Grand Master's Message

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Master

Happy New Year!

How many times have we heard that in our lives? How many times have we said it? How many times have we really considered what the New Year offers to us?

Symbolically, the New Year represents a new beginning. We make resolutions to improve in some part of our lives, whether it's to lose weight, quit smoking, or just to try to be a better human being. The New Year also symbolizes a new beginning for our Lodges. A new corps of Officers has taken over. They have new goals and new ideas. Will you let them try? Or will you be obstinate and do everything in your power to ensure their failure? Unfortunately, many times, the latter is the case. Why did you elect these Brothers if not to have new ideas and a new way of looking at old problems? Please, Brothers, allow them to lead. If, over the years, you and the rest of the membership have done your jobs as you should have, these Brothers will know how to lead, govern, and teach. Give them the opportunity. Such is the nature of our institution, that as some must rule and teach, others by necessity, must learn to submit and obey. Humility in each is an essential virtue.

The New Year affords a new beginning for your Grand Lodge Officers also. As we finish up installations, we have already been working on planning for the Educational Conferences. They shall begin later this month. The Education Committee has worked very hard to prepare these conferences for you. And they will continue to work on refining them and honing the content until the very last one. Then, they and we will start evaluating what went right and what could or should be changed. Brothers, some of you have said that the content of these conferences is too repetitive. I realize that we teach many of the same things year after year. Brothers, we do that because we continue to have the same problems year after year. I urge you to attend the conference in your region or a neighboring region, absorb the content, and take it back to those Brothers who could not attend. We hope to post some of the sessions on the Grand Lodge's website so that they can be accessed by members who could not attend. Remember Masters, the Constitution requires you to attend or see that your Lodge is represented.

So my Brothers, as we begin this New Year, let us resolve to begin a new chapter in our Masonic lives and in our Lodge's life. Let us resolve that this year will be bigger, better, and brighter. Remember, each of us makes a difference. Whether yours is positive or negative is entirely up to you.

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

Sometimes we think of the "New Year" as a new beginning—that the old year is gone and all that has past is over. In a sense I suppose that is true; the past is irretrievably gone and cannot be altered or reversed. However, our past experiences—errors as well as successes—combine to make each individual what he or she is today. They shape our thoughts; assist us in avoiding foreseeable unpleasant situations; help us to better our relationships with our family, friends, and neighbors; and guide us through the trials and tribulations of life to our faith in the Master Creator. Therefore, I don't view this invisible transition as a "New Year" so much as I do an opportunity to improve on the coming year by building upon the past. Not a new beginning so much as a golden opportunity—upon retrospect—to improve one's lot going forward in a positive direction.

With that said, the Grand Lodge Office Staff and I wish for each of you a joyous and prosperous "New Year".

LODGE DUES-DELINQUENT

Inquiries are often made to the Grand Lodge Office as to when a member is considered delinquent in the payment of dues and assessments to his Lodge(s). Section 154 of the Book of Constitutions of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.& A.M., states that "The dues of all Lodges shall be due on January 1 each year, and payable in advance for the full year." Therefore, it would seem logical to conclude that a member who had not paid his dues and assessments for the current year would be considered delinquent on the first day of January of that year. There may appear to be a discrepancy in the Section mentioned above since further on it states that "Dues for each year shall be delinquent on April 1, and the delinquent members shall be subject to suspension on the stated meeting of the Lodge in June."

However, in that instance the reference to the term "delinquent" applies to the point at which a Lodge may consider the suspension of a member-or members- for non-payment of dues and assessments. Please keep in mind that the terms "delinquent" and "not in good standing" are not synonymous. The section referred to above merely sets the minimum time at which a member-or members- may be suspended for non-payment of dues- but does not set a limit on the time a Lodge may carry a member before suspension, if the Lodge chooses to do so. Further, a Lodge may, in the Lodge By-Laws; lengthen the time before suspension of a member (i.e. after one year, two years, etc.)-but may not shorten the time. That is to say, a member owing only the current years dues cannot be suspended before June of the year the dues become payable.

Realizing that Lodge dues and assessments are necessary to provide the funds required to keep our Lodges, the Grand Lodge, and or Masonic charities financially sound and viable, the most prudent approach would be to remit our dues to the Secretary of our respective Lodge immediately upon receipt of the dues notice, thereby, eliminating the necessity of the term "delinquent" from our Masonic vocabulary.

NEWLY ELECTED SECRETARIES

Each year there are a number of new secretaries elected to that important office of the Lodge. The office of Secretary carries with it great responsibilities, second only to the Master, for the well being of the Lodge and its members. How well the Secretary responds to and carries out his duties- is directly proportional to the success of a Lodge. An interested and knowledgeable Secretary is indispensable to the Master and his Lodge in moving our Fraternity forward; an uninterested Secretary will affect the Lodge in a negative manner.

So if you are a newly elected Secretary, my advice to you is; first, learn the duties of the Secretary; second, make sure you communicate clearly and fully with the Master; and third, develop an unconscious and natural "feel" for your particular Lodge and each member thereof. There are many responsibilities- but also many rewards if you can develop the right attitude. Welcome aboard and good luck!!

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

"One ship sails East,
one ship sails West
Tis the self same wind that blows.
Tis not the gale,
but the set of the sail
That determines which way each goes."

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Homes earn three state awards

Amanda Pruitt received the statewide Medical Services Award from KAHCF.

