GRAND MASTER'S MESSAGE

E. DARREN WILSON
Grand Master 2022-2023

The month of March brings with it new opportunities and new beginnings. The onset of Spring and growing daylight will inspire many to start planning and preparing their gardens in hope of a bountiful crop of fresh fruits and vegetables which we will enjoy.

The themes of Renewal, Preparation, Seedtime, and Harvest certainly apply to our Lodges as well; many are starting to think about their outdoor meetings and projects to repair and enhance the appearance of our lodges. A specific outdoor project, I consider of great importance, is addressing and improving the lighting and signage on and around our lodge buildings.

Signage is important because it helps us identify and locate lodges when traveling and visiting. I have often said that if I have trouble finding a lodge, the community may not even know that it's there. Clear, maintained, and visible signage lets the community know we are among them, we want them to know we are there, and as a part of that community we care enough to preserve the beauty of our shared surroundings.

We should also remember that the exterior of our buildings and condition of our properties is not only a reflection on your community but more broadly of our fraternity. It is often said that "we never get a second chance to make a first impression." What kind of first impression does your lodge property make? Is that first impression more likely to be a deterrent or an attraction? Perhaps it would be a good idea to ask a friend or other neutral person to drive by your lodge and share with you, their thoughts. "Are our buildings easily identifiable? Are our buildings and property clean, well-lit, and inviting? I encourage all to give these ideas thoughtful consideration.

Your Grand Lodge officers and I have recently traveled to the North American Conference of Grand Masters, held in Arlington Virginia the last week of February. The conference was a time to learn from other Grand Jurisdictions, share ideas, attend education seminars, and encourage fraternal visitation. This year's conference coincided with the 100-year anniversary of the cornerstone laying of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. A Centennial Cornerstone Ceremony took place during which the Grand Master of Virginia officiated a rededication ceremony of the original cornerstone laying. All attending Grand Masters participated in the ceremony. I am very proud to have represented you, and our Commonwealth, at this historic event!

Your District Deputy Grand Master is working hard to finalize his preparations for his meeting, the high point of his year. Your Grand Lodge officers look forward to our attendance and participation in the District Meetings and the opportunity to see the newly installed Masters and officers that will proudly represent their lodge.

As always, "We are our Brother's Keeper" and remember our active-duty military and first responders in your thoughts and prayers.

Fraternally Thine,
E. Darren Wilson

Passionate People Inspiring Lives

Programs Designed for Masons to Support Other Masons and Their Spouses

BADGE OF A MASON

Masonic lodges played an important role in Masonic's development. To honor this legacy, Masonic created the Badge of a Mason. Funds raised go to support Masons and widows that need assistance while residing at Masonic.

A special apron is designed annually for each level of giving. Participating lodges are honored and recognized at the Grand Communication John E. Moyers Master Mason Dinner with a crafted shadow box featuring the apron. Bronze - $1,500, Silver - $3,000, Gold - $5,000 and Platinum - $10,000.

FRIENDS OF MASONIC (FM)

Friends of Masonic (FM) is a giving program, offering support and assistance to Brothers, their wives and widows on Masonicare, while living at Masonic. FM is an opportunity for individuals to participate in the Badge of a Mason program. Set up as a monthly donation, funds are calculated by lodge affiliation and when all contributions equal a designated giving level, the lodge will be recognized as a Badge of a Mason.

ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE - ORIENT OF KENTUCKY

Brethren,

Are you aware of the tremendous work the Foundation of your Consistory is doing for children with non-operable speech issues. These Brethren who volunteer their time and efforts to direct funds to the Speech Pathology Centers that work with the children is to be commended. The money you donate to your Foundation goes a long way to prepare these kids for school. Can you imagine a three-year-old child saying Mom or Dad for the first time? Brothers, please do what you can in supporting your Scottish Rite Foundation.

Your Consistory could use your assistance in precuring petitions for this year. All we have to do is ask a Blue Lodge Member to join! Share your Scottish Rite experience with a brother so he may witness or have communicated 29 historical Degrees. Remind him of the excellent Scottish Rite Clubs dispersed around our Orient who support charitable programs in their area.

Brother, if your Masonic enthusiasm has waned, please rethink why you joined the Fraternity. Did to you know that if you are suspended for non-payment of dues, your widow is not entitled to reside at our Masonic Home? What amount of insurance could bring about that peace of mind?

God Bless you, your Family, our Great Nation and our Honorable Fraternity.

Terry L. Bowman, PGM, 33°
SGIG, Orient of Kentucky

UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL

Greetings Brothers,

When I wrote last month's article, I had no idea that West Kentucky Consistory was working in concert with the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master's vision to get back to basics with the Education Committee. We were honored to be chosen by the Grand Master as a host venue for the virtual education broadcast. Unity is a GREAT thing, brothers.

I can't wait for the district meetings to get started so I can see what we can do to strengthen our lodges.

