GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

ERNEST C. JACKSON
Grand Master 2020-2021

Hello Brothers,

As I am writing this article the District Meetings will be over by the time this article is being printed. Words cannot explain how PROUD I am of my District Deputy Grand Masters. I may be a little prejudice, but I feel I have had the best 30 Brothers this year as DDGM.

Brothers that came to the District Meetings in great numbers, it shows just how proud we are of our Lodges. It has been rewarding to me to see the Grand Lodge Officers and the District Deputy Grand Masters travel like no others at every District Meeting. I had at least 3 DDGM to 10 that I have counted, at District Meetings, and my Collar Officers also have traveled with us. This is so pleasing to me. I am overwhelmed with the Brotherly love, and support that each one has showed me as Grand Master this year.

Brothers, our Ladies are so impressive they have traveled and supported us to the District Meetings. In some meetings we could hear the Ladies talking and laughing sounded like they were having a great time. I want to Thank each one of you Ladies. My wife Jackie has been my biggest supporter. I cannot explain how much she has helped me this year as First Lady. I am genuinely happy to say Thank you, my Love for all you do. She is ready to go when it is District Meeting time. I know she will be bored when the District Meetings are finished.

The First Scholarship Award, at this time I can say; Zebulon #273 in District #28, will have a two-thousand-dollar scholarship to present to their Lodge. They had picked up The Traveling Level 7 times. Now that part of the Traveling Level is over as of May 5th, 2020/2021. Starting May 5th until Oct 1st, 2021, whoever picks up the Traveling Level will be presented a plaque at the Grand Lodge Communication in October 2021. The winner will be able to take this plaque back to their Lodge. Good luck Brothers!

This has been one of my favorite articles that I have written. I am PROUD of The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Freemasons. I have so much to say to everyone. How humbling it is to be able to be Grand Master and serve the Craft. I want to thank each one of you, my Brothers. May God continue to Bless us, our families, and Craft.

We are Not Above Nor Below,
but on the Level

Fraternally Thine,
Ernest C. Jackson

Dear Brethren,

If you haven't visited your Consistory in a while, I sincerely urge you to do so. Make plans now to attend your next meeting or Reunion. Your Consistory would appreciate your attendance. I encourage each Scottish Rite Mason to bring in at least one petition this year to help perpetuate our beloved Rite.

My prayers are with you and your Families to remain safe and healthy and continue to practice those valuable lessons we have learned in our beautiful and meaningful Degrees. May God Bless!

Valley of Madisonville

Brethren,

The Valley of Madisonville will have a Spring Reunion on June 19th, 2021. This will be a one-day Conferral. I am pleased to announce that all of our degree teams have been filled by our own members. The reunion will begin at 7AM with breakfast starting at 6AM.

The district meetings will be concluding soon. This is always a time of great fellowship. I will be focusing the Scottish Rite presentation in those districts that make up Western Kentucky. Due to time constraint, I will not be able to give a complete presentation, (it takes about 20 minutes) however for those interested I will visit lodges when invited by the master of the lodge.

Fraternally Submitted,

Douglas W. Bunch, 32° KCCH

Personal Representative, Valley of Madisonville

Valley of Covington

Greetings Brethren from the Valley of Covington.

Our Scottish Rite clubs continue to remain very active. There are eleven regional Scottish Rite clubs in the Valley of Covington (dispersed through northern, north-central, and eastern Kentucky). Generally, our club meetings are not tyled; if you are a Master Mason interested in a little more camaraderie and/or would like to check out the Scottish Rite in an informal and casual setting - take a look at the clubs on our web page: <https://covingtonscottishrite.org> for places and times meeting near you (might want to confirm by calling in advance). You will find yourself heartily welcomed by brethren, who like you enjoy each other's company, and will perhaps find opportunities to make a difference for the betterment of our own lives, as well as the lives of others.

Mark your calendars and keep in mind the Valley of Covington's First Annual Fundraising Gala to be held at the Delta Marriott in Ashland on October 2, 2021. We are honored to have as our Keynote Speaker: Illustrious James D. Cole, 33rd°, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, 33°, of the Southern Jurisdiction, USA. It should be noted, that Jim Cole is renowned as an excellent speaker (publicly speaking since the age of fifteen); you won't want to miss this black tie event which will also include live music, a plated dinner, and a silent auction. This gala was originated in the vision of our Junior Past Personal Representative, Illustrious Raymond A. Murphy, 33rd° and is largely being brought to fruition through the efforts of Michael J. Barnett, 32nd° KCCH. Also, and perhaps most importantly, this event is open to all Master Masons, whether from Kentucky or anywhere else from the four corners of the earth. Tickets are available from the Valley of Covington.

In the meantime, I wish you all the best in health and safety during these unique and somewhat turbulent times and look forward to seeing you soon.

