GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

ERNEST C. JACKSON
Grand Master 2020-2021

Hello Brothers,

July is upon us District Meetings are over and our outdoor meetings will begin this month. July 4th is the day we celebrate our Independence Day. The Flag is a symbol of American freedom. Brothers we stand with our American Flag and kneel to Pray to God. As Mason's we are doing everything we can to Honor and support our Veterans. Our Veterans have kept us safe and free in this great Country we live in. I cannot say "Thank You" or do enough for our Veterans.

This month I had one of the most humbling pleasures as the Grand Master of Kentucky. I had the pleasure of presenting a 75-year member pin to a Brother that was 107 years young. This brother is a Veteran, Brother Chester Wilson member of Bufford Landmark #41. It was a great honor for me to meet Brother Chester and present him with the 75-year pin and hear his stories. These men and women that have sacrificed so much in their life. We need to let it be known how much that we appreciate and respect "Our Veterans Our Heroes" for they are truly American Heroes. (see photo below and on P.3)

I have visited a lot of Lodges over the last 8 months, I am still seeing increasing of Degree work from petitions being read, EA, FC, and Master Masons Degrees across the state of Kentucky.

Our Outdoor Meetings are now underway, which is a great time for all of us to load up the car full of Brothers and visit other lodges and fellowship with the brethren from the West to East, North and South traveling our great state of Kentucky. Enjoy each of our great heritages and what each of them have to offer while seeing old friends and making new ones. The meetings that all Brothers are looking forward to.

I know I look so forward to our outdoor meetings. In District 28 the second Saturday in September is the outdoor meeting for Floyd County KY, in addition we will be having The Mountain Jack Degree. This is in Honor of our Past Grand Master Jack Hodges, that wrote this degree. Thank you, Brother Jack Hodge, for writing The Mountain Jack Degree. Please come out and be with us!!!!!!

MAY GOD CONTINUE TO BLESS OUR FAMILIES, COUNTRY AND OUR FRATERNITY

We are Not Above
Nor Below, but on the Level

Fraternally Thine,
Ernest C. Jackson

Passionate People Inspiring Lives

Carefree Living Luncheon

Featuring Mitch Barnhart

Masonic Homes Kentucky is known for a legacy of aiding those in need. First, through medical care and housing to aging Masons and their families, and today through a network of the finest independent and assisted living communities in the region, including a continuum of care from assisted living to an inclusive day care and preschool program.

While Masonic is no longer limited to Masons and their families, it's stayed true to its roots through Masonicare, a charitable fund that provides care and housing for Master Masons and their wives or widows. Recipients of Masonicare are provided quality care and housing, as well as general living necessities like wheelchairs, glasses, transportation, meals, clothing and more.

Each year, Masonic incurs more than $4 million through Masonicare and other subsidized care. To offset this significant expense, Masonic created the Carefree Living campaign. While COVID required the delay of last year's luncheon, we are excited to offer it in 2021. The luncheon will feature keynote speaker Mitch Barnhart, University of Kentucky Athletic Director.

FROM THE COVER

Due to the circumstances this past year, the 221st Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky was held virtually. As Grand Master, I was unable to present the Awards as we have in the past. On May 8th, I was able to present one of those Awards.

The Daniel Boone Medal of Distinction is an award that is meant for those who have spent years of tiresome work behind the scenes of our beloved Fraternity working for its betterment, who may not have received his share of the rights, lights, and benefits of his Lodge or the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Kentucky. This award is designed solely to say thank you for a lifetime of achievement to the Craft that has largely been overlooked. The award must also be voted on by a majority of the Grand Lodge Officers and Grand Master.

This award goes to an individual whose attributes include: unselfish service, generosity, loyalty, and devotion to the Masons of Kentucky.

The recipient of this award is James Sherman Sidebottom.

Having been selected, you have earned our highest regard and gratitude. Thank you for all that you have done for the Masons

THE CRAFT AT WORK

Neel Lodge #833

presented 4 bicycles to 4 perfect attendance winners, as chosen by administrators, at Plano Elementary School. The lodge was represented by; Master John Hildreth, Secretary Jason Holcomb, Senior Decon James David Holcomb, Tiler Scotty Honeywell and Chaplain Dickie Sadler. The fourth not shown was a virtual student and had already picked up their bicycle.

O.D. Henderson Lodge #437

continues to provide bicycles to West Irvine Intermediate to promote education. In the past several years, the lodge has donated bicycles to promote student attendance. This year being obviously a “little different”, the masonic lodge asked the school representatives to draw from a pool of students who had given a good faith effort towards academic achievement, attendance, and behavior. Thank you to the individual lodge members and Meade’s Do-It Center for donating bicycles.

Woodford County Masons

Despite the entire year being under Covid restrictions, Woodford County Masons from Buford-Landmark 41 were able to support the perfect attendance award within the community by presenting 10 bicycles to students in 4 Elementary & 1 Middle School. Pictured receiving bicycles are Natilie Curry, Simmons Elementary; Willian Carpenter, Simmons Elementary; Emery Russell, Southside Elementary; Leo Sanchez Melendez, Southside Elementary.

