Grand Master's Message

CHRIS L. STOUT
Grand Master

The Masonic Educational Conferences are completed. However, we must continue to Educate ourselves, our Brothers and especially potential new candidates when they come knocking on our doors. Masters of your respective Lodges, you are the leaders in your Lodges and therefore this responsibility falls upon you. When you were installed as Master of your Lodge, if you remember you were charged with "Communicating Light and Instruction to the Brethren of your Lodge" and to impress upon them the seriousness and high importance of Freemasonry and admonish them to NEVER disgrace it. Take the time to open our Book of Constitutions.

The Grand Lodge Elected Officers are receiving phone calls and e-mail communications about specific issues that should be taken care of within each respective Lodge. We are here to assist you in any way we can. However, we are not here to perform the duties of each respective Master. It seems that some Masters across the Commonwealth are not ruling and governing their Lodges. If you call us and want us to do something about an issue that should be handled by the Master of the Lodge we will gladly handle it. However, the Master should be ready to resign his station or be subject to removal for not fulfilling the duties of his office. Masters, I know this sounds harsh, but we do not want to interfere with your Lodge business unless absolutely necessary. The membership of each Lodge elects Officers each year and it is the Masters duty to rule and govern your Lodge, take it seriously and govern yourself accordingly.

April 20th is the Masonic Great Day of Service at the Masonic Homes of Kentucky. Please consider coming out to the Shelbyville Campus and /or Louisville Campus. This is a great way to assist the Masonic Homes in landscaping their campuses and to enjoy fellowship and meet new Brothers from across the Commonwealth.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

There are three very necessary and important sentinels posted at the entrance of every Masonic Lodge. The first (at the South Gate) is in the form of the recommendation of two members of the Lodge petitioned, testifying as to the character and qualifications of the petitioner that they are proposing. The second (at the West Gate) is the Investigating Committee assigned by the Master to thoroughly investigate the character, reputation and qualifications of the petitioner, and of his willingness to conform to the rules of the order. The third sentinel (at the East Gate) is the membership of the Lodge expressed by ballot. If these three sentinels are duty conscience and efficient, there is no way an unqualified petitioner should ever reach the door of the preparation room of any Lodge. While each, in its own right, is of equal importance, the first priority falls on the first sentinel, since it is two signers of the petition who initially vouch for the integrity, character and reputation of the prospective member, and recommend him for the degrees. The second priority, of course, belongs to the Investigation Committee who must conduct an in-depth and unbiased investigation of the petitioner and report accordingly to the Lodge membership. The last priority, in due course, is the responsibility of the total Lodge membership. The last priority is no less important than the other two simply because it is last in order. In fact, more responsibility should fall upon this sentinel because each member--should he have personal knowledge regarding the petitioner--would have his own assessment of the character and reputation of the petitioner, as well as the recommendations of the other two sentinels, in order to make his own personal judgment at the ballot box.

If these three sentinels are functioning properly, then it would seem to be impossible for any unworthy petitioner to ever enter the door of the preparation room of any of our Lodges. It's only when one or more of these guards get lax in conscientiously investigating a petitioner that an unworthy candidate slips through, and, more often than not, brings dishonor and/or discredit to the Fraternity. To serve on the Investigating Committee is one of the most important assignments a member is called upon to perform. Should a petitioner's integrity, reputation and character not measure up to the standard for membership, it is much better for him to be rejected -- hopefully at the South Gate -- than he be admitted and bring dishonor to the Fraternity.

Many organizations - Masonic and otherwise - are, at the present time, very concerned about declining membership numbers; and that is a reasonable concern, considering that a growing membership is a positive sign of the relevancy and interest of the organizations in the communities in which they are located. However, our forefathers have set a very high standard for those admitted into the Masonic Fraternity, and we should be very careful not to compromise the integrity, honor and reputation of the Fraternity for the sake of numbers. By carefully following the procedures set out above, we have the best chance of not admitting an unworthy candidate, one whom will have to be dealt with by the Masonic Code at a later time. Let's take great care to keep these three sentinels effectively at their posts!

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary should receive a notification on their Lodges home page for the "Award Eligibility List" for those members eligible for the 50, 60, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards from the Grand Lodge Office in early May. After all of the information is gathered from each Lodge we will send out the awards.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. (PLEASE NOTE: The awards are eligible for presentation as soon as they are received from the Grand Lodge Office). So, we encourage you to give this matter your prompt attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Grand Jurisdiction your Lodge is located--must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time inasmuch as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the respective Grand Lodge Offices.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

The U. S. Constitution doesn't guarantee happiness, only the pursuit of it. You have to catch up with it yourself.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MSANA to Reprint Complete Short Talk Bulletins

The publication of a complete collection of Short Talk Bulletins, the most widely distributed Masonic publication in the world, has been announced by the Masonic Service Association of North America.

The first of five projected volumes, a book of more than 750 pages, will be published in the fall of 2013 in two, hard-cover editions: a leather-bound and gilt-edged "Grand Master Edition," and a linen-bound "Master Mason Edition." The editor of the volumes will be S. Brent Morris, P.M., Managing Editor of the Scottish Rite Journal and Past Master of Quatuor Coronati Lodge in London.

