Grand Officers Honors Brother Hobert Ashlock - 50 Years

The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of Kentucky, Chris L. Stout, along with the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, Rick Nation, and the Right Worshipful Grand Senior Warden, Wilson K. Wilder, opened an emergent communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F&AM, in ample form, at the home of Brother Hobert Ashlock, 1700 E. Highway 22, Crestwood, Kentucky, at 1 p.m. on October 26, 2012, for the purpose of making Brother Ashlock a Master Mason.

Brother Ashlock started his Masonic travels in 1963 at Harry R. Kendall No. 750 and has maintained his membership since that time, never advancing beyond the Entered Apprentice Degree. Brother Ashlock has fought cancer for the last several years and is now on oxygen. Recently he learned the cancer has invaded his brain.

Also on hand for this special ceremony were Brother Raymond Swanson, Master of Harry R. Kendall No. 750, Marshall Geoghegan, P.M., Senior Warden of Harry R. Kendall No. 750, Kevin Reardon, P.M., Pewee Valley No. 829, and Gene Crady, P.M., Pewee Valley No. 829.

Grand Master Stout closed the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F&AM at 1:30 p.m. After the ceremony, the Grand Master presented Brother Ashlock his Gold Card, 50 year pin, and a Grand Masters pin. Brothers Reardon and Crady presented him the Masonic Veterans of Kentucky pin in honor of his service in Vietnam.

Thank you Brother Hobert Ashlock for your 50 years of dedication to the Fraternity.

Grand Master's Message

CHRIS L. STOUT
Grand Master

First, Cindy and I hope that you and your families had a great Thanksgiving. The month of December brings several things to light each year. One of those is for all Lodges to elect Officers. I would like to encourage you to have an Open Installation as this is one event to share with our families, coworkers and friends. Welcome each of them into your Lodges this time of year. The election of Officers is a very important time in our Lodges and in the future of each Lodge. We must elect a worthy Brother to preside as Master. This Brother will lead, rule and govern the Lodge for the ensuing twelve months. He deserves your respect for the office he holds as the brethren of the Lodge has elected him. He also has the task of appointing Officers (if they are not elected) to lead the Lodge in the years to come.

Another event in the month of December is to celebrate the Christmas and Holiday season. All of the gifts and fellowship with each other and our families are certainly special. Let us not forget the greatest gift that of our LORD.

We are on track to begin the Masonic Educational Conferences next month and the first one will be in Benton, Kentucky on Saturday January 19, 2013 at the Marshall County High School starting at 9:00 AM (CST). The Committee on Masonic Education this year has developed a great program to present throughout the next several months for the CRAFT of Kentucky. Remember, these programs are Mandatory for the Master or to see that each Lodge is represented. Lodge Officers are encouraged to attend, but any member that would like to attend is certainly welcome. There will be breakout sessions for the Lodge Secretaries and Treasurers. The Masonic Educational Meeting schedule is located on the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Website and in the Masonic Home Journal. Also, every lodge Secretary was mailed a District Deputy Handbook, the meeting schedule with locations, times and places are listed in the handbook. Each DDGM was also presented with a Handbook and they can communicate to Brothers of their respective Districts regarding the locations, dates and times of these meetings.

If you have not made a donation to the Annual Holiday Cards, please consider it. All net proceeds will go toward the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Library and Museum.

May this holiday season inspire you to continue to Love one another throughout the entire year and not just this time of the season. Let us remember, that we have taken certain obligations and remember to communicate, assist, respect and educate one another in the greatest Fraternity in the world.

Cindy and I wish each of you and your families a very Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays and a prosperous New Year. May GOD continue to bless you and your families.

DIRECTIVE FOR DRESS PROTOCOL FOR MASONIC FUNERAL SERVICE

The proper dress for those Masons participating in the Masonic Burial Ceremony is addressed both in The Kentucky Monitor (officially adopted by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky) and the Book of Constitutions (Standing Resolution No. 14).

In summary, those Officers and members of the Fraternity participating in a Masonic Funeral Service are to be appropriately dressed:

- in dark clothing,
- coat and tie,
- with plain white apron,
- black hat (Acting Master only),
- white gloves (as far as practical),
- and a sprig of evergreen upon the left lapel.

No collars and/or jewels, Masonic medals, name badges, patches (insignia), multiple lapel pins, uniforms (with the exception of Class A military uniforms), or regalia of an appendant or concordant Masonic body are permitted in the Masonic Funeral Service.

The purpose of the Mason Funeral is to show reverence and respect for the departed Brother, and to express our love and esteem for him to the family left to mourn him; not to draw attention to our personal achievements. Therefore, any Mason not in proper attire is not to take an active part in the Masonic Funeral Ceremony

It is the responsibility of the Master (or Acting Master) conducting the Funeral Service to enforce this Directive.

Take due notice and govern yourself accordingly.

Grand Lodge Office Closed

The Grand Lodge Office will be closing Friday, December 23 at 12:00 PM and will remain closed on Monday, December 24 and Tuesday, December 25 for Christmas. The office will re-open on December 26, 2012. We will also be closed on Tuesday, January 1, 2013, for New Years.

December, the last month of the year, generally brings with it gray skies, dreary weather, cold days and nights, and, quite often, sleet, snow and rain. However, there are many happy and pleasant activities that routinely occur during the last month of the year, such as family get-togethers, friendship gatherings and special services at our places of worship, associated with the Yuletide Season to name but a few. Those latter things brighten up a dreary sky, warm up a cold day, and set the tone for the coming New Year.

