Grand Master's Message

CLOYD J. BUMGARDNER

Grand Master 2015-2016

Brothers,

I hope that you and your family are enjoying good health and much prosperity as you read this edition of the Masonic Home Journal. As we wind down yet another Masonic Year, I want to review the path that this year has taken and how this year's Masonic Program was developed. Last year our Most Worshipful Grand Master gave me permission to send a survey to every Lodge in the state asking what you, the Craft of Kentucky, felt was important and needed to be addressed through the Grand Lodge. Approximately one hundred of the Lodge surveys were completed and returned. After each survey was reviewed, and additional input from Past Grand Masters and others evaluated, a plan was developed to address your concerns. The plan was adjusted after much thought and input from your Grand Master and current Grand Line. In order to address your concerns, the ideas you submitted have been included in the activities of the Grand Master's Excellency Award Program. I can assure you that every care was given to see that small, medium, and large Lodges all had an opportunity to achieve the Grand Master's Excellency Award. When compared to previous editions, this year's program was modified to give the Lodges choices of what activities were eligible to receive points. On a very positive note, your Grand Officers are noticing increased levels of Masonic activity including increased numbers of petitions, more degree work, community involvement, support of our widows, involvement with the Masonic Homes, etc. across the Commonwealth. I want to emphasize, the activities in the Grand Master's Excellency Award Program are either taken directly from the surveys you filled out or were developed to address your concerns. As a practicing public school administrator, I can tell you that many communities across the Commonwealth of Kentucky now know who the Masons are because of the bicycles, shoes, backpacks, etc. you have placed in your local school systems. Some of the other great things many of you are doing include: recognizing the sacrifice our military men and women as well as our first responders make to serve us all. I also thank those Lodges who have adopted a resident of the Masonic Homes and helped brighten their day. The letters, calls, gifts, and visits are very special to everyone who receives them. I thank each of you for what you are doing for Freemasonry.

This Month's Recognitions

Brothers, please be sure and read all of these recognitions to the end. First I want to recognize Harry R. Kendall #750 for donating 2 bicycles to their local elementary school. They were inadvertently left off the last recognition list.

Second, at the time of the writing of this article, a total of 375 Brothers have taken and passed the Masonic Constitutional Scholars Quiz. Let's make it at least 400 before Oct 18, 2016!!! I am going to close this article with a letter that was sent to Brother Bruce Lott at the Masonic Homes by the Master of a Kentucky Lodge. This Lodge participated in the “Adopt a Resident” Program this year. The names have been omitted, and I have made a few notes for clarification, but I ask that you look to the spirit of the message. The men who adopted this widow are true Masons in their hearts and I am very proud to call them Brothers. After thinking about how this widow's, and these Mason's, lives were enriched by giving, please ask what you can do to support our Masonic Homes.

Thank you for being Proud Kentucky Freemasons

Letter to the Masonic Homes

Hello, Brother Bruce,

Myself, the officers, and members of  Lodge would like to thank you for letting us adopt Mrs. . She was a real blessing to me personally, as she would pray for my Mom's health whenever I would visit. (Her) room was right down the hall from my Mom's.

Several of our officers visited her occasionally, and we sent cards and had pictures made with her and had them framed for her room.

I also celebrated her birthday with her when she turned 95. We gave her a Masonic blanket that she loved. She was covered in the Square & Compass the day she went home to be with our Lord.

I attended the visitation and funeral service. Her granddaughter's husband performed the funeral services and did an outstanding job.

It was hard losing (Her) so soon after my Mom passed, but I know in my heart they are in a better place.

Once again let me thank you for placing that dear lady in my life.

*Fraternally,
* * Master of * Lodge*

MASONS ARE MEN OF HOPE by Howard Coop

On a daily basis, the news media reports, in graphic detail, the horrors of war both in Iraq and in Afghanistan. That same media forever reminds us of the inhumane and brutal actions of suicide bombers and other extremists who terrorize much of the Middle East with their fanatical zeal. Too, the every present threat of global terrorism is continually kept before us. Then, add to this the chilling fact that the same media tell us almost daily of the nuclear aspirations of Iran and North Korea, two nations that have been called the axis of evil, and their movement toward fulfillment of those aspirations that cause anxiety and turmoil in much of the world. As a result, we find ourselves enmeshed in a pessimistic environment in which there seems to be little reason for hope.

In this depressing atmosphere of gloomy pessimism, these powerful and suggestive words are demanding: "So there is hope for your future" (Jeremiah 31:17, RSV). Those words, spoken in the eighth century B. C., were addressed to a group of people with little or no reason for hope. A powerful enemy had decimated their homeland, and they had been taken forcefully into exile in a foreign land. There, in that strange environment "by the waters of Babylon," they remembered their devastated homeland and "hung up (their) lyres" on the willows and "sat down and wept" (Psalm 137:1-2, RSV), for they looked into the future as far as eye could see and saw little or no reason for hope. But there was hope, and that hope came from a reliable Source.