"Short Talk Bulletins have been published monthly by MSANA for 90 years, since 1923, and are a treasure of American Masonry," said George O. Braatz, PGM, MSANA Executive Secretary. "The knowledge contained in these Bulletins provides a foundation for understanding our fraternity, including Masonic history, symbolism, philosophy, and biography. These volumes should be at the core of any Masonic library."

Volume 1 will retail for $90 for the Master Mason Edition and $150 for the Grand Master Edition. However, those who purchase before September 1, 2013, will get a special pre-publication price of $55 or $110 plus $7 S&H for U.S. addresses. Lodges can purchase one Master Mason Edition for their libraries for $45, plus $7 S&H for U.S. addresses (payment must be with a lodge check).

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Masonic Home of Shelbyville listed among nation's best

Masonic Home of Shelbyville has received five stars—the highest possible rating—in U.S. News & World Report's fifth annual Best Nursing Homes rating.

The rankings recognize the nation's top nursing homes based on data from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, the federal agency that assesses operations, staffing and quality of care at nursing homes. U.S. News awarded the Best Nursing Home designation to homes that earned an overall five-star rating from CMS.

"Fewer than one of every five nursing homes earned an overall rating of five stars," said Avery Comarrow, U.S. News Health Rankings Editor. "As families evaluate nursing facilities, these are the homes that merit their consideration by demonstrating such high quality."

The Best Nursing Home 2013 ratings highlight the top nursing homes in each city and state, out of nearly 16,000 facilities nationwide. "Our goal is to help people find a home with a strong track record of good care," said Comarrow.

Worth a thousand words

For the second year, Masonic Homes of Kentucky was named among Best Places to Work in Kentucky in 2013 by the Kentucky Society for Human Resource Management in partnership with the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. The selection process is based on company policies and results of employee surveys.

Louisville Metro Police Commander Thomas Dreher (center) accepted a collection of stuffed toys from Homes' CEO Gary Marsh (left) and Bruce Lott. Commander oversees the Crimes Against Children unit and said the toys will be put to good use as officers try to calm and comfort children in peril. The stuffed toys were a gift from Frances Athington, who grew up on the Louisville campus when it served as a home for widows and orphans Established in 1867 as the first Masonic home of its kind.

"No kind action ever stops with itself. One kind action leads to another. Good example is followed. A single act of kindness throws out roots in all directions, and the roots spring up and make new trees. The greatest work that kindness does to others is that it makes them kind themselves."

Outdoor Spring Cleaning Tips

When the temperatures begin to rise, the first thing everyone wants to do is head outside, but before you kick back and enjoy the warmer weather you have to shake off the last remnants of winter by giving your home's outdoor areas a thorough spring cleaning. Use the following outdoor spring cleaning tips and you'll be basking in the sun in no time.

DECK AND PATIO

The first step to getting your home ready for the spring and summer months is giving your deck and patio a deep cleaning. Use a broom to sweep away all the leaves, twigs and other debris that collected throughout the winter months. Keep an eye out for rot, termites or other problems that could affect the stability of your deck. Next, scrub the area with a special deck cleanser to remove any pollen, mildew or fungus.

OUTDOOR FURNITURE

Once your outdoor deck or patio area is clean, it's time to get your outdoor furniture up to speed. Whether you stored the furniture away for the winter or left it out, it's going to need a good cleaning before it's ready for use. Use a multi-purpose outdoor cleaner to wipe down plastic and metal furniture, or a specialized wood cleaner if your furniture is wicker. Don't forget to clean the outdoor cushions as well.

WINDOWS

Washing windows it's just part of indoor spring cleaning. To really make your home shine, you have to do the outside of the windows too. Wipe windows down with glass cleaner and dry with a clean cloth. Don't forget to use a garden hose to spray down your window screens as well.

GUTTERS

Cleaning out your home's gutters is one of the least enjoyable outdoor spring cleaning tasks but it's also one of the most important, since it can affect the integrity of your home. Use a ladder to get to roof level and then scoop out all the leaves, twigs and other gunk that collected in your gutters over the winter. You can use a scoop or your hands, but make sure to wear heavy duty, waterproof gloves so you don't get cut by any exposed metal or sharp sticks. Once your gutters are debris free, use your water hose to rinse out any of the remaining sludge.

POWER WASHING

One of the best ways to give you home a facelift is by taking a power washer to your home's exterior siding, sidewalk and driveway. This high-pressured devices will blast away grime that you didn't even know was there, giving your home a fresh, clean appearance. Just make sure to read the manufacturer's instructions before getting started.

PRUNING

Chances are your shrubs and trees took some damage over the rough and stormy winter months. Make sure they're in the best possible shape by removing damaged, broken and diseased branches. If you have a large tree that needs trimming, hire a professional to do the job. Not only can working with large trees be dangerous for amateurs but a professional will also be able to trim the tree so it will reach its optimal health.
