Grand Master's Message

TERRY L. BOWMAN
Grand Master

Brethren,

The Grand Lodge Officers hear these questions over and over from our Lodges, "Why can't we get our EA's to complete their Degrees or why wont the young men we have raised come back to Lodge "? I have, in the past, attended several Membership Seminars and have taken away some reasons for the above.

1. Was the Candidate treated with respected or was he hounded endlessly about an imaginary goat?
2. Was the Degree performed in a professional manner?

3. Did the Candidate receive all sections of all Degrees that our Constitution admonishes us to do?
4. If not, he was cheated out of his money!
5. Were he and his Family made to feel welcome and a part of the Lodge Family?
6. Was he offered to learn some of the Work or help out at a Lodge Function?
7. Did some of the Brethren offer their part that they have been doing for twenty years to a new Mason and give their assistance?
8. Did the Officers dress in a manner befitting their Station?
9. Did Brotherly love and peace and harmony prevail?

I could list several more, but I think you get the idea. Sometimes the true hurts, so let's rethink what we are doing in our Lodges.

The Region Educational Conferences begin on February 25 and continue thru March 24. Brethren, please make an extra effort to attend these meetings. There will be an Educational portion concerning Masonry in general , as well as, a brake out secession for Treasures and Secretaries, conducted our Grand Secretary Joe Conway and Grand Treasure Virgil T Larimore, Jr.. The better we are educated in our Craft the better we can respond to the needs of our Lodges.

Continue to pray for our Fraternity and our Men and Women in Harm's Way. Take care and may God Bless! Remember, we are as ONE!

Terry L. Bowman
Grand Master

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

At this writing (early January, another Holiday Season has passed and left us with its "down side" – credit card payments, returning of undersized/oversized gifts, bathroom scales indicating an overindulgence of holiday repasts and, probably, some already broken New Years Resolutions. But, after those emotions begins to ebb, we start to relish all the pleasant memories that we shared with our families and friends during this annual Season of caring, sharing and giving. Also, this would be an appropriate time to pause and give thanks to our Creator for all his goodness and loving kindness to all his creatures.

At this time of the year it's all too easy to feel gloomy because of the short days, sparse sunshine, bone-chilling weather, bare trees, and the lack of green grass, and lovely flowers; and the prospect of another month or so ahead before we begin to see the situation improve. But improve it will, and Spring will come with all its freshness, and promise of beauty. As we enjoy the beauties of Spring, when it does arrive, it would be thoughtful to give a measure of "thanks" to the gloomy Season just past for giving us thankful hearts and a stronger appreciation for the welcome change of the Season.

LODGE OFFICERS REPORTING FORM

The Book of Constitutions requires each subordinate lodge Secretary (Section 92 (7)) to report to the office of the Grand Secretary the names of the officers selected and/or appointed, along with the other information requested, prior to January 10th. The other information requested is the addresses and phone numbers of the principal officers of the lodge, location and directions to the lodge hall, and the financial information required by the IRS.

This report must be received timely in order for the office staff to prepare the report which must be submitted to the IRS in March of each year. If your lodge is not included in the report submitted from the Grand Lodge Office, you may be contacted by the IRS to submit an individual report for the Lodge.

Another reason to submit the information timely is to allow sufficient time to prepare the Masonic Directory as early as possible in the new year, in order to make it as useful as possible. If, for some reason, your lodge does not have all the stations filled, don't hold up reporting what officers you do have by January 10th; you may report any lodge officers, not filled at the time, at a later date.

Just remember, a Directory that does not have every lodge listed--and with all the information requested listed therein, renders the publication less efficient than it would be otherwise, and denies information to those who use the Directory to plan visits, and who wish to correspond with other lodges.

GRAND LODGE BLANKET INSURANCE

By this time, each lodge Secretary should have received a Memorandum of Insurance statement from the Grand Lodge Office, showing the type, amount and a general description of the coverage each of the items in the agreement provides. You should file the same and use it as proof of coverage. As you are most aware, insurance is a complicated business to most of us. Consequently, it is well nigh impossible to prepare a general statement for this column which would answer all the questions that may come to mind. However, if you find that you have specific questions concerning what is included in the coverage, and to what extent, you may call, either, this office, or contact;

Jack Matthews or Terry Fugate
Wells Fargo Insurance Services
950 Breckenridge Lane Ste 50
Louisville, Kentucky 40207-4675
Phone 502 425-9444

The one insurance question we most often get in the Grand lodge Office concerns insurance on the lodge building. The blanket insurance carried by the Grand Lodge does not in any way include coverage on a lodge building, either liability or property. If your lodge owns a building, you must carry additional insurance to protect your membership. Should that be the case, you should contact a local insurance agency to determine the plan to suit the needs of your lodge.

Grand Lodge Office Closed

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Monday, February 20, 2012 in observance of President's Day

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Remote control

As life gets more complicated, we look for ways to keep track of everything to keep control. You think you have mastered it, but may have overlooked one thing. What will happen to your bounty once you are gone? Can you control it then? The answer is "yes," but typically only if it's in a well-written will. Do yourself a favor and have one made right now. If you already have one and it could be out of date, revise it – and please remember to include Masonic Homes of Kentucky in your plans. We're here because many have done just that.

The remote is in your hands.

Prevention technology now available at Masonic Homes

Select Home Care Options now offers WellAware Systems, utilizing the latest smart sensor technology to enable proactive and preventive senior care.

When combined with the hands-on attention of caregivers, WellAware proactively helps detect and manage health issues before they become health problems. "WellAware is an enhancement to the quality care provided at our Homes," said Program Director Cindy Boone. "The technology helps residents sustain independence and quality of life."

