Grand Master's Message

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

It is hard to believe that we are already into the month of July. It seems like only yesterday that we were shoveling snow from our record snow falls. It is amazing how quickly time goes by. July is the time of year when we celebrate our independence. We should always honor those who have made supreme sacrifices for our way of life. It is also the time of year that we enjoy time with family and friends doing special activities.

YOU ARE THE FACE OF FREE MASONRY!

By now you should have received your appeal letter with a window cling included. It is my hope that you will place the enclosed window cling on your mirror to be viewed daily as a reminder that we ARE representatives of this great Fraternity. We must be vigilant on how we present ourselves to others in our communities to show them that we are indeed men of principal. I have tied this campaign to my vision of "Let Your Masonic Light Shine." I would like to thank you in advance for your participation and support of this program that is very near and dear to me.

PART SIX OF THE SERIES: PROPER PROTOCOL

As we wrapped up District meetings one of the most frequently asked questions was what is proper protocol. What is proper protocol? The only reference I could find in the Kentucky Monitor was on pages 324 – 330, Regulations for Processions. The Grand Master should always be addressed as Most Worshipful and when introduced he is the Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. After being introduced he should be escorted to the East and given the private Grand Honors. The other elected Grand Lodge Officers are always addressed as Right Worshipful and afforded the public Grand Honors beginning with the Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Junior Warden, Grand Senior Warden, and Deputy Grand Master. Past Grand Masters should be addressed as Most Worshipful and given public Grand Honors. The appointed Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputy Grand Master, and Grand Lodge Committee Men are addressed as Worshipful and given the public Grand Honors. One note about the District Deputy Grand Master, when he is on his official Lodge visit the only outranking Officer would be the Grand Master himself. The Masters of all Lodges are also addressed as Worshipful Master with the rest of the membership being addressed as Brother. This is somewhat of a condensed version but my hope is that this may help clarify proper protocol and encourage you to research further through prior education conference materials. A good Lodge education program is practicing introductions using proper protocol.

As we embark on the lazy, hazy days of summer, enjoy spending time with your family and friends, along with your Masonic family. There are many Masonic activities that take place in the summer months such as outdoor raisings, family nights, and community events where we can...

Lewis County Masonic Lodges Help Fight School Absenteeism

The Masonic Lodges of Lewis County have joined forces to fight school absenteeism at Tollesboro, Central, Garrison and Laurel Elementary schools in Lewis County. St. Marys Lodge No. 240 of Tollesboro and Stone City Lodge No. 963 of Garrison purchased 8 bicycles so 2 bikes (one girl, one boy) can be given away at each elementary school participating. The bikes will be awarded to one boy and one girl at each school for perfect attendance. If there are more than two students with perfect attendance there will be a drawing held to select the winners. Dr. Sara Porter will donate the safety helmets to go with each bike. The Brothers would like to deliver the bikes to the schools at the beginning of the year and hang them in the cafeterias so the kids can see what they could be riding next summer if they have perfect attendance. What a great way to get the kids motivated to go to school.

The Declaration of Independence

We celebrate American Independence Day on the Fourth of July every year. We think of July 4, 1776, as a day that represents the Declaration of Independence and the birth of the United States of America as an independent nation.

But July 4, 1776 wasn't the day that the Continental Congress decided to declare independence (they did that on July 2, 1776).

It wasn't the day we started the American Revolution either (that had happened back in April 1775).

And it wasn't the day Thomas Jefferson wrote the first draft of the Declaration of Independence (that was in June 1776). Or the date on which the Declaration was delivered to Great Britain (that didn't happen until November 1776). Or the date it was signed (that was August 2, 1776).

So what did happen on July 4, 1776?

The Continental Congress approved the final wording of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. They'd been working on it for a couple of days after the draft was submitted on July 2nd and finally agreed on all of the edits and changes.

July 4, 1776, became the date that was included on the Declaration of Independence, and the fancy handwritten copy that was signed in August (the copy now displayed at the National Archives in Washington, D.C.) It's also the date that was printed on the Dunlap Broadside, the original printed copies of the Declaration that were circulated throughout the new nation. So when people thought of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776 was the date they remembered.

