Grand Master's Message

CHRIS L. STOUT
Grand Master

June is a month that has several historical events and I would like to bring your attention to two of them. Also, there will be a great event to benefit children at the Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center on the campus of the Masonic Home of Kentucky.

June 14th is Flag Day, a time when Americans reflect on the foundations of the nation's freedom. The flag of the United States represents freedom and has been an enduring symbol of the country's ideals since its early days. Americans also remember their loyalty to the nation, reaffirm their belief in liberty and justice, and observe the nation's unity. Many people in the United States honor this day by displaying the American flag at homes and public buildings. I charge you to display the American Flag every day, but especially on this date. Display it with pride and honor my Brethren.

Secondly, on June 1, 1792 Kentucky became the 15th state or "officially the Commonwealth of Kentucky". This designation emphasizes that we have a "government based on the common consent of the people". Brethren, does this sound familiar? Our Book of Constitution is based on the consent or vote of the delegates present at our Annual Communication each year and has since its inception. I encourage the Masters and Wardens of each subordinate Lodge across the Commonwealth to mark on your calendars the 3rd Monday and Tuesday in October to attend our Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

On June 17th a golf tournament will take place at Big Springs Country Club in Louisville, Kentucky. This event is to benefit the Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care Center for special needs children that attend this center. First Lady Cindy's program this year is "Every Child Every Day" and our goal is to raise enough money to be able to provide children a scholarship for a year at this facility. It costs approximately $13,000.00 per child to attend this center for one year.

Masters remember it is your duty to communicate light and instruction to the Brethren of your respective Lodges. The duties and responsibilities of the office of Master are numerous and extremely weighty. Remember to turn to the GREAT light of Masonry when all else fails, because your trust being in GOD your faith will be well founded. Arise and follow OUR Great light and fear no danger.

CENTRAL KENTUCKY SOCIETY OF PAST MASTER TO MEET

The Society of Past Masters of Central Kentucky will meet at Louisville A.A.S.R. (St. George Lodge No. 129), located on the corner of Brook and Gray Street in Louisville, Kentucky on Saturday, June 29, 2013. We will eat at 6:30 p.m. and then meet at 7:30 p.m.

At this meeting we will attend to necessary business, as well as induct any new members, who may be qualified and in waiting. All members are encouraged to attend and be a part of the functions of your Society.

Current 'sitting' Masters as well as all Past Masters of recognized Lodges are eligible for membership. Total fees, with dues for LIFE included, are $35.00.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

"We've got to change". "Masonry has to change". "We're stuck in the past". "The older members of the lodge resist any change at all". No doubt we have all heard these remarks regarding Freemasonry at one time or another. What we may fail to realize is that we have changed over time, slowly perhaps – but changed nevertheless. Certainly, the principles and tenets of the Craft have not changed because they are unchangeable: however our modern day approach to the Fraternity, and the way we practice our Craft, has slowly changed from the way we approached and practiced it a century or so ago. Today we do not meet by a moon schedule, though a few Lodges still do so. We no longer travel to Lodge by horseback, though we do arrive via horsepower. We no longer struggle to see by moonlight, candle power, or gaslight – but by a constant light source, measured by candlepower (expressed in lumens) supplied by electric current. We no longer have to experience the uneven heat of a coal or wood burning stove to break the chill of the cold of winter, or the opening of vents and windows to get relief from the summer heat – but have the option of central heating and cooling technology to provide us with a comfortable environment during our Lodge Communications.

So, considering the above facts, it becomes quite obvious that the Fraternity has succumbed ever so slowly to change over time. The fact it does change is a natural phenomenon since the world, and nature, does not exist in a static state – but in a dynamic one. One of the basic laws of dynamics (kinetics) is that an object in motion tends to remain in motion until influenced by some outside force. So it is with our Fraternity. The principles of Freemasonry remain in constant motion, the same as they were in the beginning; however, our approach to the practice of the Craft has been influenced by the slow moving change of society and expansion of technology. So it becomes quite obvious, considering all the advantages available to us in these modern times, that all change is not a thing to fear, and that Freemasonry has done a reasonable job of meeting the challenges of changes in our society, while holding steadfast to the unchangeable tenets of the Fraternity.

Therefore, it appears, to me at least, that it's not change in its self that draws resistance from the membership – but it's the pace and rate of drastic "change" over a short period of time. Slow change appears to come from thorough and deliberate consideration of the need for a change, one seen as necessary to address a situation, or situations, that is perceived to be a problem for the Fraternity. Many times a drastic, or quick, change seems to be directed more to the symptoms of a personal or particular problem instead addressing the root cause of the problem, and is done in such haste as to not consider what ramifications the changes may have in the Fraternity as a whole. The old saying: "Act in haste, repent in leisure" comes to mind.

So, I think it's most important that we recognize and keep mind the distinction between those changes that occur quite naturally in the Fraternity, and those that are sometimes suggested, in many cases, to address one personal or particular issue only. To do otherwise may not demonstrate the best example of good stewardship. And good stewardship is the responsible of each of us.

