Grand Master's Message

CLOYD J. BUMGARDNER

Grand Master 2015-2016

It gives me great honor to present the roll of our Brothers who have passed the Masonic Scholars Constitution Quiz so far this year. The quiz was very difficult and I am EXTREMELY PROUD of each of these Brothers below. I also want to thank Brothers Bobby Briggs, Grand Junior Deacon; and Darren Wilson, Committee on Masonry Matters; for their efforts in giving the quiz and for helping the Brothers achieve good scores. We all owe it to our Fraternity and to ourselves to learn something new every day. We should also become better informed about our Fraternity and our world in general. The list below is current as I write this article. We will recognize those Brothers who pass the quiz after this date in the Masonic Home Journal before my time as your Grand

A Powerful Influence

by Howard Coop

In recent months, numerous media reports have called attention to a serious problem. Across the land, there has been a breakdown of the home, a stabilizing influence in human society. The result of this breakdown has been catastrophic. It has led to a moral decline and a dramatic increase in the number of single parent homes where more and more children are being raised without the stabilizing influence of a good Father.

This breakdown has had a devastating effect. It has led to dramatic increase in juvenile delinquency. However, an anonymous judge in our court system was reported to have said that he could solve the problem of juvenile delinquency with nine words: "Put Daddy back at the head of the house" where, as J. Cecil Myers said he "must cooperate in the moral, ethical, (and) spiritual training" of his children if they are to grow up to be responsible adults who make a worthwhile contribution to the society of which they are a part.

Father's Day is more than a time, once a year, to give Dad an ugly tie and mumble a few words that may have little or no meaning. It is time to recognize the important role that good Fathers have in the home. More than sires of sons and daughters, Fathers are the guiding influence in the lives of their children that, by what they are and by what they do, shapes the lives of their children and prepares them to live in the real world as responsible adults. Clarence Budington Kelland put in in these words: "He (Father) didn't tell me how to live; he lived and let me watch him do it." It has become proverbial that, if a child grows up to the responsible, it "needs a man around that he can respect and admire."

Not all Masons are Fathers, but all Masons can have a powerful influence. With lives circumscribed and an actions squared, they can be the men who are respected and admired as role models.
