Grand Master's Message

CHRIS L. STOUT
Grand Master

Brethren, this month we should remember the founding father of our great country and our first President of the United States of America, Brother George Washington. We should stop and reflect what this Brother did for our country and our Fraternity. Celebrate his birthday this month and remember that our George Washington Masonic Memorial, in Alexandria, Virginia will be celebrating this great man and Mason this month.

By now, most of the Lodges have completed their installation of Officers and hopefully all the Officers are getting settled into their stations. At the end of the installation ceremony it states that the Brethren who have been selected to assist the Master in the well ruling and governing of the Lodge are too conversant with the rules of propriety and the laws of the Institution to warrant any mistrust that they will be found wanting in the discharge of those duties or that they will exceed the powers with which they have been invested. And you, my Brethren, I am sure are of too generous a nature to envy their preferment. According to the dictionary, the definition of Assist is to give support or aid. Brethren, we must assist each other within this great Fraternity. We must assist our communities, Lodges, each other, our families, and our widows.

During the installation of the Master, he is presented a set of By-Laws of his Lodge by the installing Master. Master's please review the By-Laws of your Lodge carefully and see that they have been updated recently. Section No. 76 of our Book of Constitution states that each subordinate Lodge shall adopt By-Laws for the government of its own affairs provided that the same are not inconsistent with the Constitution, rules and edicts of the Grand Lodge and shall furnish a copy to the Grand Secretary to be placed on file in the Grand Lodge. Masters I encourage you to put your eyes on the By-Laws of your Lodge. Also, I would encourage you to ensure that they have been updated within the last 3-4 years, and that if any updates were or will be made to them that those updates get sent to the Grand Secretary at the Grand Lodge Office.

May we continue to communicate and assist each other in this great Fraternity to move it forward.

Presenting the awards was Vincent May, Past Grand Master of Indiana. The ceremony was open and a good time was had by all friends and family attending the meeting.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

As the birthday of the Father of our Country and our Masonic Brother George Washington is celebrated on February 22, many Lodges are preparing to host a Lodge program commemorating the event. Also during the month of February, a day is set aside to remember and honor all past Presidents of the United States for their service to our Country. And while we generally remember Brother George Washington as the "first" President, there were fourteen others who served as President, either of the Continental Congress, or the "United States" under the Articles of Confederation, before Brother Washington was elected to office on April 6, 1789, under the Constitution of the United States of America.

An interesting article, written by John R. Nocas, MPS (P.M., S.C.R.L.), appeared in the February, 2005 issue of the Southern California Research Lodge, F&AM Newsletter about the fourteen Presidents who served our nation in the Continental Congress, and later under the Articles of Confederation, four of whom were Freemasons, before George Washington was elected President of the United States. Brother Nocas termed these fourteen "OUR FORGOTTEN PRESIDENTS." I would dare say that he picked an appropriate heading for his article and brought an interesting fact to our attention, of which I feel comfortable in saying, not many of us were aware.

The fourteen Presidents listed in the article are:

Brother Peyton Randolph
(1774) Virginia

Henry Middleton
(1774—1775) South Carolina

Brother John Hancock
(1775—1777) Boston

Brother Henry Laurens
(1777—1778) South Carolina

John Jay
(1778—1779) New York

Samuel Huntington
(1779—1781) Connecticut

Thomas McKean
(1781) Delaware, May have been a Freemason, but no proof.

John Hanson

(1781) Maryland, First President under Articles of Confederation

Elias Boudinot

(1782—1783) New Jersey

Thomas Mifflin

(1783—1784) Pennsylvania

Richard Henry Lee

(1784—1785) Virginia

*Brother John Hancock

(1785—1786) Re-elected, but resigned in May, 1786, because of ill health.

Nathaniel Gorham

(1786—1787) Massachusetts

Brother Arthur St. Clair

(1787) Governor of Northwest Territory

Cyrus Griffin

(1788—1789) Virginia

You will note that Brother John Hancock is listed twice, having served as both President of the Continental Congress and, later, as President of the 'United States' under the Article of Confederation*

The first seven listed served as Presidents of the Continental Congress; the last eight listed served as Presidents of the "United States" under the Articles of Confederation.

The complete article appeared in the February, 1983 issue of the Philaethes Magazine.