NOTICE

Section 217 of the Book of Constitutions requires that all motions on resolutions pertaining to amendments of the Constitutions or Laws of the Grand Lodge shall be submitted in writing and presented to the Office of the Grand Secretary no later than August 15, prior to the Annual Communications.

NOTICE

Section 12 (3) of the Book of Constitutions requires that an Elective Representative be a Permanent Member chosen by ballot from the members of his lodge, to represent it in case its Master, Wardens or Secretary cannot attend the communication of the Grand Lodge, and such representative shall be given a certificate of his election over the lodge seal.

WAIVER OF JURISDICTION-FEES RETURNED

From time to time inquiries are made to the Grand Lodge Office concerning the return of fees when a waiver of jurisdiction is granted by a Lodge which has a higher initiation fee than the Lodge making the request for the waiver..

Section 98(a) of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F&AM deals specifically to this matter and states:

"In all cases where the fee of the Lodge granting the waiver of jurisdiction is greater than the fee of the Lodge requesting the waiver the candidate shall pay to the Lodge which asks the waiver a fee equivalent to the fee he would have been required to pay had he petitioned the Lodge which granted the waiver. Immediately after the candidate is elected and initiated, the Secretary of the Lodge receiving the waiver shall send the difference in fees to the Lodge granting the waiver."

Simply put, when a Lodge receives a waiver of jurisdiction in favor of a candidate from a Lodge having jurisdiction, where the initiation fee of the Lodge granting jurisdiction is higher than the initiation fee of the Lodge that is requesting the waiver, the candidate pays the higher fee and the difference in the fees must be paid to the Lodge granting the waiver.

ANNUAL RETURNS

By the end of June you should have receive a packet from the Grand Lodge Office (or an electronic notification if we can create an information portal) containing:

1. A form asking for information on members you may have in the Masonic Homes of Kentucky.
2. A form certifying the representative of your lodge at our Grand Communication in October (in case the Master or one of the line Officers can not attend).
3. A post card for you to complete and return to this office.

I urge you to take care of this quickly, to assure adequate time to review and record the results before Grand Lodge.

Also, sometime in the latter part of July, you will receive an electronic notice that your membership and the lodge's Annual Return is ready for review. Please check this information very carefully for accuracy and complete the Annual Return as quickly as possible. It is not necessary to file your Annual Return and send payment for the assessments to Grand Lodge at the same time. As soon as the Annual Return is reviewed (after you have checked and corrected it, if necessary) we can then assemble the information in ample time to have it available to the membership at Grand Lodge. You may forward your check for assessments prior to September 1, deadline. It is very important the June Monthly Activity Report be re- ported in the Grand Lodge Office database as soon as practical after the end of the month-before the tenth of July deadline, if possible.

I know I can depend on the continued cooperation of the dedicated lodge secretaries of this Grand Jurisdiction to do their best to preserve and maintain a complete and accurate record of their lodge activities.

NOTICE OF REJECTION

Just a reminder to each lodge secretary to report to the Grand Lodge Office, either electronically for those Secretaries who report electronically or on the proper paper form, any petitioner for the degrees who has been rejected by your lodge. I am not sure all lodge secretaries are aware they should report this activity. However, this information could be valuable to another lodge, should the one rejected attempt to petition another lodge at a later date.

In case you do not have any of the Notice of Rejection Forms, you may order them from the Office of the Grand Secretary.

OFFICIAL OUT-OF-STATE CORRESPONDENCE

Just a reminder, all official correspondence between Grand Jurisdictions must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office. This includes all request for demits, reinstatements, transfers, affiliation, waivers etc. Consequently, if you correspond directly with a Lodge in another jurisdiction on any of the above mentioned transactions, they will be delayed until such time as the proper Masonic protocol is established.

However, a member of a Lodge of a sister jurisdiction, even though he may now reside within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, is at liberty to correspond directly with his Lodge.

So, please remember to observe proper Masonic protocol in dealing with all official out-of-state transactions and/or correspondence.

Independence Day

The Grand Lodge office will be closed on Thursday, July 4, 2013 to observe Independence Day. Don't forget to give thanks for and to our military personnel.

Thought for the Month
The U.S. Constitution doesn't guarantee happiness, only the pursuit of it. You have to catch up with it yourself.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Great Day is one for the books

George Burriss, Tonya Lewis and Donnie Lewis from W.G. Simpson No. 472 added a coat of paint at Masonic Home of Shelbyville.

The Homes' 10th annual Great Day of Service brought 359 volunteers from Masonic lodges across Kentucky.

Members of Plain City No. 449 traveled the farthest—from Paducah to Louisville—to plant flowers around the campus. Willis Stewart No. 224 boasted the most volunteers—a total of 18—who weren't afraid to get their hands dirty.

Homes' staff, residents and family members also pitched in on both the Louisville and Shelbyville campuses. They painted, raked, power washed and planted. Shelbyville volunteers were treated to grilled pork chops for lunch, prepared by members of Shelby No. 662 and Solomon's No. 5.

