Big Spring Lodge 826 Great Day of Fellowship and Charity

Big Spring Lodge No. 826 hosted a Thanksgiving dinner for the needy in their community. Many enjoyed the fellowship of Brother Masons. Their families served meals to the needy, local police and the security at Ft Knox. This has become a tradition at Big Spring Lodge No. 826. Hopefully the word will spread on the fellowship and meals for the less fortunate.

Waco Lodge 338 – Constitution Quiz

Waco Lodge No. 338 located in District #25 hosted a group of eight Brothers who gathered to complete the Constitution Quiz. Waco Lodge, Kingston Lodge, Richmond Lodge, Madison Lodge, O.D. Henderson Lodge, Irvine Lodge, and Mt Vernon Lodge were represented. Completion of the quiz satisfied a requirement for the Excellency Award. It was an educational process as well as a great time of fellowship. Some great discussions about several sections involved the Constitution. Thanks to Brother Darren Wilson for supplying the great chili. Plans are to schedule a similar event in the near future.

Grand Master's Message

CLOYD J. BUMGARDNER
Grand Master 2015-2016

My Brothers all,

I hope all is well with you and yours this holiday season. I want to address two topics in this issue of The Masonic Home Journal and then leave you with my Masonic experiences of one day during the month of December. The two issues that I want to talk about include the good works you do during the holiday season so others can enjoy the example of giving and service set down by our Lord, Jesus Christ, and the second is the great respect and debt we owe our Veterans and our men and women currently serving in all branches of the United States Military.

First, as I am writing this article for The Masonic Home Journal, the weather outside is turning cold and Christmas is just around the corner. God has blessed each and every one of us beyond measure, and we all have much to be thankful for, not the least of which is that we are privileged to live in America. As your Grand Lodge Officers travel across the Commonwealth, we see many proud Kentucky Freemasons who provide food, clothing, shelter, gifts and HOPE to those who are less fortunate than we are. Your Grand Officers know firsthand how much support is given by you and your Lodge to widow's programs, local schools, Masonic Homes of Kentucky, the Grand Lodge and a wide variety of other programs. The number of nursing home visits, fruit baskets delivered to widows, clothes and food to needy families, and all other kinds of charitable works reflect the type of servant leadership we should aspire to as men who believe in Biblical principles and the example set forth by the true Master Builder. I want to publicly thank each and every one of you for your acts of kindness and charity this season. You are doing the things we need to do in order to be relevant in today's society. Many people are noticing and applauding your efforts. Also, many Lodges are pursuing the Grand Masters Excellency Award this year, and the numbers of bicycles being placed in schools to promote good student attendance are increasing rapidly. By positively influencing a child to improve his or her life by regularly attending school, you are helping chart the course of society. You are being successful at a huge task. I am very confident that all the elementary schools in at least two dozen counties now have bicycles donated by Masons. As another example of your good work, Brothers in Masonic District #2 have placed bikes in every public elementary school in the entire district! To underscore how well your work is proceeding, I want you to know that I am getting telephone calls from school administrators across the State asking, "Why are the Masons donating bikes to our schools?" I am very happy to tell them,

"Because proud Kentucky Freemasons want our children to learn to read, become productive citizens, and improve their lives." Brothers, I do not know how to convey the extent to which I am humbled before you as you complete this task which is bigger than any one person could ever hope to achieve. I can only say thank you from the bottom of my heart.

The second item I want to address today is that of Masons supporting our military men and women. I am so very proud of Kentucky Freemasons for being patriotic and concerned about the welfare of our Veterans and those currently serving in our armed forces. Money generated through the sale of Grand Lodge of Kentucky Veteran's Pins has, for several years, helped fund activities held by Lodges to honor our Veteran's and Military Personnel through deployment parties, returning home parties, breakfasts, recognitions, etc. I want to strongly encourage our Lodges to hold similar events, or partner with other Lodges to do so, in their communities. The men and women who secure our freedoms and allow us to live in the "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave" deserve much more than we can ever repay. Brothers, as you have heard me say many times before, "If you can read, thank a teacher. If you can read in English, thank the American soldier."

