Grand Master's Message

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Master

Labor Day. What does that mean to Masons? Is it a day that we labor to improve ourselves in Masonry? Probably not. Should it be? Definitely yes! It should be a day that we constantly seek to improve ourselves, as should every other day. If we could just learn to subdue our passions and improve ourselves in Masonry, how wonderful would this world be? What if we could put aside all the pettiness and jealousies that exist in our Lodges? What if we could stand side by side with each other? What if we could commensurate with each others misfortunes and celebrate with each others happiness? What if we worked hard at being happy and communicating happiness?

What if this world operated on Masonic principles? There would be no war or strife. No religious fanaticism. No envy.

No discord. Less need for charity, and more of it when needed. A world in which every man loved his neighbor as himself. Can you imagine it? It's said that if you can dream it, you can achieve it. Won't you join with me and try? I can't change the world by myself. I can't even change my community. But I can change myself. I can serve as an example of what a Man and Mason should be. And by my example, maybe I can convince others to emulate me. And hopefully, they can do the same.

This Masonic year is fast drawing to a close. I thank you Brothers for supporting my programs. You have been fantastic! Please remember the fishing tournament at Barren River Lake on the first Saturday of next month. The proceeds from the tournament will support the Masonicare program at our Homes. We probably can't raise the over one million dollars it takes for this program each and every year, but we can help. Each of us can help even it's in just some small way. Thank you for supporting the First Lady's "Our Roots Run Deep" program. Your contributions to the Giving Tree program will enable our award winning Shelbyville Home to make some unbudgeted capital improvements to improve the lives of our neighbors and our employees. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

As we progress through the Masonic Degrees the oaths and obligations taken therein are defined as covenants made with the institution of Freemasonry. The word "covenant" has such a broad and deep meaning it sometimes loses its full significance by becoming so familiar in our constant use of the term that we may fail to grasp the full impact of the responsibility it places on each of us as a Freemason. Brother Albert Mackey (Mackey's Revised Encyclopedia of Freemasonry, Volume 1) defines a covenant as "a contract or agreement between two or more parties on certain terms...". He further stated "...that when a man is made a Freemason he enters into a covenant with the institution. On his part he promises to fulfill certain promises, and to discharge certain duties, for which, on the other part, the Fraternity binds themselves by an equivalent covenant of friendship, protection and support". He went on to say that as the Freemason advances through the Masonic Degrees, the covenant must be repeated and modified accordingly by both sides; "that the covenant of an Entered Apprentice is different from that of a Fellow Craft, and the covenant of the latter from that of a Master Mason". He further makes an interesting observation that as we advance through the Degrees the covenant of each succeeding Degree is no less permanent because another has been added; "The second covenant does not impair the sanctity of the first". He concluded by noting "The covenant of Freemasonry . . . is the very foundation-stone which supports the whole edifice, and, unless it be properly laid, no superstructure can with any safety be erected. It is indeed the covenant that makes the Freemason".

Consequently, it behooves us from time to time to stop and reflect on the full meaning of the many terms we become familiar with as we advance in our Masonic journey. Familiarity sometimes dulls the mind to some degree when we use the same term repeatedly and may cause one to overlook the full significance of a single word which has so much meaning.

If not sustained the lodge shall proceed with the advancement of the candidate.

(F) Any objection to advancement may be withdrawn by the objector in open lodge, or to the Master privately and the withdrawal must be noted in the minutes at a stated communication and the candidate may then be advanced.

Volunteer at Masonic Homes

Masonic Homes is full of opportunities to serve others. Whether it is rocking a baby, reading to those with vision impairments, sharing a story or playing checkers, there is an area for everyone with a serving heart.

At The Pillars Assisted Care Center, volunteers transport residents to and from dining or therapy, help with craft projects, share travel experiences and pictures, walk around the campus, and talk one-on-one. Sam Swope Care Center offers short term and long term stays where a friendly visit and conversation or sing a long, reading a book or playing cards makes any day more enjoyable.

Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care and Preschool is open Monday through Friday and seeks volunteers to help feed babies, read to children and help with activities. Just an hour or two each day, week or month makes a difference.

At Miralea and Masonic Home Village, independent seniors welcome volunteers who can lead group discussions about history, travel and biographies. If you can sing, dance or play an instrument, you would be welcomed like a rock star.

Don't wait for the holidays to share your talents with those served by our Homes. Contact Community Outreach Director Glenna Godsey (ggodsey@mhky.com; 502.753.8804) and start making a difference in someone's life.

Volunteering takes many forms, including helping on the grounds at Masonic Home of Shelbyville, as Frosty and Joy Cardwell demonstrated at the 2014 Great Day of Service. Frosty is a member of W.G. Simpson No. 472.

Hello Brothers. A unique opportunity is available to you this October 24th and 25th. The York Rite Bodies in Kentucky will join with the Scottish Rite Bodies in Kentucky to hold a two day Festival / Reunion to accept new members into both organizations. If you have ever thought about a further study of Masonry, then this is for you. In the Master Mason Degree you received a substitute word. Have you ever wondered what the lost word was and the circumstances regarding its recovery? These and many more questions will be answered for you by receiving the Degrees and Orders of both of these Rites. I sincerely hope you will consider furthering you Masonic education and I invite you to be a part of this historic event.

*Courteously,
G. Michael Miller, Sr.,
Past Grand Commander
Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar*
