AMITY LODGE #40 - 50 YEAR PRESENTATION

GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

GARY C. ROSE
Grand Master 2018-2019

My brothers all,

By the time you read this, almost half of the district meetings will have been concluded. I am happy to report that they have all been well attended and brotherly love has prevailed in each instance. Such participation on your part warms my heart and I thank you so very much for your interest in, and support of, our great fraternity. I also want to thank all of you who attended the educational meetings, whether on-line or in person, to learn more about the correct workings of our Masonic Craft. The meetings were put forth in a very professional manner and I thank the Masonic Education Committee for all of their work.

As Kentucky Freemasons look ahead to the coming spring, I remember the wise counsel of my grandpa who was a Kentucky hillside farmer all his life. He always told me that when the budding oak leaves got to the size of a mouse's ear, it was time to plant field corn. This was usually in middle to late April as reckoned by the number of Wolfe County moons. He was one of my Masonic Mentors and understood well the geometry of the lodge in addition to the "rithmetic" of working a mule to feed his family. My grandpa lived in a different time than we do now, but he knew that preserving our Masonic history and passing it onto the next generation was very important.

To contribute to maintaining our history, I ask you to help locate the gravesites of Past Grand Masters of Kentucky, the locations of which are presently unknown for many. Please record the cemetery name, take a picture and GPS reading of the location and provide driving directions to the site. Once this information has been collected, send it to our Grand Secretary at his e-mail address. This is a very important way you can help preserve our history.

My brothers, In addition to the district and education meetings, I am happy to report that your Grand Lodge Officers have been traveling the state through rain, snow and sunshine to visit your lodges. They tell me that brotherly love, peace and harmony are prevailing in Kentucky Freemasonry and much proficient work is being done. As I have mentioned before, our ritual is the center part of a candidate's experience and we owe it to them to do the very best ritual work we can. I look forward to seeing you, my brothers, in lodge as I continue to make my rounds across the Commonwealth!

Do good unto all,

Fraternally Thine,

GARY C. ROSE

COLONEL CLAY LODGE #159

2018 marked 15 years of Colonel Clay Lodge placing flags on the graves of veterans at Covington's historic Linden Grove Cemetery. With assistance from other local groups, Col. Clay has placed flags on graves of over 400 known veterans there, dating back to the War of 1812. Every Memorial Day and Veterans Day, the cemetery blooms with flags placed to represent the thanks of a grateful nation and as a mark of respect from the Fraternity.

Local groups who have been involved in the past include the Sons of the American Legion Independence Squadron 275 (who initiated the program at Linden Grove before it was picked up by Colonel Clay), Independence Cub Scout Pack 360 and Boy Scout Troop 360, Holmes High School Marine Corps Junior ROTC, along with families and friends from other Masonic Lodges in the area. All who wish to participate in honoring these veterans are welcome to join in on the Saturday mornings before Memorial Day and Veterans Day.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Our Spring Reunion has been successfully concluded and several new Masters of the Royal Secret have joined the Valley of Louisville in "this great and good work"! My personal interactions with the new Scottish Rite brothers confirmed how much they valued their Scottish Rite membership, and how much progressing in Masonic knowledge with their brethren meant to them.

You know, every time I participate in a meeting, dinner, activity or Reunion class I am again impressed with the feeling that the essence of all of this is Brotherhood. Everything else is but the framework, the spiritual temple if you will, within which brotherhood is exemplified, experienced and cherished. Brothers, we are nurtured by interaction with each other, and are raised above our mere individual lives and self-interests. Take a moment and recall to mind the uplifting experiences of brotherhood you have had at the Scottish Rite.

Let us remember, always, what is the purpose of Brotherhood...