It has been reported that Charles A. Beard, one of the notable historians of the twentieth century, was asked to condense human history into a few pithy sentences. After some reflection, Professor Beard responded with four short statements, the last of which was: "The mills of God grind slowly but exceedingly fine." With that profound statement, the famous Columbia University professor implied that the ultimate Source of life has determined that ultimately right will prevail.

The ancient landmarks, which from time immemorial have been held dear by Masons as guiding influences, determine that Masons believe in God to whom they refer as the Supreme Architect of the Universe. That Supreme Architect purposefully designed and created all things and, with creative ability, moves that creation forward toward real purpose. That purpose culminates in a future life in which, according to those ancient landmarks, all Masons believe. For that reason, Masons look beyond the moment, gloomy as it may be, which surrounds them, for they are men of hope.

LEGISLATION TO BE PRESENTED AT THE 217th ANNUAL COMMUNICATION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

Grand Master Recommendation Number 1:

As Grand Master, it is my recommendation that when taking a lodge from the Master Masons degree to a lesser degree for the purpose of conferring that degree, I recommend that it be done with a rap of the gavel providing only Master Masons are in the lodge. After the work, and the candidate has received the degree, when the lodge is going to close on that degree it should be long form so that the candidate has a chance to hear the duties of the other officers in the lodge. The purpose of this recommendation is to save time, when only Master Masons are in the lodge, and have more time for the candidate to hear the duties of the other lodge officers.

Grand Master Recommendation Number 3:

As Grand Master, it is my recommendation that we amend Section 25, The Book of Constitution:

"The Grand Master and each candidate for an elected office shall appoint one Teller to oversee the electronic voting and to assure that all voting representatives are entitled to vote at the time of registration". With the use of the new electronic voting devices we no longer need Tellers to count the vote, however, I feel we should have one Teller to represent the Craft and assure all is done in accordance with The Book of Constitution.

LEGISLATION TO BE PRESENTED AT THE 217TH ANNUAL COMMUNICATION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

Item No. 1

Whereas, the Committee on Jurisprudence has received many inquiries from the Craft of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky involving questions of jurisdiction, and

Whereas, many Masons, even knowledgeable and experienced Masons, find the Book of Constitutions confusing in matters of jurisdiction, and

Whereas, with the advent of electronic communication, online search engines, and reliable databases, the obsolete necessity of close proximity to a petitioner has rendered our jurisdictional prohibitions archaic,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Committee on Jurisprudence recommends the following:
To amend Section 95 of the Book of Constitutions which now reads:

SECTION 95 - GENERAL RULE.

The jurisdiction of every lodge, except as in Sections 96 & 97, shall extend halfway to the nearest lodge meeting location by a straight line measurement in any and every direction.

To read when amended:

SECTION 95 – GENERAL RULE

Every Lodge within the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall have concurrent jurisdiction with every other Lodge in this Commonwealth. Such jurisdiction shall extend to all borders of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, except as provided in Section 97. (2016)

The Committee on Jurisprudence, in conjunction with the above, recommends the following:

To DELETE Section 96 of the Book of Constitutions which now reads, and hereby label (RESERVED):

SECTION 96 - CITIES HAVING TWO OR MORE LODGES.

In the cities having two or more lodges the jurisdiction shall be concurrent and extend as provided in Section 95, except, Adair, Allen, Anderson, Ballard, Barren, Bath, Bell, Boone, Bourbon, Boyd, Boyle, Breckinridge, Bullitt, Calloway, Campbell, Carter, Casey, Christian, Clark, Clay, Daviess, Estill, Fayette, Grant, Grayson, Green, Greenup, Floyd, Hardin, Harrison, Henderson, Henry, Hopkins, Jackson, Jefferson, Jessamine, Johnson, Kenton, LaRue, Laurel, Lawrence, Lewis, Lincoln, Logan, Lyon, Madison, Martin, Marshall, McCracken, McCreary, Mercer, Metcalfe, Monroe, Morgan, Nelson, Nicholas, Ohio, Oldham, Owen, Owsley, Pendleton, Perry, Pike, Pulaski, Rowan, Russell, Shelby, Simpson, Taylor, Todd, Washington, Wayne, Webster and Woodford counties, the jurisdictions shall be concurrent within said counties and extend as provided in Section 95. Boone, Grant and Kenton counties shall be regarded as one jurisdictional unit. (2014)

Respectfully submitted,

Committee on Jurisprudence,

Section 104 – Business

All lodge business shall be done in a lodge of Master Masons, excepting proficiency examinations and approval and work of the first and second degrees or the trial of Entered Apprentices or Fellow Crafts.

