GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

ERNEST C. JACKSON
Grand Master 2020-2021

Hello My Brothers,

I hope all is well as we are moving in the month of February. As I am researching the COVID-19 Virus, the number of cases is dropping, and the vaccine is being given across the state. Not only I have received the first vaccine and second vaccine for the COVID-19, other Grand Lodge Officers and Brothers have also.

The Lodges have completed their installation of Officers for this year. During the installation of the Master, he is presented a set of By-Laws of his Lodge and a copy of our Book of Constitution, which states that each subordinate Lodge shall adopt By-Laws for the government of its own affairs provided that the same are not inconsistent with the Constitution, rules and edicts of the Grand Lodge and shall furnish a copy to the Grand Secretary to be placed on file in the Grand Lodge Office. I would encourage each Master to keep abreast of their By-Laws and our Book of Constitution. Lodges continued to increase in attendance with all 3 degrees across the state. I want to brag, on the Brothers for keeping the Lodges safe throughout the pandemic. Please, continue keeping yourself and our Lodges safe Brothers.

I would like to thank the Education Committee on a job well done. The Committee put together exactly the program I had in mind, with the very fundamentals and basic teachings of Masonic education. Sometimes we overlook or forget to pass down the knowledge that we have learn throughout our Masonic life. If anyone has missed the Educational Conference, it is available for viewing on the Grand Lodge website, in the members only section. I encourage all Masons to log on, view it and take the quiz.

I hope everyone had a great Valentines Day! Brothers our Ladies are so important to keeping our Fraternity alive. Because we cannot keep it operating without them. Its one of the days of the year that we know they are our Sweethearts. But they are all year long. Thank you, Great Ladies of the members of the Masonic Lodges across this great state.

As I always leave you Brothers, please remember you are never, Above Nor Below But always on the Level!!

Fraternally Thine,
Ernest C. Jackson

Kentucky DeMolay holds Honors Night

On Saturday, November 21, 2020, Kentucky DeMolay held their Honors and Awards night. The event was held at the Louisville Marriott East. The honors and awards presented were: Advisor of the Year, Representative DeMolay, Legion of Honor, Cross of Honor and Chevalier.

Aaron Haycraft of Twin Lakes Chapter was presented the Advisor of the Year award for 2020-2021. Aaron is a Past DDGM and Past Master from Leitchfield Lodge. He works tirelessly for Twin Lakes Chapter cooking, transporting and bringing in new members for the chapter. We thank him for his continued support of DeMolay.

The Representative DeMolay Ceremony was conferred on Alex Hudson, Christian Green, Owen Jackson, Jeremiah Oliver and Elijah Dickson. The Representative DeMolay Award is the highest self-achievement award an Active and Senior DeMolay can earn. It's a self-assessment program where you progress towards goals you set for yourself. You complete a detailed survey of your interests, achievements, general knowledge and habits.

The Honorary Legion of Honor was conferred on Right Worshipful James Gibson, Deputy Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Kentucky, J. William Riggs, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky Knights Templar. Tim Vanderhoof, Past Grand Worthy Patron of Grand Chapter Order of Eastern Star. The Legion of Honor is the highest honor conferred by DeMolay International. It's conferred for outstanding leadership in some field of endeavor or for success in fraternal life, including adult service to DeMolay. We extend our thanks for their continuing to support of our Youth.

The Active Legion of Honor was presented posthumously to the family of Edward T. Earhart. Edward was stationed at the Pentagon and was killed in the terrorist attack on 9/11. His family was on hand to receive the Active Legion of Honor. Edward Earhart was a Past State Chaplain, a Representative DeMolay and the first Master Councilor of Cave Run Chapter in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The Cross of Honor was conferred on Adam Hunter of Twin Lakes Chapter and Anthony Holbrook of E. C. Nickles Chapter.

The Cross of Honor is a distinctive Honor that can only be given to a member of an advisory council. Both advisors have worked diligently for their chapters.