Masonic Homes was honored with three statewide awards at the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities professional achievement awards ceremony in November.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville Therapy Services Manager Amanda Pruitt received the Medical Services Award. Under her guidance, the return-to-home rate for short-stay rehab residents is nearly 90%. Long-term residents are remaining independent longer than anticipated and some have regained functionality that was thought to be lost.

Debra Murphy, a Masonic Home of Shelbyville employee for 30 years, received the Personal Care Home Caregiver Award. Murphy initiated frequent care plan meetings with personal care residents and their families. With 100% family participation, the meetings provide a platform to address concerns with the Home's interdisciplinary team.

Masonic Home of Louisville volunteers Dot Smith and Doris Unthank received the Group Volunteer Award. This dynamic duo coordinates activities and events for the Eighties Ladies, a group of residents who are age 80 and beyond.

In addition, Masonic Home of Shelbyville staff picked up six Central District Awards:

- Activities: Gladys Shermer
- Administrative Nursing: Jeff Mackey
- Dining Services: Bobbie Jo Jones
- Environmental Services: Rickey Carey
- Social Services/ Admissions: Jackie Waits
- Support Services: Dona Nation

Long-time Shelbyville employee Debra Murphy (left) was honored with the Personal Care Home Caregiver Award.

Grand Master and First Lady: a tradition continues

By BRUCE LOTT—CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Happy New Year! I hope during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays you enjoyed time with family and friends. Most of all, however, my hope is that you expressed gratitude for all that you have been given. We often hear that we don't always acknowledge our bounty; in fact, in our ever-increasing material world, we frequently take it for granted.

At your Masonic Homes, we take nothing for granted. We have an obligation to care for hundreds of people. And, as the oldest Masonic Home of its kind, we depend on each of you to make our obligation part of your obligation.

Our Grand Master, Brother Rick Nation, and First Lady Karen are partnering with the Homes this year to fulfill that obligation by sponsoring two programs, and they ask for your generous support. Brother Rick is building on Past Grand Master Chris Stout's 2013 theme, Renewing Our Obligation, with Continuing Our Obligation. Gifts to the program will help our Masonic Brothers and their widows who rely on the Homes for services.

First Lady Karen's theme is Our Roots Run Deep. Since her mother resides at Masonic Home of Shelbyville, Karen sees first-hand what it means to truly care for someone in need. Gifts to her project will help provide for our Shelbyville residents as part of our Giving Tree program.

The Grand Master and First Lady have commissioned pins in support of their programs, Continuing Our Obligation and Our Roots Run Deep.

The spirit of giving

Hospitality Services staff on the Louisville campus baked nearly 4,000 cookies for the City of St. Matthews Light Up St. Matthews event.

Kitchens on the Louisville campus jumpstarted the holiday festivities by baking nearly 4,000 cookies to delight the crowd expected at the annual Light Up St. Matthews event.

Every year businesses in St. Matthews are asked to donate cookies, according to St. Matthews Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Glenn Knight. "When we called Masonic Homes, they offered to make all of the cookies," Knight said. "We were overwhelmed by their generosity."

Homes' Hospitality Services General Manager Linda Wagner enlisted The Bistro Executive Chef Holly Thomsen and Miralea Executive Chef Tim Baker to assist. Staff at Masonic Home's main kitchen also pitched in. They created a mix of six kinds of cookies, packaged for the holidays.

The project was fun for kitchen staff, according to Wagner. "We enjoy sharing our magic with the greater community, especially during the holidays."

Bradford Lodge 123 – Past Masters Day

On November 23, 2013, Bradford Lodge No. 123 held their Past Masters Day. Four candidates were raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason, Brothers Greg Johnston, and William Callahan, Jr., from Bradford Lodge and Brothers Robert Sizemore; and Mark Douglas as courtesy candidates from Florence Lodge No. 949. A 65 year service pin was presented to Brother Leslie A. Damon, a 60 year service pin was presented to Brother Fred T. White, and a 50 year service pin was presented to Brother Donald Barnett. Brother Thomas Allen Dorman was presented his 40 year service pin and was named "Mason of the Year" at Bradford Lodge. Brother Dorman was instrumental in forming the "Action Ministries of Northern Kentucky." Action Ministries is a non-profit organization of volunteers that serves over 950 families a month in the northern Kentucky area with food to help them through hard times. Brother Dorman has been the director for the past 20 years. Bradford Lodge No. 123 of Independence, Kentucky meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to visit.

Glencoe Lodge 498 Retrieves District 17 Traveling Gavel

A wonderful time was had at W. G. Simpson Lodge No. 472 on November 26, 2013, when Glencoe Lodge No. 498 traveled to retrieve the District #17 Traveling Gavel. Some were crying, as District Deputy #17 Marshall Geoghegan, presented the Traveling Gavel to Hargis Davis, Senior Warden of Glencoe Lodge. What a pleasure it was to see such an active Lodge. Keep up the great work, and enjoy those tears of laughter and happiness.

Boaz Masonic Home 850 Aurora Lodge 633 – Rivalry Heats Up

A rivalry is heating up between Aurora Lodge No. 633 and Boaz Masonic Home Lodge No. 850 for the traveling gavel for 2013. Steve Ward and Harold Johnson went head to head to keep at each others Lodges. We know who had it the most. Some people can't count.

Aurora Lodge 633 – Bible Presentation
