Cerulean Springs Lodge 875 100th Anniversary

Cerulean Springs Lodge No. 875 was sponsored by Mark Tyler Lodge 319, Wallonia, Kentucky in the fall of 1914. Minutes of Mark Tyler Lodge reflect a number of their members demitting the summer of 1914 to establish a new Masonic Lodge in Cerulean. Although records are not available, new members came from Cadiz, Hopkinsville and the surrounding Lodges.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky issued a charter and Lodge Number 875 on October 14, 1914. For 100 years this Lodge has served its members and the community.

On Sunday morning, April 3, 1971 the entire town of Cerulean Springs was destroyed by a massive fire. This destruction of approximately seven businesses and homes also claimed the Masonic Lodge and its contents. Ironically, the last stated meeting in the old Lodge was April 1, 1971 - April Fools Day.

On April 12, 1971 Cerulean Lodge received a dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Kentucky to conduct Lodge meetings again in the Mark Tyler Lodge in Wallonia. Their first meeting was held on April 15, 1971. On June 17, 1971 a Building Committee consisting of Malcolm Sons, Howard Hopson, Ernest Hancock, Lowell Bartruff, R.B. Holland and Gilmer Burgess was appointed to oversee the construction of a new Lodge building in Cerulean. In September 1971 Brother George Everett Rogers was awarded a contract to build a 70' x 32' masonry building to accommodate a Lodge and post office in Cerulean. The U.S. Post Office was opened on April 1, 1972 with the first Lodge opening on May 19.

Mark Tyler Lodge 319 consolidated with Cerulean Lodge August 7, 2007, due to fire destroying their Lodge.

Grand Master's Message

WILSON K. WILDER
Grand Master

Happy New Year! I hope that each and every one of you had a happy and safe New Year's Day. I also hope that none of you have broken your New Year's resolutions yet. We make these resolutions because each New Year brings a new beginning, a renewed sense of hope with new expectations. With the slate wiped clean we can assure ourselves the outcome will be better than previous results. So now it's up to us to make sure we achieve the results we desire.

Brothers, each New Year brings a new beginning for every Lodge with a new Master and a new slate of Officers. Most installations of new Officers have been completed with only a few left to be done. I hope that many Lodges had an Open Installation and invited family and friends to attend so you can show the world what a great Fraternity we truly are. Open Installations are a great way to showcase Freemasonry. If any Lodge has not installed its Officers yet I urge you to please consider an Open Installation.

Masters are you prepared for the coming year? Are you ready to put your programs in motion to better Freemasonry for your members, your Lodge, and your community? The time for your resolve has come and I urge you to put your "game plan" in place and make a mark on your Lodge. Remember in the charge to a newly installed Master "it is your peculiar duty to communicate light and instruction to the brethren of your lodge". The time has come for us to roll up our sleeves and get busy doing just that!

January is a busy time for the Grand Lodge Officers as well. On January 31st we will hold our Educational Conference which will be tele-conferences to several locations throughout the Commonwealth. This is, to my knowledge, the first time this has been tried by any Grand Jurisdiction and I am confident it will be a great success. Make plans early as you will not want to miss this groundbreaking event. I will value your participation and helpful comments on perfecting these events going forward. As technology advances we must embrace it and use it in every way possible to spread Masonic Light and better serve all the Brothers across this great state. Each District Deputy Grand Master is charged with finding a location and getting everything in place for these meetings and he will be getting the word out to all the Lodges soon. Having these meetings closer to home will save the Brethren some time and money by not having to travel as far. If you are unable to attend the conference in your district we will have the capability to log on at home as well. This will also save The Grand Lodge a significant amount by not having to travel across the state with the Education Committee holding these conferences. The Committee has been hard at work putting together a comprehensive program that will touch on some of the issues I see we need to discuss to improve our Lodges and ourselves as Freemasons. I hope that everyone can attend these conferences for the fellowship and to take part in this groundbreaking event.

In closing Sally and I would like to wish all the Brethren of Kentucky a Happy and Prosperous New Year!

Masonic Light Shine!

we are and what we stand for.*

The Grand York Rite Bodies of Kentucky

Brothers, Companions, and Sir Knights,

Dues season is here again. Please pay your dues promptly. Our Lodges, Chapters, Councils, and Commanderies work from tight budgets, and need each of us to share the responsibility of paying the bills. As members pass on, demit, or get suspended for nonpayment, we have less members to share these costs. This leaves us with two options, increase membership or increase dues. We must maintain our high membership standards, so sometimes a dues increase is unavoidable. Your continued membership, dues, and donations are important and always sincerely appreciated.