"Talent may develop in solitude, but character is created in society. It is the fruit of fellowship. Genius may shine aloof and alone, like a star, but goodness is social, and it takes two men and God to make a Brother. We are tied together seeking that truth which none may learn for another, and none may learn alone. No one of us is strong enough not to need the companionship of good men and the consecrations of good ideas. Here lies, perhaps, the deepest meaning and value of Freemasonry. It is a fellowship of men seeking goodness, and to yield ourselves to its influences, to be drawn into its spirit and quest, is to be made better than ourselves."

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Poet – Novelist – Playwright – Natural Philosopher – and Mason
(1749 – 1832)

If you are not yet a Scottish Rite member, come join us in celebrating our universal Brotherhood of Masonry!

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Have you ever wondered what it would be like if in the Master Mason Degree you received the ‘real’ word, instead of the ‘substitute’ word of a Master? The “Ancien Rite de Bouillon”, an old English ritual purported to have been used by at least by two lodges in England around 1740, does just that! Only two manuscript copies are known to exist, however John T. Thorp reprinted the old ritual as #9 in his series of “Reproductions of Masonic Manuscripts, Books and Pamphlets” through the Lodge of Research #2496 in Leicester, in 1926.

Royal Arch Masons will notice that a heavy flavor of York Rite masonry is given throughout the third degree ritual as it represents an unusual version of the Master’s degree. In fact, Reverend George Oliver, a Masonic writer in the early nineteenth century, devoted 21 pages to this manuscript in his book “The Origin of the Royal Arch”. Although today, fault has been found with many of Dr. Oliver’s writings, this book is a very worthwhile read!

Why “Ancien Rite de Bouillon”? According to the ritual, Godfrey de Bouillon was the leader of the first crusade in the 11th century, was named King of Jerusalem, and made a discovery of the Epistle written by St. John at Ephesus. This is not the only reason the manuscript is so interesting. The ‘Rite’ represents the Masters degree in use before the separation of the Royal Arch.

Thorp’s reprint lists thirty points of interest differing from well-known English rituals. A partial list includes: “The frequent recital of passages of Scripture in Latin (Vulgate Version). Two Nos. are given to every Psalm quoted in the transcript, the higher Nos. in each case are according to the Vulgate, while the lower (in brackets), always used in the original MS., are according to the Septuagint (Greek Version)”.

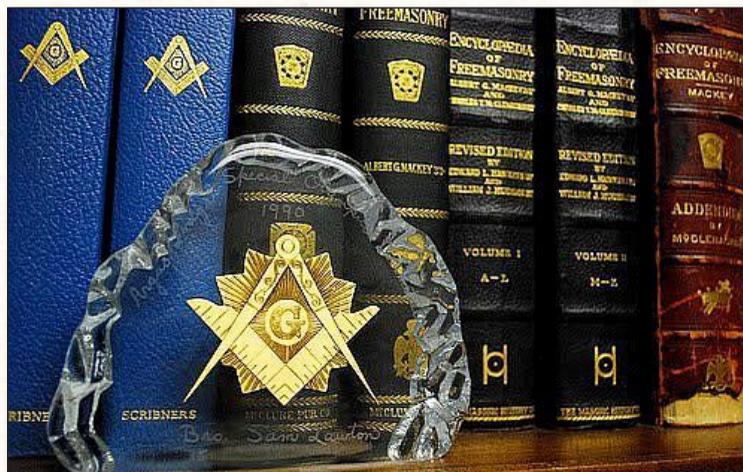

“Transposition of the First and Second Degree words. This was ordered about the year 1739, to prevent unqualified persons obtaining admission to the Lodges and was continued until the year 1809.”

“Geometric Masters. “According to the Laws and Regulations for the Royal Arch Degree as worked by the ‘Ancients’, a candidate had to be a Geometric Master Mason before he could receive the degree. (Ah. Rez, 1807, pp.110, 111.) The precise meaning of the term is uncertain, but it is probably the same as Speculative or Geomatic”.

Among other variances from English rituals are “the absence of the Sr. Warden from the Lodge, and subsequently of the Jr. Warden, a most unusual obligation, the search and discovery, two assassins, the medal and the figures engraved”. The phrase, “Alas! Poor Hiram” is used at the closing of the Lodge.

