Grand Master's Message

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

I want to begin by saying congratulations to Brother Tim Sanders, elected Grand Junior Warden, and Brother Don Yankey, elected Grand Secretary. I feel both will do a great job serving the Craft of Kentucky and have confidence in their ability. With two freshmen and two sophomores on my team I know how Coach Callipari must feel. I would also like to thank Brother Joseph R. Conway for the many years of service as the Grand Secretary. I think I can speak for all the Brethren of Kentucky, we appreciate everything you have done for our great Fraternity and you will be sorely missed. We wish nothing but the best for you and Peg in the coming years. God Bless!

Thanksgiving is a special holiday for me. My mother always had a big feast for friends and family and those are fond memories. Sally and I hope that each of you had a good Thanksgiving.

Christmas Time's A-Coming is the title of a song made famous by the late, great Bill Monroe. Yes Brothers, it is hard to believe that another Christmas season is upon us. Aside the aggravation of putting up and taking down decorations and the long lines at the shopping malls, it truly is a wonderful time of year. I know sometimes we get caught up in all the commercial appeal that goes with the holiday season but let's not forget the real meaning of Christmas. When the maddening rush seems to get completely out of hand, I take a moment to think of the second Chapter of Luke when the angels said to the shepherds: "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord." That one small passage has so much meaning to what we are truly celebrating. Please take time to enjoy the season with family and friends and remember what we are most thankful for. Remember our widows and Brothers that will be alone during the holidays. Keep them in your prayers and if time allows pay one or two a visit. It will have a tremendous impact on them and is quite rewarding for you as well. Also, keep in your prayers the brave men and women of our military forces, along with their families at home, defending our freedom to celebrate the season as we choose.

December is a busy time for Lodges with the election and installation of Officers. I hope and pray that every Lodge elects a Master that is worthy of the East and can rule and govern his Lodge in true Masonic fashion. For the Brothers going to the East, you have had several years to prepare, so make sure you are ready for the challenges that go with the Office. "The honor, reputation, and usefulness of your Lodge will depend on the skill and ability with which you manage its concerns, whilst the happiness of the Brethren will be increased in proportion to the zeal and assiduity with which you promulgate the genuine principles and tenets of the institution." Peace and harmony being the focus of all Lodges, we must respect and support the Brother we elect as our Master. Remember he is only there for a year. I want to encourage every Lodge to have an open installation. It is a good reason to open our Lodge halls to family and friends, have a great meal and good fellowship so everyone can see what a fantastic organization Masonry can be. For the Lodges trying to achieve the Grand Master's Excellency Award remember the Master must install all his Officers in due form. I have confidence that those of you that want to achieve this award will not have any trouble doing so.

From my family to yours,
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Happy Holidays
FROM THE MASONIC HOME JOURNAL

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
DONALD H. YANKEY P.G.M.

December has arrived and with it many activities to attend and enjoy. There will be many Christmas parties, and gathering of friends, and family. The Lodges will be busy with elections and installations. Yet let us not forget the reason for the season. Let us take time to remember our Widows and those Brethren who are unable to attend Lodge or the many events of the season. Drop them a card, phone call, or just stop by and visit. YOU may be the only gift they receive this year.

I would like to Thank You for having the confidence you had to elect me to the position of Grand Secretary. I will do my best to fulfill the responsibility and trust you have bestowed upon me.

*On behalf of the office staff
Mary, Jamie, and Roberta, we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.*

The Grand York Rite Bodies of Kentucky

Sir Knights and Brothers All,

The Christmas season is upon us yet again. I encourage each of you to remember the reason for the season, a little baby Jesus laying in a manger. This little baby boy would grow up to do marvelous things, but most of all bear the burden of our sins, allowing us to have life eternal.

I wish each and every Mason and their families a holiday filled with blessings. In addition, as we gather with our families, please remember those that are serving abroad and the soldiers that have paid the ultimate price so that we can celebrate this great Christian holiday.

These Christmas observances are open to all family and friends. Santa is flying down from the North Pole during some of these observances, so please bring the kids.