Brothers:

- See the Senior Warden "pay the Craft their wages if any be due and see that none go away dissatisfied" in the Mark Master Degree.
- In the Master Mason Degree, you learned the Grand Masonic Substitute Word. Learn the True Word of a Master Mason and how it was recovered in the Royal Arch Degree.
- Learn how that word was preserved in the Royal and Select Master Degrees.

New Masters: Schedule a York Rite presentation for your Lodge!
Your local York Rite Bodies will be glad to help!

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Providing quality housing, health care and services that make a difference in people's lives

Joseph R. Conway named Board Member, Emeritus

Martin R. Walters elected as 2014-2015 Chair

Joe and Peg Conway call Masonic Homes of Kentucky's Louisville Campus "home."

In November, Masonic Homes of Kentucky's Board Chair Joseph R. Conway opened his last Board of Directors meeting. Conway served as Chair for 14 years and as a member of the board for 32. He showed extraordinary vision and leadership; guiding the renewal of Masonic Homes from 2000 to 2014.

When Conway stepped into the role, the Masonic Homes communities were struggling with aging buildings and financial hardship. The Shelbyville campus was being considered for closure. Under his leadership, a new direction was set to revitalize Masonic Homes of Kentucky.

He recruited a top management team led by long-term care services experts to manage operations and grow business opportunities. To save Shelbyville, he obtained board approval to purchase additional skilled nursing beds and begin renovations to enhance services and revenues. His leadership extended to the development of a successful patio home Spring Hill Village in Northern Kentucky. At the Louisville campus, he encouraged the development of an innovatively designed nursing and rehabilitation center, Sam Swope Care Center; expanded services to include the region's only pediatric preschool, Sproutlings; and was one of the first residents to move to the area's only active lifestyle community with life care services, Miralea.

"Without question, Joe's leadership has been his biggest contribution. He believed in the projects, supported them and has celebrated our successes along the way," said Masonic Homes President and CEO Gary Marsh.

From campus to campus, Masonic Homes has become the vision Conway always imagined.

"Not many people know that Joe is quite the jokester. He has played along in many pranks on the staff and shared many laughs with us," said Masonic Homes COO J. Scott Judy. Today, the laughter can be heard throughout Sally's Garden, when Joe visits with his wife, Peg.

"Joe is a steady leader – never rattled in a meeting or by any circumstance that came before him. As a board member, I couldn't have asked for a more dedicated leader," said new Board Chair Martin R. Walters. "Joe makes sure that any praise he receives shines on those around him. It has been an honor to watch him grow with the responsibilities that were needed and to learn from him," said Walters.

During the November board meeting, Conway and long-time member Dennis H. Rutledge were named Board Member, Emeritus. The board also elected 2014-2015 officers: Walters will serve as Chair, Ronnie G. Bell as Vice President, Harold E. Armstrong as Secretary and Ronald S. Caughron as Treasurer.

Martin Walters will succeed Joe Conway as Chair of the Masonic Homes of Kentucky Board of Directors.

MASONIC HOME JOURNAL, for immediate release.....

“Dialog Between Simon and Philip”

The early 18th century catechism, “A Dialog Between Simon a Town Mason and Philip a Traveling Mason” will be presented at Wm O. Ware Lodge of Research on the 5th Thursday, January 29, Dennis Lovell, Master announced. Although undated, the Catechism is contained in the same manuscript as “The Whole Institution of Masonry –1724”.

The ‘Dialog’ is in two parts; the first part appears to be a set of ‘test questions’ with short answers, possibly for easy memory, and the second section contains the authors notes or comments on certain questions. It also refers to “Old Masons and New Masons” (possibly the first reference to Ancient and Modern Masons), and presents a diagram of the form of the old lodges and the new lodge under Dr. Desaguliers Regulation”.

The presentation will be made possible by the Educational Committee of the Masonic Library and Museum Association of Covington Scottish Rite. Dinner at 6:30 pm and Lodge opens at 7:30 pm. The Lodge meets at the Masonic Temple, 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington, Kentucky. All Master Masons are invited. –W. Lorenz Master Jim DeArmond had a well planned ceremony and very kind words to say to each Brother that was recognized. Several other Brothers spoke about what the Lodge meant to them. Pictured, Master DeArmond presenting all the Past Masters in attendance a gift from the Lodge for their dedicated service to Masonry.
