My Brothers All, Well the District meetings for 2019 are just about finished, and I hope you were able to attend yours. My hat is off to all my District Deputies for a job well done, Thanks Brothers!

I hope all the brothers enjoyed the meetings and the exciting news about your new Grand Lodge Office, which I hope was well explained, if not brothers please don't hesitate to get a hold of me or any of the Grand Lodge Officers to answer your questions you may have.

Brothers, just as May has always been the month back home to plant the crops and to enjoy the start of the new green growing season , I hope we have planted good seeds with all the Brethren at our meetings to help make Free Masonry in Kentucky grow statewide.

But with that comes work, just as the garden starts to grow and the plants start to shoot up, so does the need to tend to them with loving care, helping them to grow strong, the same work needs to go into your lodges, please continue to do what you can to help with the growth of your Lodges, so all can enjoy the fruits of our labors.

As Memorial Day is observed this month, we need to stop and remember each of our loved ones, brothers, friends, and Veterans we have all lost. Honoring their memories as we continue to pray for their friends and families as they grieve for those loss in this their hour of need.

I want to personally "Thank all" who has worked so hard, donating there time and items to help us make sure "The Grand Master's Golf Scramble" will be a great success. This enables us to continue the support all the events that is sponsored by our Veterans Program, giving a little back to those who gave so much. WOW HOLDS PAPERS NIGHT

William O. Ware Lodge of Research will hold its second annual "Papers Night" on Wednesday, May 29, at the Scottish Rite Temple, 1553 Madison Avenue, Covington, KY. Dinner will be served at 6:15 pm with the meeting starting precisely at 7:30 pm. This is one of the Research Lodge's most popular programs and allows members to present their thoughts and ideas about Masonry, before a friendly audience. The many interesting topics encourage both research and discussion among the brethren.

The theme of the Research Lodge for the year is based on the three questions posed by their namesake, Most Worshipful William O. Ware, on his Installation as Grand Master, October 17, 1957. Your seven to ten minute presentation should reflect on one or more of the M.W. Ware's questions.

What is Freemasonry?

What Does Freemasonry Mean to Me?

What Do I mean to Freemasonry?

If you have a paper you would like to present, please notify Sr. Warden Tom Nitschke by email:
nitschke1020@yahoo.com.

For Dinner Reservations, email W.M. Dan Kemble at wkumason@gmail.com.

Dinner is $10.00. Coat and tie required.

All Master Masons are invited.

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

My Brothers, you may have heard, seen or read about the Knights Templar, but just who are they, and how does one become a member?

Well first things first. The Knights Templar were formed in the year 1118 as a crusading order mainly to engage in escorting pilgrims to the Holy Land. They became and remained immensely powerful until their sudden and dramatic official end in 1307-1314.

Our current Knights Templar are part of the Fraternity of Freemasons, the oldest and largest fraternal organization in the world. And while the Masonic Lodge and its degrees are fundamental and central to all of Freemasonry, many desire to enhance that experience by becoming a Knight Templar. Templars are part of the system known as the York Rite of Freemasonry. And membership is limited to those who profess a faith in Christianity and who are also members of a Masonic Lodge, a Capitular Chapter, a Cryptic Council and of course a Templar Commandery.

All members belong to a local Commandery, which is then governed by a Grand Commandery, which in turn is operated under the Grand Encampment of the United States of America. More than 20 countries boast membership in the Grand Encampment, which makes it truly a worldwide fraternal organization.

The lessons taught within the Commanderies are called Orders, or which there are three. The Order of the Red Cross, the Order of Malta and the Order of the Temple.

The Order of the Red Cross predates the era of the crusades. In this order the candidate represents Zerubbabel, whose wisdom in a friendly contest was rewarded by King Darius, and enabled Zerubbabel to return to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple which had been destroyed by King Nebuchadnezzar. The very temple which you symbolically worked on during the Legend of the Temple in the Master Mason Degree.

The Order of Malta relates the story of St. Paul's arrival on the island of Melita, (which is now known as Malta). In this Order, which is the first of the Christian Orders contained in the Chivalric system, is explained the periods of the Order's history, and the history of the Knights of St. John, (Knights of Malta) which are paralleled with the birth, life, death, resurrection and ascension of our Savior Jesus Christ.

And lastly the Order of the Temple, which many consider the most beautiful in the series. During this ceremony the candidate represents a knight of the era that succeeded the crusades and vowed to visit the Holy Sepulcher. After undergoing seven years of penance and trials, is at last made a knight and received into the Order in a most solemn and impressive manner.

My Brethren, every Mason needs, and should want the knowledge that is explained in the Chapter and Council Degrees. And every Christian Mason should seek membership in a Commandery of Knights Templar, and thus become a Masonic Knight of Christ.

