Grand Master's Message

CLOYD J. BUMGARDNER
Grand Master 2015-2016

Brothers,

I am writing today to complement you on a job well done this year as we build Freemasonry across our Commonwealth. We have recently completed the district meetings at which you reported many charitable activities that your Lodges are involved in. These activities include support of the Masonic Homes, food backpack programs, providing shoes to students, adopting a Masonic Homes resident, programs for your Masonic Widows, the bicycle program, etc. I applaud you on your efforts and encourage you to continue the programs. It is through programs and activities like these that we show that we are Masons in our communities.

I want to call your attention to two other programs that I have become aware of and that you might want to learn more about. While these are not direct programs of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, they do involve Masons or impact affiliated Masonic bodies. The first one addresses the plight of some of the Veterans of the Armed Services. Brother Calvin Howell (James W. Alley #869) is the Project Director for an emergency homeless shelter for Veterans in Floyd County, Kentucky. The recent impact of returning combat veterans has increased the need for shelters such as this one that is being built in Prestonsburg. This project is in need of resources including tangibles such as furniture, housekeeping items, as well as volunteers and monetary resources. To learn more about this initiative please contact Calvin Howell at 606-358-9372 (h) 606-226-5573 (c), or tjh5734@hotmail.com.

The second initiative I want to call to your attention is a fundraiser for Kosair Kids. This event is sponsored by the Glasgow Shrine Club and will be held on August 6, 2016 at the Cave City Convention Center. The proceeds go directly to children and families in need. The day will include a car and antique tractor show, dunking booth, parade, eating contest, and many other attractions you might expect to see at a carnival like event. It will be a fun filled and family oriented day. The event coordinator, Ms. Freda Smith, is requesting Masons to help man the booths and can be reached at 270-590-9228. Well over 1000 people are expected to attend and if you can help, please wear your Masonic hats, shirts, etc. to promote Freemasonry.

Brothers, as we head into the home stretch, looking towards our Annual Communication, I will be recognizing other programs and individuals who are contributing to Freemasonry. I ask that you continue to be active in your Masonic Lodges and communities and make a difference.

Until next time continue to be Proud Kentucky Freemasons!

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Lodge Delegates and Past Masters who plan to attend the Grand Lodge Session in October 2016
FROM: Committee on Jurisprudence, Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M.
DATE: May 31, 2016
SUBJECT: Grand Lodge Constitution Re-Structured

“BOOK OF CONSTITUTIONS
 (With Former Sections included)”

The Constitution has been reformatted by gathering scattered sections of our existing 2015 Constitution and moving them to a more comprehensive group setting.

We are requesting that the Grand Lodge Web page have this posted for your review and comparison.

The Jurisprudence Committee has been working diligently with the Craft and the Lodge Officers in mind. We are going to be very transparent in our recommendation. You can see this document at <https://grandlodgeofkentucky.org/>

With all the Sections included, there are no changes to the present Constitution.

Therefore this Re-Structured printing is all that we will be asking you to vote upon at this Fall 2016 Grand Lodge Session.

This will only require a simple majority vote to adopt and will not need to layover over, as would a Constitutional change.

MASONIC HOMES of KENTUCKY

Passionate People. INSPIRING LIVES.

The Gladys and Jack Jonas Trust bequeaths $1.4 million gift to Masonic Homes

Roby "Jack" Jonas and his wife Gladys quietly built a legacy of honesty, hard work and financial responsibility throughout their lives. Jack was a Mason, and Gladys was an Eastern Star. Longtime friend and business associate Virgil Hall says, "He lived the life of a Mason more than he attended the lodge ... They were great people. She was a teammate with him."

Jack Jonas passed away in 1998, and Gladys died at the age of 93 in 2014. Their unassuming, hardworking life and good stewardship is now bearing fruit for organizations they held close to their hearts. The Gladys and Roby "Jack" Jonas Trust gifted $1.25 million to Masonic Homes of Kentucky in late 2014, and the Homes recently received the final distribution from that trust. Other equal beneficiaries of the estate were Hosparus and the American Red Cross.

The Jonas gift is one of the largest we have ever received, and we are grateful for their dedication to one of the basic premises of Masonry – that is, to care for those who often are unable to provide fully for themselves.
