Grand Master's Message

DONALD H. YANKEY
Grand Master

The District meetings have begun and all have been well attended. Your District Deputies have been traveling from Lodge to Lodge. They have been very busy in the Districts promoting the programs of the Grand Lodge, to which I hope you are using. I hope many of you are working toward the Grand Master's Excellency Award. The steps in the program are designed to promote Masonry not only within your lodges, but also within your District.

Most know or have heard that I am asking this year, that the Craft adopt a standard Ritual for the State of Kentucky. I will ask this not for myself but for the improvement of our Lodges across the state. Two years ago, you lodge should have received on a computer disc of the THKYRTL version 3 Ritual. I hope you have taken the time to read it and discuss in your Lodge.

The Education Committee will start the Masonic Light Seminar soon; they are going to be in the even number Districts. Masters, it is your duty to attend one of these Education Meetings. The Committee on Education has developed a program that I think can be beneficial to every Lodge. These are not only for the Master's, but for all Masons. Brothers we should continue to educate ourselves for tomorrow, for tomorrow we may be asked to teach. I hope to see many of you at the events that are taking place over the next few months.

Janice and I wish for you a very "Happy Easter". Remember, Masonry should be a way life, not just a Fraternity to which we belong. There are three little things I ask you to remember. First, continue to let your light shine within the community. Second, take care of our widows. And love one another.

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY, P.G.M. Grand Secretary

During the preparation of the newly elected and/or appointed lodge officers for installation, a couple of questions often heard by the Installing Officer is "Do I have to be installed again since I served in that same office last year and was installed at that time? Don't I serve in that office until my successor is elected or appointed in my stead"? The answer to both questions is yes. The officers in place are to serve until two things happen; first, the election of new officers is held; and, second, the new officers are installed. The installation ceremony is conducted by the installing officers at either a Stated or Called Communication of the lodge, with the present officers in their stations. It is the prerogative of the sitting Master to install the Master-elect, and the prerogative of the Master-elect, following his installation, to install the remaining officers.

During the installation, the sitting officers of the lodge are to remain in their stations until the Master-elect is obligated, at which time the Installing Master declares "all offices vacant", at which time the term for which the sitting officers were elected or appointed ends, and unless all the officers which were elected, re-elected, or appointed are properly installed into the office for which they were selected, that office will remain vacant" until; such time as someone is installed.

In other words, once the declaration "I declare all offices vacant" is made by the Installing Master, the term for which the sitting officers were elected ends, and those offices may only be filled by the member selected for the office being properly installed, whether or not one of the officers is to be installed into the same office he held the previous year. Section 86 of the Book of Constitutions emphatically states that the installation is essential, and no Brother is entitled to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any office until he shall have been duly elected, or appointed, and installed.

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary will receive the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in May for those eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge - or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is located must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time in as much as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office.

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 30, 2011.

Environmental Services staffer Tony Nadder was selected as Masonic Home of Louisville's employee of the year. Christian Herdelin, hospitality services manager at Masonic Home of Louisville, was chosen as the Home's employee of the year. From Masonic Home Village, David Taylor was named employee of the year for the Homes' corporate group.

Sixty-three employees were recognized for service longevity, including Masonic Home of Shelbyville's Lucien Hunter for 25 years of service and Masonic Home of Louisville's Judy Moore for 30 years of service.

Betty Davis, an aide in The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville, was honored for 35 years of service. "For more than ten thousand days, Betty has put her heart into everything she does," said The Pillars Director Kim Sublett. "From her outstanding attendance record to her willingness to learn, Betty's outstanding performance is a blueprint for the rest of us to follow."

More than 30 employees were recognized for perfect attendance in 2010. "Masonic Homes employees go above and beyond every day," said CEO Gary Marsh. "They make a difference in the lives of the people we serve, and deserve to be honored for jobs well done."

Grand Master shares news from home with snowbirds

By PHYLLIS O'DANIEL — VICE PRESIDENT/MISSION ADVANCEMENT

Kentucky Masons in the Ft. Myers, Tampa, and Sebring areas, recently met to enjoy lunch and visit with Grand Master Don Yankey and the Masonic Homes' Mission Advancement team.

ABOVE: CEO Gary Marsh gave an overview of Homes' accomplishments to a lunch crowd in Sebring.

Guests shared in the excitement, as they heard about the opening of the Sam Swope Care Center. They also received updates on the progress of the Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care at the new Kosair Charities Center on the Louisville campus, as well as other initiatives at the Masonic Homes.

Kentucky Masons living in Florida as well as those "snowbirding" in these areas enjoyed the lunch meetings and the opportunity to hear about the recent developments at the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and the Masonic Homes.

