Grand Master's Message

- Continued from page 1 -

Grand Master

Brothers, we have all worked very hard this year trying to improve this Fraternity. Most of you have been right there with me when I had to make unpopular decisions. Most of you have understood that this year wasn't about me. It was about what is on the front of my pin. God, Country, Fraternity. I hope at the end of the day you will say that I've made a positive difference. But even if I shuffle off this mortal coil as the most despised Grand Master of all time, I know that I've done what I thought was right for the Fraternity. I may have been wrong and that's the price of leadership. Most of you know that I've done what I thought was best for this Fraternity, even when it hurt me personally. And I couldn't have done even a portion of what I have without you and your support. Thank you!

As I hand over leadership of this Fraternity, I believe that you have embraced my PET projects. I believe that we are more patriotic than before. We have fully embraced the Veteran's Program. We have helped bring a little bit of joy and comfort to those sons and daughters of America who make our way of life possible. I believe each of us is a little prouder to be a Mason. I think we're a little prouder of our Lodges, as well as how we conduct ourselves in public. I believe the Education Conferences and District Meetings have left us better educated this year. Thanks to the Masonic Education Committee and all 30 of the District Deputies. You guys have done most of the heavy lifting this year. I believe most of us are giving more effort. We are working harder than ever to show the world that we are a Fraternity, not just a good old boys' club. More and more Lodges are spending substantially more of their resources on training of their officers, members, and candidates. Brothers, we have finally started embracing technology. We have a ways to go before we'll be where I would like to see us, but we have made a start in the right direction. Your Grand Lodge Officers are exploring ways of using the database, the website, video conferencing, Skype, social media, on demand training, live streaming video, and much more in an effort to not only save money, but also to better your Masonic experience.

As I've said before, this ain't about the guys with the fancy collars and aprons; it's about each of you. It's about making this the best Fraternity it can be for you. It's about making your Masonic journey a life changing experience. An event that will change you forever, for the better. I hope that we've helped with that in some small way.

My best wishes to the incoming Grand Lodge team. Guys, I'll always be there to support you just as you have supported me. I pledge you my support, my advice when requested, my knowledge, my experience, and my prayers. You are a fantastic bunch and I love you.

Brothers, Karen and I can never thank you enough for the honors and privileges you have given us. You have given of your time, your talents, and your treasure. But most of all, you've given of your love and friendship. This will be a year that we will never forget.

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

during the sittings of the Grand Lodge, or a committee thereof.

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

Following the close of each Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, and drawing on the illustrious history of Freemasonry in Kentucky for guidance, its a good time to stop and reflect on just how successful we have been in moving Freemasonry forward during the past year. Good stewardship depends on how successful we and those in charge are in not only maintaining the Fraternity at the level at which we received it—but how successful we are in raising it to a higher level during our term at the helm. How good has been the measure of our stewardship? What have we, personally or as part of Fraternity, done to measure up to our responsibility as a Mason?

These two questions are well worth taking the time for each of us to ponder. Someone once said the present generation is “enjoying the shade of a tree we didn’t plant”. Drawing on that analogy, good stewardship demands the present generation and those following plant as many or more trees than the last generation to provide the shade for the generations to follow.

So it is with the principles and tenets of the Fraternity which have been handed down to us through the efforts of our Masonic Brethren of past generations. As Freemasons, we are personally and collectively responsible for maintaining and improving the integrity of the Fraternity during our watch, paying particular attention to our personal responsibility to truthfully assess our level of stewardship, thus assuring the philosophy, principles and tenets of the Craft are passed on, intact, to the future generations of Freemasons. Hopefully, a review of the past year will reveal we have, both personally and collectively, lived up to the charge we were assigned as a member of the Fraternity.

Somerset Lodge 111 Character Counts Cookout

Students in the Somerset School District who received Character Counts Recognitions this past school year were treated to a cookout by the Officers and members of Somerset Masonic Lodge No. 111. The local Masons (led by current Master, Richard Short) cooked hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings on the front yard of Somerset High School for those students in grades 4-12 who received recognition for good character traits. The Somerset Schools and Somerset Board of Education recognize these students each month as a reward and to promote good character in the student body. Somerset Lodge wanted to show their support for these students and covered the entire cost of the event as well as prepared and served the food. Students and their families were also invited to a Past Master's night at the Lodge where they were recognized in the Lodge hall. SHS and MMS students, administrators and Lodge members are pictured on the front steps of Somerset High School.

Favorite Lodge 581 & Fleming Lodge 112 Pumpkin Donation

Favorite Lodge No. 581 and Fleming Lodge No. 112 got into the fall spirit and donated enough pumpkins for every student at a local elementary school. Once again the "Masonry Matters" program promotes Masonry in a positive way in the community.

Marching for a cure

Masonic Homes residents, staff, volunteers and family members walked with the Memory Marchers.

Resident-made fascinators were worn by residents and staff on the Memory Marchers team.

The Masonic Home Memory Marchers joined more than 240 teams participating in the 2014 Alzheimer's Association Walk to End Alzheimer's in Louisville.

Masonic Home of Louisville was a platinum level sponsor of this year's walk on September 6 at Louisville's Waterfront Park. The annual walk is the world's largest event to raise awareness and funds for Alzheimer's care, support and research.

The Memory Marchers included Masonic Homes staff, residents, family members and volunteers. Along with participating in a moving kick-off ceremony and the mile long walk, the team shared information about memory support services in Sally's Garden and Sam Swope Care Center.

Staff also participated in a Wear Purple Day the day before the walk, donating a dollar to wear a purple shirt to support the cause.