Amended to Read:

Section 104-Business

Any subordinate Lodge may, at its discretion, with the consent of a majority of the members present and duly noted in its minutes, elect to conduct all Lodge business on any of the three degrees of Masonry (Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft or Master Mason). Such election shall remain in force until the Lodge, with the consent of a majority of the members present and duly noted in its minutes shall revoke such election.

In all instances, only Master Masons shall have the right to vote.

Unless a subordinate Lodge affirmatively acts to elect to conduct its business on the Entered Apprentice Degree or the Fellow Craft Degree, all Lodge business shall be done in a Lodge of Master Masons.

The above provisions notwithstanding, conferring Degrees, examination of proficiencies and trials of members shall be held in a Lodge opened on the Degree corresponding.

Amend Section 128 as Follows

Item No. 4

Currently Reads:

Section 128 – Ballot Secret

In all cases every ballot shall be strictly secret, whether a favorable or unfavorable ballot was cast: and every brother shall be secured in his right to cast his ballot privately for or against a candidate, as between himself and his own conscience. If anyone shall make known or reveal his or another's vote in secret ballot he shall be guilty of unmasonic conduct and subject to trial.

Balloting is the exercise of a personal right and the performance of an individual duty. No member shall act for another in casting a ballot.

Who Votes: Every member of the Grand or subordinate lodge to which he belongs, must vote, if present, unless excused.

Candidates for the degrees may be voted upon collectively. If, upon a collective ballot one or more unfavorable ballots appear, then each candidate must immediately be voted upon separately the same as if no ballot had been taken.

How Excused: The power to excuse a brother from voting is not in the Master or Grand Master, but in the lodge or Grand Lodge, and rests with the majority.

Amend to Read:

Section 128 – Ballot Secret

In all cases every ballot shall be strictly secret, whether a favorable or unfavorable ballot was cast: and every brother shall be secured in his right to cast his ballot privately for or against a candidate, as between himself and his own conscience. If anyone shall make known or reveal his or another's vote in secret ballot he shall be guilty of unmasonic conduct and subject to trial.

Balloting is the exercise of a personal right and the performance of an individual duty. No member shall act for another in casting a ballot.

Who Votes: Every member of the Grand or subordinate lodge to which he belongs, if eligible pursuant to Section 104, must vote, if present, unless excused.

Candidates for the degrees may be voted upon collectively. If, upon a collective ballot one or more unfavorable ballots appear, then each candidate must be immediately be voted upon separately the same as if no ballot had been taken.

How Excused: The power to excuse a brother from voting is not in the Master or Grand Master, but in the lodge or Grand Lodge, and rests with the majority.

Item No. 5

Legislation was presented and laid over to the 2006 Annual communication of the Grand Lodge in regards to Section 118 E.A. and F.C. are not permitted to participate in nor receive Masonic Burial. After discussion and an amendment to the amendment Section 118 was completely stricken from our Constitution, thus allowing Masonic Rites to be conferred upon an E.A. or F.C. in good standing at the time of his death, like that of a Master Mason.

In so much as we may confer the Masonic Rites on an E.A. or a F.C., they cannot however participate in the conferral of those Rites. An Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft, whose brother, father, uncle, grandfather or closest and dearest friend, lay as a corpse, they cannot participate in the final rites of the deceased mason since all business of the lodge shall be performed as stated in Section 104.

Therefore, I submit the following for your consideration and to request your support to accept and submit the following recommendation to amend our Constitution regarding business of the lodge.

SECTION 104 – BUSINESS.

All lodge business shall be done in a lodge of Master Masons, excepting proficiency examinations and approval and work of the first and second degrees on the trial of Entered Apprentices or Fellow Crafts.

Ament to Read:

SECTION 104 – BUSINESS.

All lodge business shall be done in a lodge of Master Masons, except work of the first and second degrees, proficiency examinations and approval of the first and second degree, the trial of Entered Apprentices or Fellow Crafts and Funerals.

If adopted, this must be presented to the Grand Craft in accordance to Section 217, Book of Constitution, Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons.

Item No. 6

Constitution Amendment to Section 104

At a stated communication on June 6, 2016, a proposed amendment of Section 104 to the Constitution, submitted by Elvin E. Helms Lodge #926 F. & A.M., was read to the Craft of Phoenix Lodge #719.

