Brother Reed hired me at my first employment opportunity in the printing industry right out of High School in 1976 for the Old Standard Printing Company. He later hired me to work with him at the Masonic Home Journal Print shop in 1979. Some of my fondest memories were the early days of my career when I was afforded to form a close relationship with Brother Reed. Not just as a boss, but as a friend. Masons such as Brother Reed had a big influence on me later in my Masonic Career, and I know that without a

Grand Master's Message

CHRIS L. STOUT
Grand Master

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Brethren, Lodge installations are still in full force across the Commonwealth of Kentucky and I applaud those who have chosen to have open installations. My Brethren, we must communicate to our community leaders, our neighbors, our co-workers and friends in each of our respective communities that FREE-MASONRY is in our cities and towns. If we do not invite them to come and celebrate this annual event, then how are they to know what we stand for? To the elected and installed Masters, you have had a great honor bestowed upon you to serve as Master of your respective Lodge. Masters do not take it lightly; it is your duty, as it states in the charge to the Master when installed to "Communicate light and instruction to the Brethren of your Lodge" please read the Book of Constitutions, and the By-Laws of your Lodge, and then read them again. Also, utilize each DDGM in your respective Districts and Area Officers (Elected Grand Lodge Officers) to assist you.

I hope by now that all Lodges have had open discussions at your meetings and decided what Masonic Educational Conference location(s) you will be attending. The Masonic Educational Conferences are broken down into 10 Regions with at least two Districts in each region. Masters, remember it is your responsibility to attend or to see that your Lodge is represented there at. These are listed in the DDGM Handbook that was sent to every Lodge Secretary in the Commonwealth. They are also on the website and listed in The Masonic Home Journal and if you still do not know when they are ask your DDGM in your respective District. Please travel to the location that is the closest to you even though it may be in another region. You do not have to attend the region that your District is in, but your Lodge must be represented. Master, it is your duty to make sure your Lodge is represented.

The Committee on Archives has started working on the Library and we are moving forward with getting some estimates on new book shelves, redoing the floor and several other things. I would like to thank the Committee for their prompt attention and commitment for this project.

All net proceeds from the Christmas Cards this year will go toward the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Library and Museum project.

doubt, I would not have had the opportunity to experience the many blessings in my own life. I know that there are many Brothers who were touched in their lives by MO, as he was known to those of us who knew him well. I have spent several hours upon hearing of his passing, reflecting on the good times we shared and the many laughs. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to his wife, Jane, his daughter, Ann and son, Steve.

To Brother Reed, -30- my Brother, until we meet again.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

We are taught in the early Degrees, in order to fully understand the lessons contained therein, require diligent search and study. These lessons, we are told, hold the principles and tenants which should guide our conduct as Freemasons – especially how we should relate to each other. Since we Masons come from all different backgrounds, it's quite natural to have a difference of opinion from time to time. But we, as Freemasons, are taught to respect each other's right to disagree and still meet on the level. Unfortunately, that is not always the case, and in some instances, a disagreement will spill over into the lodge and disturb the peace and harmony of the membership.

When this happens, two of the lessons of the Degrees through which we pass come to mind. The first, to keep an unworthy thought from becoming action is the profound lesson of the Legend of the Temple. There were three opportunities to keep the unworthy thought which triggered the event from becoming action and ending in the tragic conclusion; 1) when the thought first manifested itself in the mind of the workman on the temple (South Gate); 2) when the idea was given lip-service (West Gate); and 3) when the evil plan was put into action (East Gate). The dramatic portrayal of Temple Legend no doubt made a lasting impression on every Master Mason Raised and the enormity of the lesson contained therein burned in his mind. But since this lesson learned is so dramatic and profound, we may sometimes fail to see it on a more personal level.

The second is the lecture in the Charge given the Tiler during the Installation of Officers, which parallels the same lesson as the Legend of the Temple and puts it on a more personal level, wherein he is admonished "...to set a guard at the entrance to our thoughts (South Gate); place a watch at the door of our lips (West Gate); to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions (East Gate), thereby excluding every unqualified and unworthy thought, word, and deed; and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and man"; Three opportunities to filter out any unworthy thought which may creep into one's head.

With this in mind, the next time we have a difference of opinion or disagreement with a Brother, let's stop and reflect on the message gleaned from Legend of the Temple and the Tiler's Charge noted above before we act in haste, then have to repent in leisure.

NEWLY ELECTED SECRETARIES

Each year there are a number of new secretaries elected to that important office of the Lodge. The office of Secretary carries with it great responsibilities, second only to the Master, for the well being of the Lodge and its members. How well the Secretary responds to and carries out his duties is directly proportional to the success of a Lodge. An interested and knowledgeable Secretary is indispensable to the Master and his Lodge in moving our Fraternity forward, an uninterested Secretary will affect the Lodge in a negative manner.

So if you are a newly elected Secretary, my advice to you is; first learn the duties of the Secretary; second, make sure you communicate clearly and fully with the Master; and third, develop an unconscious and natural "feel" for your particular Lodge and each member thereof. There are many responsibilities- but also many rewards if you can develop the right attitude. Welcome aboard and good luck!!

