Grand Master's Message

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Master

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." Fourteen little words. The essence of the American Dream is very simply stated at the beginning of one of the greatest documents human beings have ever created. While I believe with all my heart that all men are created equal, I also realize that men diverge from that equal path as they grow and mature.

"To serve on an Investigating Committee is the greatest duty a Mason is called upon to perform, and every candidate deserves due and careful consideration. Even then, many duly and truly unprepared make their way into our Lodges." Brothers, please perform thorough investigations. Just because the applicant is a Brother's son, just because you've known him since he was a kid, just because he's never been in jail, does not qualify him to join us. It's impossible to know what a man has done every minute of his life. We all know people may act differently around friends and family than they do around others. We need to investigate everyone, and I mean everyone, thoroughly. Guard the West Gate my Brothers!

I believe wholeheartedly that all Masons are not only created equal, but true Masons remain equal. No matter what Office or honors you may attain. No matter how many appendent/concordant bodies you may belong to. No matter that the purple of this Fraternity rests upon your honored shoulders. You are and always will be a Blue Lodge Mason. It has been said and I agree completely, "I came into this Fraternity with a plain white apron, and I'll leave it with one."

As we celebrate the 200th anniversary of the Star Spangled Banner and the 238th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, I hope you appreciate the freedoms which so many heroes have given us. I hope you fly the Stars and Stripes, I hope you sing the National Anthem, I hope you support our Veterans by purchasing a Veteran's Pin, and I hope you thank God every day for allowing you to live in the absolutely greatest nation the world has ever known.

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

From time to time it behooves us to stop and think about what the Fraternity means to each of us as individual members. I feel certain that every Mason has been asked at one time or another “Just what benefit does one get by membership in the Fraternity”? Even though there are benefits associated with a Masonic membership, we are taught early in our Masonic lectures we are not to use our membership for personal or financial gain. However, what we can expect to experience as a member is a strong feeling of fellowship and camaraderie, and a sense of belonging to a group of like-minded Brethren with which we share a common experience; that of being Raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason. Occasionally, however, we sometimes get so absorbed in our own Lodge and/or Grand Jurisdiction we fail to realize each member of the Fraternity is connected to every other Freemason throughout the universe by virtue of our shared experience, and does not end at the door of our particular Lodge; nor does it end at the boundaries of our respective Grand Jurisdiction. We are further taught in our lectures that Masonic charity is at the very heart of the Masonic Fraternity.

The above noted tenets of the Fraternity have been demonstrated on several occasions when a Kentucky Freemason or a member of his family has encountered a problem while traveling out of state, and even out of the country. On one occasion a Kentucky Mason’s daughter and son-in-law was on a vacation trip south when their car broke down in another state. A call from the Grand Lodge Office to the Grand Secretary of that particular state set in motion a process to get the couple a loaner car and arrange to have their car repaired while the couple continued on with their vacation plans. On another occasion, a newly married couple with Masonic connections was on their honeymoon in a small European country when they were involved in an automobile accident and admitted to a hospital where very little English was spoken. A call to the Grand Secretary of the respective country resulted in a number of visits by doctors who did speak English, as well as other local members of the Fraternity who offered their assistance.

The above mentioned incidents are just a couple of like incidents which occur daily throughout the world, and clearly demonstrates we are truly members of a worldwide Fraternity. So, let’s occasionally remind ourselves not to become too absorbed in our own immediate affairs as to become temporarily blinded to the realization that each of us – every Freemason—is a vital link in this worldwide Brotherhood.

Thought for the Month

“The alternate domination of one faction over another, sharpened by the spirit of revenge, natural to party dissension, which in different ages and countries has perpetrated the most horrid enormities, is itself a frightful despotism. But this leads at length to a more formal and permanent despotism.”

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Ten myths of charitable bequests

Brother Harry Lusk (Harrison No. 122; right) was recently recognized by the Homes' Board and staff as a member of The Olmsted Society.

By BRUCE LOTT –
VP/Fraternal Relations & Planned Giving

Much of Masonic Homes of Kentucky's legacy was built through charitable bequests. Still, there are misunderstandings about giving in this way. Here are 10 myths that keep many people from donating through their estate.

- Only wealthy estates can make a bequest.
Big bequests come from famous people, but the greatest number comes from typical people.
- Small bequests won't help.
Some people "endow" the amount they give during life through a charitable bequest. If they give $200 a year during life, a bequest of just $4,000, when invested and earning 5%, keeps giving this amount each year, permanently.
- Bequests are complicated.
Actually, bequests are simple to add with little impact on the will-making cost. For a sample of the correct language, contact the Homes. When changing your will, we encourage using a qualified attorney.
- It's family or charity.
Many people make the charitable gift a residual bequest that provides a percentage of the estate to the charity after family members receive their inheritance.

- You must tell the charity that it is in your will.
This is not required, but letting the Homes know of your decision allows us to acknowledge your generosity.
- There's no recognition until after death.
The Homes recognizes bequest donors as members of the Olmsted Society, which includes those who have named the Homes as a beneficiary of their will or other planned gift.
- Charitable bequests are uncommon.
Bequests are the most popular planned gift, allowing people to leave a legacy that will continue long after their death.
- There are no benefits to the donor for leaving a charitable bequest.
There can be tax savings for your estate and financial benefits to your heirs that last for years. Plus, you have the satisfaction helping those in need well into the future.
- If you have a will and wish to add a charitable bequest, your will must be rewritten.
Unless you have other changes, a simple codicil can be added to an existing will.

- Only the wealthy can leave a legacy.

Everyone who makes a charitable bequest of any amount leaves a legacy that reflects what they valued in life.

To learn how you can help assure a sound financial future for Masonic brothers, their wives, widows and others, or for samples of bequest language to add to your will, contact me, Bruce Lott (1-866-764-6631 or giving@mhky.com).

An Inspired America

Thirty places nationwide with “liberty” in their name. Liberty, Missouri (26,232) boasts the highest population of the 30 at 26,232. Iowa has more of these places than any other state at four: Libertyville, New Liberty, North Liberty and West Liberty.

And what could be more fitting than spending the day in a place called “America”? There are five such places in the country, with the most populous being American Fork, Utah, with 21,941 residents.

Five places adopted the name “freedom.” Freedom, California, with 6,000 residents, has the largest population among these.

There is one place named “patriot” Patriot, Indiana, with a population of 202.

Eleven places have “independence” in their name. The most populous of these is Independence, Missouri, with 113,288 residents.