LODGE AND TAXES

Contrary to what many believe, the Grand Lodge of Kentucky and its constituent Lodges do not classify under Federal, State, County, or City Codes as charitable organizations and are, therefore, liable for various taxes that apply according to many tax laws. The IRS classification for the Grand Lodge and Subordinate Lodges is 501 (C) (10) Fraternal Non Profit and as such, does not relieve them from paying certain taxes such as property taxes, sales taxes, unemployment taxes, income taxes (in certain cases), and probably others that do not readily come in mind.

Each Lodge MUST file the e-postcard online or the 990/990 EZ for their Lodge every year! The Grand Lodge office can NOT file for the individual Lodges any longer. Since the tax codes are so complex, I am somewhat reluctant to advise Lodges on their tax situations and/or liabilities. Therefore, if I have created any doubts in your mind about individual Lodge tax responsibilities, I suggest that you contact either the IRS or a reliable tax consultant to clear up any questions that may come to mind.

LODGE LIABILITY INSURANCE COVERAGE

Sometime ago I asked our local insurance carrier, the Wells Fargo Company, to furnish this office with a general summary of the two types of insurance coverage, provided by the Grand Lodge Blanket Insurance Coverage, that is the most common concern of most Lodges. Since the information is still current, I think it would be beneficial to print it again, as follows:

RE:

1. Liability Insurance
2. Workers Compensation Insurance

As you know, your Lodge is provided Liability Insurance Coverage by a master policy through Grand Lodge. That policy covers your normal Lodge activities, whether they occur in your building or elsewhere (Examples: Parade, Picnic, etc).

The policy, however, is not meant to cover operations not usual for a Lodge. If, for example, you hold a regular Fish Fry, your Lodge should have a separate Liability Policy to cover the operation. Additionally, if you let other groups use your Lodge, you need separate Liability Coverage.

The Grand Lodge also provides a workers compensation policy to cover the employees usual to a Lodge. Typically your Lodge may have a person doing clerical work or general maintenance of the Lodge facility. The policy is not designed to cover people who are hired to do other work not closely affiliated with the operation of the Lodge. If, for example, the Lodge owns farm property, and hires individuals to work on the farm, your Lodge should purchase its own workers compensation policy to cover those employees. Remember, the Master Workers Compensation Policy is provided to cover the employees that are usual to the operation of your Lodge.

Wells Fargo Company address:
P.O. Box 24008, Louisville KY
40224-0008, (502) 425-9444

Each January a "Memorandum of Insurance" certificate, summarizing the coverage each Lodge has, is mailed to each Secretary. Note that this insurance covers only Lodge activities- it does not extend coverage to the building. If the Lodge owns the building, additional Liability coverage is a must in order to protect the Lodge and its membership against liability claims.

If you have specific questions regarding the Insurance coverage, you may direct them to either the Wells Fargo Agency (Jack Matthews) at the number listed above, or this office- whichever best suits you.

Mintonville Lodge 392 – Raises One

Crittenden Dryridge Lodge 694

On December 22, 2012 Crittenden Dryridge Lodge No. 694 along with help from Brothers from several Lodges raised Brother Daniel Coomer to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason. This Degree was a big undertaking. While the Degree work was going on upstairs, many Brothers were downstairs organizing and preparing food baskets to be delivered to the needy families and senior citizens in their community. They were able to donate 50 food baskets this year. This is what Masonry is all about, Brothers helping Brothers, and Brothers helping those in need.

Paris Lodge 2 – Amity Lodge 40 Christmas Visits

On Friday, December 21, 2012 a delegation of Masons from Paris Lodge No. 2 F&AM and Amity Lodge No. 40 F&AM visited three Masons who now reside in the Bourbon Heights Nursing Home in Paris, Kentucky. Those visited were Brothers Ron Chumbley, Past Master and James Henry, Past Master, Paris Lodge No. 1 and Brother Charles Johnston, Hope Lodge No. 246. Discovering calm on the Louisville campus

Masonic Home Village residents enjoy a variety of programs designed to help them age successfully, including dancing and socializing.

For more than a year, Masterpiece Living has helped older adults on the Louisville campus age successfully. For the past weeks, it has been helping them cope with stress.

My Stress Solutions is a four-week workshop that helps identify stressors, recognize causes and nutritional triggers, and develop individual plans to control and eliminate stress.

Already 21 Louisville campus residents in Masonic Home Village have completed the course, according to Lifestyle Director Glenna Godsey. New sessions are underway in The Pillars Assisted Care Center and Miralea Active Lifestyle Community.