Using smart sensors WellAware measures three critical wellness indicators to help reliably predict when certain types of health issues may occur:

- Sleep quality – An undetectable sensor under a bed sheet provides a nightly breathing study with EKG accuracy to measuring the quality of sleep without disrupting the resident.
- Bathroom visits – Sensors in the bathroom measure usage frequency so caregivers can detect and proactively treat urinary tract infections, minimizing complications and eliminating hospitalization.
- Activity levels – Tracking activity and times of movement while comparing these measurements to benchmark data can help caregivers investigate changes in activity. Additionally, humidity sensors determine shower usage, allowing caregivers to be better aware of personal hygiene habits.

The sensors provide constant reporting through an automated wireless computer. Once installed, WellAware is essentially unnoticeable and doesn't require any interaction by the resident—no buttons to push or pendants to wear.

Masonic Home of Louisville, Masonic Home of Shelbyville and Masonic Home Village conducted a pilot program in 2011. The technology is now available to all residents and available for in-home monitoring.

"Passive monitoring technology is a step forward in proactive care, helping older adults enjoy a higher quality of life and avoid serious health complications," said Boone.

For more information about Select Home Care Option's WellAware technology, go to WellAwareSystems.com, selecthomecareoptions.com or contact Boone at 866.756.4410.

Despite the rainiest year on record, construction moved forward on the Miralea community on the Louisville campus in late 2011. The project is scheduled to open in October 2012, featuring 90 apartment residences, 12 patio homes, dining venues, common areas and natatorium.

Be absolutely resolute!

By BRUCE LOTT, CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

If you're like me, you've made—and maybe already broken—some New Year's resolutions. That is the way it is, among us humans. We Masons, and other folks, want to start each year with a bang, but living with imperfection sometimes quickly becomes the norm.

At Masonic Homes, each of us has resolved to do the best job we can of taking care of the many who live with us now, and those who will cross our thresholds during the year.

It is our pledge to you.

And, in return, we ask of you one simple thing – to help us do it. No, we don't expect you to do our job for us, but we would ask that you give of yourself in one or more of three ways: your time, your talent and your treasure.

- Time – the annual Great Day of Service will be April 14. Come and get your hands dirty and help beautify the Louisville and Shelbyville campuses. If that's not your thing, come and spend a little time with Masonic brothers, their wives or widows who call our Homes their homes. They enjoy having visitors, and you'll be amazed at what you come away with.
- Talent – ditto for the Great Day of Service, or for other projects that occasionally need volunteer help. A good example is participating in the Fellowship Sundays. If your Lodge is in or near Louisville or Shelbyville, we'd love to have some of your members participate in a way that's comfortable for you. To learn more, contact Brenda Travis at btravis@mhky.com or 866.764.6631. Again, you'll be amazed with what you take from it.
- Treasure – it takes nearly $1 million per year for us to provide for our Masonicare residents the kind of life that they so richly deserve and need. Your gifts, in whatever form (e.g., cash, check, stock, property, gift annuity, will), will help us do the job we've resolved to do. If you have questions about any aspect of giving in these ways, please let me know (giving@mhky.com). May your 2012 be as happy, productive, satisfying and giving as you have resolved.

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home of Shelbyville's float was judged Grand Champion at the annual Shelby County Christmas Parade. The patriotic theme also earned Masonic Home first place in the business/industry category.

Robert Dunn rang in the New Year at The Pillars Assisted Care Center on the Louisville campus. A member of Morrison No. 76, Mr. Dunn joined other residents in an evening of live music, refreshments and dancing. As the clock struck midnight, a balloon drop ushered in 2012.

Joyce Clark (left) and Barbara Honour welcomed 2012 with Masonic Home Village in Club Olmsted. Village residents enjoyed hors d'oeuvres and champagne while visiting with neighbors and staff. The New Year's arrival was marked with toasting and singing Auld Lang Syne.

U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan and Korea received a holiday treat from home. Neighbors in The Pillars Assisted Living Community on the Shelbyville campus assembled 50 Christmas stockings, filled with necessity items and candy, to brighten the season for troops stationed far away.

Pewee Valley 892 – Flag Presentation

Past Master Phil Griffin of Pewee Valley Lodge No. 829 was proud to receive an American Flag from SSG and Brother Chad Applegate who served in Iraq. The flag flew over Chad's post in Iraq on September 11, 2011. Chad arrived home in time to enjoy the Open Installation and a great meal. Thank you Chad. And God Bless you, as you head to your next assignment.

Jerusalem Lodge 9 – New Master Masons

Lyndon Lodge 960 – Annual Picnic

Lyndon Lodge No. 960 recently held their annual picnic and a large crowd of Brothers and their families were in attendance. A great time was had with lots of food and games to go around. Lyndon Lodge is already planning for next year's picnic. Pictured, left to right: Brothers J.D. Haydon; Jimmy Dunlap; and Scott Robinson.

On July 30, 2011 members of Cynthiana Lodge No. 710, Evansville Lodge No. 64, Reed Lodge No. 316, and Lessing Lodge No. 464 struck out on a very enjoyable Masonic adventure. The Brothers gathered at the Temple building in the early morning hours, then headed south in carpools making that short trip to Henderson, Kentucky. They made acquaintances with the Brothers from as far north as Indianapolis, Indiana, and as far south as Webster County, Kentucky. Our conversations and laughs flowed like water throughout the meal, even carrying over to the time Lodge was called to order where three lucky Fellow Crafts were given further light in Masonry by being raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason. The Jerusalem Lodge Degree Team is probably second to none. Their work is excellent and they make it a fun experience for all. Pictured above are Brothers from the Lodge and the three New Master Masons Brothers James Bryan Wingfield, Thomas Wayne Ware both from Jerusalem Lodge No. 9 and Brother Greg Sauls from Dixon Lodge No. 911.