LODGE DUES-DELINQUENT

Inquiries have been made to the Grand Lodge Office as to when a member is considered delinquent in the payment of dues and assessments to his Lodge(s). Section 154 of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.& A.M., states that "The dues of all Lodges shall be due on January 1 each year, and payable in advance for the full year." Therefore, it would seem logical to conclude that a member who had not paid his dues and assessments for the current year would be considered delinquent on the first day of January of that year. There may appear to be a discrepancy in the Section mentioned above since further on it states that "Dues for each year shall be delinquent on April 1, and the delinquent members shall be subject to suspension on the stated meeting of the Lodge in June."

However, in that instance the reference to the term "delinquent" applies to the point at which a Lodge may consider the suspension of a member-or members- for non-payment of dues and assessments. Please keep in mind that the terms "delinquent" and "not in good standing" are not synonymous. The section referred to above merely sets the minimum time at which a member-or members- may be suspended for non-payment of dues- but does not set a limit on the time a Lodge may carry a member before suspension, if the Lodge chooses to do so. Further, a Lodge may, in the Lodge By-Laws; lengthen the time before suspension of a member (i.e.

after one year, two years, etc.)-but may not shorten the time. That is to say, a member owing only the current years dues cannot be suspended before June of the year the dues become payable.

Realizing that Lodge dues and assessments are necessary to provide the funds required to keep our Lodges, the Grand Lodge, and or Masonic charities financially sound and viable, the most prudent approach would be to remit our dues to the Secretary of our respective Lodge immediately upon receipt of the dues notice, thereby, eliminating the necessity of the term "delinquent" from our Masonic vocabulary.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Your success and happiness lies in you. Resolve to keep happy, and your joy and you shall form an invincible host against difficulties.

Miralea opens on Louisville campus

Homes' CEO Gary Marsh accepted a proclamation of Miralea Day in Louisville from Mayor Greg Fischer.

Louisville Metro Mayor Greg Fischer launched Louisville's premiere older adult community with the opening of Miralea, featuring 90 newly constructed apartments and 12 patio homes, on Masonic Homes' Frankfort Avenue campus.

As Louisville's first life care community, Miralea offers living options that enable residents to seamlessly transition through life changes. As their circumstances warrant, Miralea residents can transition to more progressive care options offered by Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

Since November 1, about 76 residents have moved to Miralea. All 102 residences were pre-reserved in mid-2011. Miralea homes range from one bed and bath to two bed and bath with den floor plans. Amenities include iPad e-Concierge service; campus life alert monitoring; a fitness and aquatic center; two upscale dining venues staffed by an executive chef; 24-hour security and life care planning.

Rolling out a ceremonial welcome mat to signal that Miralea has opened were (from left) Mayor Greg Fischer, Homes CEO Gary Marsh, Miralea resident Mary Albert and Homes Board Chair Joe Conway.

Elaine Whelan's residence at Miralea was showcased in newscasts aired on two Louisville television stations.

Two employees received state honors

Masonic Homes of Kentucky staff was recently honored with two top nursing awards by the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities (KAHCF). Masonic Home of Shelbyville's Director of Nursing Sally Jo Magness received the 2012 Statewide Director of Nursing Award and Masonic Home of Louisville's The Pillars Assisted Care Center Director Kim Sublett was named 2012 Statewide Personal Care Home Caregiver.

Worth a thousand words

2012 marked the 125th anniversary of the St. John's Day League. Since 1887, League members and volunteers have helped Masonic Homes fund needed programs and services. A special decal was distributed to League supporters in December at the end of the landmark anniversary year.

The 2012 Show 'n Shine Care Show is now history, and organizers Wayne Weaver (second from left) and Steve Mullins (right) said the show's goals were achieved. The third annual event on the Louisville campus raised $4,100 for the Homes, with Chief Development Officer Bruce Lott (left) and Board Chair Joe Conway on hand to accept the check. Along with fundraising, the show seeks to raise awareness of Masonic Homes' services and to have fun.

Mintonville Lodge 392

Thank You!

Brother and Mrs. Terry Shroyer would like to thank the Brothers and their wives of Mintonville Lodge No. 392, and surrounding Lodges, as well as the community, and my family for having a benefit dinner for us. I have been sick for the last year and a half, and my Brothers came together and hosted a benefit dinner at Mintonville Lodge No. 392, which was a huge success. Their generosity and caring was a blessing. They reached deep in their hearts to fill ours with hope, love and joy. I am very thankful to be a member of an outstanding and honorable organization. Thank you, my fellow Brethren.

Brother Terry Shroyer

Carrollton Lodge 134 – Thank you...

Message from Mark Reece, Past Master

Brethren:

As I finish up my last meeting as Master of the Lodge, I begin to reflect on my year and wonder if there was something more I could have done. I was truly blessed to have so much help throughout the year from so many of you. And I want to thank all the Brothers for their support.

The memories from last year will never be forgotten. I had a wonderful time serving as Master of the Lodge. I look forward to the future and helping out as much as possible to continue the growth of Carrollton Lodge. Over this past year I feel that I have created a stronger Brotherhood with several of you and I think that is what I will treasure the most.

Thanks again everyone. However, I will share parting thought with you.