In contrast, we celebrate Constitution Day on September 17th of each year, the anniversary of the date the Constitution was signed, not the anniversary of the date it was approved. If we'd followed this same approach for the Declaration of Independence we'd be celebrating Independence Day on August 2nd of each year, the day the Declaration of Independence was signed!

How did the Fourth of July become a national holiday?

For the first 15 or 20 years after the Declaration was written, people didn't celebrate it much on any date. It was too new and too much else was happening in the young nation. By the 1790s, a time of bitter partisan conflicts, the Declaration had become controversial. One party, the Democratic-Republicans, admired Jefferson and the Declaration. But the other party, the Federalists, thought the Declaration was too French and too anti-British, which went against their current policies.

By 1817, John Adams complained in a letter that America seemed uninterested in its past. But that would soon change.

After the War of 1812, the Federalist party began to come apart and the new parties of the 1820s and 1830s all considered themselves inheritors of Jefferson and the Democratic-Republicans. Printed copies of the Declaration began to circulate again, all with the date July 4, 1776, listed at the top. The deaths of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams on July 4, 1826, may even have helped to promote the idea of July 4 as an important date to be celebrated.

Celebrations of the Fourth of July became more common as the years went on and in 1870, almost a hundred years after the Declaration was written, Congress first declared July 4 to be a national holiday as part of a bill to officially recognize several holidays, including Christmas. Further legislation about national holidays, including July 4, was passed in 1939 and 1941.

 ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED
 SCOTTISH RITE OF FREEMASONRY

ATTENTION

The Lexington Scottish Rite invites ALL MASTER MASONS to come and be a part of our August 20, 2015 meeting. We have the pleasure of hearing Brother and Thirty Second Degree Mason Darrin V. Gulla, PhD as our guest speaker.

Brother Darrin V. Gulla, PhD will speak on the Origins of Masonic Religious Toleration.

An important, if not essential, landmark of Freemasonry is that all Masons must hold a belief in God as the Grand Architect of the Universe and in the immortality of the soul. Further, Anderson's Constitution of Free-Masons specifically precludes Freemasonry from endorsing a particular doctrine and even prohibits religious discussion from Lodge in order to maintain harmony within the group. Let's explore the particulars of the English Reformation providing a rich backdrop to the fabric of English society whereby a handful of men would ultimately choose to establish their own Fraternal Society which would embrace men of all religious walks of life.

Please call the Scottish Rite Office @ 859-277-7856 or the Brethren listed below and make your reservations for the August 20, 2015 meeting so we can plan for a catered meal. The meal will start at 6:30 PM. Again, this meeting is open to all MASTER MASONS and the Education will be outstanding. Come and have some fellowship and further your Masonic Light in Freemasonry.

The members of Somerset Lodge No. 111 and the Somerset OES Chapter #23 have each sponsored a children's bicycle and helmet to promote good attendance at the Somerset Independent Schools, Hopkins Elementary School. Representatives of the Lodge and the Star took the bicycles to Hopkins and showed them to the students in an assembly at the beginning of the 2014-15 school year. They were then present to congratulate the students at the drawing just before summer break. The young man and young lady who won the bicycles both had perfect attendance. In order for our young people to prepare themselves for success in life, they need to be in school and learning. Somerset Lodge was proud to partner with the Order of the Eastern Star to help elementary school students improve their attendance.

Members of Waynesburg Lodge No. 328 recently sponsored 2 bicycles to support good student attendance in the Lincoln County School system. The Masons bought the bicycles and took them to Waynesburg Elementary School, and presented them to Principal, Mark Upchurch. Principal Upchurch told all the students if they had 5 or fewer unexcused absences during the year they would have their name put in a hat to draw for the bikes. One would be for a girl and one for a boy. Upchurch also hung the bikes from the rafters in the gymnasium (where the entire student body assembles each morning) for several months with a banner attached to them that read "Sponsored by Waynesburg Masonic Lodge No. 328." Two names were drawn and the lucky students were presented with the bikes at an assembly on June 3, 2015. Through their generosity, the Brothers at Waynesburg Lodge have helped encouraged 300 elementary students to attend school regularly and prepare themselves for their future.