SCOTTISH RITE CLUBS - VALLEY OF LOUISVILLE

Brethren, welcome to this Special Edition, celebrating all of the Scottish Rite Clubs in the Orient of Kentucky. These Clubs are a valued part and appreciated in their efforts to spread the word of Scottish Rite Freemasonry throughout Kentucky. They raise money for their Valleys Foundations and for charities in their Communities, as well as, procuring petitions for membership.

If you are a Scottish Rite Member and not a member of a SR Club in your area or if you are a Blue Lodge Mason and are interested in joining the Scottish Rite, "the University of Freemasonry", please contact the Scottish Rite Valley or Club in your area.

Fraternally and sincerely,

Terry L. Bowman, Deputy in Kentucky

Greetings Brothers, have you joined the Scottish Rite recently or have been a member for many years? Do you want to get active, but you live too far away to attend the meetings on a regular basis? How can you get involved besides just paying your dues?

Have you heard of the Scottish Rite clubs? The Louisville Scottish Rite currently has nine active clubs. I encourage you to find one in your area and to become involved in your Scottish Rite.

The Valley of Louisville recently had a visit from Wendy Waszut-Barrett, PhD. She is an expert on Scottish Rite stage backdrops. A convention for the stage organization to which she belongs was held in Louisville in March. She and several of her colleagues took the opportunity to visit our building to view and document our 45 backdrops. Some of them are over 100 years old. According to Dr. Waszut-Barrett some of them came from the original Scottish Rite building here in Louisville and were enlarged to fit the stage in our current building. It is our intent to have her return in the near future to give an educational talk concerning the backdrops.

We are also endeavoring to preserve the painted portraits of our former SGIGs of the Orient of Kentucky. A portrait conservator has taken on the task of cleaning two of our portraits and is currently working on a third. We invite you to have a look at this important work of preserving our history.

Finally, I want to thank all of the Brothers who were able to attend and participate in our Spring Reunion. We had four new Brothers become Masters of the Royal Secret. We welcome them to the Scottish Rite. We could not have the events we do without the participation of all the members of the Valley, and we hope to see you soon at any of our future events.

Fraternally,

David L. White, 33°, Personal Representative, Valley of Louisville

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

VALLEY OF LEXINGTON

Brethren,
In April, we observed Maundy Thursday in the Valley of Lexington. The Maundy Thursday ceremony was open to the "public"! In May we will observe the Consistory Feast at the stated meeting on May 16th. The annual country ham breakfast will be held May 4, 2019 at the Lexington Scottish Rite Consistory, we will serve from 7:00 – 11:00 AM and all net proceeds will go to the Rite Care Program. We will continue to have education at each stated meeting during 2019.

The summer Lexington Scottish Rite Reunion will be Saturday June 1st at the Lexington Scottish Rite Consistory. We will name this summer class in honor of Ill Forrest Dean, 33°. He was a charter member of the Lexington Scottish Rite and very active member of our great fraternity. Our goal is to have at least 30 candidates become Masters of the Royal Secret on this date. We need to get out and get those petitions and get them turned in.

The Knights of St. Andrew, Order of the Thistle, Valley of Lexington exists as an internal service organization on behalf of all members of their Valley. Under the direction of the Chapter Secretary the Knights assist with the Valley's educational, ritualistic, social, fundraising, and traditional programs. These activities may include serving as greeters or ushers for dignitaries and ladies, serving as guides, assisting the Degree Teams, and helping present the Colors. The Knights of St. Andrew may represent the Valley by participating in parades, attending civic activities and special events within the community.

MASTER CRAFTSMAN PROGRAM

Brother Tom Harper, 32°, received his Master Craftsman, Completion of Study Certificate from Ill. Deputy Terry Bowman 33° P.G.M. The presentation was made at the Valley of Louisville during a Louisville Lodge of Perfection meeting. Congratulations Brother Harper!

The Master Craftsman study group meets on the last Sunday of each month at 2:00 PM, at the Louisville Scottish Rite Temple, 200 E. Gray Street, Louisville, KY 40202. All Brothers are welcome to attend.

Their flexibility and enthusiasm make the Knights of St. Andrew one of the Valleys most active and desirable organizations. It is an excellent way to nurture and develop future leaders as they learn their organizational and leadership skills and gain a deeper admiration for our Order and Brethren who work in Freemasonry as a whole.

