Journalist Byron Crawford Speaks at Grand Master's Reception

The annual Grand Master's reception was held at the well renown Claudia Sander's Dinner House in Shelbyville, Kentucky on November 9, 2013 with almost 300 people in attendance, including several Past Grand Master's, Masonic leaders and family members. The special speaker was none other than prominent Kentucky journalist, Byron Crawford, who gave a very interesting and entertaining speech with many fascinating anecdotes of the Commonwealth. Numerous presentations were made to the Grand Master by the members. This great evening culminated with an inspiring speech by Most Worshipful Grand Master Rick Nation, admonishing Brethren to dispense charity to needy members of their communities.

Grand Master Receives Honorary Membership From High Twelve

On November 1, 2013 Most Worshipful Grand Master Richard T. Nation (right) was the guest speaker at the Downtown High Twelve Club #105. He presented his program and goals for the forthcoming year as Grand Master. His message was very well received by all those present. At the end of his remarks, President John Cauley (left) presented him with an honorary membership in the International High Twelve and the Downtown Club #105. He will always be welcome to join them in the future.

Grand Master's Message

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Master

I want to tell you a story about a little country Lodge that experienced great growth in the early 80's when most Lodges were losing members right and left. They were taking in policemen, firefighters, EMS personnel, farmers, factory workers, government workers, and businessmen. They were growing by leaps and bounds. Unfortunately, it had been years and years since much had been going on. A handful of older Brothers had kept the fires burning. They did remember how to confer the Degrees and did so in a very creditable manner, even though some were on oxygen, some could not stand to confer an entire lecture, and some had to use note cards because their memory had started slipping a bit. A small group of the newer Brothers got together and said there is no sense in making these elderly

Brothers do all the work. We are younger, reasonably intelligent, willing and able to do this for them. "But, what will these distinguished older Brothers say about it. Will they resent us trying to take over?" "Let's ask them." The older Brothers replied, "Thank God you've come. We've been laboring in the quarries for decades. We are tired. We are broken down. We welcome you taking some of the burden from us. But, know this, we will still be here to support you, to help you in any way we can." And they did.

One by one, those older Brothers joined that innumerable caravan which moved to the pale realms of shade, where each took his chamber in the silent halls of death. But they left behind a legacy. They left behind what quickly became, arguably, the best Lodge in the state. That Lodge became the Lodge that was held up as a shining example of what a Lodge should be. Visiting Brothers came from all parts of the state to try to learn what their secret was. It was no secret. It was a group of very good friends and upstanding Masons united in a single vision. A vision that their Lodge would be second to none. And, my goodness, how they succeeded.

Let's fast forward a couple of decades. Some of those energetic young Masons have joined the older Brothers in the Celestial Lodge. Some have retired and moved to sunnier climes. Some have become more involved in the York Rite, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Eastern Star, or Grand Lodge. Some have just gotten old and no longer have the desire or ability to work as hard as they did in years past. But the Lodge has younger members coming in. New Masons who want to do the work. Younger Brothers who have new ideas they want to try. You would think the older Brothers, who had been doing so much of the work, who had been laboring for so long, would welcome the relief. Just as their pleas to help had been welcomed so many years ago. But, alas, these older Brothers have come to resent the younger Brothers trying to change anything. We've all heard the classic response, "That's not how we did it when I was Master!" "We tried that 30 years ago, it didn't work then and it won't work now." They have created a rift within the Lodge they worked so hard to build. Instead of all the Brothers being united in a common vision, each is trying to preserve his own little kingdom. The one who has been in office for decades. The one who has conferred the Stair Lecture for years. The one who does their installations. Nobody wants to step aside and let the younger Brothers take over. Because, they will do it differently. Probably just as good, maybe even better. Brothers, we need to unite to destroy this kind of attitude in our Lodges. It is holding us back. It is preventing us from being all we could and should be.

Brothers, the District Deputies have been or will be visiting your Lodges. Instead of just wearing a fancy apron, I have asked my Deputies to be my personal representative. I have charged them to fulfill their duties as defined by the Constitution and I quote "The District Deputy Grand Master shall inspect the halls, books, methods and work of particular Lodges and make reports to the Grand Master as he shall direct." Be advised, my Deputies should be looking at a lot more than those in the past have done. If you have a problem with it, blame me, not them.

Brothers, December is the month designated by our Constitution for each Lodge to elect their Officers. I hope you will give prayerful consideration to who is the best man for the job. It may not be the one in the preceding chair. It may be the Brother who sits patiently on the sidelines but is so full of talents and energy that he glows. It's up to each of you to decide that for yourself. Please, Brothers, put your personal feelings aside and consider what is best for your Lodge and this Fraternity.