Dr. Oliver thought very highly of three degrees of the “Ancien Rite de Bouillon” as many do today. Others are more skeptical of the ritual. Certainly, in some areas it seems more advanced in Royal Arch Masonry than other early known Royal Arch rituals. Regardless, it is definitely unusual and most entertaining, to say the least.

As a side note; Ben Jonson’s Lodge #106 (later renumbered #94) was constituted in 1732 and was known to use the “Ancient Rite de Bouillon” ritual. They practiced Ancient Masonry every third meeting. It happened that on one of these nights, some Modern Masons attempted to visit but were refused admittance, whereby a complaint was issued to the Modern Grand Lodge, who ordered Ben Jonson’s Lodge to “admit all sorts of Masons without distinction”. Because of non-compliance, the Ben Jonson’s Lodge was censured and subsequently erased in 1755.

You can obtain a free copy of Thorp’s reprint, including notes, of this old ritual, “Ancien Rite de Bouillon” simply by emailing the Library. Please include your name, Lodge name and number. The first and second degrees are not included however enough excerpts of these two degrees are presented to illustrate the major differences of this ritual, from the standard English rituals. ----What do you think?

Your Masonic Library contains several books on old Masonic ritual. You can visit your MLMA – Covington and receive a free library card, any any Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm or for an appointment just email Bill Lorenz, Librarian: library.covsr@outlook.com

INQUIRING MINDS WANT TO KNOW

Have you ever wondered what the phrase “To pay the craft their wages if ought be due and to see that none go away dissatisfied” means? What about when one of our First Grand Masters was met by three dissatisfied Craftsmen? Didn't his replies seemed strange, as we hadn't heard of them before. Did not his answers cause you wonder what he was talking about?

My Brethren, we have all heard these peculiar phrases, questions and answers many times. But why do they say them and what do they mean? Have you ever received wages, or even seen the Senior Warden perform that part of his duty? Did not the Temple get completed? What did he mean that what they sought could only be given in the presence of others? Where did that come from, and why? Did not future generations ever find that which was “Lost”, and if so, why are we still only getting the substitute? And if our Grand Master thought the secrets of a Master Mason was important enough to sacrifice everything for, don't you think that he would have made some provision to preserve it for those worthy Brothers who would follow him?

My Brothers, these are natural questions, or at least they should be. But where do we look for the answers? The solution of course is by seeking further Light by “Continuing your York Rite Journey” by petitioning a Chapter of Capitular Masons, a Council of Cryptic Masons and a Commandery of Knights Templars. Yes my Brethren, by continuing your journey in the York Rite. That journey which you began when you knelt at the alter of Freemasonry the first time as an Entered Apprentice.

Do you want to understand the opening dialogue of the Senior Warden, and observe him performing his job and pay wages. Want to know how the Word was “Lost”. How and where was it preserved. When and how was it re-discovered, and by whom. Why it must be communicated in the presence of three.

But you ask, how can this be? I have never heard any of this before. Surely there must be some mistake. No my friends, there is no mistake. You have only to look no further than your very own Charter hanging within your Symbolic Lodge. IF it was issued prior to the 1970's, it should say something of about Ancient York Freemasonry.

Do you want more information on this journey that you should want to continue on? Well, there are about fifty, (50) Chapters of Royal Arch Masons, about forty, (40) Councils of Royal and Select Masters Masons and more than thirty, (30) Commanderies of Knights Templars spread throughout the state. There surely is one close by to where you live.

Be Knighted this year, (from September 2018 until September 2019) and receive a patent signed by the four presiding officers and a commemorative coin designating you as a part of Grand Master Gary C. Rose's class. Be knighted with our own Grand Master's sword.

You have questions? Well, we have answers. These rewards, and further knowledge await you. Petition the York Rite and Continue your York Rite Journey!