Fraternally Thine,

Rob

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

Sir Hans Sloane (1660 – 1753) an Irish born, London resident, was a scientist, and noted physician. In his youth, Sloane’s London studies in Natural History became his passion for the collection of specimens of plants, animals, coins, old manuscripts, etc., which, after his death, would serve as the foundation for the British Museum and then the National History Museum. He served as President of the Royal College of Physicians and President of the Royal Society, the only person ever to do both.

In 1687, Sir Hans traveled to Jamaica, to serve as the Governor’s physician, with the opportunity to continue his cataloging of plants, fruits, animals, fish, insects, etc., which would also include his full size drawings. As a physician, he served the people of Jamaica regardless of their ability to pay, and observed the medicines made from plants used by the locals. One in particular was the use of the cocoa bean to make a dark, bitter drink. Sloane boiled the beans in a sugar and milk mixture to remove the bitterness and yes-you guessed it, invented milk chocolate!

Sloane amassed over 71,000 items and on his death in January 11, 1753, bequeathed for a very small sum for his heirs, his entire collection to the nation, and in the same year the British Museum was formed. Even today, both scientists and artists regularly consult his collections and drawings.

Sir Hans Sloane was not a Mason, however of the 71,000 items, three are Masonic manuscripts. The first, Sloane manuscript #3848 is a copy of the old Constitutions of Masonry dated October 16, 1646, by its transcriber, Edward Sankey. It is a very complete copy and interestingly, the date is the same of the initiation in the Lodge of Warrington, for Elias Ashmole, founder of the Ashmolean Museum. In Ashmole’s diary, he mentions that Richard Sankey (Edward’s father) attended Ashmole’s Masonic ceremony.

The second identified as Sloane Manuscript #3323 is also a copy of the old Constitutions, but in a somewhat less detailed and in an abbreviated form. It is dated 1659. Both of these two manuscripts utilize a Trinitarian prayer at its heading. This one is from MS 3848. “The might of the Father of Heaven, with the wisdom of the glorious Son; through the goodness of the Holy Ghost; yet being three persons in one God, etc. be with us at our beginning; and give us grace so to govern us in our lives; that we may come to His Life that never shall have ending.”

The third Sloane Manuscript #3329 (circa 1700 - 1710) is an undated description of the ritual and is of particular interest. It is unusual for several reasons. 1) Like other related masonic documents, it does not contain a long history of Geometry or Masonry; 2) “freemason” is shown as one word, instead of “free mason” or two words, for the first known time in an English document; 3) a full page list of unusual masonic recognition signs is explained; 4) the phrase “He that was taken up to the Pinnacle of the Holy temple” and the catechism on the letter “G” found in Pritchard’s 1730 exposure “Masonry Dissected” are similarly found in the Sloane manuscript; 6) another first, the blazing star is mentioned; and most importantly, 7) the manuscript details three distinct words and grips for the Entered Apprentice, Fellowcraft and Master Mason, as well as both “the mason word” used by all operative masons and “the master’s word” used by the speculative master mason, well before the Grand Lodge of England existed and well up to 25 years before 1725, the time estimated for the revision of ceremonies into three degrees. Please note that the signs, grips and words used in the Sloane manuscript, vary from previous masonic manuscripts as well as today’s ceremonies.

In the manuscript’s catechism, “What is a just and perfect or a just and Lawful Lodge?” is asked. The answer is “A just and perfect lodge is two Interprintices two fellow craft and two Masters more or fewer the more the merrier the fewer the Better Chear but if need require five will serve that is two Interprintices two fellow Crafte and one Master on the highest hill or Lowest Valley of the world without the crow of Cock or the bark of a Dogg”.

From the above, we learn that at least one or more lodges in the late 17th or very early 18th century recognized three distinct grades, each with separate grips and words. Was there a separate secret ceremony for each? We don’t know. We also learn although these catechisms are similar to several catechisms of the era, new things are introduced: the word “freemason”, the blazing star, and the speculative “master’s word”, and the three classes of brethren, together, attended lodge meetings. All this before the first Grand Lodge was formed in 1717!!

.....What do you think?

Copies of the Sloane manuscript #3329 are available, complete with notes, by simple request on the e-mail below. Group study times are also available at the Library upon request. You can visit your MLMA – Covington and receive a free library card, any Wednesday, 6:00 to 8:00 pm or for an appointment, just email Bill Lorenz, Librarian:

Knights Templar from across the state traveled to the Friendship Baptist Church in Cawood, Kentucky on a recent Wednesday evening to present Reverend Sean Adam Daniels with a very special gift – an expenses paid 11-day study pilgrimage to Israel, courtesy of the Knights Templar Holy Land Pilgrimage Committee. The trip, an intense educational and physically demanding experience, is intended to immerse the Pilgrim ministers in the land, the sights, the sounds, the history, and the cultures of the Holy Land, past and present.

Participants are selected without regard to denomination, sex or race from nominations submitted by local Commanderies of Knights Templar.

Reverend Daniels was recommended by the Knights of Duffield Commandery No. 42 in Harlan, and the presentation was made by their Commander, Sir Knight Jeremy Smith. The Kentucky program is funded by the membership of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Kentucky.
