Yocum Lodge 897 Sponsors Honor Guard Dinner

Yocum Lodge No. 897 in Evarts, Kentucky recently held an appreciation dinner for the Harlan Honor Guard which is a group of Veterans that put on the Last Rites for our Veterans. They formed in 2005 and have performed the Last Rites on 600 fallen heroes across county lines in Kentucky. They have also been needed in Tennessee and Virginia. Master David Gross is proud to present the Honor Guard a plaque and a check for $100.00, as a thank you from the Lodge.

Chandlersville Lodge 858 "Freezing for a Reason"

The Brothers of Chandlersville Lodge No. 858 were "freezing for a reason" and took a nippy dip in Paintsville Lake during the Penguin Plunge to benefit the Johnson County Special Olympics. Pictured are Brothers Jeffrey Daniel, Chris Ratliff, Master Jerrod Castle, Jason Vanhooose, Brandon Vanhooose, and Michael Vanhooose warming up after the plunge.

Zoneton Lodge 964 – Unity Lodge 12 Bowling to Benefit Charity

On February 28, 2015, the Brethren of Zoneton Lodge No. 964, F.&A.M. accepted the invitation of Unity Lodge No. 12, F.&A.M. (M.W. Prince Hall) to join in their Annual Bowling Tournament held at Dixie Bowl in Louisville, Kentucky. The proceeds from the evening go to benefit M.W. Prince Hall philanthropies. Although the Brothers from Zoneton were a "little" behind on the scoreboard, a great time was had by all. It's always a pleasure to meet new Masons and enjoy the countless things that we share in common, rather than a few insignificant differences.

Grand Master's Message

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

The old saying is "April showers bring May flowers". We ought to have plenty of flowers to beautify the Commonwealth this year with all the rain we received last month. Many people across the Commonwealth had significant damage to their property caused by high water and flooding. However, as of this writing The Grand Lodge has not had any requests for assistance. We need to keep all that were affected by the high water in our prayers.

With the Kentucky traditional Run for the Roses behind us and the horses moving on to the next leg of the Triple Crown we should turn our attention to Memorial Day. We set aside this one day a year to honor those that have paid the ultimate price so we can live free. I feel we cannot do enough to show our appreciation for the sacrifices made and to remember these fallen heroes. As you know, we have been selling Veterans Pins for the last several years to raise funds to show how Masons appreciate what our fighting men and women are doing for us. Last year Most Worshipful Grand Master Rick Nation's pin had "All Gave Some" engraved on the tombstone of the pin. This year my pin has "Some Gave All" engraved in the same place on the pin and this was my way of showing how much it means to me to live in this great country as a free man and more especially as a Freemason. So Brothers, proudly wear these pins, Veteran or not, to let everyone know how Kentucky Masons honor those who provide us with freedom we so much enjoy.

Part Four of the Series: The Master Mason Degree

With the Fellowcraft proving his proficiency he is now ready for the third and final degree of Blue Lodge Masonry, the Master Mason degree. This degree pulls everything together from the previous degrees and starts a man on his journey of becoming a better man and Master Mason. As with the other degrees there are three sections of this degree and all three need to be conferred so the Brother can fully understand and be enlightened to the seriousness of what it means to be a Mason. On occasion we shortchange the candidate by doing "short form" versions of some of the sections of this degree and he truly misses many of the important lessons taught in this degree. If your Lodge is forced to short form the Master Mason degree please take the newly raised Brother as soon as you can while things are fresh in his mind, to a Lodge or Raising so he can see what he missed. It will have a positive impact on him and hopefully he will be inspired to be a better Mason by what he missed.

As with the first two degrees the third degree is a serious matter and should be treated as such, especially the Second Section. Section 142 of the Constitution states:

"The second Section of the Third Degree constitutes a most solemn and impressive portion of our ritualistic work. In it we are taught the ultimate lesson of Masonic philosophy-victory over death and the immortality of the soul. Nothing must be allowed to impair the deep impression which should be made upon the mind of the candidate. The Grand Lodge forbids any unnecessary levity, roughness, horseplay, talking, audible laughter, or any other noise that could distract the attention of the candidate. Failure to comply with this provision, or any action by any officer or member in violation or inconsistent with this provision shall constitute ground for Masonic discipline. Any part of the third degree may be conferred on more than one candidate at the same Time, except the Second Section of that degree, which can be conferred on but one at a time."

Brothers, please take your degree work serious. Do the best job you can and make an everlasting impression on our newest member.

A Great Man and a Meaningful Way of Life

Good evening, Worshipful Master. Calling him that does not imply that I worship him. I do like him but do not worship him. In a Masonic Lodge the leader is not a President, but as in the days of operative Masonry, he is a Master of his Craft. Worshipful is just a title of respect. So my addressing him as Worshipful Master is merely just that – a title of respect, which by the way, I do have for him.

