Grand Master's Message

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

With the month of January and the shortest days of Winter behind us, we now enter the month of February. We notice the days getting a little longer and see a few ducks and geese starting their migration back north, and are encouraged that Winter will soon be behind us and start turning our sights to the Spring. February is also a month we celebrate the birth of two of our most famous Presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. We Kentuckians consider Lincoln one of our own, even though he moved to Illinois at a young age, we are still proud of the fact he was born and raised here in the Bluegrass. We Masons are proud of the fact that George Washington was a Brother Mason in addition to being the Father of our country, our first President, along with all his other accomplishments.

When we engage in conversation with anyone about Freemasonry we often declare that George Washington was one of America's best known Master Masons. He was raised a Master Mason in Fredericksburg Lodge in Virginia in 1752 and later became the Charter Master of Alexandria Lodge in Alexandria, Virginia, which was later renamed Alexandria-Washington Lodge number 22 in his honor. After he was elected President of The United States he took the oath of office using the Bible from St. Johns Lodge in New York. During his life he performed many Masonic ceremonies including laying the cornerstone for the United States Capitol in 1793. When having completed the designs on his trestle board and was called to the Celestial Lodge above, he was given Masonic Rites by the Brothers of Alexandria-Washington Lodge as part of his burial at Mount Vernon.

Two months after his death, a eulogy was performed before the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, Timothy Bigalow spoke in part of Washington with these words:

"The information received from our Brethren who had the happiness to be members of the Lodge over which he presided for many years, and of which he died the Master, furnishes abundant proof of his persevering zeal for the prosperity of the institution. Constant and punctual in his attendance, scrupulous in his observance of the regulations of the Lodge, and solicitous, at all times, to communicate light and instruction, he discharged the duties of the Chair with uncommon dignity and intelligence in all the mysteries of our art."

So I say to you current Masters, Past Masters and future Masters if we could rule and govern our Lodges with such conviction as George Washington, then it truly would be with credit to yourself and advantage to its members.

Part one in a series: Brothers this month I will start a several part series to shed a little light on the process an Initiate goes through from the investigation to being raised a Master Mason and beyond. I cannot emphasize how import it is to do a thorough investigation on any man that knocks on our door. Masters, when you appoint an Investigating Committee make sure the Brothers you ask to serve will do so without hesitation or fear of offending someone. Brothers, if you are asked to serve on a committee do not be afraid to ask questions. The more informed you are the easier it is

Presidents' Day

FEBRUARY 16
2015

Notes

FROM YOUR GRAND SECRETARY
DONALD H. YANKEY P.G.M.

There was a change to the Book of Constitutions under Section 154 concerning Dues. Many of you may not know, the dues of the Lodge are due January 1st. Since the change of Section 154 they are now Delinquent January 1st, not April 1st at the discretion of the Lodge they may suspend as soon as April. If suspended you will need to petition your Lodge under Section 187 for reinstatement and be re-elected by unanimous ballot.

LODGE DUES SECTION 154. Dues to Fix and Collect.

Each Lodge shall fix and collect duties and obligations, payable before the Entered Apprentice Degree is conferred. The dues of a Lodges shall be due on January 1 each year, and payable in advance for the full year, except as provided by law as to Provisional Demits. Dues for each year shall be delinquent on January 1, and the delinquent members shall be subject to suspension, on the stated meeting of the Lodge in June. At the discretion of the subordinate Lodge, no earlier than the April stated meeting of the subordinate Lodge. Any Lodge failing to collect dues from a Brother, for more than one year, and failing to notify said Brother of his delinquency each year, shall forfeit the right to collect more than one year's delinquent dues from said member, and on payment of same, said member shall be in good standing with his Lodge. Any Brother suspended under this section shall be subject to reinstatement as set out in Section 187 of this Constitution.

This change is submitted to make Section 154 consistent with our current dues structure as indicated on our dues card, which states that the past year's dues have been paid "through December 31, 20xx."