Along with learning how to control stress, Godsey says the workshops have expanded to include practicing mindfulness and tai chi has been added to exercise regimens. Both approaches teach residents techniques to overcome anxiety and stress with calmness.

While it might seem unusual for older adults to suffer from stress, financial difficulties, rising medical costs, limited mobility and other concerns cause anxiety, according to LeadingAge, the national advocacy organization representing non-profit senior service providers. "Stress takes both a physical and emotional strain on the body, and learning to manage stress contributes to better health," Godsey said.

Since Masonic Homes began offering Masterpiece Living on the Louisville campus, residents have joined walking groups, started book clubs, learned to line dance, taken up woodworking and learned to manage stress.

Welcome, District 16 Ambassador!

Masonic Homes of Kentucky is pleased to welcome Brother Leonard Richardson (Lebanon Lodge No. 87) as its District 16 Ambassador.

Brother Richardson noticed the article in the December 2012 Masonic Home Journal stating that the Homes needed a representative; he stepped forward to represent MHKY in his district.

Thanks to Brother Richardson, all 30 District Ambassador positions for the current year have been filled.

2013 Great Day of Service — Saturday, April 20

Join your Masonic Brothers from across the Commonwealth at Masonic Homes of Kentucky's Louisville and Shelbyville campuses in a day of fellowship and service.

Watch for more information in the next issue of Masonic Home Journal.

“There is absolutely no obligation”

By BRUCE LOTT—CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

How many times have you seen a TV, internet or magazine ad that promises this? The companies want you to try their product or service, and seem to guarantee that if you decide not to buy it, you can walk away.

While many things in life can be cast aside that easily, it's different with Masonry, isn't it? We knelt at the altar and made a definitive statement in the presence of our Brothers that we would, among many things, care for our widows and orphans. So in Masonry, as with other commitments we make, we are pledged to care for those special persons who seek our help.

Our Grand Master also has pledged during his year of service to help your Masonic Homes aid and assist our Brothers, their wives and widows living at our Louisville and Shelbyville homes, and those children who are served at Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center & Preschool on our Louisville campus.

When attending your Lodge's next meeting, picture yourself at the altar, reciting the obligation. Focus on the words, recalling how you felt when you first heard them. The older adults and little children at the Homes need to know you remember them.

As your District Ambassador or District Deputy visits your lodge, please consider spending just $10 for a Masonicare lapel pin. Is there absolutely no obligation?

You decide.

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home Village resident Wanda Lutes (left) was recognized by St. Matthews Area Chamber of Commerce at the annual Community Pride event. Wanda's volunteer work in the Village Sundry Shop was among the activities that earned her the honor. Presenting the award to Wanda was St. Matthews Chamber President Billy Fowler (right).

Marine Cpl. Joseph Ali sent a flag that flew over Camp Dwyer in Afghanistan, where he is currently stationed, and a financial gift to support the Homes' charity work. Presenting the gift to Homes' VP of Mission Advancement Phyllis O'Daniel (left) and Chief Development Officer Bruce Lott (far right) were Cpl. Ali's brothers from Pewee Valley No. 829, Kevin Reardon and Gene Crady.

Upton Lodge 749 – Three Generations of Master Masons

On December 1, 2012 Master Mason Chris Fields was raised at Upton Lodge No. 749. His Grandfather, Wilford Fields did the first section of the 2nd Degree, his Father, Gary Fields did the first section of the 3rd Degree, and Michael Fields his Brother assisted. Thanks to the McNeal Degree Team for doing the second part of the 3rd Degree. Also thanks to Tim Sanders and Master Matt Lewis for their parts in the Degree work. Pictured, left to right: Wilford R. Fields, PM, Grandfather; Gary Fields, PM, Father; Master Mason Michael Fields, Brother; and newly raised 18 year old Chris Fields. Masonry, a tradition that is being handed down from generation to generation.

District No. 17 Presents Junior Warden's Walking Cane

The walking cane was made by Past Master Phil Griffin of Pewee Valley No. 829, and presented by Brother Gene Crady to Brother Clint Sherrill of Milton Lodge No. 947. The Junior Warden must present the cane to a Junior Warden in a different Lodge within their District. The object is to have the Junior Wardens meeting each other and working together in their District as they become Masters of their Lodges. Enabling them to work in harmony with each other throughout District 17. The only rule that applies... "the cane must travel."
