Jones (left) received his 70-Year Membership Pin in the Chapter Body of the York Rite at the Area 1 Meeting of the Kentucky Grand Chapter held in Bowling Green, Kentucky. Making the presentation was Larry E. Gray (right), General Grand Secretary of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons International, who drove over 200 miles from his home in Greenfield, Indiana. He remarked that this is the only 70-Year Pin presentation that he made during his whole tenure as General Grand Secretary as well as the only one known to be made in recent known history of the organization. Many members made positive comments on Companion Jones' dedication to Freemasonry. He is a Past Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Kentucky. Several Grand Chapter Officers were present, including Wendell Trent, Most Excellent Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky. Board Chair's Derby brunch raises money for Sproutlings

With the first Saturday of May come dozens of charitable events that only occur around the Kentucky Derby. The Thursday before Derby, or "Thurby," as it is affectionately coined, is no different. It's a chance for the locals to cheer on the horses and show off their fashion before bigger crowds ascend to Churchill Downs. To mark the day, Masonic Homes Board Chairman Martin Walters and his wife Stephanie hosted a Thurby brunch at their home to benefit Sproutlings Pediatric Day Care & Preschool.

At the Walters' home, friends gathered to brunch, sip mimosas and share their Derby picks.

Masonic Homes President and CEO Gary Marsh spoke about the partnership with Kosair Charities in bringing Sproutlings to fruition and what a blessing it has been for many children. Setting the brunch apart were the guests who were generous in their giving including Kosair Charities who offered a matching grant.

Sproutlings, located in the Kosair Charities Center on the Masonic Homes of Kentucky's Louisville Campus, is the only Prescribed Pediatric Extended Care center in the region. With spaces for both medically fragile and typical children. The "one family" approach allows every child to learn, play and grow with one another. It is the belief that interaction is the key to the well-being of every child regardless of abilities.

If you are interested in donating to Sproutlings, please contact us toll-free at 866-764-6631 or via email at giving@mhky.com.

1927 Masonic Home Journal presented to Martin Walters and Gary Marsh

Troy Royalty, member of Pleasure Ridge Park No. 959, presented Board Chairman Martin Walters and President/CEO Gary Marsh with a 1927 Masonic Home Journal. The issue is significant to Masonic Homes because it was the first issue printed upon the moving to the St. Matthews location and the entirety of the issue highlights many aspects of Masonic Homes and the new campus. The issue has been in Troy's family for nearly 90 years. His aunts, Virgie Goodman and Idell Goodman, both grew up at Masonic Homes.

The History of Flag Day

The Fourth of July was traditionally celebrated as America's birthday, but the idea of an annual day specifically celebrating the Flag is believed to have first originated in 1885. BJ Cigrand, a schoolteacher, arranged for the pupils in the Fredonia, Wisconsin Public School, District 6, to observe June 14 (the 108th anniversary of the official adoption of The Stars and Stripes) as 'Flag Birthday'. In numerous magazines and newspaper articles and public addresses over the following years, Cigrand continued to enthusiastically advocate the observance of June 14 as 'Flag Birthday', or 'Flag Day'.

On June 14, 1889, George Balch, a kindergarten teacher in New York City, planned appropriate ceremonies for the children of his school, and his idea of observing Flag Day was later adopted by the State Board of Education of New York. On June 14, 1891, the Betsy Ross House in Philadelphia held a Flag Day celebration, and on June 14 of the following year, the New York Society of the Sons of the Revolution, celebrated Flag Day.

Following the suggestion of Colonel J Granville Leach (at the time historian of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution), the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames of America on April 25, 1893 adopted a resolution requesting the mayor of Philadelphia and all others in authority and all private citizens to display the Flag on June 14th. Leach went on to recommend that thereafter the day be known as 'Flag Day', and on that day, school children be assembled for appropriate exercises, with each child being given a small Flag.

Two weeks later on May 8th, the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution unanimously endorsed the action of the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames. As a result of the resolution, Dr. Edward Brooks, then Superintendent of Public Schools of Philadelphia, directed that Flag Day exercises be held on June 14, 1893 in Independence Square. School children were assembled, each carrying a small Flag, and patriotic songs were sung and addresses delivered.

In 1894, the governor of New York directed that on June 14 the Flag be displayed on all public buildings. With BJ Cigrand and Leroy Van Horn as the moving spirits, the Illinois organization, known as the American Flag Day Association, was organized for the purpose of promoting the holding of Flag Day exercises. On June 14th, 1894, under the auspices of this association, the first general public school children's celebration of Flag Day in Chicago was held in Douglas, Garfield, Humboldt, Lincoln, and Washington Parks, with more than 300,000 children participating.

Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, delivered a 1914 Flag Day address in which he repeated words he said the flag had spoken to him that morning: "I am what you make me; nothing more. I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color, a symbol of yourself."

Inspired by these three decades of state and local celebrations, Flag Day - the anniversary of the Flag Resolution of 1777 - was officially established by the Proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson on May 30th, 1916. While Flag Day was celebrated in various communities for years after Wilson's proclamation, it was not until August 3rd, 1949, that President Truman signed an Act of Congress designating June 14th of each year as National Flag Day.
