Boden. "It provides an exciting, stimulating environment and an outstanding level of service for children and their families."

Sproutlings opened for service on August 15, but planning for it began in 2008, according to Masonic Homes CEO Gary Marsh. "Returning to our original mission of caring for children required careful research and planning, and a team to develop and create the state-of-the-art center and programming."

Marsh said Kosair Charities was an early—and key—member of the team, providing the lead gift to construct the Kosair Charities Center that houses Sproutlings. "Kosair Charities' commitment enabled us to build this fantastic center." Kosair Charities Board Chair Jerry Ward said pediatric day care is a much needed service in the Louisville area. "Kosair Charities knows that the quality of a child's tomorrow depends on the quality of care the child received today," Ward said. "We are proud to partner with Masonic Homes for the children and families of our community and our region."

Leslie and Tighe Brown said they have been dreaming of a place like Sproutlings. The parents of two sons—seven-year-old Andy who has medical challenges and 18-month-old Tighe—have searched for a place "where our boys could go together and share interests together," Leslie said. At Sproutlings, not only can Andy and Tighe participate in activities together, but Andy can also continue rehabilitation therapy which helps him progress. "Tighe also is getting to know other children with needs, and is learning that all children can share experiences together."

Louisville Metro Mayor Greg Fischer told the crowd that places like Sproutlings "help all of us reach our potential." He cited learning, health and compassion as three goals he set for our community. "Sproutlings ties it all together," he said.

Along with presenting a proclamation declaring September 1 as Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool Ribbon Cutting Day, Mayor Fischer participated in cutting the 20-foot construction-paper chain, decorated by Sproutlings students and teachers, that served as the ribbon.

Special gift opportunity available through 2011

By BRUCE LOTT—CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

For several years, qualified individuals have been able to make charitable gifts to eligible charities from their IRAs. Last December, the Tax Act extended the law through the end of this calendar year. As before, persons over age 70 1/2 can arrange a direct gift from their qualified IRA to the Masonic Homes of Kentucky, up to $100,000 (couples may give up to $200,000).

To make a gift from your IRA, please contact the trustee or custodian of your account. We ask that you also let us know so we can make sure the transfer is received by us in a timely fashion. The distribution must not be payable to you because it then may be counted as income. Please remember that you must be at least 70 1/2 and own a traditional or Roth IRA. Various other arrangements such as pensions and 401(k) plans are not eligible to make gifts in this way.

One of the benefits of making gifts from your IRA is that your gift counts toward the required minimum distribution that you must begin taking by age 70 1/2. It is not eligible to be counted as a charitable deduction on your income taxes; however, it's not taxed as income either.

Questions? Please contact your advisor, IRA trustee/custodian or us (giving@mhky.com or call toll-free 866.764.6631). We'll be glad to help.

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home of Shelbyville Caregiver Supervisor Anna Gordon, neighbors James Prewitt and Melvin Cravens, and Director of The Pillars Donna Farmer enjoy an August outing to a Louisville Bats game. The game was sponsored by Kentucky Assisted Living Facilities Association.

CMT Mary McCage (left) and Sally Muerer, resident of The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville, combined forces to make 25 sundresses from pillowcases. Their work contributed to the Threads of Love project at St. James Missionary Baptist Church in Louisville. The 25 sundresses Sally and Mary created were among 8,000 dresses sent to children in Haiti in late August.

Masonic Home of Louisville employees posed for a photo that will be part of the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities annual conference. This year's conference theme is Instruments of Change. Masonic Home's staff made the photo an opportunity to have fun while showcasing the exterior of Sam Swope Care Center.

George Washington

George Washington started school when he was six years old. He left school at 15 to become a surveyor because his mother couldn't afford to send him to college.

George Washington joined the Masonic Lodge in Fredericksburg, Virginia at the age of 20 in 1752.

Although he helped plan the nation's new capital city that was named for him, he never lived there. New York City and, later, Philadelphia were the nation's capitals while he was president.

In retirement, Washington became charter Master of the newly chartered Alexandria Lodge No. 22, sat for a portrait in his Masonic regalia, and in death, was buried with Masonic honors.