What makes this particular season so unique is the "Reason for the Season". While the month of December brings the promise of springtime, the Reason for the Season forcibly reminds us of the promise of the Grand Architect of the Universe to his creatures, and the hope that in the end we are all found worthy of his blessings.

So, as we enjoy the presence of family and the pleasure of friends during the Christmas Season, let's not fail to recognize our responsibility to our Creator and give him thanks for all the blessings he has showered upon us. And above all, let's keep in mind the "Reason for the Season". This year let's especially remember those brave men and women of the military whom are at risk defending our American way of life, wherever they may be. Please remember them in your prayers along with the United States of America.

On behalf of the Office Staff, Mary, Christy, Jamie, Stephanie and I, we wish for each of you a very blessed and Merry Christmas, and a Joyful, Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year!!

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

*May the spirit of Christmas bring you peace,
 The gladness of
 Christmas give you hope,
 The warmth of Christmas grant you love.*

Renew your obligation – renew your plate

By BRUCE LOTT
CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Masonic Homes of Kentucky is perhaps the most visible example of our obligation as Masons.

During his year as our Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brother Chris Stout's program includes raising funds to provide for the Homes' Masonicare residents in Louisville and Shelbyville. More than $1 million is needed annually to meet those expenses.

You can help, and display your Masonic pride, by purchasing a Masonic license plate for your vehicle when it is time to renew. In doing so, you can make a voluntary $10 gift to the Homes. This unique way to Renew Your Obligation will help the Homes continue to care for your Brothers, their wives and widows in the future.

The new Masonic plate design that will be available for vehicle tag renewals beginning December 1.

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Homes' District 22 Ambassador Ken Cooper and wife, Corinna, presented a $1,000 gift to Homes' CEO Gary Marsh, Senior VP of Operations J Scott Judy and Mission Advancement coordinator Brenda Travis. The gift resulted from the sale of handmade acacia wood pens created by David Perison of Somerset.

Grand Master Terry Bowman was recognized at the 21st Annual Communication for his service on the Homes' Board of Directors.

Rudolph's Colorful Past...

The Chicago-based Montgomery Ward company, department store operators, had been purchasing and distributing children's coloring books as Christmas gifts for their customers for several years. In 1939, Montgomery Ward tapped one of their own employees to create a book for them, thus saving money. 34-year old copywriter

Robert L. May wrote the story of Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer in 1939, and 2.4 million copies were handed out that year. Despite the wartime paper shortage, over 6 million copies had been distributed by 1946.

May drew in part on the story "The Ugly Duckling" and in part from his own experiences as an often taunted, small, frail youth to create the story of the misfit reindeer. Though Rollo and Reginald were considered, May settled on Rudolph as his reindeer's name.

Writing in verse as a series of rhyming couplets, May tested the story as he went along on his 4-year old daughter Barbara, who loved the story

Sadly, Robert Mays wife died around the time he was creating Rudolph, leaving Mays deeply in debt due to medical bills. However, he was able to persuade Sewell Avery, Montgomery Ward's corporate president, to turn the copyright over to him in January 1947, thus ensuring May's financial security.

May's story "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" was printed commercially in 1947 and in 1948 a nine-minute cartoon of the story was shown in theaters. When May's brother-in-law, songwriter Johnny Marks, wrote the lyrics and melody for the song "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer", the Rudolph phenomenon was born. Turned down by many musical artists afraid to contend with the legend of Santa Claus, the song was recorded by Gene Autry in 1949 at the urging of Autry's wife. The song sold two million copies that year, going on to become one of the best-selling songs of all time, second only to Bing Crosby's "White Christmas". The 1964 television special about Rudolph, narrated by Burl Ives, remains a holiday favorite to this day and Rudolph himself has become a much-loved Christmas icon.

2012-2013 TRAVELING GAVEL PROGRAM

During the year 2012 - 2013, the Grand Master is offering a suggestion on how to use the Traveling Gavel along with a program to support your travel to other lodges, meet other Masonic Brothers. The whole idea behind the program is for you and your Lodge Brothers to travel within your district.

The District Deputy Grand Master within each district will be urged to promote and execute this traveling program in their district. Each district will possess the Traveling Gavel for promotional purposes.

A Lodge visitation can be one of the most educational and rewarding experiences with in our Fraternity. Let us share our Fraternal friendship and fellowship with our Brothers by visiting Lodges in the district and throughout our great jurisdiction. The District Deputy Grand Master should know at all times where the Traveling Gavel resides and it is his responsibility to keep it moving.

The Rules and Regulations below are a guide on how it should work BUT if your particular District has had a program of their own in place for some time now and your District wishes to keep it in place, The Grand Master wishes for you to do just that, keep yours in place. The Rules and Regulations below are a guideline ONLY for those Districts who wish to have a set guideline. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Traveling Gravel Program may utilize the following Rules and Regulations:

The Traveling Gavel has to be placed in clear view of all visiting Brothers

- (1) The traveling gravel may be claimed from a Lodge on a regular meeting, called meeting, degree work, installation of Officers, or District Meeting.
- (2) Minimum of the Master and two of his five principal Officers, (Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer or Secretary)
- (3) A Lodge that has four principal officers or more.
- (4) A Lodge that has five or more Brothers.
- (5) If two or more Lodges within the district visit a Lodge, which qualify, the Lodge that brought the most members will receive the gravel. If there is a tie, the Lodge that traveled the farthest will receive the Gavel.
- (6) The "District Traveling Gavel" will be presented to the visiting Lodge before closing of the Lodge.
- (7) The Lodge receiving the Gavel will notify the District Deputy that they have it in their position, so when he is asked in his travels, the other Lodges will know where it is.