The degree of Chevalier was conferred on Keilen Frazier of Cherokee Chapter and Cayden Crank of E. C. Nickles chapter. The Degree of Chevalier is the highest honor that an active DeMolay can receive. The degree cannot be applied for, and the nominations are made without the knowledge of the DeMolay to be honored. The unanimous vote of DeMolay International at its regular Session is required to elect a nominee. Both young men have displayed the dedication needed to earn this honor.

We also welcomed two new members to our Fraternity. Brother's Sean Rivera and Sean Bauer both are the newest members of Lincoln Chapter.

Representatives from Masonic fraternal bodies and our youth groups attended this event. They were: Terry Bowman (PGM), Deputy to the Supreme Council for the Orient of KY Scottish Rite; Donald H. Yankey (PGM), Grand Secretary to the Grand Lodge of KY; Kassie Parish, Supreme Deputy, Order of Rainbow for Girls; Jeff Bryant, Active Member of DeMolay International in Kentucky; Jubal Arledge, Honorary Member of DeMolay International in Kentucky; Keilen Frazier, Deputy State Master Councilor; Raice Hunter, State Senior Councilor; Cayden Crank, State Junior Councilor; Joshua Ball, Past State Master Councilor; Patrick Elbert, Past State Master Councilor; Mason Bryant, Past State Master Councilor.

Our out of State guests included: Michael Burge, Executive Officer in West Virginia; Tom Fallis, Executive Officer in Indiana; Griffin Vermeulen, State Master Councilor of Indiana DeMolay; Eric Vermeulen, Deputy Member of DeMolay International in Indiana; Owen Vermeulen, Master Councilor of Speedway Chapter in Indiana; Jake Vermeulen, Membership Services Representative for DeMolay International. ## WILLIAM O. WARE LODGE OF RESEARCH

Book Review

The Age of Unreason: Dissecting the Infamy of the Morgan Affair and Its AftermathBy: W. B. John W. BizzackPast Master, Lexington Lodge No. 1 and William O. Ware Research Fellow

I thought I knew the story of William Morgan and his disappearance in 1826 from a town in upstate New York. But like any good story, the truth can be muddled with deception, personal gain, and the unwillingness to face the underlying cause of an issue. Brother John Bizzack was challenged with finding the truth behind the William Morgan Affair, but, in typical fashion by this author, he found so much more than the superficial facts of the story. The reader will be taken beyond the basic history of the incident. A historical dissection of the events that led up to the Morgan Affair, and its aftermath, which still haunts American Freemasonry, is examined.

The story began in early 1826, with William Morgan preparing to write an expose of the rituals of Freemasonry. It should be noted that exposes of Freemasonry had already been written, but, nevertheless, this was just going to be one more book that would “reveal all the secrets.” The Brothers of Batavia Lodge in New York, however, thought differently, and prior to Morgan’s abduction tried in multiple ways to sabotage the book so these “secrets” would not be revealed. On September 11, 1826, Morgan was arrested on nonpayment of a loan and theft and incarcerated at the Canandaigua Jail. By 9:00 p.m. that night, Morgan had been abducted from the jail by Freemasons and was never to be heard from again. In the end, no person was ever charged with the murder of Morgan, and the charges that were brought against persons involved carried little punitive weight.

It is almost impossible to relay all the literary components of this book for the reader to digest in a timely manner. I will attempt to break it down to three major areas that include anti-Freemasonry hysteria and the defense of Freemasonry, the fact that Freemasonry had nobody at its helm, and the consequences of the events.