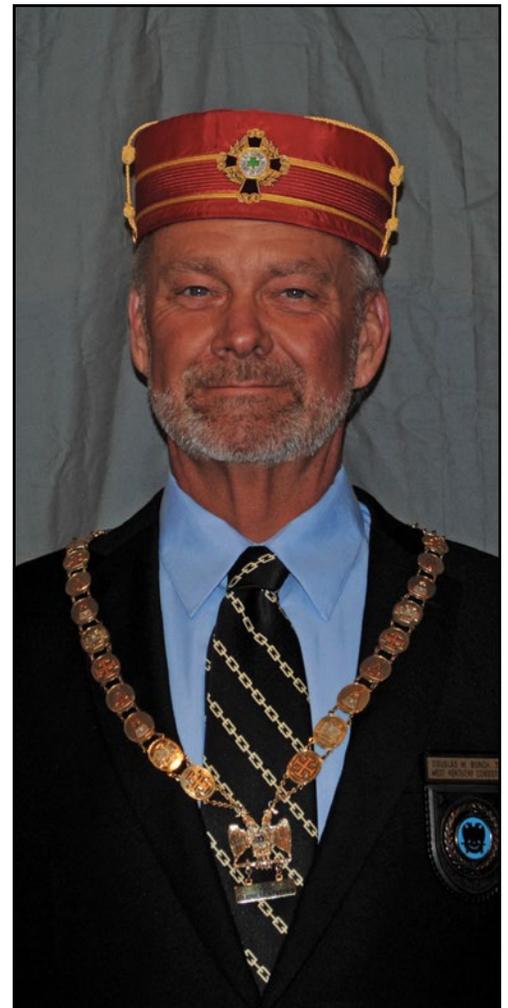

Please remember our Spring Reunion is Saturday, April 1st.

I am glad to report West Kentucky Consistory in conjunction with the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Veteran's Committee will host an Appreciation Dinner in Honor of our Veterans on Saturday, June 17th. Major General Jerry D. Humble, USMC (Ret) will be our guest speaker at this event.

We have many exciting events happening this year in Freemasonry. I will be visiting the clubs soon, bringing glasses to those present.

May GOD Bless You as we reach toward the future together.

MASONIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM ASSOCIATION
COVINGTON SCOTTISH RITE

“I Didn’t Know That.....”

It is uncommon to find a book review in the Masonic Home Journal, but this book is both extremely interesting, and timely. This excellent book review is written by my friend and Brother, Keith Gunkel, a Past Master of Orion Lodge in Falmouth, Kentucky. I am certain you will enjoy his remarks as much as I do.

PRACTICAL FREEMASONRY

By Matt Gallagher

Reviewed by: Keith W. Gunkel, Past Master, Orion Lodge No. 222

I have to say that reading Matt Gallagher’s Practical Freemasonry opened my eyes to the symbols of Freemasonry. Symbols that I have taken for granted over my 11-year experience in being a Free and Accepted Mason.

I have a better appreciation for the tools and implements of the craft and their use, as each are highlighted to the degrees. This book would be enjoyable for the Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason.

As Matt Gallagher described his experience with his travels, it was, for me, like looking in a mirror. I felt like I had followed in his footsteps. Going to lodge month after month, seeking answers to my personal questions only to return home or reflecting back during the drive home and wondering what just happened in the hour to hour and a half meeting that would answer my questions – questions as to why we do what we do in ritual and degree work to make a man better.

The author describes the three levels of understanding as Axiomatic, the Practical, and the Esoteric, and how they are used and how they differ. He illustrates them in a simple manner and uses perfect examples to form a better understanding.

Practical Freemasonry is about practicing Freemasonry, but if you don’t have the knowledge of the tools and symbols and how to use them, it’s all for naught. We need to find out what the meanings of our symbols are, so that we can better ourselves and shine brightly.

The twenty pages dedicated to the 24” gauge are loaded with useful information that should be followed by all Masons and taught to every Entered Apprentice, carefully.

Next is the Common Gavel and its uses, made known to us in a contemporary time. Gallagher explains how to use the gavel, not only on ourselves, but also on other brothers to shape us as living stones and also our lodge as a Temple.

We move on to the section of the Fellowcraft and the three tools assigned to this degree. These tools are not used to measure or chip away. These are building tools – designing tools. The square measures right and wrong. The author gives great examples comparing universal morality, relative morality and their meaning.

Brother Gallagher gives simple and clear examples of how to define a man of moral character in the ways needed. The plumb is described as man’s narrative path through life, and the three stages we each Travel as a child, adult and aged man approaching the end of our travels. Included is the wonderful exercise in self betterment that we can use weekly for a month or year to report to ourselves our progress. Maybe our family and friends or co-workers will notice.

The section on the level gave me some interesting new insight. Not only about time (I was aware of that), but that we are all equal in one aspect – the inevitability of death!

Part three of Practical Freemasonry discusses the Master’s tools and what a true Master Mason is and seeks to be come. We are building the walls to make a Temple, not to separate, but to unite and strengthen to hold together. In today’s times there are so many different Masonic Lodges. There are ones that have a regular business meeting, research lodges, and lodges for ritual. Brothers, our Craft is in dire need of reflection on who we are, why we do the things we do in degree work and how to be a positive leader in Lodge. To apply the mortar of brotherhood, set clear goals, lead from the front, be decisive and show positive behavior so fellow brothers will want to be at Lodge.

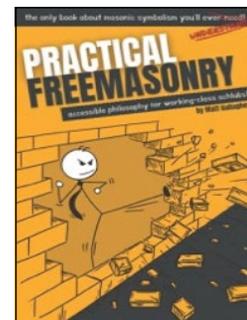

I will quote Brother Gallagher in his own definition, “Freemasonry is merely a philosophy of morality, ethics, and living. Wisdom and philosophy is in the doing and not the knowing.” Please keep searching.

Published in 2021, Practical Freemasonry is available through online booksellers.

Congratulations Brother Keith on a very fine review of an excellent book suitable for all Masons! Well done!!

.....What do you think?

Published in 2021, Practical Freemasonry is available through online booksellers as well the Masonic Library at Covington Scottish Rite. A day to show honor and respect to our Vietnam Veterans.

March 5, 2022
Seabee Birthday

The difficult we do now ....
The Impossible takes a little longer.

March is Month of the Military Caregiver

During the Month Americans should recognize and honor military caregivers' sacrifices and successes. Learn more...
