ANNUAL COMMUNICATION PAMPHLET

The 213th Annual Communication pamphlet that contains instructions for the Lodge delegates who will attend the Annual Communication will be mailed to each Lodge Secretary on or soon after September 1. The pamphlet also lists all legislation that is to come before the assembly, along with the budget that is proposed for the next Grand Lodge fiscal year. Other budget information provided in the pamphlet is a projection of revenue that will be realized from the craft, based on the membership, and from other sources.

Each Lodge Secretary is instructed to read the pamphlet at the next communication of the Lodge following receipt of the same, and pass it on to the delegate that will represent the Lodge at the Annual Communication. This will insure that the delegates will come to Grand Lodge fully prepared to consider, discuss, and to act upon the issues at hand. However, should the delegate fail to receive one from the Secretary of his Lodge, one will be found in his registration packet when he registers at the annual session.

Every attempt is being made to ensure that each delegate is fully informed on the issues of legislation and budget prior to the Annual Communication. However, if some questions still remain, perhaps a call to the Grand Lodge Office or to one of the Grand Lodge Officers about your concerns might be helpful.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

A reminder to all Grand Lodge Committee Chairmen who wish to have their reports printed in the Advance Proceedings, that they must be received in the Grand Lodge Office prior to September 15th. This deadline allows only enough time to assemble the Reports and complete the printing of the Advance Proceedings.

However, if you have your report finished earlier than the 15th of September, please send it to the Grand Lodge Office at your earliest convenience. The office staff and I will certainly appreciate it.

pled to wear a Kentucky Veteran's Emblem which may be purchased by the Lodge from the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. ITEM 4

We propose that the current Ky Rtl and the Kentucky Monitor be combined with publications and information from the Grand Lodge to form one book which includes the following:

From the Ky Rtl:

First Sections of all three degrees, with repetitions omitted by referring to the first time each part was spoken
Proficiency Lectures of all three degrees
Charges of all three degrees, placed at the end of each degree, not in the First Section

From the Kentucky Monitor:

Entered Apprentice Bible Lecture, small print
Entered Apprentice Apron Lecture, large and small print
Second Sections of the Entered Apprentice and Fellow Craft degrees, large print only Letter G Lecture, large print only
Third Sections of the Entered Apprentice and Master Mason degrees, large print only Opening and Closing Ceremonies of all three degrees
An Address to a Newly Raised Brother
The Tyler's Oath

From the Grand Lodge:

An understandable, usable guide to Parliamentary Procedures
Reception of Grand Officers as explained at the 2012 Educational Conference
Black Book ritual of the Legend of the Temple
The Charge in the South and any approved optional lectures
Masonic Burial Service, adopted by the Grand Lodge on October 16, 1935
Guide to the Bluegrass Ritualist Program
Standardized procedure for examining visiting Brothers throughout the state
Proper procedure for balloting

We make the above proposal for the following reasons:

We believe all Brothers in this Grand jurisdiction should take the same obligations to each other, pass the same proficiencies, and receive the same lectures.

If the Ky Rtl is adopted, a second book will still be needed which includes the Installation Ceremonies, Funeral Services, lectures omitted from the Ky Rtl, Tyler's oath, and other necessary information.

This will also standardize the lectures required for the Bluegrass Ritualist Program.

Lyndon Lodge 960 – 911 Memorial

Steel from the World Trade Center was brought to Kentucky on a tractor trailer with a police escort. It was a very emotional dedication. The pieces of steel were in the shape of a damaged cross. It will be a day that we will never forget. Brother Mel Borich, P.M. was instrumental in getting the memorial built. He spent countless days and hours, working with the concrete and steel people, and selling bricks with peoples name on them. Many Lyndon Lodge members bought bricks. Brother Borich is a Mason's Mason. Pictured, left to right: Jesse Haydon; Jim Dunlap, Jr.; Mel Borich; Scott Robinson; and Danny Baker.

Nursing leadership expanded at Louisville Home

Masonic Home of Louisville has named Bobbie Hardin, RN as director of nursing administration, bringing extensive knowledge and experience in long-term health care service delivery and regulatory compliance.

*Bobbie Hardin has joined Masonic Home of Louisville
as director of nursing administration.*

"Our guests and residents deserve the best from our nursing staff," said Executive Director and Administrator Lori Hess. "Bobbie's leadership is a great addition to the caring, compassionate staff in Sam Swope Care Center and The Pillars."

Before joining Masonic Home, Hardin was a regulatory compliance consultant, helping long-term care facilities exceed state and federal standards. Previously, she held nursing management positions at Owenton Manor, Presbyterian Homes of Louisville and McKendree Village in Nashville, Tennessee.

Masonic Home also added Vanessa Peters, RN as assistant director of nursing.

She previously served as chief nursing officer at Greenbrier Valley Medical Center in Ronceverte, West Virginia, overseeing general management in connection with productivity, staffing, clinical operations, and quality measures and monitoring.

Stepping up to the plate

By BRUCE LOTT, CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Kentucky Masons are a generous bunch – providing scholarships for area students, supporting a local nonprofit or helping a member or his widow are just a few of the caring things they do.

Many look beyond their communities as well to help others, including those cared for at the Homes through our Masonicare program. Whether it is participating in the Legacy Garden on our Louisville Campus, buying a lapel pin or donating a leaf on the Giving Tree at Masonic Home of Shelbyville, we've been blessed for all of our 145 years to be the main charity of Masonry in Kentucky.

Lodges give most often through memorial gifts. When a member or his wife passes, for example, many send the Homes a gift of $75, $50 or $25. When you think about it, remembering someone special in this way, rather than with flowers, makes perfect sense.

While space does not permit me to list them all here, we are especially grateful for Lodges like Plumb No. 862, Sunset No. 915 and Plain City No. 449 for their generous and frequent memorial gifts.

If your Lodge does not participate in the Homes mission, or perhaps hasn't done so for a long time, please consider helping us to care for your Brothers and their wives and widows.

Worth a thousand words

Organizers of the Show 'n Shine Car Show welcomed more than 80 vehicles to the third annual event on the Louisville campus. From left are Wayne Carby, George Maxwell, Joe Walters, Wayne Weaver, Nathan Thompson, Steve Mullins and Homes VP/Mission Advancement Phyllis O'Daniel. All proceeds from the event benefit Masonic Homes.

Kilwinning No. 506 held its sixth annual Southwest Rods & Rides to benefit Masonic Homes. Lodge members are experienced in letting the good times roll, and the event gets better every year. From left are Master Mark Yates, Scott Nichols, Steve Fox, Eric Yates, Ernie Johnson, Larry Searcy, Steve Yates, Larry Owen and Scott Yates.

Masonic Home Village residents Bill Bruce, Andy Dixon, Joan Ross, Barbara Toso and Thelma Herweh are sharpening their skills in a woodworking shop on the Louisville campus.

When you renew your vehicle license tag, you can request the special Masonic plate. With each renewal, a voluntary $10 donation is sent to the Homes. These charitable dollars help provide care and services for Masonicare residents.