Krypton Lodge #905

At a stated meeting in April, Brother Cameron Young was presented his Certificate of Proficiency and card by Master Jordan Combs. The following Brothers of Krypton Lodge #905 were presented their certificates for completing the Constitutional Quiz. (from L-R), Secretary Robert Williams, Master Jordan Combs, Sr. Warden Leslie Combs and Sr. Deacon Ira Napier.

Wonderful job Kryptonians!

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Dear Brethren,

By the time you read this article in hard copy, we have already celebrated the 4th of July. I sincerely hope you and your family have had a nice barbeque and maybe even some fireworks. But did we think of our brethren or their widows who are either shut-ins or residing in a senior community. All of us need to visit or call the ones we know of and lift them up in Prayer.

The Scottish Rite in the Orient of Kentucky is off to a good start and all Consistories are busy planning meetings and Reunions. The Leadership Staff of your Consistory are working hard to be good Stewards of their membership. They are there to assist you with any information you may need to make your Scottish Rite experience an enjoyable one.

If you are a member who lives a good distance from your Consistory, please join one of the Scottish Rite Clubs that may be in your area. This is a good way to stay connected to the Scottish Rite and possibly help with projects to aid your local community.

As you know, we can ask our Master Mason Brethren to join our Scottish Rite, the University of Freemasonry. If you need information or petitions, please contact your Scottish Rite Office.

I want to thank all of you for your continued support of the Rite and the Foundations that assist children with their speech impediments. Take care and may God Bless !

Sincerely and fraternally,

Terry

Behold How Good And Pleasant It Is For Brethren To Dwell Together In Unity

This passage of scripture, familiar to Freemasons everywhere, is so poignant and meaningful at this time. The year that was 2020 taught so many lessons and tested so many limits for many of us. For me personally, one of the greatest lessons learned was what a true benefit I receive from simply attending a Stated Communication and having the opportunity to share Masonic Fellowship with my friends and brethren. Through the progression of the Masonic Degrees we are taught of the wages of a Master Mason, the greatest being the privilege of traveling and having Masonic Communication and Fellowship with our brethren. Those who are traveling and visiting Lodges and other Masonic bodies have all—with smiles on their faces—talked of the activity of the bodies that they have visited, the enthusiasm of the members and the petitions being received and acted upon.

We are taught that the higher we ascend in Masonry the higher our responsibilities grown along with our privileges. As Masons, we reminded to be ever vigilant and cognizant of the needs of our Brethren and to the communities in which we reside. To that end, the Valley of Lexington has unanimously decided that we are going to start streaming the business portion of our monthly Lodge of Perfection Meetings. All ritual portions of the opening and closing ceremonies will be omitted from the live stream in conformity with our obligations. The members and the officers hope that by streaming our Stated Meetings those members who live a great distance away from the valley office, those members who have moved and reside in other areas, members who are infirm, and those members who have not attended in some time will have opportunity to participate and enjoy the meeting along with those present.

Indeed, it is good and pleasant for brethren to dwell together in unity. Should I be of assistance in any way, please do not hesitate to contact me at the Valley of Lexington office.

Fraternally,
Carl W. Gibson, 32°

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, SJ, to improve its members and enhance the communities in which they live by teaching and emulating the principles of Brotherly Love, Tolerance, Charity, and Truth, while actively embracing high social, moral, and spiritual values, including fellowship, compassion, and dedication to God, family, and country.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Valley of Louisville

Greetings My Brothers All,

It is wonderful to see things starting to get back to normal, with the many Masons attending their Lodges and Consistories. The Illustrious George Guthrie Ahart 33rd Spring Reunion Class concluded on June 12th. Congratulations to our newest members. A big thank you to all that had a part in making this reunion class a success.

As we continue to move forward, I would encourage you to attend our meetings and take part in our great fraternity. Every Mason has different interests, some whose passion is the ritual, others may prefer helping in the kitchen, robing room, or singing in the choir. Some may want to help with reception, registration or be a part of the stage crew. There is something for everyone. We can all contribute in some way to make our fraternity continue to grow and prosper.

We are in the process of setting up a reunion class for August 28, 2021, at the Valley of Louisville Consistory. If you know of someone who is interested in expanding their knowledge in Freemasonry, please let them know of this upcoming reunion.

Our Fraternity is fortunate to have several Scottish Rite Clubs across the state who actively support Scottish Rite Freemasonry.

They raise funds and donate their time to promote programs that will benefit their communities, giving back through charity and service.

On Saturday, June 5th, the Albert Pike Scottish Rite Club held a country ham breakfast to raise funds in support of local charities. For this event, the club decided to donate all of their proceeds to the local Blessings in a Backpack, which is an organization that ensures needy children have enough food for the weekends and throughout the summer.

This is the first event for the club since its restructuring. The Brothers enjoyed the day, and had a good turnout, which enabled them to make a nice donation to this organization. The club intends to make this a yearly event, with a possible second event annually to help our local communities.