Karen and I, and the rest of our family, wish you and yours the Merriest of Christmases. May you enjoy a Happy, Prosperous, and Healthy New Year.

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

The following EDICT issued by the Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Richard T. Nation, is being published here in compliance with Section 33 (5) of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M.:

EDICT
OCTOBER 22, 2013

Whereas, I feel strongly that charging dues to Entered Apprentices and Fellow Craft Masons without allowing them a voice in how the funds are spent is inherently wrong; and Whereas, I feel it reprehensible to take their money and give them no say in how it is spent; and

Whereas, to continue to do so appears to reach the level of taxation without representation,

Therefore, in an effort to allow Lodges to return to the traditional way of doing things, I am issuing this Edict, as of the date noted above, allowing Lodges to conduct routine business in the Entered Apprentice Degree. Only Master Masons are allowed to vote, hold office or serve on committees. Any Lodge wishing to conduct business in the Entered Apprentice Degree must notify the Grand Master and Grand Secretary in writing, as well as the Lodge membership. The notice to the Lodge membership must be in conformance with Section 108 of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M. This edict is to be read aloud to the membership by the Master at the next Stated Communication following its reception and entered upon the minutes.

Given under my hand as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M. on this 22nd day of October, 2013.

Richard T. Nation
Grand Master
 Joseph R. Conway, PGM
Grand Secretary

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR HOLIDAYS

December generally brings with it gray skies, dreary weather, cold days and nights, and, quite often, sleet, snow and rain. However, there are many happy and pleasant activities that routinely occur during the last month of the year, such as family get-togethers, friendship gatherings and special services at our places of worship, associated with the Yuletide Season to name but a few. These latter things brighten up a dreary sky, warm up a cold day, and set the tone for the coming New Year.

What makes this particular season so unique is the "Reason for the Season". While the month of December brings the promise of springtime, the Reason for the Season forcibly reminds us of the promise of the Grand Architect of the Universe to his creatures, and the hope that in the end we are all found worthy of his blessings.

So, as we enjoy the presence of family and the pleasure of friends during the Christmas Season, let's not fail to recognize our responsibility to our Creator and give him thanks for all the blessings he has showered upon us. And above all, let's keep in mind the "Reason for the Season". Especially keep in mind those brave men and women in the military defending our American way of life, wherever they may be. Please remember them in your prayers along with the United States of America and our Masonic Fraternity.

On behalf of the Office Staff, Mary, Christy, Jamie, Stephanie and I, we wish for each of you a very blessed and Merry Christmas, and a Joyful, Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year!!

GRAND LODGE OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Wednesday, December 25 and Thursday, December 26 for Christmas. The office will also be closed on Tuesday, January 1, 2013, for New Years.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

May the spirit of Christmas bring you peace,
 The gladness of Christmas give you hope,
 The warmth of Christmas grant you love.

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

First-class First Lady

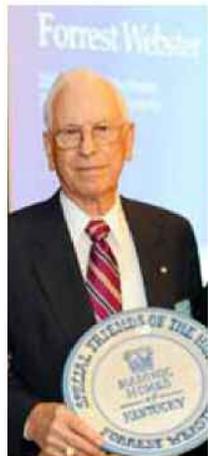

Focus on kids funds scholarships

First Lady Cindy Stout's year-long effort raised more than $35,000 for pediatric scholarships to Sproutlings Day Care & Preschool on the Homes' Louisville campus.

"Cindy created Every Child, Every Day to ensure that medically fragile children can grow and thrive at Sproutlings, regardless of their financial situation," said Homes CEO Gary Marsh.

Along with Brother Chris Stout, Cindy hosted the Grand Master's golf tournament to raise funds and awareness of Sproutlings services. "Cindy's passion for children will benefit the children we serve for years to come," Marsh said.

"Fun-raising" Brother is 2013 Friend of the Homes

Forrest Webster, Latonia No. 746, was recognized at the 214th Annual Communication.

Former Homes' Board member and organizer of the Wheatley Golf Tournament Forrest Webster was named 2013's Friend of the Homes.

"When Brother Forrest joined our Board more than 20 years ago, he wanted to involve Northern Kentucky Masons in the Homes' mission," said Chief Development Officer Bruce Lott. "In 1993, the first Wheatley Golf Tournament was held and the tradition has continued, raising thousands of dollars for our Homes."