In Sebring, the Homes presented Opal and Willard Campbell a photo album of the Campbell House, a skilled nursing neighborhood in Sam Swope Care Center.

Leaving a Legacy

By JOHN CAULEY—VICE PRESIDENT/FRATERNAL RELATIONS

We leave legacies everyday in everything we do. Most of the time we never realize the affect we have on history. No matter what we do someone is watching and taking cues. As the father of a three year old I am learning all too well the consequences, good and bad, of my every action.

Lodges and individuals are leaving their legacies by purchasing bricks in the Legacy Garden at Sam Swope Care Center. Three stone sizes are offered and may feature a fraternal emblem at no extra charge.

You have an opportunity to leave a purposeful lasting legacy through the Legacy Garden at the Sam Swope Care Center. The Legacy Garden will be a place where generous people, like you, will be remembered for the generous gifts made. The Garden will feature stately pillars with engraved bricks, pavers, and limestones. I hope that one of those will be yours!

Bricks range in price from $150 to $1,000 and are available with varying lines of text and emblems. If you are interested in leaving a legacy at the Sam Swope Care Center please call 502/753-8848, email legacy@mhky.com, or see any Masonic Homes Ambassador or representative for more information .

Now is the time to leave a lasting purposeful legacy for all to see!

Kosair Charities Center construction underway

Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool to open in August

Louisville's newest child care center will open in August when Masonic Homes opens Sproutlings, a pediatric day care and preschool offering specialized services for up to 120 children.

Housed in the Kosair Charities Center, Sproutlings will offer 13,000 sq. ft. of classroom, lounge and play areas for children of all ages and abilities. Up to 60 medically fragile children will be able to receive services under Kentucky's Prescribed Pediatric Care program. An additional 60 typical children may enroll in preschool or after school programs.

"We've been planning Sproutlings for more than three years," said CEO Gary Marsh. "Thanks to the generous support of Kosair Charities, our plans to serve children and families in the Louisville area are coming to fruition."

Families can apply now for services online at www.sproutlingsdaycare.com or call 502/753.8222 for more information.

The Louisville campus will soon welcome the return of children to Sproutlings, offering comprehensive care and development programs for children of all abilities.

What Is the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky?

The Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky was started to assist the Masonic Lodges of Kentucky with extra assistance of True and Worthy Brothers their Widows and Orphans applying as such.

The Masonic Board Of Relief Of Kentucky was incorporated in 1944 and is still in existence today. The only change has been to the name it began with was the Masonic Board of Relief of Louisville, but this led to a lot of confusion over the years that the organization was for Lodge members in Louisville only. The name was then changed to Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. We have helped numerous Brothers and their families over the years. The money used has come from Lodges in Kentucky that have paid dues to the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. Each member of the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky is a representative of the Lodges that have joined the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. Each representative has a vote for their Lodge on the business that is presented before the board.

Having given you an idea of just a little insight of what we do the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky is in danger of closing. This is due to the Lodges not renewing their membership, nor the Bothers attending. A lot of the Lodges thought that we were closed already. Some did not know that we even existed. This is the reason for this publication in the Journal. We are wanting to tell all the Lodges and members that we exist and we are still here. Also we would want ask that you and your Lodge consider joining the Masonic Board of Relief of Kentucky. The dues are only 20¢ a member.

Kentucky DeMolay New Chapter in Hodgenville

Kentucky DeMolay instituted a new Chapter in Hodgenville, Kentucky, on February 5, 2011. We are most appreciative to B. R. Young Lodge No. 132 for becoming their sponsoring body for Lincoln Chapter. What a tremendous way for our Masonic fraternity to support our youth and extend the hand of brotherhood to those young men that may become our future masonic leaders. The Chapter Advisory Council will consist of: Dad William Brawner, Dad Jesse Simms, Thomas D. Casey, Joseph Foley, Charles T. Mason and Stephen C Heinrich.

The Chapter Dad is: Dad Jesse Simms and the Chairman of the Advisory Council is: William Brawner. This class of 10 candidates, which included five new members of Gold Fidelity Chapter, Louisville, Kentucky, was named after Douglas W. Bunch, Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Kentucky Royal and Select Masters. We appreciate Brother Bunch for attending this wonderful event and supporting DeMolay.

The new officers of Lincoln Chapter were elected and installed and for their first term in this Chapter's history they are: Guage Hodge Master Councilor, Daniel Shumate Senior Councilor, Draven Sims Junior Councilor, Chris Heinrich Senior Deacon and Scott Puckett Junior Deacon. A wonderful crowd was present to support this new Chapter's institution. A scrumptious meal was provided by the parents after the institution. Lincoln Chapter will meet on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of every month at 10:00 a.m. Please stop in and show your support at their chapter meetings.

Jeffersontown Lodge 774 – Scotland Visitor
