Grand Master's Message

RICHARD T. NATION
Grand Master

Brothers, the Easter season is upon us. I wish that each of you would consider the meaning of this Holiest of days. The Easter holiday embraces much symbolism. Perhaps the most important symbolism is that of the renewal that resurrection brought. The resurrection symbolized, among other things, the renewal of the Body. I ask each of you to consider renewing your commitment to one another and the entire Fraternity. Consider how the world renews itself at this time of year. Won't you try to renew yourself? As the grass turns from brown to green, as the trees begin to bud, as tulips begin to show their glory once again, won't you transform and improve yourself? Isn't that one of the objects of our Fraternity?

Brothers, we must accept change while embracing tradition. We must realize that the Fraternity is changing and adapt to it while at the same time demanding strict adherence to the traditions we have established. Freemasonry must not be watered down to appease the masses!

Sometimes to improve a tree you have to prune away dead branches. Won't you prune your life and conduct? Won't you rid yourself of your vices and superfluities? Won't you renew your Lodge? As Grand Lodge Officers, sometimes we have to prune a Lodge. Trust me Brothers, disciplining a Brother or a Lodge is one the hardest things I've ever had to do. I take no joy or satisfaction in doing so. I agonize over some of the decisions I have to make. Just as every Grand Master in the past has done. But you elected me to preserve, protect, and defend this Fraternity. And I promised you I would do the very best I knew how. Rest assured that I believe every decision I am forced to make has the best interest of Masonry at heart. And make no mistake, I will not allow friendship or influence to stand in the way of what I perceive to be my duty.

Brothers, as we are well into the District meetings by this time, I hope that either you have attended or plan on attending at least one. Your District Deputy and Grand Lodge Officers are outlining a plan of renewal for you and your Lodge. I firmly believe that you will enjoy the fellowship and imparted knowledge of these meetings. Remember, only you can make them a success. The District Deputy can work very hard, the Grand Lodge Officers can have the greatest of plans, but without you and your participation these meetings are doomed for failure. I hope that you will renew your commitment to these meetings.

Brothers, please remember the Masonic Great Day of Service to be held on April 19. Please come out to one of our beautiful campuses and help make them even more beautiful. Come out and enjoy the fellowship and a good meal!

Karen and I wish each of you a Happy and Holy Easter.

I love you, my Brothers. May God bless you, may God bless the United States and her military forces, and may God bless this great Fraternity.

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY

JOSEPH R. CONWAY,
P.G.M., Grand Secretary

During the preparation of the newly elected and/or appointed lodge officers for installation, a couple of questions often heard by the Installing Officer are "Do I have to be installed again since I served in that same office last year and was installed at that time? Don't I serve in that office until my successor is elected or appointed in my stead?" The answer to both questions is yes. The officers in place are to serve until two things happen; first, the election of new officers is held; and, second, the new officers are installed. The installation ceremony is conducted by the installing officers at either a Stated or Called Communication of the lodge, with the present officers in their stations. It is the prerogative of the sitting Master to install the Master-elect, and the prerogative of the Master-elect, following his installation, to install the remaining officers.

During the installation, the sitting officers of the lodge are to remain in their stations until the Master-elect is obligated, at which time the Installing Master declares "all offices vacant", at which time the term for which the sitting officers were elected or appointed ends, and unless all the officers which were elected, re-elected, or appointed are properly installed into the office for which they were selected, that office will remain vacant until; such time as someone is installed.

In other words, once the declaration "I declare all offices vacant" is made by the Installing Master, the term for which the sitting officers were elected ends, and those offices may only be filled by the member selected for the office being properly installed, whether or not one of the officers is to be installed into the same office he held the previous year. Section 86 of the Book of Constitutions emphatically states that the installation is essential, and no Brother is entitled to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any office until he shall have been duly elected, or appointed, and installed.

AWARDS ELIGIBILITY LIST

Each Lodge Secretary will receive the "Award Eligibility List" from the Grand Lodge Office in early May for those eligible for the 50, 60, 65, and 75 year Grand Lodge Veteran's Awards. You will be sent instructions with your list that will explain specifically how to fill it out. Please follow these instructions precisely.

The plateaus in time that a Brother must reach to qualify for these awards are significant, and the Grand Lodge Office wants to insure that those Brothers due the award receive it timely. So, we encourage you to give this review your close attention.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN LODGES

Just a reminder to each Lodge Secretary, if you are communicating with another Lodge within the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky in an official capacity, you may correspond directly with the said Lodge. However, any correspondence to a Lodge - or Grand Lodge - other than the one within whose Jurisdiction your Lodge is located must be transmitted through the office of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

This procedure is intended to insure that a complete record of the particular transaction is fully noted at each level. Following this policy also saves time in as much as Lodges, agreeable to Masonic Protocol, will not directly respond to correspondence from a Lodge outside their Jurisdiction - thus creating delays by stalling the correspondence.

Just remember, all out-of-state correspondence must be transmitted through the Grand Lodge Office.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Grand Lodge Office will be closed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 26, 2014.

Clay shoot event to benefit Masonicare

Grand Master Rick Nation is adding fun and excitement to fundraising. On May 20, the Grand Master will host a charitable clay shoot at Elk Creek Hunt Club in scenic Owenton.

The sporting clay event kicks off with lunch followed by an exclusive full day of shooting at one of the nation's most elite hunting clubs. Each of the three sporting clays courses is dynamically set to challenge shooters of all skill levels. A special station also will be available—including Long Bird, Rabbit Run, Flurry and Helicopter Shoots.

The event concludes with dinner at Elk Creek Vineyards.

All proceeds will benefit Masonicare, which provides vital services and care to Masons and their wives and widows.

Cost of the shoot is $250 per person or $1,000 for a team of four. Pre-registration is required. For more information, contact Phyllis O'Daniel (502.753.8808 or podaniel@mhky.com).

Worth a thousand words

Masonic Homes was proud to be part of the celebration as the Louisville Forum honored Sam Swope as the Citizen of the Year. From left are Phyllis O'Daniel, Meg Gammage-Tucker, Martin Walters, Mr. Swope and Bruce Lott.

Music filled the Sam Swope Care Center recently as the 35-piece Kosair Brass Band performed for residents and guests.

Our rehab services ad received a 2014 Silver Louie award from the Advertising Federation of Louisville. The ad highlights the Homes' therapy services and has appeared in a variety of publications.

ALL MASON'S DAY – FEBRUARY 25, 2014

A crowd of Kentucky Masons converged at the State Capital for “Masons Day at the Capital.” The Brothers were welcomed by Senator Paul Hornback, and heard encouraging words from Representatives Jim DeCesare and David Meade. Senator Al Robinson, an original sponsor of the Mason’s Day at the Capital spoke on the need for Masonic beliefs in the community, better attendance at state-wide functions, and better presence in their communities. Deputy Grand Master Wilson K. Wilder echoed his support and thanked all for their attendance. Grand Master Richard T. Nation encouraged the works of all Masonic Lodges in their communities, the need to support “Operation Preparation,” it’s a “WIN WIN” situation. You the Masons of Kentucky are the ones that can make it work.

Many comments of praise echoed throughout the House and Senate chambers about the works and beliefs of the Masonic order.

Kentucky Masons wrapped up their day on the State Capital steps, joined by State Senators and fellow Masons Senator Al Robinson and Senator Walter Blevins, Jr.