Members of Somerset Lodge No. 111 and Somerset #23 Order of the Eastern Star joined efforts to help improve the lives of children by encouraging them to regularly attend school. Members donated two 20 inch bicycles (one for a boy and one for a girl) to the local Family Resource Center at Hopkins Elementary School in the Somerset School System. Students who have three or fewer excused (and no unexcused) absences by the end of the school year will be eligible to win the bikes which are displayed in the front office. Somerset Superintendent Boyd Randolph, Hopkins Principal Mike Reynolds and FRYSC Director Christina Brinson were very appreciative of the donations. Superintendent Randolph said, "We appreciate the support that the Masonic Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star provide to our students. We know that this partnership will have a positive impact on attendance and the academic performance of our students." The Masons and Star members presented the bicycles to the school at a school-wide assembly and talked to the students about the importance of staying in school. Cloyd J. Bumgardner, Somerset Schools Coordinator, and Grand Lodge of Kentucky Deputy Grand Master, says, "Research shows that students who live in poverty can benefit the most from regular school attendance. Encouraging students to regularly attend school is one of the best ways we can help our children improve their position in life and raise themselves out of poverty. We thank our local Masons and Eastern Star Members for encouraging our children and hope others across the state will participate as well." Research shows regular school attendance will improve high school graduation rates and help students become college and career ready.

*Wishing you all
A very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year*

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

A tireless community servant, Dr. Waldrige is a trustee of the Clear Creek Foundation, Shelby County Parks Board, Shelby County EMS and Shelby County Health Department. Since 1972, he has served as a deacon and Sunday school teacher at First Baptist Church.

“Country doctor” is 2014 Friend of the Homes

Shelby County physician Dr. Ronald Waldrige (Solomon's Masonic Lodge No. 5) was honored as Masonic Homes of Kentucky's 2014 Friend of the Homes. As Masonic Home of Shelbyville's medical director since 1990, Dr. Waldrige makes weekly rounds at the Home to personally check on his patients and consult with staff.

“He's known many of his patients their entire lives,” said Masonic Homes' CEO Gary Marsh. “When the time comes for short-stay recovery or long-term care at a nursing facility, Dr. Waldrige is there to reassure families that he will still be looking after their loved one.”

A Grand year of support

The 215th Annual Communication marked the end of Brother Rick Nation's service on the Homes Board of Directors.

“As a director, Rick has been particularly active on our Shelbyville campus, helping with special projects, visiting one-on-one with residents and encouraging employees to do their very best,” said CEO Gary Marsh.

During his service as Grand Master 2013-2014, Nation initiated Continuing Our Obligation, a year-long program that highlighted Masonicare and generated more than $81,165 to fund services.

The Homes also recognized the service of Brother Dennis Rutledge (Plumb Lodge No. 862), a former Vice President of the St. John's Day League whose term as a director ended.

Grand Master Rick Nation's Continuing Our Obligation program included a clay shoot, golf shamble and fishing tournament, raising $81,165. On hand to acknowledge the gift were CEO Gary Marsh and Sr.VP/Operations J Scott Judy.

Sam Swope attended the Grand Lodge Annual Communication to deliver a $40,000 gift to the Homes. Grateful recipients were (from left) First Lady Karen Nation, Homes' Sr.VP/Operations J Scott Judy, Homes' Board Vice Chair Martin Walters, Sr.VP/Mission Advancement Meg Gammage-Tucker, CEO Gary Marsh, Mr. Swope, Board Chair Joe Conway and Past Grand Master Rick Nation.

Since 1887, the St. John's Day League has raised money to benefit Masonic Homes of Kentucky. Continuing the legacy of giving, VPI/Planned Giving and Fraternal Relations Bruce Lott (center) presented Board Chair Joe Conway (left) and CEO Gary Marsh a check for $15,000 from the St. John's Day League.

Giving Tree is growing

First Lady 2013-2014 Karen Nation celebrated those who donated to the Masonic Home of Shelbyville's Giving Tree program at a special event in October. Her campaign, Our Roots Run Deep, raised $10,547 for the program, funding innovative services for residents. The First Lady was inspired by the care her mother received from 2011 until she passed away in late 2013. Also pictured: Masonic Home of Shelbyville Executive Director Nick Cooper (left) and Masonic Homes CEO Gary Marsh (right).

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Home Village resident John Blake represented Louisville's Atherton High School as the school's very first quarterback from 1952 to 1955. This fall, he accompanied team captains and game officials at center field to present the opening coin toss as Atherton hosted North Oldham.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville residents and staff, including Kristina Vollett (pictured), got to "horse around" with special guests at their campus. When volunteer Todd Merchant learned many residents were interested in equine, he brought three Quarter Horses to meet them while he told about how to feed, groom and interact with the animals.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville's Sally Jo Magness and Donna Farmer accepted a $1,000 gift from W.G. Simpson Masonic Lodge members John Feamster, Dallas Cohorn and Eric M. Burke. Members of the lodge have been regular volunteers at the Home since 2000 and also host an annual fish fry for residents.