Finally, I want to share with you three instances of Masonic Brotherhood I witnessed on Saturday, December 5, 2015 that show who you truly are in your hearts. First, as I was traveling from my home in Somerset to a Masonic Breakfast in Bardstown to honor our military personnel. I stopped at the Stanford McDonald's for a cup of coffee. As I was ordering, I noticed a gentleman wearing a ball cap upon which was embroidered the Masonic Square and Compass. He, and several other members of Lincoln Lodge No. 60, were at the back table with a list of Masonic Widows names and addresses spread out before them. The Brothers were planning the fund raising, purchase, and delivery of Christmas Fruit Baskets to these widows, many of whom either lived alone or were in nursing homes. These men were taking a beautiful Saturday morning to do what we all swore we would do, look after our widows and be real men. When I arrived at the Veteran's Breakfast in Bardstown, which was sponsored by Bardstown and Louisville area Lodges, I saw a room full of young men in dress uniform along with their ladies. The young men I met and talked to are devoted to our country, smart, well mannered, and prepared for leadership. On the advice of Brother Bill Riggs, I gave each man there one of my Veteran's Pins which depicts Brother George Washington praying on bended knees for our troops at Valley Forge. I saw many potential proud Kentucky Freemasons at that dinner, if they know who we are and what we stand for. These young men would not have been assembled there this Saturday morning except for Masons who gave up their weekend, worked the breakfast to honor our military, and do what we all swore we would do, be real men. Finally, I travelled to the Grand Junior Warden's reception held at Natural Bridge in Slade, Kentucky. An honest count showed 350 Masons traveled from every county in the Commonwealth to honor Gary Rose and renew old friendships and break bread with each other in the process. As the keynote speaker, Past Grand Master Herman Forrester said as part of his speech, "Masons swore to be real men." Brothers, I share my Saturday, December 5, 2015 with you to emphasize that the bonds that bind us together are thrice strong and not easily broken. I deeply appreciate all you do to build up Freemasonry and pass it on to the next generation of, real men.

I hope you had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!!!

A Guiding Principle by Howard Coop

A new year, a just few days old, is ahead. At this point, one thing is sure: We don't know what the year will bring. However, based upon past experience, we can be reasonably certain that it will bring many pleasant and worthwhile experiences, but, unfortunately, it will bring some unpleasant experiences, or rough places in life's road, intermixed with those pleasant experiences. That's just the way life is.

Occasionally, it has become necessary for me to drive to some distant city about which I knew nothing. The road to that city was totally unknown to me. But a long time ago, I learned an important lesson: Seek good information and get a roadmap and faithfully follow the instructions. When I have done that, problems were solved, and I usually arrived at my destination with little or no difficulty.

On Tuesday evening, December 23, 1952, I learned another important lesson, and it is applicable for facing a new year or any other situation one faces in life. That evening, I went to Lancaster Lodge expecting an evening of light-hearted frivolity as I "rode the goat," but the evening was far from that. The first Masonic lesson I learned, a guiding principle for life, was a profoundly overwhelming surprise to me: At the beginning of any great or important undertaking, always pause and invoke the aid of Deity. The Supreme Architect of the Universe faithfully writes designs upon life's trestle board for us.

When, in the year ahead or at any other time, we discern and follow the designs of the Supreme Architect, we will overcome difficulties and achieve a good life.

So mote it be.

Fairdale Lodge 942 – Donate Bikes

Fairdale Lodge No. 942 donated boy and girl bicycles to Fairdale and Coral Ridge Elementary Schools in Fairdale, Kentucky. Pictured are the Principals and Assistant Principals of each school, along with Brothers Reggie Paschael, Roger Bischoff, Bill Underwood; and Steven Lay. All are members of Fairdale Lodge No. 942.

Smith Lodge 775 – Attendance Awards

The members of Smith Lodge No. 775 of Flatwoods, Kentucky recently donated bicycles to local elementary schools to be used as attendance awards. Attendance is crucial for students to be successful at school. The bicycles were donated to the principals with instructions for them to set the criteria for the awards. Two bicycles were given to Russell Primary School, in Russell, Kentucky and two bicycles were given to Campbell Elementary School in Race-land, Kentucky. Each school was given a boy's bicycle and a girl's bicycle with helmets for each donation. Hopefully these will serve as incentive for students to attend school and work hard at their schoolwork.

Vine Grove Lodge 603 – Thanksgiving Meals

Vine Grove Lodge No. 603's Master Rick Copeck (right), presents eight family Thanksgiving dinner vouchers to Vine Grove Elementary School Counselor Allison Scherer (left). The vouchers will feed eight families totalling 60 individuals. "Charity, relief, and community involvement are the cornerstone of Masonic values," said Copeck. The Lodge worked with Bob Evans Restaurant and General Manager Randy Packman to help identify community families during this time of year and the continual support and donations that remain critical in advancing this tradition.

Burnside Lodge 634 – Contributes to Hospice

Burnside Masonic Lodge No. 634 presented Hospice of Lake Cumberland with donations on behalf of their deceased Brethren. Making the donation is Lodge Secretary and Past Master Donnie Brake (left) and representing Hospice, Executive Director Euretha McQueary (right). The three Brothers ( Don Phillippi, Cleo Routin and George Troxtell) who received hospice care before they passed, were all appreciative of the fine care given by Hospice of Lake Cumberland. The estate of Don Phillippi gave a Masonic knife to the Lodge, who in turn sold shares Hospice.

Louisville Campus adds assisted living services, expands independent living

The Meadow will add 120 new residences to Miralea Active Lifestyle Community.

Masonic Homes plans to add a 48-unit assisted living community. It also will add 120 independent living residences to its Miralea Active Lifestyle Community on the Louisville Campus.

Assisted living will offer personal support services such as meals, medication management, bathing, dressing and transportation. The community, Grove Pointe, will be built in place of the old healthcare center. Special features such as the building's stone entryway and antique pottery tiles will be reclaimed and repurposed. Stained glass windows that were once part of the center's chapel have already been repurposed in the Sam Swope Care Center.