After a discussion on the amendment, a motion was submitted and seconded by the Craft to put our full support behind Elvin E. Helms Lodge #926 in this matter. We feel that if a lodge could open and conduct business in the lower degrees, this would allow members that have not advanced to the sublime degree of a Master Mason the opportunity to be involved in the lodge business. We feel this would enhance the ability for the lodge to keep the newer members by being fully involved in the lodge.

Therefore, it is the desire of Phoenix Lodge #719 that this amendment be adopted for the good of the order.

Amendment to Standing Resolution 9

At a stated communication on June 6, 2016, a proposed amendment of Standing Resolution 9 of the Constitution, submitted by Bradford Lodge #123 F. & A.M., was read to the Craft of Phoenix Lodge #719.

After a discussion on the amendment, a motion was submitted and seconded by the Craft to put our full support behind Bradford Lodge #123 in this matter. We feel that if a member receives recognition earlier in their Masonic journey, a brother would have more pride in his endeavors and possibly will remain a member for further recognitions and awards. Any endeavor by the Craft and The Grand Lodge that would improve the retention of members should be explored.

Therefore, it is the desire of Phoenix Lodge #719 that this amendment be adopted for the good of the order.

Phoenix Lodge No. 719, F. & A.M.

Item No. 7

Smith Lodge #775 F. & A.M. proposes the following change in the Trial Code Discipline. Section 2, item K, line 15 currently reads: Soliciting petitions for initiation into Masonry is a violation of Masonic Law, is contrary to the accepted teaching of the fraternity, and un-Masonic.

Proposed change: Deleted line 15 of item K in section 2 of the Trial Code Discipline.

Co-sponsors of this proposal are Fred M. Gross #953, Green Hill #521, Hampton #235, and Trimble #145.

Smith Lodge #775 F. & A.M. seeing our membership decline from over 500 to 183 members and seeing this same decline in most lodges and in the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A.M. is proposing a change in the Trial Code.

Not only has the number of Masons in Grand Lodge declined from over 100,000 to 38,000 today, the average age of masons is now in the middle to late sixties.

Our proposed change is being made out of concern about the future of our lodge and masonry throughout the state of Kentucky and the world.

We feel that this is one way that this trend might be reversed. Kentucky would not be the only Grand Lodge to do away with this restriction. This will not replace the need for a second signature on the petition, the investigating committee's recommendation, nor the vote of the lodge.

Resolution #14

Masonic Burial Dress Code

As it now reads:

All Masons participating in a Masonic Burial Service shall be properly dressed: that is coat & tie, slacks, etc. There shall be no cut offs, jeans with holes, flip flops, shirts with advertisements, chewing gum or hats, other than the Master. The purpose of the Last Rites is to show respect for the family of the departed Brother and to the Masonic Brotherhood. A Brother not meeting the Dress Code is not to gather around the casket but have a seat in the crowd. (2009)

To be amended to read:

All Masons participating in a Masonic Burial Service shall be properly dressed: There shall be no shorts, cut offs, jeans with holes, flip flops, shirts with advertisements or cartoon characters, chewing gum or hats, other than the hat of the Master. The purpose of the Last Rites is to show respect to the family of the departed Brother and to the Masonic Brotherhood. Any Master Mason who shall have been affiliated with a lodge or lodges in Kentucky, or with some other lodge with which Kentucky sustains fraternal relations, for a period of 50, 60, each five years thereafter, shall receive from the Grand Lodge of Kentucky a Veterans Emblem as approved for said purpose, as a reward for his long and faithful service to the fraternity. Grand Lodge team Keith Dreier, Don Yankey, Roger Barnett and Chris Stout participated in the shamble to benefit Sproutlings.

Friends chip in for Sproutlings

August 8 was an impressive day at Louisville's Big Spring Country Club with great friends coming together to benefit Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool.

Twenty teams gathered for the 4th Annual Sproutlings Charity Golf Shamble. Once the day of golf was complete, golfers enjoyed a live auction, dinner and awards presentation. The Flynn Brothers Team walked away with first place honors, but the biggest winners of the day were the children at Sproutlings, with the event raising more than $57,000.

Sproutlings thanks all participants who made the day a success, with extreme gratitude to presenting sponsors Greystone Communities, Paul Mattingly & Congleton-Hacker Constructors, Medline Industries and Craig & Landreth Cars. We also extend grateful appreciation to birdie sponsors Ferguson, PPR Talent, Weber & Rose and the Denton Group.

MASONS SHINE DURING OLDHAM COUNTY DAYS

On Saturday, July 16, 2016, the annual festival of "Oldham County Days" was celebrated in LaGrange, Kentucky. What an incredible presence Masonry had there. There were Brothers from Pewee Valley Lodge No. 829, Fortitude Lodge No. 47, and the Shrine came out to enjoy some fellowship and fun.