Mother Nature cooperated, providing sunny skies and moderate temperatures, setting the stage for a productive day.

For the second year, the Great Day of Service was part of Louisville Metro Mayor Greg Fischer's Give a Day campaign, promoting volunteerism throughout the community.

First-class service

Homes' President and CEO Gary Marsh could have recovered from his recent knee replacement surgery anywhere. But, like hundreds of others do every year, Gary chose Sam Swope Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville for rehab.

"Throughout my career in long-term care, I've always said I wanted to work at a place where I would feel proud and comfortable to be a patient," Gary said. "Sam Swope Care Center is that place."

Gary has at least two sessions daily in the rehabilitation center, gaining strength and mobility in his leg. After a week's stay, Gary was discharged but he continues a therapy regiment as an outpatient.

"Mr. Marsh's good physical condition contributed to his recovery," said Gary's physical therapy assistant Pace Whitworth. "He also is highly motivated, and that is the most important factor."

Derby parade offers perfect mix of people and party

More than 220 Louisville campus residents, staff and guests joined in a Derby tradition at Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care and Preschool.

On Wednesday, May 1 a festive parade looped Sproutlings' parking lot and wound through the campus. This year's Derby parade included beautiful handmade hats, golf carts decorated as parade floats, horse and jockey costumes and a ton of fun.

"The sun shines bright over Masonic Homes when staff and residents from the entire campus connect," said Homes' CCO CJ Parrish. "No other community offers this mix of people, parade and party for Derby and throughout the year."

Sproutlings' Derby parade coincided with the kick off of Masterpiece Living's Walk to Wellness on the Louisville campus. Throughout May, staff and residents are logging steps and burning calories as part of a national competition between senior communities.

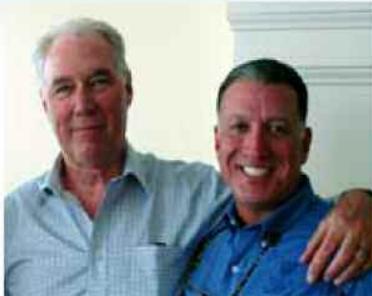

Residents and staff from all Louisville campus communities celebrated at the Derby parade.

Derby fans of all ages, including those dressed as Steamboat Race spectators, enjoyed the annual parade.

Worth a thousand words

Former University of Kentucky basketball standout Mike Pratt (left) was featured at Man Cave, a monthly gathering for men living at Miralea. Martin Walters (right), vice chairman of the Homes' board, also visited the Cave.

Residents and staff of Masonic Home of Louisville joined the city of Louisville in wearing red in support of the University of Louisville men's basketball team, winners of the 2013 NCAA tournament.

NOW SHOWING "To Entertain Strangers" A MASONIC PLAY

Covington Valley Players will present the Masonic Play, "To Entertain Strangers" at its June 21st stated meeting. All Master Masons and their families are invited.

Set in Doric Lodge, in the fictional town of Aaronton, in upstate New York in the fall of 1940, the 'Carl H. Claudy' play opens as the Lodge is endeavoring to strictly comply with Masonic Law after the Grand Master orders that a Brother of the Lodge be tried, for his part in an attempted murder and arson case. As this exciting story speeds toward its thrilling conclusion, nothing truly is what it appears to be.

Directed by Bill Lorenz, PM, Henry Barnes Lodge, the cast has been selected from members of the Scottish Rite Players.

There is 'no charge' for the play, however dinner reservations are $7.00 per person (children under 12 years, eat free) Reservations should be made by calling the Covington Scottish Rite office 859-431-0021 during office hours 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday, Tuesday or Thursday's or by email debcovsr@fuse.net.

"If you have a car that is your pride and joy, enter it, you may win a beautiful trophy".

Most Worshipful Brother Floyd Henry Booth was a staunch and dedicated member and supporter of the Freemasonry in general, and of his lodge in particular, as the record of his fifty-eight plus years in the Fraternity clearly shows. His many years spent serving his lodge as Secretary—even after having served the Grand Lodge as Grand Master—and the Grand Craft of Kentucky in the several offices and positions he held is testimony to his love and devotion to the principles and tenets of the Order, and will be an inspiration to those whom will follow in his footsteps. These richly deserved words regarding Brother Booth were expressed in the report of Brother Acie D. Milner P.M. (Plumb Lodge No. 862), Chairman of the Committee on Biography as printed in the 1990 Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky:

"Brother Booth has brought wisdom, dignity, truth, honor and fortitude to the office of Grand Master."

A fitting tribute to a deserving Brother!

*The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power,
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour,
Now is the only time you own,
Live, love, toil with a will,
Place no faith in tomorrow,
For the clock may then be still*

As a tribute of love and respect for the memory of our departed Brother Floyd Henry Booth, PGM, it is hereby ordered that this memorial be read in each Lodge in this Jurisdiction at the next Stated Communication following its reception, and that it be made a part of the records of the Lodge.

Given under my hand and under the seal of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M. this day and year first written.