The principles of Freemasonry are Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. In Scottish Rite we are taught the great virtues of Knighthood which are: Humility, Patience, Self-Denial, Charity, Generosity, Clemency, Virtue, Truth and Honor. The Knights of St. Andrew live out these virtues through their duty and service to the Valley, their dedication to self-improvement and promotion of the principles and practices of Masonry and Scottish Rite. Membership is open to 32nd degree Masons who are in good standing at the Valley of Lexington Scottish Rite. Members who have received the Honor of Knight Commander Court of Honor are Knights Emeritus. There are no dues and a petitions are available from any Knight.

All Master Masons, are you ready, to become 32° Scottish Rite Masons? If so, we have an opportunity for you on June 1st. Contact the Lexington Scottish Rite Office at (859) 277-7856 and ask for Jim Butler or call me at (630) 842-8432 for petitions. Get your petitions turned in and let's get ready for a great summer reunion.

Members of the Valley of Lexington, please come and join us on the 3rd Thursday night of each month March – December at the Lexington Scottish Rite Consistory for our stated meetings. The meal is served at 6:30 PM, and the stated meetings start at 7:30 PM.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn't Know That.....”

“I will Strive to Live with Love and Care, Upon the Levl by the Square - 1507”. This phrase was found inscribed upon a corroded brass square, and underneath the foundation stone of an ancient bridge near Limerick Ireland. Today, these words have the same meaning to every Mason, as they did to that stone mason who placed it there, 512 years ago.

The well-known author and Freemason Rudyard Kipling while in living in India once wrote; “We met upon the level and parted upon the square, I was Jr. Deacon in my Mother Lodge out there.” His poem “The Mother Lodge” also noted that his Lodge in India, consisted of brethren of all walks of life and all Religions including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Sikh and Muslim brothers.

The Reverend Joseph Fort Newton author of many Masonic books, including his classic “The Builders” relates a story found in an old book in China, believed to be written 500 years before Christ, that a man should not do unto others what he would not have them do unto him; adding “This is called the principle of acting upon the square.” Today we read in the New Testament, basically the same “Golden Rule”.

As a Kentucky Mason, the first thing you saw upon entering a Lodge, on the altar was the Holy Bible, Square and Compasses, with the Master standing behind the altar wearing the jewel of his office, a square. All throughout the Masonic ceremonies, you were reminded of the beautiful lessons of the square. But Masonry is more than Ritual. It is a way of life! As one Brother relates, “every Mason is obligated to be on the square in his dealings with others, and that our thoughts, words and actions should be good, true and square”. May I sum it up with the words of an unknown poet written many years ago?

HERE SLEEPETH NOW A FELLOW
WHO WAS ALWAYS ON THE SQUARE

*It matters not whate'er your lot or what your task may be
One duty there remains for you, one duty stands for me.
Be you a doctor skilled and wise, or do your work for wage,
A laborer upon the street, an artist on the stage;
One glory still awaits you, one honor that is fair,
To have men say as you walk by, “That fellow's on the square.”*

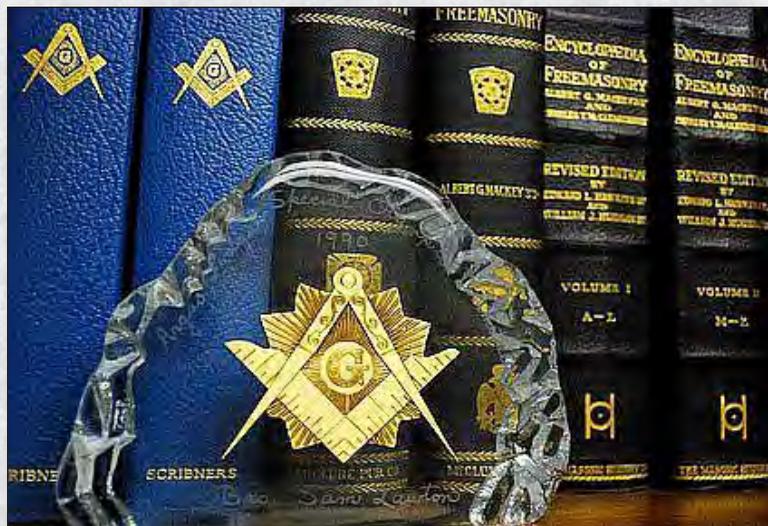

*Ah, here's a phrase that stands for much, t'is good old English too;
It means that men have confidence in everything you do
It means that what you have you've earned, and that you've done your best,
And when you go to sleep at night untroubled you may rest.
It means that conscience is your guide, and honor is your care;
There is no greater praise then this: “That fellow's on the square”.*

*And when I die I would not wish a lengthy epitaph;
I do not want a headstone large, carved with fulsome chaff.
Pick out no single deed of mine, if such a deed there be,
To 'grave upon my monument, for everyone to see.
Just one phrase for all I choose, to show my life was fair:
“Here sleepeth now a fellow who was always on the square”*