Although begun as a fundraiser, the golf tournament quickly became an annual reunion of Masonic brothers, according to Lott. "The Wheatley Golf Tournament is more about fellowship than about making a hole in one, and we are grateful to Brother Forrest for continuing the tradition."

A Grand year

The 214th Annual Communication marked the end of Brother Chris Stout's service on the Homes Board of Directors. The craft joined Homes staff in thanking Brother Chris for his service.

"As a director, the Grand Master has participated in a period of remarkable growth at Masonic Homes," said CEO Gary Marsh. "He truly lived our obligation by lifting up Masonic brothers and their widows who rely on Masonicare to provide for them, and we are grateful for his commitment." During his service as Grand Master, Stout initiated Renew Our Obligation, a year-long program that highlighted Masonicare and generated more than $16,600 to fund services.

The Homes also recognized the service of Brother Kerry Sluss (Greenup No. 89 and Warfield No. 882) whose term as a director ended.

Sharing knows no bounds

Lodges in Districts 1, 2 and 3 collected enough food and money to help feed more than 40 families in Shelby County.

Homes' District 3 Ambassador Bill Perry (Clinton No. 82) noticed a story in the October issue of Masonic Home Journal about Masonic Home of Shelbyville's effort to provide Thanksgiving meals to Shelby County families in need. Perry emailed Western Kentucky area lodges and suggested they could all pitch in to help. He encouraged lodges he visited to dig deep to assist.

By the time the 214th Annual Communication convened, lodges in three districts had amassed $1,100 in cash and food. Perry, along with representatives of many of the lodges who had given, presented a hotel cart full of groceries and a check to help Masonic Home of Shelbyville exceed its goal. The Homes General Manager for Hospitality Services Linda Wagner was overwhelmed. "Our goal was to collect enough to provide Thanksgiving meals to 25 families," Wagner said. "The outpouring of generosity from Western Kentucky will help us serve at least twice as many families."

Masonic Home of Shelbyville partnered with Clay Village Baptist Church in Shelby County on the project. Masonic Home food vendor Sysco is providing a turkey for each family.

"Good food is a big part of the Thanksgiving holiday," Wagner said. "We are thrilled to share this blessing to those in Shelby County who really need it."

Worth a thousand words

Homes' District 22 Ambassador Ken Cooper (right) presented Homes CEO Gary Marsh (left) and Board Chair Joe Conway a check for $12,000 on behalf of the St. John's Day League. In 2013, the League marked 126 years of supporting Masonic Homes.

Everett Parish (center, Shively No. 951, Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky Royal Arch Masons) was welcomed to the Annual Communication by Past Grand Masters Joe Conway (left) and Bob Davenport. Mr. Parish shared with the craft his experience as a resident of The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville.

Fort Campbell Lodge 946 – News

Master Mason Degree 2013

On October 12, 2013, at the stated meeting of L.M. Cox Lodge No. 327 in Crofton, Kentucky, Brother Jacob Matthew Ramirez, a member of Fort Campbell Lodge No. 946, was raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason.

Apron Stand

During a stated meeting of the Fort Campbell Lodge No. 946 on November 5, 2013, Brother Steven Grudzinski, PM presented the Lodge with a beautifully crafted Apron Stand. In his presentation, he stated that he had observed the Aprons being stacked on the shelf at the Tiler's station and decided to build the stand. The front has the square and compass representing the Master in the East, the Level on left side representing the Senior Warden in the West, and the Plum on the right side representing the Junior Warden in the South. The top is inlaid in the shape of an apron. Brother Grudzinski (center) made the presentation to Master Mike Young (left), with the District 4 District Deputy Grand Master Donald McGlothlin (right) in attendance. Brother Steve is an active duty soldier serving at Fort Campbell. Thanks Brother Steve.

Mason of the Year 2013

Following the annual Fort Campbell Lodge No. 946 barbecue and yard sale on November 4, 2013, Brother Floyd Nelson, PM (left) presented Brother Michael Young, with the "Mason of the Year Award" which included a Masonic watch, cap and other items. Congratulations Brother Mike.

Annual Barbecue 2013

In the late hours of November 4 and into the early hours of the following day, the Boston Butts were already in the cooker with the many chicken halves being prepared for the Annual Barbecue and Yard Sale at the Fort Campbell Lodge No. 946, Oak Grove, Kentucky. You have to taste it to confirm it being stated as "The best barbecue & chicken in the South". Placing chicken on the grill are Brothers George McGraw (left), and Master Mike Young (right). Thanks to all the brethren that made this successful.