Friends tee up "fore" Sproutlings

By PHYLLIS O'DANIEL – VP/Mission Advancement

August 25th was an impressive day at Louisville's Big Spring Country Club with great friends coming together to benefit Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool.

The August heat was no match for the 24 teams who gathered for the 2nd Annual Spoutlings Charity Tournament. Once the day of golf was complete, golfers enjoyed a live auction, dinner and awards presentation. The Med Care Pharmacy team walked away with top awards, but the biggest winners of the day were the children at Sproutlings with the event raising more than $54,000.

Sproutlings thanks all participants who made the day a success, with extreme gratitude to premier sponsor Medline Industries Inc. We also extend grateful appreciation to sponsors Greystone Communities, Med Care Pharmacy, Bosse Mattingly Constructors, BB&T Bank, and Siemens.

The Med Care Pharmacy team was unbeatable and captured the tournament's top honors.

Grand Master Rick Nation and Grand Treasurer Keith Dreier were among the 96 golfers who participated.

Homes' CDO Meg Gammage-Tucker and Village Lifestyle Manager Kevin Swansey were among event hosts.

Note to 50+ year Masons

By BRUCE LOTT –
VP/ Planned Giving & Fraternal Relations

If you are a 50+ year member of the Fraternity, congratulations! Your dedication led you to achieve this wonderful milestone.

A long-term commitment to service has its rewards. You may not be aware that you have an opportunity to do something for yourself now while helping the Masonic Homes later.

If you could benefit from having more cash to live on each month, consider a charitable gift annuity. For example, Masons 90+ years old can receive a monthly payment at a fixed rate of 9%; at age 89, it's 8.7%, and at 88, it's 8.4% (see chart at right for benefits at your age). Such gifts also may provide you with a significant income tax deduction and will qualify you as a member of Masonic Homes' The Olmsted Society.

Setting up a charitable gift annuity is simple. You transfer all or part of an asset to the Homes. In return we will make a lifetime payment to you or your spouse if she survives you, regardless of how long you live.

For more information with no obligation, contact me toll-free at 866.764.6631 or email blott@mhky.com.

Check for your age on the rate list at right. If it is less than six months until your next birthday, go with the next higher rate. For rates for those younger than 71, or for an annuity for a husband and wife, please contact us.

Worth a thousand words

Homes' Chief of Security Tom Candler and wife Trish were among grandparents celebrating Grandparents Day at Sproutlings. Grandsons Drew and Leo attend Sproutlings' preschool.

Miralea Phase II construction continues above ground. The foundation and underground parking garage area are complete. The 30 additional units are pre-sold and expected to open in spring 2015.

Sam Swope Care Center resident Helen Langley marked her 103rd birthday with a party at the Homes. Her secrets to living a long life include, "Don't sweat the small stuff and have a lot of love in your life."

MASONIC SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Caneyville Lodge 635

Caneyville Lodge No. 635 held their annual open house dinner and Master, Danny Hudson (right) presented Kaylah Shull a scholarship award of $250.00 which is half of her 2014 scholarship money. The other half will be presented in early 2015, if she stays in school and keeps her grades up. You can do it, Kaylah!

Jerusalem Lodge 9

Scholarship recipient, Katelyn Patterson, was presented a check for the first installment of her scholarship that was awarded by the Brothers of Jerusalem Lodge No. 9. Thanks to the kind donations from Brothers that left money in their wills for the Lodge to award scholarships from the interest earned. You can make a difference in the lives of others as well. Please consider a monetary donation for the scholarship or building fund of your Lodge. # With 2 Rites, You Can't Go Wrong!

Hello Brothers. A unique opportunity is available to you this October 24th and 25th. The York Rite Bodies in Kentucky will join with the Scottish Rite Bodies in Kentucky to hold a two day Festival/Reunion to accept new members into both organizations. If you have ever thought about a further study of Masonry, then this is for you. In the Master Mason Degree you received a substitute word. Have you ever wondered what the lost word was and the circumstances regarding its recovery? These and many more questions will be answered for you by receiving the Degrees and Orders of both of these Rites. I sincerely hope you will consider furthering you Masonic education and I invite you to be a part of this historic event.

*Courteously,
G. Michael Miller, Sr.,
Past Grand Commander
Grand Commandery of Kentucky,
Knights Templar*

If you are not a member of the Scottish Rite, let me personally invite you to take advantage of this special offer to become a part of this Historical class "Two Rites You Can't Go Wrong."

You can join the Scottish Rite for a special price of $150.00 plus the 2015 Dues for a total of only $250.00. The fee for the York Rite bodies is $150.00.

If you belong to either the Scottish Rite or York Rite, and would like to become a member of the other body, you can join and take advantage of this one time offer.

If you are not a member of the Scottish Rite and York Rite, you MUST join both at this time. You can not join one body without joining both.

Hello Brothers. A unique opportunity is available to you this October 24th and 25th. The York Rite Bodies in Kentucky will join with the Scottish Rite Bodies in Kentucky to hold a two day Festival / Reunion to accept new members into both organizations. If you have ever thought about a further study of Masonry, then this is for you. In the Master Mason Degree you received a substitute word. Have you ever wondered what the lost word was and the circumstances regarding its recovery? These and many more questions will be answered for you by receiving the Degrees and Orders of both of these Rites. I sincerely hope you will consider furthering you Masonic education and I invite you to be a part of this historic event.

*Courteously,
G. Michael Miller, Sr.,
Past Grand Commander
Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar*
