Grand Master's Message

TERRY L. BOWMAN
Grand Master

Brethren,

What lit your Masonic Flame? What induced you to join the oldest and most honorable Fraternity the world as ever known? Was it someone in your family, a church member, co-worker? But it must have been someone who impressed you very much. How goes that Masonic Flame today? Does it burn as brightly as when you joined the Fraternity or has the fire dimmed somewhat?

I sincerely hope your Masonic Flame still burns ever so brightly. There are so many reasons for that Flame to shine. Did your son or grandson receive his degrees? Did your Lodge call and follow-up on your widows list? Did you buy some groceries for a needy family or assist a high school student with a scholarship? Did your Lodge hold a benefit dinner for someone with cancer or help build a wheelchair ramp?

If your Masonic Flame has weakened through the years, maybe you need to rethink the path you are taking. Does that path lead to going to Lodge to argue and disrupt the peace and harmony that should prevail. Do you have some motive outside of Freemasonry to cause you to complain about everything that goes on in your Lodge?

This is a New Year. Let's all strive to seek peace within the Lodge. To do what we have obligated ourselves to do, before God and man. Live Freemasonry with that Masonic Flame that shined within us from the very beginning of our Masonic Journey.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

LODGE DUES-DELINQUENT

Inquiries have been made to the Grand Lodge Office as to when a member is considered delinquent in the payment of dues and assessments to his Lodge(s). Section 154 of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.& A.M., states that "The dues of all Lodges shall be due on January 1 each year, and payable in advance for the full year." Therefore, it would seem logical to conclude that a member who had not paid his dues and assessments for the current year would be considered delinquent on the first day of January of that year. There may appear to be a discrepancy in the Section mentioned above since further on it states that "Dues for each year shall be delinquent on April 1, and the delinquent members shall be subject to suspension on the stated meeting of the Lodge in June."

However, in that instance the reference to the term "delinquent" applies to the point at which a Lodge may consider the suspension of a member-or members- for non-payment of dues and assessments. Please keep in mind that the terms "delinquent" and "not in good standing" are not synonymous. The section referred to above merely sets the minimum time at which a member-or members- may be suspended for non-payment of dues- but does not set a limit on the time a Lodge may carry a member before suspension, if the Lodge chooses to do so. Further, a Lodge may, in the Lodge By-Laws; lengthen the time before suspension of a member (i.e. after one year, two years, etc.)-but may not shorten the time. That is to say, a member owing only the current years dues cannot be suspended before June of the year the dues become payable.

Realizing that Lodge dues and assessments are necessary to provide the funds required to keep our Lodges, the Grand Lodge, and or Masonic charities financially sound and viable, the most prudent approach would be to remit our dues to the Secretary of our respective Lodge immediately upon receipt of the dues notice, thereby, eliminating the necessity of the term "delinquent" from our Masonic vocabulary.

RETAINING INFORMATION

(Important information reprinted from January 2010)

Frequently a question comes to the Grand Lodge Office from a lodge Secretary about how much lodge information should be retained by him. Our answer has always been to keep as much as you possibly can. Obviously, the personal information on the lodge membership is of utmost importance, both for the present and for future reference, and should be retained indefinitely. Some lodge Secretaries even keep other information on lodge members in their personal file when they distinguish themselves in the community. The same goes for other records such as lodge minutes, deeds, correspondence, insurance contracts, tax information, bequests, IRS information, etc. The history of the lodge is maintained in the minute book of the lodge proceedings and the membership records of the lodge, and these items should be protected and stored in a safe, secure and fire-proof location. Some item, such as cancelled checks, invoices, bank records, etc., may be destroyed when they are no longer useful. However, it is advisable to retain them as long as possible.

