2012 All Mason's Day

Brother Bill Cunningham, Justice Supreme Court of Kentucky was the keynote speaker for the "All Mason's Day" at the capitol. He reminded Brethren to have a vision of Freemasonry, "we must have a vision, so all young people know what Masons are and what they stand for. How to be a Mason, become incorporated with the youth, set goals in the community and in the Masonic beliefs." Brother Cunningham also referred to the 'Operation Preparation' a program started by the Ky. Dept. of Education, that deals with working with schools and their students to prepare them for college or a career. Lodges could work with their local schools. The Masons were also addressed by Brother Rep. Jim DeCesare, Brother Sen. Brandon Smith and Brother Sen. Paul Hornback. Grand Master Terry L. Bowman thanked all Masons for attending and the Legislature for their hospitality. photos by Donnie Brake

TERRY L. BOWMAN
Grand Master

Brethren,

As I travel our beautiful Commonwealth, it is very exciting to meet so many Brothers who are on fire for Freemasonry. Several Lodges are doing so much for their Members and Community. You have responded with Brotherly Love to all during this sad time of weather disasters. By now, your Grand Lodge has set up an account for your donations for Disaster Relief and is receiving them from all over the Country. Our thoughts and prayers continue to go out for those who have suffered so much.

Grand Master's Message

By now the District Meetings are underway. I seriously encourage every Lodge to be represented at their District Meeting, especially those that were not present for their Educational Conference. Right Worshipful Brothers Chris, Rick, Wilson, Joe, Tom and Educational Committeemen, Worshipful Brothers Ed and Robert presented an excellent program for those who attended. My thanks go out to all who gave of their time to learn more about the workings of your Lodge and the duties that go along with it.

As you may have noticed, there are no scheduled District Meetings for April 14th, the first day of Turkey Season. Good luck to those who go, wish I could be out there with you.

Please continue to lift up in prayer your Brothers and Neighbors and the men and women in our Armed Forces. Remember, we are as ONE!

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

The devastating weather passing through Kentucky in early March, producing heavy rains, hail, high winds and tornados, has affected many of our Brethren and their families and neighbors. Many homes and buildings were damaged and/or destroyed, many injuries inflicted, and, tragically, many deaths were left in the wake of the storm. Buildings can be replaced, injuries may, hopefully, heal, but those who perished in the storm were taken from us forever, and our hearts go out to their family and friends who are left to mourn them. At the time of this writing, the Grand Lodge Officers are in the process of determining the extent of the damage suffered by our Brethren and how best we may assist in their recovery. Sorrowfully, for those who were lost and injured, we can only express our best wishes for a speedy and full recovery, and to the family and friends of those whom were lost, our deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences.

INSTALLATION IS ESSENTIAL

During the preparation of the newly elected and/or appointed lodge officers for installation, a couple of questions often heard by the Installing Officer is "Do I have to be installed again since I served in that same office last year and was installed at that time? Don't I serve in that office until my successor is elected or appointed in my stead"? The answer to both questions is yes. The officers in place are to serve until two things happen; first, the election of new officers is held; and, second, the new officers are installed. The installation ceremony is conducted by the installing officers at either a Stated or Called Communication of the lodge, with the present officers in their stations. It is the prerogative of the sitting Master to install the Master-elect, and the prerogative of the Master-elect, following his installation, to install the remaining officers.

During the installation, the sitting officers of the lodge are to remain in their stations until the Master-elect is obligated, at which time the Installing Master declares "all offices vacant", at which time the term for which the sitting officers were elected or appointed ends, and unless all the officers which were elected, re-elected, or appointed are properly installed into the office for which they were selected, that office will remain vacant" until; such time as someone is installed.

In other words, once the declaration "I declare all offices vacant" is made by the Installing Master, the term for which the sitting officers were elected ends, and those offices may only be filled by the member selected for that office being properly installed, even though one or more of the officers is to be installed in the same office he held the previous year. Section 86 of the Book of Constitutions emphatically states that the installation is essential, and no Brother is entitled to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any office until he shall have been duly elected, or appointed, and installed.

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary will receive the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in early May for those eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge - or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is located must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time in as much as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office.

Grand Lodge Office Closed

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed Good Friday, April 6, 2012 and on Memorial Day, Monday, May 28, 2012.

Thought for the Month

Who is wise? He who learns from everyone. Who is powerful? He who governs with passion. Who is rich? He that is content. Who is that? Nobody.

Outstanding Home celebration continues

Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities made it official, with a ceremony and presentation of the 2011-12 Outstanding Personal Care Home of the Year trophy to The Pillars at Masonic Home of Louisville.

"This celebration is a special recognition of the partnerships among residents, families and staff who work together to make this personal care home great," said KAHCF Board Member Lisa Biddle-Puffer. "We are pleased to add The Pillars to our list of Outstanding Personal Care Homes."

Also, Louisville Metro Mayor Greg Fischer proclaimed February 16, 2012 The Pillars Assisted Care Center Day.

Louisville campus begins aging successfully

Masonic Home Village has partnered with Masterpiece Living, a research-based company providing tools and resources that promote successful aging.

The program launched in early March, following a series of classes for campus staff and Village resident council members. "Masterpiece Living follows a simply premise," said Lifestyle Coordinator Katherine Futrell. "A lifestyle embracing the social, spiritual, physical and intellectual aspects of life is more important to aging well than genetics."

Residents and staff alike will be encouraged to take a lifestyle review and mobility test, as well as participate together in an array of activities and events.

Masterpiece Living will be offered in The Pillars Assisted Care Center and to future residents of Miralea later this year.

Homes take the cake!

Cupcakes win 2012 Chocolate Dreams award

Masonic Homes captured the Bluegrass Award at Louisville's premiere chocolate fest, Chocolate Dreams.

The 2012 event featured handcrafted desserts created by chefs and chocolatiers from 20 area restaurants, senior living facilities and bakeries. They competed for four prizes, including People's Choice, Chocolate Absurdity, Chocolate of the World and Chocolate Bluegrass.

"The Bluegrass award recognizes the best uses of local products to create the most delightful chocolate treat," said GuardiaCare Executive Director Susan Smith. "Our panel of judges chose Masonic Homes' Chocolate Mint Julep Cupcakes as the 2012 winner."

Chocolate Mint Julep Cupcakes are the creation of Homes' Hospitality Services General Manager Gary McCurdy. The recipe is available on Masonic Homes' Facebook page (www.facebook.com/#!/masonichomesky.com).

Chocolate Dreams benefits GuardiaCare, a non-profit organization serving Louisville-area seniors, caregivers and their families since 1969.