Good evening ladies, Brothers and our esteemed guests. Our esteemed guests are not Masons but are thought very highly of by the men who have asked you to be here. It is to you that my remarks will be addressed. When I was asked to speak for this annual George Washington dinner I wondered what I might be able to share with you. Realizing that Washington was such a well known and public figure, I knew there was not much that I could tell you that you did not already know. But what stood out to me in my search was that he became that same man in public that he was in private, and that is why we are all here. He was, of course, a highly revered Mason. In fact, he, as an acting Grand Master, laid the cornerstone of our Whitehouse.

Wondering what I could say that would be of value, I punched “Why Masonry” into my computer and came up with this:

Masonry is elemental: It comes from and speaks of the earth. Its past is still with us preserved in great wonders of the world. Its present all around us, the buildings we admire as we travel around America and the world. Why are so many buildings invariably built of Masonry? Have you not noticed which buildings you admire most in your community?

Image is the key: The quality image of a Masonry building is one of excellence and permanence. No other material leaves as lasting an impression of strength, utility and substance as that conveyed by brick, block and stone. Masonry is a building system that has survived the test of time and remains unmatched in design, quality and flexibility. Architects and engineers throughout the centuries have applied Masonry to their simplest and most challenging design work. Home and building owners who have cared about the image created by buildings in their communities have selected Masonry as an expression of themselves and their businesses for both the present and the future. No other building material can convey the permanence and stability, year after year, like Masonry can.

As I read this I could not help but relate it to our Fraternity.

It speaks of the earth, which from it we shall return. It speaks of the past and of standing the test of time, and our Fraternity certainly has done so. It speaks of the present, and we are still here to enjoy a membership worldwide. It does not speak of the future. But I expect that if we live an upright life, and if we attract men like you Non-Masons into our Fraternity, we will have a full and bright future.

It speaks of excellence which our Craft is. It speaks of performance, and as Masons, our word is our bond. The strength of our Fraternity has been tested in every age, from the earliest of times by vile rulers who believed that the way to control a country is to persecute the free thinkers. One of the first things that Hitler did was to attempt to destroy our Fraternity. But what he did do was to force it underground. His favorite flower was the forget-me-not. So our Brethren started wearing a forget-me-not. When it was noticed, a Mason would examine each other in a way that only a Mason can do. This was how we survived and lived through the regime.

It speaks of quality. I would like to say that we are such, but men are not always so.

But in our Craft each is asked: “What came ye here to do?,” the answer being “To learn to subdue my passions.” When we do that we are quality men. The substance of Masonry is nothing less than a way of life.

It speaks of design. Our design is to make its members wiser, better and consequently happier. We take an obligation in the name of God not to cheat, wrong or defraud each other, and that we will help, aid and assist each other as well as our widows and orphans.

We are charged to revere God and to consider His book as the source of truth and justice, to treat our neighbor as we want to be treated, and to have a well regulated course of discipline. As a citizen we are to obey the laws under whose protection we live and to be loyal to such. As individuals we are to practice domestic and public virtues. We are to let temperance, fortitude, support and prudence direct us, being especially careful to maintain in their fullest integrity the truly Masonic ornaments of Brotherly love, relief and truth. We are to be careful never to recommend anyone to a participation in our privileges unless we have a strong reason to believe that by a similar fidelity that the person would bring honor on this ancient institution. Once again you Non-Masons can see that the men who invited you here think thus of you.

These lessons and instructions are perhaps why Washington was the type of man that he was, giving us hope that with self-discipline we could all be. When he and other Brethren spoke of Masonry being an extension of themselves in their homes and buildings, we as Masons do the same by being present for generations and by remaining – level, plumb and square.

Thank you Worshipful Master for asking me to speak on behalf of a great man and a meaningful way of life.

FORTITUDE LODGE 47 – ON THE MOVE

Fortitude Lodge held a First Responders dinner for all the Police, Fire and EMS for the County. A great time was had by all.

Fortitude Lodge No. 47 presented a check for $500.00 to the Oldham County History Museum for their capital restoration program. The History Center has been a big supporter of Free Masonry by hosting Masonic Displays in the Center.

In March, Fortitude Lodge No. 47 raised two Brothers to the Degree of an Entered Apprentice. Erik Reese and Harry Whitener joined the Fortitude lineup. Brother Phillip Bland was raised the same night on behalf of Simpson Lodge No. 189 of New Castle.

April rings in with an additional two Brothers raised to the Degree of a Entered Apprentice. Mike Gathof and John Merrell joined the ranks of Fortitude Lodge No. 47.