Brother Bizzack details the stories of those who came to the defense of Freemasonry and those who very much would like to have seen its ultimate demise. In the midst of this back and forth, two men spent a lifetime proclaiming their version of the “true story” and end of William Morgan: Thurlow Weed and Rob Morris. Weed was the editor of the Rochester Daily Telegraph and a leader of the Anti-Masonic Party. Rob Morris was a nationally known Freemason and Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. Both men wrote extensively on the subject and authored many publications and books, each defined by their personal stance on Freemasonry. Each used uncorroborated information or testimony from a myriad of personalities that either proved the fact that the Freemasons killed Morgan shortly after his abduction, or that Morgan lived on in faraway places. It becomes very apparent that both men were not interested in the truth, but, rather, creating a narrative that best suited their intended target audience. Unless blindly taking their written word as fact, which most did, a simple verification of the facts would have easily shown that most of the claims could not be authenticated or could not have physically occurred due to time and place.

In the end, Morris and Tweed created a false sense of truth that galvanized their respective audiences and created myths and legends that can still be seen today. Even though the focus of this book is on the Morgan Affair, an underlying truth comes out as you read each page. The truth is that American Freemasonry lost its way shortly after being introduced into the colonies (and subsequently the newly created United States of America). Across the country, countless lodges were being created and were taking in new members at an alarming rate. New York, by 1825, counted over 400 lodges and 20,000 members. Any historian can tell you that America in that time was still isolated; and communication was rudimentary in its ability to inform the general public, let alone lodge members. As a result, Grand Lodges were unable, even in their best efforts, to ensure that lodges were conducting Freemasonry as it was intended to be practiced. This inability led to lodges acting on their own and creating what they thought Freemasonry was supposed to be, but unfortunately, they only created traditions that lacked the fundamentals of true Freemasonry. Adding to this calamity, the anti-Masonic era depleted what was left of the members that held much of the genuine Masonic knowledge. Both issues led to a lack of leadership and understanding of the true aim and purpose of Freemasonry. As stated before, no one was at the helm to guide the fraternity, and, as a result, it wandered in darkness trying to find its true self.

Finally, we are faced with the consequences of it all. After decades and centuries of both sides arguing, for and against Freemasonry, squabbling over the value and relevance of the fraternity to society, we can only conclude that everyone has their own opinion. As for American Freemasonry, we have a habit of shooting ourselves in the foot as Brother Bizzack is known to say in his speaking engagements and writings. Examples of this are found in the Baltimore Convention of 1843, where we put restrictions on the fraternity that haunt us to this day; and in our failure to realize that we have a lot of members, as Brother Bizzack states, who are more interested in the idea of Freemasonry, rather than becoming the kind of man that Freemasonry was designed to influence and produce.

American Freemasonry needs to, and should, take a hard look at itself. In my humble opinion, I really don’t think we would recognize ourselves. Through factually understanding where we came from and learning the lessons that history has given us, there is hope, however, that we will again know who we are and act appropriately to the betterment of society and to ourselves.

I highly encourage all that read this review to pick up a copy of Brother Bizzack’s book, The Age of Unreason: Dissecting the Infamy of the Morgan Affair and Its Aftermath. You will not be disappointed, and you will be very impressed with the amount of documentation he accumulated in it. This book will leave you looking for more, and, perhaps, taking a hard look at American Freemasonry and what we need to do to be relevant not only to society, but, more importantly, enhancing your personal journey of self-improvement.

Dear Brethren,
I sincerely hope and pray that you and yours are doing well, as we continue through this Pandemic. Please listen to the experts on ways to avoid the virus as we move forward. With the advent of new vaccines, hopefully the virus will be gone in the near future.

But will we ever get back to normal, that is going to take a while.

Our Consistories are up and running with in person and zoom meetings and the combination of both. Reunions are being planned to get us back in performing our beautiful Scottish Rite Degrees. This is where you my Brother can perform a great service for your Consistory by precurring petitions for candidates to become Masters of the Royal Secret. There are several opportunities in your Valley to become active and participate in our Labors and Privileges. To make new Masonic Fellowships that last a lifetime.

Please continue to stay safe and help our Widows and Senior Members as best we can. Take care and may God Bless!

Sincerely and fraternally,