One basic item that should be preserved and filed properly is the original petition submitted for membership in the lodge, whether it is for the degrees or affiliation, and it should be filled out completely by the petitioner and the lodge Secretary. The importance of doing this was brought to my attention recently when a lodge member, trying to reconstruct the membership listing of his lodge for a new Secretary, called the Grand Lodge Office for information on the membership and records for his lodge. He could locate only a few items to assist him, and the information requested on the forms he did find was not complete, and consequently not of much use to him. Apparently, the previous Secretary did not think doing so was a high priority. The petition forms, if filled out completely by both the petitioner and lodge Secretary, contains all the basic information on the individual member, and should be retained for future reference in cases such as the one noted above.

As Secretaries, we are all too familiar with the loads of paperwork that we are required to deal with, and for the filing and maintenance of the same; however, maintaining such is worthy of our earnest efforts, and important for the preserving of the history of our lodges. So, be very conscious and selective in what you decide to discard.

ADDITION TO 2010 SUBMISSION:

It will now be more important (if possible) for the Secretary to keep membership information. With the new electronic reporting of all Lodge activities the only information the Grand Lodge Office receives is what the Secretary inputs into each member's records. We will no longer have any paper copies of reports to look back on in this office. Therefore, the records kept by the Secretary of the Lodge will be the only paper copies of any information on the membership.

NEWLY ELECTED SECRETARIES

Each year there are a number of new secretaries elected to that important office of the Lodge. The office of Secretary carries with it great responsibilities, second only to the Master, for the well being of the Lodge and its members. How well the Secretary responds to and carries out his duties- is directly proportional to the success of a Lodge. An interested and knowledgeable Secretary is indispensable to the Master and his Lodge in moving our Fraternity forward, an uninterested Secretary will affect the Lodge in negative manner.

So if you are a newly elected Secretary, my advice to you is; first learn the duties of the Secretary; second, make sure you communicate clearly and fully with the Master; and third, develop an unconscious and natural "feel" for your particular Lodge and each member thereof. There are many responsibilities- but also many rewards if you can develop the right attitude. Welcome aboard and good luck!!

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

The Pillars named Kentucky's outstanding personal care home

The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville was honored as 2011 Outstanding Personal Care Home of the Year by the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities, the trade association representing more than 300 Kentucky nursing homes.

The Outstanding Personal Care Home of the Year is presented to personal care homes that have demonstrated an outstanding level of achievement in the past year. Nominees are judged on strict criteria, including facility and department goals and objectives, quality resident care, the attitudes and enthusiasm of staff, and the facility's activities.

"The Pillars has built a long tradition of commitment to quality care for its residents," said KAHCF Board Chair Wanda Meade. "Our long term care profession salutes Administrator Lori Hess, Director Kim Sublett and the entire staff for their dedication and professionalism."

"What a great honor for our staff and residents at The Pillars," said Homes' Board Chair Joe Conway. "We have always known our Homes are the very best, and it's great that KAHCF also recognized the outstanding care and service our residents receive."

The Outstanding Personal Care Home was one of 10 statewide honors the Homes collected Nov. 18 at KAHCF's annual Quality Awards Banquet.

Other statewide honors include:

Community Outreach: Masonic Home of Shelbyville

Innovation in Care: Wings of Doves Palliative Care Program at Masonic Home of Louisville

Adult Volunteer of the Year: Forrest "Frosty" Cardwell (W.G. Simpson No. 472)

Group Volunteer of the Year: The Pals (The Pillars at Masonic Home of Louisville residents Polly Dabney, Bonnie England and Janet Frische)

Administrative Nursing: Jennifer Mitchell, RN, Masonic Home of Shelbyville

Activities: Anne Kuhn, Masonic Home of Shelbyville

Dining Services: Gary McCurdy, Masonic Home of Louisville

Medical Services: Leslie Mann, OT, Masonic Home of Shelbyville

Social Services/Admissions: Angela Smither, Masonic Home of Shelbyville

"Winning 10 statewide awards is quite an accomplishment for Masonic Homes," said CEO Gary Marsh. "It is a direct result of the dedication and passion of everyone in our organization."

