TERRY L. BOWMAN
Grand Master

Brethren,

How many times can one say thank you? Those two words do not seem enough for the privilege that you have allowed me to serve as your Grand Master. It has been a very humbling experience to hold that position these past twelve months. You have blessed me so much when I visited your Lodge, District Meeting, Educational Conferences and the special events that took place all year. I was received very warmly and was fed so many good meals that I can barely get into my dress clothes.

Grand Master's Message

Also, my thanks go out to all the groups that makeup the Family of Freemasonry. It has been an honor and pleasure to work with you. May our Heavenly Father continue to bless you now and in the future.

In closing Brethren, guard yourself against unfounded and unsubstantiated rumors that seem to raise their evil head around Grand Lodge time. Every year it is basically the same. If you have questions, please ask them. Do not depend on the Internet Social Network for factual and true statements. Do your honorable best to seek the truth. That is your duty as a Man and a Mason.

Again Brothers, thank you ever so much. Continue to pray for each other and for those of us who are misguided. Remember, we are as ONE!

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

As required by Section 33 (5) of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F & A M, the decision rendered by Grand Master, Terry L. Bowman on August 27, 2012, noted below is submitted for publication in the Masonic Home Journal:

GRAND MASTER'S DECISION
August 27, 2012

The question has been asked "is a convicted felon eligible to petition for Masonic initiation, affiliation, or the Degrees?"

My answer is no. Section 119 of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M. clearly states "A candidate for initiation or affiliation shall be a man of the age of eighteen (18) years or more and of good report". A person who has been convicted of the commission of a felony by the court system clearly does not meet our constitutional requirement of a person coming under good report.

Therefore, it is my opinion a person convicted of the commission of a felony is not eligible to petition for Masonic initiation, affiliation, or the Degrees in a subordinate lodge chartered by the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M.

Terry L. Bowman, Grand Master
Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M.

Another Masonic year is about to come to a close, both in the Grand Lodge and (in December) all constituent lodges, and new officers will soon be installed. The next order of business is to evaluate the successes and disappointments of the past and to focus on the successes achieved, as well as how to avoid future failures and disappointments. It's an undeniable fact that any change produces opportunities for success as well as disappointments and failure. However, each situation provides the opportunity for improvement, and each new year should be better than the last. So, now is the time for the officers who will soon be installed to review the past year, develop a plan, and then set a course that will carry the Fraternity for the coming year, and, hopefully, well into the future. After all, that is the responsibility of stewardship entrusted to us by those honorable leaders of the Fraternity who have preceded us. There is no way we can let them down!!

ANNUAL RETURNS

I want to express my appreciation, and that of the Office Staff, to the Secretaries and Treasurers of the constituent Lodges for their promptness by testifying their year-end report and submitting their assessments to the Grand Lodge Office in a timely manner. The transition to the new reporting system went fairly smooth and was a learning experience for us all. With this years' experience behind us, next year should go even better. Thank each of you for your patience and understanding.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

It is almost too late to mention anything about the 213th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky (October 15, 16, 2012) since it will be almost upon us by the time the October issue of the Masonic Home Journal is available. However, there is still time to rearrange your plans to attend the Communication and fellowship with your Brethren from all across this great Commonwealth, and to tend to the important business of the Grand Lodge. I have again listed the hotel information below. Here's hoping to see many of you in attendance.

The Annual Communication this year will be held at the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky. You may phone the hotel direct or contact the hotel by letter to make reservations.

Galt House
140 North Fourth St
Louisville, KY 40202
To make a reservation call toll free at 1-800-THE GALT or 502-589-5200

You can also make your reservation on line at <http://www.galthouse.com>. The website contains a link for reservations as well as pictures and videos of the facility. The deadline for the block of rooms set aside for the Grand Lodge Communication has expired, so reservations may be made only as rooms are available, and at the going room rate of the hotel.

2011-2012 GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

It has been another interesting year working with the Grand Lodge Offices- Elected and Appointed—as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committeemen. As all other Grand Masters have done, Grand Master Terry L. Bowman has tried several new approaches and solutions to the problems each new Masonic year brings. Hopefully, they will bear fruit to the benefit of the Craft of Kentucky. We wish him the best in the future and the same for the officers to be installed at the 213th Annual Communication.

Hopefully, together we will find the right combination to the challenges that face us as we strive to keep our Gentle Fraternity a viable force for the future.

Conductorcise launches successful aging program

Maestro David Dworkin led The Pillars residents and staff in Conductorcise.

At 78, Maestro David Dworkin can relate to getting older. "Every day is a choice," says the former symphonic conductor and musical director. "You can wake up and be grumpy or you can wake up and say, 'Today is a gift'."

Dworkin helps hundreds of older adults choose a more active lifestyle through Conductorcise, an alternative exercise program that uses their brain and moves their bodies.

He developed the program based on his own experience as a conductor, a career he describes as a sound workout.

With batons crafted from chopsticks, residents of The Pillars Assisted Care Center and Homes' staff joined Dworkin in conducting the works of Beethoven, Strauss, Sousa and Bernstein. The movement helps stimulate endorphins that enhance mental sharpness. According to Dworkin, "Just a little movement every day makes a long-term difference."

Polly Dabney conducts a Strauss waltz.

Conductorcise was presented as part of the rollout of Masterpiece Living on the Louisville campus. Based on research findings that how individuals age is due to lifestyle choices, Masterpiece Living offers resources to help communities create environments that encourage successful aging. The initiative helps residents and staff alike develop and pursue individual lifestyle plans through greater community involvement.

Masterpiece Living has been introduced to residents of Masonic Home Village, Miralea and The Pillars, as well as Louisville campus staff. It has spawned book clubs, walking groups, exercise sessions and outings to theaters and museums. "We are in a new dimension of wellness and engagement at Masonic Homes," said Homes' Lifestyle Director Katherine Futrell, who is overseeing the implementation of the Masterpiece Living initiative. "We are providing more choices and opportunities so all Masonic Homes residents age successfully."