It is important to make the world a better place for all, as Masons continue to make a difference. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Fraternally thine,

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

In recent years, schools, public buildings, public squares, etc., named for Confederate soldiers, have met with much opposition. Response to this issue has also resulted in the removal of many monuments. Even Brother Albert Pike’s statue was removed from Washington D.C. for being a Confederate General, although his monument was placed there for his service to Freemasonry. It was Pike who at one time wrote, “Slavery is a disease, whose shadow lies upon America’s threshold, originating in the avarice and cruelty of the slave trade. I know it as an evil. Commercial greed values the life of men no more than it values the lives of ants.”

This year (February, 2021), Congress mandated the “Confederate Base Naming Commission” under the direction of Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin and the House and Senate Armed Forces Committee. Their chief responsibility is to strip the names from ten U.S. Army bases in the South, named for Civil War Confederates. On May 21, 2021, retired Admiral Michelle Howard, Chairman, announced the Commission intended to visit the ten bases, and possibly extend the renaming beyond the bases. Their report is due in October.

Oddly, out of the 80 active Army bases, only three are named for veterans of the American Revolution. Kentucky has Fort Knox. Henry Knox (1750 – 1806) was a military officer in both the Continental Army and the United States Army. He was an expert on artillery, important to the success of the war for independence and a friend of General George Washington. Washington later appointed him the first United States Secretary of War. The other two so honored are Alexander Hamilton (New York) and Daniel Stewart (Georgia). All three Revolutionary War heroes were Freemasons.

Ft. Jackson was named for our brother and Past Grand Master of Tennessee, Andrew Jackson after he became President. However as a youth, he did see Revolutionary War action. Ft. Monmouth (now closed) was named in memory of those soldiers who had fallen at the Battle of Monmouth in 1778. Most of the other bases were named for Civil War veterans, and some from the Mexican-American and the Indian wars.

Craig Bruce Smith, an assistant professor of military history at the School of Advanced Military Studies at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas) and author of “American Honor: The Creation of the Nation’s Ideals during the Revolutionary Era” believes that a woman named Deborah Sampson and a black man named Prince Hall (yes, the Mason) both active in the Revolutionary War, would be good choices to naming a military fort.

Smith states that Sampson “disguised herself as man, volunteered for the army, and proved herself in combat. Seeing action as a member of the elite light infantry, she was only discovered after being wounded in battle. Sampson’s heroism earned her an honorable discharge conveyed by a General Henry Knox at West Point in 1783. Her biography The Female Review was among the earliest ever written on an American woman. With female soldiers only being allowed to officially fight on the frontlines as of 2015, a Fort Sampson would offer a beacon to women in the current U.S. Army that their gender has been on duty since the beginning.”

Prince Hall’s early life is uncertain. There were many men of the same name. In fact six different Prince Hall’s appear in the military records of the Revolutionary War. However Prince Hall of Boston, a freed man, joined the Continental Army about a month after the Boston Massacre. He is believed to have fought in the Battle of Bunker Hill. Records show he crafted five leather drumheads for the Continental Army.

Prince Hall was initiated into Masonry March 6, 1775, along with fourteen others by a British military lodge, and when the regiment left the area, Hall began African Lodge # 1. It was later chartered by the Grand Lodge of England as African Lodge #459. As the first black lodge in the United States, it would afterward serve as the bases for all Prince Hall Lodges.

Hall’s status as a Master of African Lodge and active churchman, allowed him some respect in the Boston Community. Hall was able to lobby for schools for black children. When rejected, he opened a school in his home. He petitioned the Massachusetts state legislature requesting the ending of slavery, using phrases of the Founding Fathers such as “unalienable rights” and “all men are created equal” but to no avail.

The kidnapping of three free black men in February, 1778, by a sea captain who falsely offered them work, led to Hall and his African Lodge brothers to petition against the slave trade. Both the white and black populous were outraged by the attack on their citizens and by March, the Massachusetts legislature passed an act prohibiting the slave trade within the state’s borders. Freeman and Governor John Hancock was able to put pressure in the right places for the victims return in July. Upon their return, African Lodge celebrated.

Prince Hall passed away December 4, 1807. He had missed the formal ending of the slave trade January 1, 1808, by two months. A year after his death, his Lodge honored him by renaming the lodge, Prince Hall Grand Lodge. He had advocated the black community to be quiet and peaceable citizens and wait patiently for the day freedom would come. It is believed by many that Martin Luther King adopted some of Prince Hall’s writings and practices.

Prince Hall had fought for the abolition of slavery almost 100 years before Frederick Douglass. Prince Hall was a soldier, a teacher, churchman, an abolitionist, and leader in his community. He had founded Black Freemasonry. Maybe it is time he his remembered for the great man he was. What do you think?

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

“Our Brother”

God knew he was getting tired.
 As he laid his working tools down,
 For a cure was not to be.
 So He put His arms around him,
 And whispered, “Come unto Me.”
 With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
 As he worked from day to day.
 Although we loved him dearly,
 We could not make him stay.
 A Golden Heart stopped beating,
 Hard working hands to rest.
 God broke our hearts to prove to us,
 He only takes the Best.