Forrest "Frosty" Cardwell (center) was honored by KAHCF as Adult Volunteer of the Year. Joining Frosty were his niece Inez Murphy (left) and Masonic Home of Shelbyville Administrator Debra Finneran.

On hand for the award presentation were (from left) Masonic Home of Louisville Administrator Lori Hess, KAHCF President Ruby Jo Lubarsky, The Pillars Director Kim Sublett, and KAHCF Board Chair Wanda Meade.

Out with the old, in with the renew

In 2009, Brother Jim DeCesare (Bowling Green No. 73) sponsored HB 74, allowing Kentucky Masons renewing vehicle licenses to request the specialized Masonic license plate. With the Masonic emblem and tagline, Making Good Men Better, the special plate has been popular.

It also generated $37,933 for Masonic Homes in 2011. With each renewal, Masonic Brothers can make a voluntary $10 donation to the Homes. These charitable dollars help the Homes provide services through the Masonicare program for eligible Master Masons, their wives and widows.

When renewing your vehicle license, please make the Homes your #1 resolution for 2012.

Masons who request the specialized Masonic license tag can make a voluntary $10 donation to the Homes.

Worth a thousand words

Homes Board Chair Joe Conway (left) presented Masonic Home of Shelbyville Executive Director and Administrator Debra Finneran with the Lincoln Medal on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. The Lincoln Medal is the highest honor bestowed by the Grand Lodge on a non-Mason, and Finneran is just the second recipient of this prestigious prize. "Debra's passion for the fraternity shows in her work and makes the Homes an outstanding reflection of Masonry," Conway said.

Aletha M. Smith of River Valley Nursing Home (second from left) was the proud recipient of the James S. Judy Scholarship during the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities' annual conference in November. This was the inaugural presentation of the $3,000 scholarship, named for former KAHCF President and Homes' Director Emeritus Jim Judy. Joining Smith for the presentation were Jim's sons (from left) Adrian Judy and Homes COO J Scott Judy, with KAHCF First Vice Chair Ken Urlage.

The Pals, winners of KAHCF's group volunteer of the year award, enjoyed the banquet and celebration at The Galt House Hotel. From left (seated) Bonnie England, Masonic Home of Louisville Hospitality Services General Manager Gary McCurdy, Janet Fritsche, Masonic Home Volunteer Director Dama Maynard and Polly Dabney.

TIPS ON STAYING WARM THIS WINTER

• LET IN SOME LIGHT. Open blinds on south-facing windows during the day to let in the sun. Close them in the evening to add a bit more insulation. This provides just enough mid-day warmth that we don't need the heater.

• USE RUGS ON BARE FLOORS. Hardwood and tile floors are cold in the morning and the late afternoon. An area rug does a fine job of keeping your feet warmer.

• BLOCK DRAFTS. This is best done with weather-stripping or other forms of insulation, but even a blanket in front of a door helps. If your house is old, nothing is level. This makes it difficult to install weather stripping. By laying a blanket in front of the door, you can mitigate some of the heat loss.

• USE SPACE HEATERS. According to Michael Bluejay's energy guide, this is the single best way to save money on electricity. Tests with the Kill-a-Watt, a portable radiator-type oil heater uses a lot of power, but not nearly as much as a furnace. You can heat a small space cheaply.

• BUNDLE UP. Long underwear, sweaters, hats, scarves, gloves. And don't forget: house slippers go a long way to keeping you warm!

• INSTALL A PROGRAMMABLE THERMOSTAT. They're easy to install and an excellent way to cut your heating costs.

• USE AN ELECTRIC BLANKET. There's no need to heat the entire house when you're asleep. There's no need to even heat the bedroom. An electric blanket is cheaper and cozier. (A blanket with dual-controls is best for couples.)

• CHANGE THE FURNACE FILTER. A dirty filter forces the furnace to work harder, decreasing its efficiency, increasing heating costs. Change the furnace filter at the start of the winter season, and once every month or two thereafter.