The Louisville Children's Mobile Museum visited Sproutlings Day Care & Preschool to present "Learn about Louisville through Music and Movement." Children used puppets and pictures to learn about famous Louisvillians and acted as horses racing at Churchill Downs and moving like a Belle of Louisville paddle wheel.

15th Annual Scottish Rite Classic a Success!

The Covington Scottish Rite Foundation's annual "Scottish Rite Classic" Sporting Clay Tournament at Elk Creek hosted 27 teams as well as many other general sponsors. The weather could not have been more cooperative, it was simply a beautiful Fall day on October 2nd. This event sponsorship revenue exceeded $100,000 that will provide the funding needed to strengthen the RiteCare program finances and help the many kids in need. Chairman Richard Knock, 33° personally oversees this event. Brother Knock extends a heartfelt thanks to all the Covington Scottish Rite Foundation Board members, volunteers and the Elk Creek staff for their special effort in making the event a total success. Special thanks to The Scottish Rite Masons from Sandy Valley and Ashland, Dave and Susan Waters from our Northern Kentucky Rite-

Care center, Ashley Chance from the New Chance Foundation, and point man, Del Osburn - and it goes without saying Brother Charlie Parker, 32° of Jack's Catering for sponsoring breakfast and lunch - what a great spread. They are pleased to have the continued support and partnering with our Brothers from the Lexington Scottish Rite Foundation. They had an outstanding level of Board participation this year and the continued support from SGIG and fellow CSRF Board Member Roger Barnett, 33°.

The event featured a special guest from the Kentucky Commissioner of Agriculture, James Comer. Commissioner Comer spoke about the importance of RiteCare and what we do as Masons for the community. Pictured at the Classic kick-off are Commissioner James Comer, SGIG Roger Barnett 33°, and CSRF Chairman Richard Knock 33°.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER

Members of roughly 35 foreign countries and most of the states in the United States met in Buffalo, NY on Sunday, September 28 and Monday, the 29th. The only legislation presented and passed was an increase in the current one dollar assessment per member to two dollars in 2016 and three dollars in 2017.

Louis Bartrand, from Washington, was elected General Grand High Priest, James Hodge of Indiana Grand King and Stephen Tiner of Arkansas Grand Scribe. Past Grand High Priest Larry Insko of Michigan was appointed Regional Deputy for the East Central Region. General Grand Secretary Larry Gray was re-elected, and Jerrold Wohlfarth of California was elected General Grand Treasurer.

Outgoing General Grand High Priest Ted Harrison did an excellent job in conducting the convocation, as did his committee, headed by Deputy General Grand High Priest Jeff Williamson, of the North East Region.

Kentucky was represented by eight delegates including Grand High Priest Charles Mason, Grand Scribe Wendell Trent, Grand Secretary James King, Grand Treasure J. B. Hitt, and other Past Grand High Priests Thomas Bustle, J. William Riggs, Harvey Reynolds and James Hogue.

Our own Past Grand High Priest J. William Riggs was awarded the Silver Medal for his service to his own Grand Chapter and to the General Grand Chapter. Bill is also a holder of the Bronze Medal for meritorious service presented to him by the General Grand Chapter several years before he became our Grand Officer.

GENERAL GRAND COUNCIL

The assembly was opened on Tuesday, September 30 and many changes were made in the By-Laws. These included a change in per capita from $1 currently to $2 beginning in 2015 and to $3.50 in 2016, and a change in perpetual life membership to cost 25 times the annual assessment.

Larry Weaver of Oregon was elected Most Puissant General Grand Master, Sid Roberts, Deputy General Grand Master and Ronald Guthrie General Grand Principal Conductor of the Work. Our Regional Deputy General Grand Master will be Robert Stanford of Franklin, KY, a Past Most Illustrious Grand Master. The General Grand Recorder, David Grindle, and General Grand Treasurer, Charles Hollinger, were re-elected. Delegates from Kentucky included Most Illustrious Grand Master Clint Durham, Deputy Grand Master Carl Jones, Grand Principal Conductor of the Work, Matthew Lewis, and Past Most Illustrious Grand Masters Larry Flowers, James V. Jones, and Robert Stanford.

Kentucky's Past Most Illustrious Grand Masters, Larry Flowers and Kerry Sluss were each awarded the Columbia Medal, a most prestigious honor for their service to their own Grand Council and the General Grand Council. This was truly significant in that just one jurisdiction, Kentucky, was honored with two recipients for this triennium.