Miralea will continue to grow with a new one-story building, located on the front east side of the campus. In addition to the life care benefits and amenities already offered at Miralea, The Meadow will feature an art studio and gallery, movie theater, spa and beauty salon and much more. Construction is expected to begin in late 2016.

Smithland Lodge 138 Veteran's Day Lunch

Smithland Lodge No. 138's Veteran's Day Dedication Appreciation Lunch was held on November 11, 2015, in Burna, Kentucky, at the American Legion Post #217. Between 250 – 300 guests were served lunch after the ceremony. In the first picture, left to right: Brad Winn, Secretary, Smithland Lodge 138; Ronnie Walker, Veteran Affairs Committee and Past Master; his wife Alice Walker; and Bobby Williams, Secretary, Carrsville Lodge #812. Second photo: Bob Mitchell, Post Commander; Bruce Dwingelo, Post Adjutant and Senior Warden, Salem Lodge #81. The third photo shows everyone enjoying the lunch at the American Legion Post #217. The pictured monuments have the names of 2400 Veterans who served and are now deceased. The names on the black monument are Veterans who lost their lives in service to our country.

Hebron Lodge 757 Veterans Potluck Dinner

Hebron Lodge No. 757 honored Veterans with a potluck dinner on Veteran's Day. State Senator John Schickle (right) was the keynote speaker. Mrs. B. J. Hermann presented the Missing Man Memorial ceremony honoring our MIA's and POW's.

THE COMMONWEALTH

National Guard Christmas Breakfast Honored Those Who Serve

Grand Master Cloyd J. Bumgardner (left) spoke to the men and women gathered together for breakfast.

To honor those who served is the reason that several Masons and their families were up early Saturday morning, December 5, 2015 to prepare breakfast for Charlie Company, 2nd Battalion 138 Field Artillery. This was indeed, Masonry in Action.

Faith Worship Center, once again was most gracious in providing their facility for the event. The recent construction completed, the Church provided an elegant setting. The inside was beautifully decorated for the season, and was perfect for the event.

The local Bardstown National Guard unit uses their December meeting to recognize those soldiers who have been promoted or for special service during the year. This occasion allows the families the opportunity to witness their soldier receiving their hard earned recognition.

Approximately one hundred and fifty soldiers and their family members were fed breakfast by members of Duvall Lodge No. 6, Suburban Lodge No. 740, Bloomfield Lodge No. 57, Dunavan Lodge No. 292, and Aurora Lodge No. 633. Several wives added greatly to making this a successful event.

They were honored to have Most Worshipful Grand Master Cloyd J. Bumgardner present for the event. He spoke briefly to those assembled giving a quick summary of Freemasonry. He gave each soldier one of his Veteran Pins so that they would have a tangible reminder of Freemasonry's support for their dedication and service.

Profound gratitude to Faith Worship Center and their Pastors Freddy & Becky Riggs for opening their facility for this event; to the Grand Lodge for providing the funding; to all those who volunteered and made this day a success; to any Brother who has ever bought a Veteran's Pin, (your support funds these type programs); and to PGMs Don Yankey, Chris Stout, Rick Nation, and current, Grand Master Cloyd J. Bumgardner for seeing the value in promoting Service men and the Veteran's Program.

And lastly, but most importantly, thank you to the Officers, Soldiers and the families of "Charlie" Battery, 2nd/138th Field Artillery for allowing us to honor you through Masonry in Action!

District 21 – Veterans Day

Members of Masonic Lodges in District 21 posed for a photo with the plaque they received to recognize their support of Heritage Hospice's Veterans Appreciation Day.

Once again, the annual Heritage Hospice's Veterans Appreciation Day was a huge success because of the hard work of Masonic Lodges in District 21. The Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky F&AM is a major supporter of the event. The Masons prepared 200 pounds of fish and 160 pounds of barbecue plus side dishes of beans, cole slaw and hush puppies to feed 1,234 hungry Veterans and their guests at this event at Danville National Guard Armory. The Veterans are from Boyle, Garrard, Lincoln and Mercer counties, the area served by Heritage Hospice. Sharon Martin, Heritage Hospice community and provider liaison is the event's chairman. She appreciates the Masons' dedication. It takes four days to prepare the food for the event and one of the chefs takes a week of vacation to prepare. Some of the rewards for their hard work are seeing a 102-year-old dance a jig after being recognized as the oldest Veteran.

World War II Navy Veteran Ernest Blanchet, known for his love of dancing, kicked up his heels after receiving the honor. The Stanford man's immediate audience was a circle of fellow World War II Veterans who always are asked to come to the front at Noon. George White, age 98, received special recognition as the second oldest attendee of the 32 World War II Veterans. In contrast, 21-year-old National Guard member Zachary Jones of Harrodsburg was recognized as the youngest Veteran. It is a very special day made possible by a devoted group of Masons.