• CLOSE UNUSED ROOMS. Do not heat them. If you don't use the room, close the door and the air vents. It stays cold, but there's no reason to keep it warm.

These steps can reduce your heating costs immediately. In the long term, your best bet is to make sure your home is properly insulated. You should also check that your heat source is efficient, and that you're not losing heat in unintended locations.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT*Snowflakes

Snowflakes spill from heaven's hand
Lovely and chaste like smooth white sand.
A veil of wonder laced in light
Falling Gently on a winters night.
Graceful beauty raining down
Giving magic to the lifeless ground.
Each snowflake like a falling star
Smiling beauty that's spun afar.
Till earth is dressed in a robe of white
Unspoken poem the hush of night.

Kentucky DeMolay's Fall Conclave

October 14-16, 2011 – Louisville

The Fall Conclave was conducted under the leadership of 2010-2011 State Master Councilor Andrew Johnston. It was our pleasure to have Michael Burge, Russell Gillespie, Nick Baldwin, Sam Reese, Josh Hartz, Colin Winkie and Mason Winkie, our brothers from West Virginia, in attendance. Dads Sappington, Personal Representative for the Grand Master and Dad Haas were also in attendance. These guys are like family to Kentucky DeMolay and we're always delighted to have them join our conclaves.

St. Stephen Martyr Church Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Fundraiser

On Friday evening the DeMolays held committee meetings and later we all went over to Strike and Spare for the bowling competition.

On Saturday, the DeMolays had the opportunity to attend an acting workshop taught by William Montgomery and Lucas Frazier of River Cities Chapter and some were able to squeeze in some swimming at the hotel. After lunch we all gathered at the George Rogers Clark Park for an afternoon of flag football. We then gathered at St. Stephen Martyr Church for their chili supper and raffle to support their Making Strides Against Breast Cancer fundraiser. Kentucky DeMolay presented a check to St. Stephen Martyr Church in the amount of $550.00. It was a wonderful meal and some of our conclave participants won some of the fine items from the church raffle.

On Saturday evening, four new candidates joined DeMolay. They are: Andrew Brett Brooks of Central City and will be a Kentucky at-large member, Barrad Nichols Gurwell of Prospect, Kentucky, Christopher Scott Weaver, of Louisville, Kentucky, both will be joining Gold Fidelity Chapter and Tyler Blake Stovall of Louisville, Kentucky who will become a member of Cherokee Chapter. Later that night a dance was held and we were honored to have several Rainbow Assemblies in attendance along with our Sorority President, Miranda Elbert. The C. Frye Haley Memorial Priory, Order of Knighthood, had an investiture and meeting.

The awards for the ritual and athletic competitions were presented on Sunday morning. The Junior Councilor, Junior Division champion was Chris Lile of Cherokee Chapter and the Senior Division champion was Josh Starnes of Bluegrass Chapter. The Senior Councilor Senior Division champion was Brandon Crisp of Cherokee Chapter. The DeMolay Degree Senior Division champion was Lucas Frazier of River Cities Chapter and the Junior Division was Zane Hamilton of Bluegrass Chapter. The Initiatory Degree Senior Division Champion was Brennan Bevins of Noah R. Friend Chapter and the Mag 7 Champion was Alex Sottile of Bluegrass Chapter. Dad Josh Casey was appointed the new Ritual Coordinator for Kentucky DeMolay. Thanks Dad Casey for agreeing to serve.

The sports competition champions are as follows: Bowling – High Game and High Series champion was Josh Starnes and the team from Bluegrass Chapter won the team bowling competition. It was a beautiful day for football and the football champion was a composite team including: Valley of the Cumberland, West Virginia and Noah R. Friend Chapters.

George Rogers Clark Park
DeMolay Flag Football

The Fall conclave was a huge success with an increase in attendance over last year's Fall conclave, four new members joining DeMolay and great brotherhood shared with West Virginia DeMolay.