This change also addresses changes made in the reinstatement process in Section 187 as amended at the Kentucky Grand Lodge Communication in 2012 as follows:

SECTION 187- After Suspension for Non-Payment. A Brother suspended for non-payment of dues shall rest under suspension until he has submitted a petition for reinstatement to the Lodge from which he was first suspended, which petition must be referred to and be reported on by committee the same as any other petition for membership, paid the amount owing up to the time of suspension, and re-elected to membership by unanimous ballot of the membership present (2012).

for the committee to make their decision about the Initiate. Go to his home and speak to his wife and family to make sure they are agreeable with him joining our Fraternity. Explain to them the process and answer any questions they may have regarding Freemasonry. Invite him and his family to the Lodge and give them a tour so he will be comfortable with his surroundings if and when he does enter your Lodge.

We must guard our West gate at all costs and failure to do so will eventually bring disgrace to your Lodge and the Fraternity. The background check is still available and I encourage you to use it. Usually when someone has something to hide and you tell them it is necessary to have a background check they will withdraw their petition and save everyone a lot of time. After you have completed your investigation, get together as a committee and discuss your findings. Make sure everyone on the committee has had their say before making your recommendation to the Lodge.

Next in this series we will touch on the Entered Apprentice Degree. Brothers don't forget about your sweetheart on Valentine's Day!
Let your Masonic Light Shine! Let the world know who we are and what we stand for!

Our Sincere Thanks....

The family of Peggy Conway extends to the Masonic Brethren of Kentucky our deepest, sincere and most heartfelt appreciation for the many condolences and expressions of sympathy we received on her passing shortly before Christmas. The many cards, phone calls and personal contacts were overwhelming and brought a measure of comfort to the family in dealing with this heartbreaking loss. Your thoughtful consideration and compassion will forever be remembered by her loved ones who are left to grieve. Thanks again for your many thoughts and Prayers.

Kentucky Freemasons are the Greatest!

The Grand York Rite Bodies of Kentucky

Brothers, Companions, and Sir Knights,

Dues season is here again. Please pay your dues promptly. Our Lodges, Chapters, Councils, and Commanderies work from tight budgets, and need each of us to share the responsibility of paying the bills. As members pass on, demit, or get suspended for nonpayment, we have less members to share these costs. This leaves us with two options, increase membership or increase dues. We must maintain our high membership standards, so sometimes a dues increase is unavoidable. Your continued membership, dues, and donations are important and always sincerely appreciated.

Brothers:

- See the Senior Warden "pay the Craft their wages if any be due and see that none go away dissatisfied" in the Mark Master Degree.
- In the Master Mason Degree, you learned the Grand Masonic Substitute Word. Learn the True Word of a Master Mason and how it was recovered in the Royal Arch Degree.
- Learn how that word was preserved in the Royal and Select Master Degrees.

New Masters: Schedule a York Rite presentation for your Lodge! Your local York Rite Bodies will be glad to help!

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

A leader and a friend: Sam Swope

Masonic Homes Board member Joe Conway, CEO Gary Marsh, supporter Sam Swope, Board member Martin Walters and COO J. Scott Judy

Masonic Homes of Kentucky's Board of Directors and employees were sad to learn of Sam Swope's passing in December. Mr. Swope shared Masonic Homes' mission to provide quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives.

Mr. Swope embraced a vision to develop a state-of-the-art health care center to provide recovery of illness and surgery in a private, home setting at Masonic Home of Louisville. Because of his generosity, the lives of thousands of residents have been made better at Sam Swope Care Center.

Mr. Swope encouraged Masonic Homes to "not only keep up with the times, but to stay ahead of the times." We pledge to continue serving those in our care in a way that would make him proud.

Masonic Homes of Kentucky receives state health care awards

Masonic Homes of Kentucky was honored with three Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities awards. Masonic Home of Louisville's certified medication technician Mary McCage was named among Top 10 Caregivers. Masonic Home of Shelbyville's volunteers from W.G. Simpson Lodge No. 472 received the Volunteer award. Masonic Homes also received the top photography award for a photo featuring a resident and Sproutlings child that highlighted the range of generations that receive care on the Louisville Campus.

"Masonic Homes of Kentucky employees and volunteers go the extra mile to provide quality care to our residents and guests," said Masonic Homes CEO Gary Marsh. "I am proud that others in our industry recognize the remarkable contribution that they add to our communities."

Worth a Thousand Words

Abraham Lodge No. 8 donated enough canned goods to help Masonic Home of Louisville feed 45 local families this Christmas.

Kingston Lodge No. 315 delivered Christmas gifts to the residents of The Pillars Assisted Care Center at Masonic Home of Louisville.
